

STATE NEWS

There is no country without its drawbacks. Even California contains a few mugwumps.—Chicago Sun.

Besident unless you can speak kindly, helpfully. That which prompts you to bruise others has the dyspepsia. Spiritual digestion is better than congestion or explosion.

The Democrats carried the recent city elections in Albany and Astoria, both of which have been strongly Republican. This is a foreman of what we may expect in June next.

Hon. John W. Daniel, the well-known southern orator and gentleman of national reputation as a politician and law-writer, has been elected by the Virginia legislature to succeed Senator Mahone. A decided change for the better.

Plattsburgh is moving to suppress the small boy with the "nigger shooter" Good idea. And when the job is done Lincoln will pay liberally for the receipt.—Lincoln (Neb.) Journal, Salem too.—Stamton, Roseburg also.

The Marshfield hotel has fired its Chinese fire. From this it would appear that Coos Bay is making a move to rid itself of the heathens. One thing is certain, that Coos Bay, when it takes a notion will ship the moguls on short notice.—Coquille City Herald.

A reprobate has been arrested in Philadelphia, who advertised to send for fifty cents "A book that every sporting man should read; better than any thing of the kind ever printed; 300 pages and no trash." He carried out his agreement to the letter by sending a copy of the New Testament, which might have been purchased elsewhere for half the price.

On Monday night and Tuesday forenoon the first snow of the season fell at this place, and since then there has been occasional storms, though at no time has the snow been more than two inches deep, nor has the mercury been lower than ten degrees above zero. Farther east, we understand, the storm was more severe, and in Summit Prairie and on Mountain creek the snow is reported to be six inches in depth. This amount of snow will be no detriment to the stock interests, as there is plenty of grass yet uncovered, and what is covered is growing under the snow.—Ochoo Review.

VARIETIES

When you go to seek truth take it with you.—Fletcher.

A cold-water refrigeration meeting is conducive to free speech.

Which is the most favorite word with woman? The last one.

A sufficient measure of civilization is the influence of good women.—Emerson.

Duty and the present are ours; results and futurity belong to God.—H. Greeley.

A shoemaker may be poor all his life, but if he will work he is sure to make money at last.

If a man could be conscious of all that is said of him in his absence he would probably become a very modest man indeed.

Always think the best of man. To think the worst is the sure mark of a mean spirit and a base soul.—Lord Bolingbroke.

Vassar is said to have a genuine Greek professor. To arms! to arms! the Greek! the Greek!—Binghanton Republican.

The so-called friend who retails disagreeable things to you except under the pressure of necessity, is either your ill-wisher or a fool.

A prohibition journal says that Professor Frost had taken the stump. His brother Jack is getting ready to take the rest of the landscape.—Burlington Free Press.

Emerson, it is said, rarely sought the society of a person who made him laugh out loud. Writers on London humorous papers were always his favorite companions.

Mrs. Harriet Prescott Spofford has written a White Mountain romance for "Wide Awake," entitled "A Girl and a Jewel." It will run six months in a serial in that magazine.

Berlin has over one million adherents of the evangelical faith, and yet has but thirty-eight churches and thirteen chapels, with a combined seating capacity of less than 50,000.

The City Council of Birmingham, Ala. has passed a law prohibiting any business houses, of whatever kind, to keep open on Sunday, except drug-stores for the sale of medicines.

It is estimated, on a rough calculation, that there are at least 2,000,000 single men in France who have means to marry, who are of an age to marry, and who have no special reasons for not marrying.

Customer—Aren't you afraid to leave all those clothes hanging out on the sidewalk with nobody to watch them? I should think somebody would steal them. Dealer—Steal those clothes? Mein himmel, no! (Confidentially) Vy, mein friend, I tell you, I sell those clothes so cheap that it doesn't pay to steal them.

Health generally good. Brother Dillard preached here twice last Sunday to a full house. Seeding in full blast and farmers wear a smile on our streets.

Mr. Willis Kramer has butchered one hundred and five of the finest hogs in the country, we think.

A great many are fixing up their old rifles in hopes to get the beef or a fine fat turkey at the shooting match to come off on Christmas day.

The Christmas tree is all the talk among the little ones. Mrs. Drake and Ritchie will not give the Christmas supper as was reported some time ago.

Mr. Frank Fisher met with a severe accident last Saturday, he fell and broke his arm between the wrist and elbow Dr. McCarty set the arm and it is doing well. Dr. knows low.

Mr. Simon Selig has just finished setting a fine orchard of small fruit such as plums, prunes, cherries etc. Also a fine lot of choice ornamental trees. His grounds are destined to be the admiration of the country if he goes on as he has begun. Others should take notice and do likewise.

Conversation listened to on our street. "Hello! how are you Bob anyway, how things is general." "Oh all right as far as I know, that is with me." "Why do you say that?" "Didn't you hear about that poor fellow that went to the cabin and got his dose?" "Yes I heard that, but what we do about it?" "Well it appears that we can do nothing for we have no law." "Oh yes we have law enough but we don't use it, if it is attempted it is only sham for they will arrest a man and take him to Roseburg and try him, prove him guilty, place him under bonds of a few dollars and send him back to sell poison again to our boys until the next term of court and so on." "Court begone, what's it good for, they will sell whiskey in spite of the court, principle or decency. But I tell you if he gives away that fifteen gallons of poison on Christmas or makes the attempt to do so we will form a court of our own that will amount to something, and things will pop you bet." "Good for you, I say remember me to the old lady and I will get home or things will jump before Christmas." OCTOBER.

Looking Glass Items.

Muddy roads. Davy is the best blacksmith. Times in Looking Glass are lively. Bill Turner came to see us the other day.

Birthday parties are the rage down to Andy's. Charley and Howard are running the skating rink.

Most of the farmers say the ground is too wet to plow. Mr. Hawn of Coles valley is staying this winter with us.

I wonder what makes Frank come up this way on Sundays. The captain and Jim say they went swim and harrow for any man.

Lieutenant Lawrence and Curt waters are the boss carpenters. Frank McKinney says he thinks his hand will be all O. K. by Christmas.

Some dogs got mad the other night and killed fifteen head of uncle Peter's sheep, you had better look a little out for your dogs.

I understand that the Hon. W. F. Owens is going to give us a prohibition speech on the first Sunday in January. Come ahead Flem we will all turn out.

Is there a gentle one sitting besides your hearth one who goes about her daily round of duty with an uncomplaining patience? Deal tenderly with her, for when she goes forth for the last time, there will creep a shadow over the household darker than any twilight ever cast, a shadow that no sunlight will ever chase away. Gently shave her vexations and dissipate the clouds of despondency. Remember that her heart is tender and true, and that cold looks or estranged affections shroud her in gloom. Like the minnow, she shrinks at the touch. Like the tenderly, she weaves her thoughts and feelings around some object. She is often reminded of her duty, but mar seldom. Every book and paper contains some allusion to her excellencies or follies. Every noble man praises her virtues and extols her quiet unobtrusive acts of goodness—yet how many fail to accord the one nearest and dearest, the one who sits at his board the full measure of praise due to her intrinsic worth.

Out in Minnesota they tax dogs at their per value. The number of twenty-five-cent dogs in Minnesota is said to be astonishing.—Burlington Free Press.

Dr. Philip Schaff writes from forty to fifty pages of manuscript daily, some times for weeks at a time, besides attending to numerous other duties. His diet for days is only pure milk and fresh eggs.

KING'S EVIL

Was the name formerly given to Scrofula because of a superstition that it could be cured by a King's touch. The world is wiser now, and knows that can only be cured by a thorough purification of the blood. If this is effected, the disease purges itself out through generation after generation. Among the earlier symptoms of development are: Eczema, Catarrhus, Eruptions, Pimples, Boils, Carbuncles, etc. It is a disease of the blood, and is cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

is the only specific and efficient blood-purifying medicine. It is a powerful and effective blood-purifier, and cures the system of all kinds of eruptions and impurities. At the same time it enriches and vitalizes the blood, restoring healthful action to the vital organs and rejuvenating the entire system. The result is a healthy and vigorous life.
