

ROSEBURG REVIEW

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1885.

Our Representatives.

The following should be read—if no other reason—just for fun.

A WORKER.

H. B. Miller, senator from Josephine, is a worker. At the regular session he succeeded in having a piece of Jackson county shored off and cemented on to Josephine. At this time he has got $10,000 from the state to help build a bridge across Rogue river at Grant's Pass. He made a good speech in support of his bill in the senate yesterday. Salem will ask the state for a bridge across the Willamette at the next regular session of the legislature.—Statesman.

This bill, appropriating $10,000 for the purpose above referred to, was introduced in the House by Representative Porter November 11. Its passage was also aided and facilitated by the efforts of Messrs. Bourne and Riddle, to each and all of whom the people of this county are under obligations. All honor to our representatives in both houses.—Courier (Grants Pass).

The facts in this matter are easily told and should be remembered. Hon. A. A. Porter democratic member from Josephine was extremely popular. He introduced the measure as stated by the Courier and because of his popularity secured its passage through the House and gave it—God speed to the Senate. Hon. Bourne and Riddle, voted and that was all they did do. But then, the Courier is right in claiming these folks as their representatives. Mr. Bourne did not represent Multnomah nor did Mr. Riddle represent Douglas. But poor Josephine what she did!

Atlanta, Georgia has gone Prohibition by 219 majority. A desperate effort was made on both sides, but Prohibition is on top by a small majority.

Our north struck the shackles from 4,000,000 negro slaves, by the emancipation proclamation, the south will strike the shackles from 20,000,000 whites enslaved by strong drink. The latter will be a greater work than the former was. The two will make our America the Eden of the world, when she shall come fourth from the wilderness, and bloom as the rose of Sharon and the lily of the valley. The first gun of the rebellion was fired at Sumpter, the first gun of freedom at Atlanta.

The action of Hon. Sol. Hirsch, in changing his vote to Senator Mitchell at a critical time during the ballot and thereby emphasizing his respect for fealty to party methods, has won for that gentleman many good words. By this deed Mr. Hirsch at once rebuked the mugwumps in his party and strengthened himself with good citizens generally. The action will be remembered to Mr. Hirsch's credit in the future.—Vindicator.

Some of the republicans recently turned out of postoffices are seeking revenge upon the Democratic enemy by convincing to have letters mailed in the railroad boxes so that the stamps shall not be canceled by their successors and thereby the salaries fixed high. It is a poor office holder who cannot follow the path of rectitude through deprecation.

At the ratification meeting at New Market theatre on Saturday evening, while Hon. John H. Mitchell was addressing the audience, some one cried out: "Give it to Harvey Scott!" Mr. Mitchell quickly replied: "I never speak of the dead." This response brought down the house with prolonged and continuous applause.—Bulletin.

UNITED STATES senators from Oregon from 1859 to the present time are as follows: Joseph Lane, Delazon Smith, Edward D. Baker, J. W. Nesmith, Benj. Stark, B. F. Harding, Geo. H. Williams, H. W. Corbett, James K. Kelly, John H. Mitchell, L. F. Grover, James H. Slater, J. N. Dolph and J. H. Mitchell.

The selfishness and factionousness of the French republicans are impeding the French republic. This is another illustration of the truth that no organization, secular or religious, can hold together if its members do not hold devotion to principle paramount to personal interest and aspiration.

"Offensive partisans" acting as consuls in the cholera countries will not be removed at present, as the Democratic aspirants for such positions are perfectly willing to see civil service reform carried out by continuing the present incumbents during good behavior.—The State Journal.

Some scoundrel in high position undertook to destroy the Keady liquor law by drawing a pen-stroke through the enacting clause. In spite of this untoward, however, Gov. Moody has approved the bill and will hold that it is a law just the same.

Gov. Moody will take our advice next time to doubt, and await the regular session, especially so, since so much inharmonious has been caused in the ranks of the Republican party by the last memorable extra session.

The human heart refuses to believe in a universe without a purpose.—Kant.

MR. RIDDLE'S REPLY.

In your last issue appears an article as an editorial that you term "Conscience" while there is a very long pair of ears (known ears) plainly visible in every line, yet as you have given it place in your paper as an editorial it would appear that you endorse its statements and sentiments. The writer of your editorial quotes me as saying things that he must have known that I never uttered notwithstanding the Oregonian so reported it, but the writer knew full well that on the following day that the Oregonian made a correction and gave substantially what I did say which, except with a few omissions, was as follows:

"Mr. Riddle—I wish to say that there is not a Republican on the floor of this Joint Convention who elects a Senator more than I. There is no one that has a greater desire to elect a Senator than I do. I want to return home with the proud satisfaction that my vote as a representative of the people was not cast for John H. Mitchell."

"The writer of your editorial willfully misrepresented me then that is a matter for his 'conscience' and as for the words that I did utter I have no regrets to express or apology to make. They were the honest expressions of my convictions and 'conscience.' As strange as it may appear to those Democrats who applaud the election of Mitchell that any one should have a 'conscience' you say 'if the Supreme Ruler cared no more for this man than did the Democrats who supported Mitchell, then no doubt his election would be appreciated elsewhere.'"

It did seem that the Supreme Ruler was not present and controlling the actions of those Democrats who voted for Mitchell, but that many honest Democrats came promptly forward and thanked me for what I said is true. As to the charge that I have misrepresented my constituency I have just this to say, that in all my dealings with the public I have been just where I ought to be on all public questions. The Senatorial question as well as others. That nine out of ten south of the Calapooya mountains favored the election of Mitchell is simply ridiculous, and judging from the expressions of my neighbors and those who I have talked with I would reverse your calculation and say that a majority are opposed to Mitchell and that those nearest of kin to me were in favor of his election is resented by them with indignation.

That there are many worthy people who were in favor of the election of Mitchell, I am willing to believe, and with them I have no quarrel, believing that on mature reflection and the exercise of a little 'conscience,' that they will endorse my position.

To Mitchell Democrats I have no apology to make. That J. H. Mitchell was elected by a corrupt bargain with Democrats supports my position, and sufficient reason for any Republican for withholding his support.

The writer of your editorial says that Mr. Riddle returns to his home at Grants Pass (county of Douglas county, &c.) I wish to say that I am living in Douglas county, on the farm that my father settled in 1851. That it is my home. That my family live there and I expect to end my days there with a 'conscience' as clear as an honest person can make it. The writer of your editorial says 'welcome to his 'conscience.' And for you Mr. Editor, after the great good you have done as a teacher of morality, truth and virtue, can now endorse the election of J. H. Mitchell, then that is a matter for you to settle with your 'conscience.' Yours truly,

Geo. W. Riddle.

We cheerfully give place in this issue to a letter from Hon. G. W. Riddle. We deem it the duty of a journalist to hold himself above prejudice and deal fairly with the public. The columns of his paper should be free to explanation and correction. In this instance it seems to be a matter on which Mr. Riddle's apology and a plea of "not guilty." We cheerfully accept his apology and give proper weight to his defense. Mr. R. says he did not call Mitchell an "infamous" man, and that the Oregonian corrected this statement in due time. How did the Oregonian make the mistake in the first instance? Doubtless corrected it only when it discovered that popular sentiment was largely against its unwarranted attacks upon Mitchell. Has this circumstance any effect upon Mr. Riddle's memory? Three members of the Legislature who participated in the late joint convention besides four private citizens that were present at the time have informed us that Mr. Riddle did use the word "infamous." But, no matter, once for all let it pass. Mr. Riddle is not the only man that is ashamed or regretful of a hasty expression. The public would decidedly prefer to believe that Mr. Riddle did utter such language and we shall discourage the overbearing testimony against him. It is easy to forget and people should do it. In our humble way we are still "a teacher," and with a clear "conscience" urge "charity toward all." We sometimes accept aid from the pens of our friends only to add to the ability of our paper, but under all circumstances we are responsible for the editorials therein appearing. Other papers might profit by our example. In conclusion we are glad to learn that Mr. Riddle has left Grants Pass and taken up his residence with us. Welcome to old Douglas once more.

The barque which thou hast to guide is thy physical body, which is now sailing down the river of life. Along the shores of this river are many false lights which will tempt thee to approach their alluring rays. Many have been attracted by them, like the moth to the flame, thinking thereby to gain happiness. But instead of happiness, they found misery; instead of joy, they found sorrow; instead of health and strength they found sickness and death.—

Let the Democrats of Oregon continue on in the even tenor of their way persistently holding to the right, and make such nominations in the future as will be unchallenged by the most ardent of the opposition, let it be understood that all candidates must be honest, capable, and men of sobriety and no others need apply, and the chances for the Democrats in Oregon are not entirely hopeless.

Mississippi has 930 saloons; Minnesota, with about the same population, has over 3,000 saloons. Old Bourbon Kentucky has 4,461 saloons, and Ohio has 15,390. Startling as this statement may be, in proportion to the population the North has twice as many saloons as the South.

The last spike of the California Southern railroad was driven last Monday at Cajon pass, San Diego Cal. This gives the Atlantic & Pacific railroad through connection to the Pacific coast, with San Diego as its terminus.

The backbone that can't bend at all on proper occasion is as obstructive as the backbone that is always limber, is contemptible. Men glory in obstinacy and impracticability, and call it "backbone."

BLAINE ON THE ADMINISTRATION.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—Senator Hale, of Maine, arrived here to-day. He reports Mr. Blaine in good health and spirits. He said to-day that Mr. Blaine does not intend to return to public life by entering the senate or the house. He has his book nearly completed, and will spend the greater part of the winter getting together the material for his history of the war of 1812. He says Mr. Blaine takes great interest in the general political situation, but that he does not expect to be a candidate again. Mr. Hale thinks Blaine will have something to say, however, about who will be nominated by the Republicans in 1888. Another gentleman who has recently seen Mr. Blaine says the latter is of the opinion that the Democrats are going to have a long lease of power and that the improvement in business will help this administration quite as much as the result of the election in New York.

The extra session has come and gone. It adjourned last Tuesday. Some good work has been done. The appropriations and expenses foot up nearly $29,000. The expenses alone were $16,000. Whether the work done will compensate for the expenditures, we are not able to say. We venture this suggestion however, if the Republican managers had known what they now know, it is barely possible that we would have worried along with the "imperfect laws" until the regular session in 1887.

At a number of polling places in New York, at the late election, women were seen pushing forward and trying to vote in spite of the polite refusals of the inspectors of elections to receive their ballots. Such a performance is hardly becoming to a true woman. When the law gives women the right of suffrage, then let her modestly and faithfully perform her duties at the polls, and let the men stand back—place aux dames.—But until then nothing can be gained by attempts to seize the franchise.

The New York Sun says that if the choice was between Senator Mitchell and Judge Williams the Democrats in the Oregon Legislature did right in voting for Mitchell.

Twin Foes to Life

Are indigestion and Constipation. Their primary symptoms are among the most distressing of minor human ailments, and a host of diseases, especially resultant from them, mutually aggravate each other and assail at once the whole machinery of life. Nausea, Flatulency, Sour Stomach, Bileousness, Headaches, Bilious Fever, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Kidney Diseases, Piles, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dropsy, and various Skin Disorders, are among the symptoms and ailments caused by derangement of the stomach and bowels.

A Thorough Purgative medicine is the first necessity for cure. Then the cathartic effect must be maintained. In a mild degree, just sufficient to produce a regular evacuation of the bowels—looseness as well as constipation—are beneficially controlled by AYER'S PILLS, and for the various cases of digestive organs weakened by long-continued dyspepsia, one or two of AYER'S PILLS daily, after dinner, will do more good than any other medicine.

Ayer's Pills

Accomplish this restorative work better than any other medicine. They are searching and thorough, yet mild, in their purgative action. They do not grip the patient, and do not induce a cough or chill, or any of the effects of other cathartics. Withal, they possess special properties, diuretic, hepatic and tonic, of the highest medicinal value.

Absolutely Cure

All diseases proceeding from disorder of the digestive and assimilatory organs. The prompt use of AYER'S PILLS to correct the first indications of costiveness, averts the serious illnesses which neglect of that condition would inevitably bring on. All irregularities in the action of the bowels—looseness as well as constipation—are beneficially controlled by AYER'S PILLS, and for the various cases of digestive organs weakened by long-continued dyspepsia, one or two of AYER'S PILLS daily, after dinner, will do more good than any other medicine.

FOR SEVEN YEARS.

Mr. L. W. Blake, the subject of the above sketch, with the Evening Chronicle, St. Louis, Mo., in answer to the inquiry of a reporter, said: "For seven years I had been ailing with catarrh, and during that time have been treated by six eminent physicians, without success. Some doctors told me I had consumption. For the past three years I had a constant discharge of mucous drops from the throat, and a general feeling of weakness. About five months ago I consulted Dr. Turner. To-day I am as well as ever, having gained twenty pounds, and do not detect a trace of my former trouble. Yes, sir, I would be pleased to answer, by letter, any queries, suffering from that dread disease."

Louis Turner, M. D., has offices at 219 Washington St., St. Louis, Mo., and has a private and hospital practice of three years, treated with wonderful success all curable cases. Treatment of deformities and surgery a specialty. Not necessary to stop at Turner's office. Patients can consult me by mail on all Diseases of the Blood, Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Heart, Nerves, General Debility, and all diseases peculiar to the sexes. No exorbitant charges. Consultation at office and by mail one dollar. Send One Dollar for a full consultation by mail. One dollar on receipt of which I will thoroughly investigate your case. Medicines furnished free to patients. If you are sick or ailing, write me. No letters answered unless accompanied by 4c. in stamps. Address all letters to Dr. L. W. Turner, 219 Washington, St. Louis, Mo.
