

ROSEBURG REVIEW

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1885.

VARIETIES.

A half-educated man is as dangerous as a half broken horse.

Geology gives us a key to the patience of God.—Holland.

The will of God is God; and to love one without the other is impossible.

If it was not for the comfort we find in complaining, life would almost be unendurable.

The man who studies vice to avoid it is like him who takes poison to see how it tastes.

A skillful captain may indeed be conquered, but it is not permitted him to be surprised.—Louis de Bourbon.

Some one once asked Victor Hugo if it was not very hard to write poetry. "It is either very easy or it is impossible," was the reply.

City elections should be held every six months. It takes about that much time for a reform council to become corrupt.—N. O. Picayune.

Justice consists in doing no injury to men; decency, in giving no offence.

Never defend an error because you once thought it truth.—Franklin.

The best zeal, the most genuine enthusiasm, uses the steam to drive the machinery instead of spending it all on the whistle.—National Baptist.

A man never jumps as far as he can but once. I have made mine; the world has measured it, and given me credit, in feet and inches.—Thanks.—Josh Billins.

The mule has one more leg than a milking-stool, and he can stand on one and wave the other three around in as many different directions.—Chicago Sun.

Ugliness of the right sort is a kind of beauty. It has some of the best qualities of beauty—it attracts observation and fixes the memory.—Jean Engelow.

While medical students are being harshly condemned for robbing graves, it is forgotten that the students intend to fill them up again when they get into practice.

In order to enjoy the present it is necessary to be intent on the present. To be doing one thing and thinking of another is a very unsatisfactory mode of spending life.

The courts have established the fact that poor men have sounder minds than rich people; least-wise no poor man has ever been acquitted of murder on the plea of insanity.

It takes four things to be a gentleman: You must be a gentleman in principles, a gentleman in your tastes, a gentleman in your manners, and a gentleman in your person.

A fine lady is a squirrel-headed thing, with small airs and small notions; about as applicable to the business of life, as a pair of tweezers to the clearing of a forest.—George Eliot.

Praise in the beginning is agreeable enough, and we receive it as a favor; but when it comes in great quantities, we regard it only as a debt, which nothing but merit could extort.—Goldsmith.

Talk about subjects you have had long in your mind, and listen to what others say about subjects you have studied but recently. Knowledge and timber shouldn't be used till they are seasoned.

Sweet Sixteen—In answer to your query, "How can I make my hands beautiful? Soak them in dish-water three times a day. Beautiful hands are those that do work that is honest, noble and true.

How many Southern men have, since the war, made money and saved it by speculation? Mighty few; thousands have lost, and the money squandered, mounts up into the hundreds of millions.—Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.

The truest lives are those that are out of diamond fashion, with many facets answering to the many planned aspects of the world about them.... Society is always trying in some way or other to grind us down to a single flat surface.

A friend, trying to entrap him, asked, "Judge, what was the precise weight of that big fish you caught?" Judge Saunders (to colored waiter): "I say, Bob, what did I say yesterday that cat-fish weighed?" "What time yesterday, boss—in do mawning, at dinner-time, or after supper?"

I do not think I ever so badly smitten on my youthful days—as behold this was before I came here—and behold this array of loveliness—as when I ran up on a certain little Miss, with her sleeves rolled up, kneading dough. Talk about beautiful arms! The like were never seen in parlor or ball-room! And as to the biscuits; they were fit for kings and princes! I have mentioned this bit of personal history in confidence—not to have you keep a tray of dough on hand to which to run whenever you see a young man coming—but to assure you that nothing will recommend you more highly to the sterner sex than an education which includes the making of good bread, as well as a knowledge of music.—Rev. W. D. Kirland's Baccalaureate Address, Williamston College, South Carolina.

STATE NEWS.

The grass is growing in Jackson county and the stock are doing well.

This is a good year for scrubs. Hurrah for the "scrub" newspapers.

The "stupid," the "rag-tag" members of the Oregon legislature, hereby tender their compliments to Harvey W. Scott, of the Oregonian.—Statesman.

Chas. Hughes, County Clerk, went to Salem last week to attend the session of the third house. He makes an efficient member of that honorable body.

The crew of men at work at Cape Blanco were discharged Saturday. Capt. Littlefield, who has charge of the work, leaves for Portland, via Roseburg, to-day.

J. D. Garfield had a snowflake potato on exhibition at his store Saturday last, which is said to have weighed 14 pounds. It was raised on his farm on Ictimus sloop.—Coos Bay News.

A four-footed bird is found on the island of Marajoa at the mouth of the Amazon. In time, one pair of legs are changed into wings by as singular a process as that which makes the tad-pole a frog.

A squash 8½ inches in circumference and weighing 173 pounds is on exhibition at Brooklin, Iowa. A farmer near Tolono, Illinois, found on one vine six pumpkins with a combined weight of 512 pounds.

Referring to the state fair races the Willamette Farmer asserts that the races were a fizzle and a swindle, every principal race being a fraud, "thrown off" in order to fill the gamblers' pockets and fleece the country gudgeons.

Hon. Binger Hermann, Oregon's congressman has visited every nook and corner of the state of Oregon. While here informed us that he had traveled over Josephine county and carefully studied the wants of the people. He will undoubtedly do Oregon justice.—Argus.

Our esteemed friend and townsman, Clark Miller, left this morning on a visit to Portland and the interior of the state generally. Any kindness shown him will be fully appreciated by the Herald, for which he is authorized to transact any and all business.—Coquille City Herald.

Under the head, "Don't steal another's thunder," the Statesman goes after the Roseburg Review for giving an item from that paper without giving the proper credit. In the same issue the Statesman gives an article from the Herald verbatim, without any credit. Brothers don't find fault; we all do it.

John A. Logan said prior to the late elections that his speeches would be all republican speeches. This is very gratifying to the republicans, as a number of the party organs in New York attribute their defeat to some of Logan's speeches, and they might be lead to believe that John was working in the interest of the Democracy, if it wasn't for the above statement.—Coos Bay News.

The democrats will have cause to give thanks November 26th. Their turkey has been exceedingly thin for the past twenty years, but now it is the republicans turn to go without the usual cranberry sauce for their thanksgiving dinner and eat a very sick looking turkey besides. In fact the republicans are engaged just at present in the laborious task of cutting bait while the democrats are catching the fish.

Mr. Wallis Nash, Vice-President of the Oregon Pacific R. R., was in the city Tuesday. From him we learned that the Yaquina got a good start Tuesday Morning from the Bay with a good load. It will return probably by Monday. Merchants in the valley are beginning to learn how much cheaper freight is by this route. One prominent Salem merchant reports a saving of a third on a large shipment of goods from San Francisco. An Albany firm are looking for ten tons of merchandise at greatly reduced freight by this route, and no doubt the spirit will spread until considerable of the valley freight comes over the Oregon Pacific line.—Albany Dem.

Lieut. Fred Schwatka, of Oregon, in an article recently published, explodes this idea. He shows that the route could be open but a few weeks in each year. For seven or eight months the ice is a solid body, and after it breaks up the channel is often closed by drift ice even in July and August. Schwatka gives this from personal observation. Ships trying to force their way into the open sea are liable to be caught in dangerous ice-traps. Usually in August, though sometimes not till the latter part of the month, the straits leading into Hudson's Bay are clear; but it is only a little time, as the days grow shorter, till the ice begins to form again. The period of open water is so short that, Schwatka says, a vessel could only "dash in" for a cargo, and would be lucky to get out.

This, in all probability is a correct judgment. Even the route by our great lakes is closed half of the year; and it remains to be demonstrated whether the Canadian Pacific railroad, though lying far south of the country, will be traversed before reaching Hudson's bay, can be operated in winter with practical results.—Oregonian.

ROBUST HEALTH

Is not always enjoyed by those who seem to possess it. The faint of corrupted blood may be secretly undermining the constitution. In time, the poison will certainly show its effects, and with all the more virulence the longer it has been allowed to permeate the system. Each pimple, sty, blemish, skin disorder and sense of unnatural lassitude, or languor, is one of Nature's warnings of the consequences of neglect.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is the only remedy that can be relied upon, in all cases, to eradicate the faint of hereditary disease and the special corrupting of the blood. It is the only alternative that is sufficiently powerful to thoroughly cleanse the system of Scrofulous and Mercurial impurities, and the pollution of Contagious Diseases. It also neutralizes the poisons left by Diphtheria and Scarlet Fever, and enables rapid recuperation from the enfeeblement and debility caused by these diseases.

Myriads of Cures

Achieved by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, in the past forty years, are attested, and there is no blood disease, at all possible of cure, that will not yield to it. Whatever the ailments of this class, and wherever found, in their personal knowledge, of remarkable cures wrought by it, where all other treatment had been unavailing. People will do well to

Trust Nothing Else

than AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Numerous crude mixtures are offered to the public as "blood purifiers," which only allure the patient with the pretense of many cheap doses, and with which it is folly to experiment while disease is steadily becoming more deep-seated and difficult of cure. Some of these mixtures do much lasting harm. Bear in mind that the only medicine that can radically purify the vitiated blood is

POSITIVELY NON-EXPLOSIVE

THE CHICAGO ELECTRIC LAMP!

520-AND-LE POWER!

"SEE ONE AND BE CONVINCED"

ADDRESS: CHICAGO ELECTRIC LAMP CO., COR. FIRST & WASHINGTON STREETS, PORTLAND, OREGON.

Among its many advantages may be enumerated the following:

1. The lamp, by the laws of nature, is positively non-explosive.

2. It cannot break or smother a chimney.

3. An ordinary chimney can be used.

4. The lamp burns at a cost of about one cent per hour.

5. The clock is furnished free with every lamp. One will last 4 to 5 months.

6. The lamp being made of brass cannot break, but one lamp will last a life time.

7. What you save on candles in one year will pay for the lamp.

8. This lamp has the only wick mechanism that requires no oiling or greasing.

9. The wick trim itself if it should catch the oil work and be returned to its original position, a minute or less being all the time required.

FOUNT LAMP.

11. The top of the lamp is so constructed as to hold any small quantity of oil that might accidentally run over, thereby preventing damage to furniture, carpets, etc.

12. The insurance companies respect that use, because they are non-explosive, etc.

THE BRILLIANT AND STEADY LIGHT

Produced by these lamps because of their peculiar construction, the main principle being a double draft, the oil is fed into a chamber of oxygen, which is necessary to insure perfect combustion and thereby burning the oil and producing a steady light, which is not affected by draughts or currents of air, and the lamp or "gas" is not affected by the flame and projecting its coming in contact with the chimney.

Made by a prominent authority gives the following result:

THE TEST OF LIGHT

Ordinary lamps, 7-11 candle power, use lamps, 25 candle power.
