invited to attend.
E. G. HARRIS, Sec'y.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the Odd Fellows Hall. Members in good standing are invited to attend.
E. G. HARRIS, Sec'y.

HOUSES TO RENT.—Any person desiring to rent a house, call at once on Henry Easton.

Sign.—T. B. Foster of this city painted a sign for the Prohibition Star office in Salem 16 feet long by 30 inches wide. It is a fine piece of work and reflects credit upon Mr.
Foster. Go to Melesena and Clements furniture shop and see it before it is sent below.

SCHOOL MEETINGS.—School meetings held all over the county and state last Monday, in many places that we hear from good liberal work was done. Notably Oakland where the two schools consolidated. This was emphatically proper in order to secure a good first class school.

ACCIDENTAL.—While Hon. W. H. Byers was harnessing up his horse at his residence in this city, yesterday afternoon, the horse knocked him against the wall at the stable and badly bruised the back of his head, causing concussion of the brain, and rendering him unconscious. At last reports he was thought to be out of danger.—Statesman.

SCHOOL MEETING.—The annual school meeting came off last Monday. Considerable interest was manifested in the question of voting a tax for a school house. J. R. N. Bell was elected director for three years to succeed himself. T. Ford succeeds himself for clerk for one year. A $20,000 school house was voted by more than two to one. We hope that a brighter day is dawning for the interests of Roseburg in an educational line.

RAIL ROAD.—Will C. Brown an active and energetic gentleman was in Roseburg this week asking our citizens to ask Congress to extend the time to the O. & C. R. two years in which to complete the gap between Ashland and Delta. We are in favor of giving the O. & C. R. the land in which they are entitled if they finish the road at once or within the specified time as above. Other wise it ought to go to the people as public domain.

A TRAMP.—Last Saturday a tramp was caught in J. R. N. Bell's barn, the tramp having entered a cabin out of town, and the proprietor being absent, he, the tramp, pulled off his old shoes, and appropriated a pair of good boots. The cabin proprietor returned and soon "caught on" and came in hot pursuit, and with a few help him took the boots from the tramp leaving him bare footed, and the tramp seemed most indignant because this cabin man had not brought his shoes along.

PROPOSITION.—We make an offer to our friends and foes alike (if we have any of the latter) to take THE REVIEW for six months for $1.25 the regular price for six months being $1.50 or $2.50 for one year. This is the campaign year and you will want to know what is going on, and we flatter ourselves that THE REVIEW will come as near giving you all the news as any country newspaper you will find in this section. Send your names and post office address at once, and bring or send the money when you get ready.

OAKLAND REFORM CLUB.—After singing by the choir, the audience was led in prayer by Mrs. F. T. Teel. Hon. D. W. Stearns speaker of the evening commenced his remarks at giving a short history of the State Alliance at Eugene. This is Mr. Stearns' first attempt at making a public speech of this kind and well might it be said that it was a success.
He spoke for about an hour holding his audience firmly to the point. After the address the Constitution was circulated and twenty one enlisted in the noble cause. The recitations and singing were indeed very good.
Hon. F. S. Sutherland was chosen speaker for the next meeting.

C. T. CHENOWETH, Sec.

WYANDOTTES.—Last week there was held in Portland a poultry show, where over three hundred thorough bred fowls were on exhibition. Most of Oregon and Washington Territory and part of British Columbia breeders were there. The contest for the prizes was a hot one, but Garrison's birds carried the day in nearly every case. We wish to specify as follows: 1st, on breeding pen, a pair of fostered and five pullets, 1st on Wyandotte pair, 1st on Wyandotte pullet, 1st on Pen Plymouth Rocks, 1st on Brown Leghorn cock, 1st on Brown Leghorn pullet, 1st on pair Rose comb Brown Leghorn. They had a good show, lasting four days and we think every one feels that justice was done.
The Wyandottes were the most attractive feature of the fair. All admired them and took numerous orders for eggs. Send orders for eggs at once. Order through THE REVIEW office or direct to Mr. Garrison, Forest Grove, Oregon.

ROSEBURG REFORM CLUB.—The meeting last Tuesday evening was as usual well attended and a very good programme was provided. Meeting was called to order by the new president, Col. John Lane, with W. Alexander as Secretary, after reading of minutes an able address was listened to from Rev.
Hobart of East Portland which was an eloquent discourse on the evils of intemperance.
His lecture was well appreciated by the audience. After recess, the time was taken up with songs, recitations, and dialogues. After which the selection of the executive committee was in order. The following names were called and selected. Miss Z. Ziegler, Miss L.
Hay, Miss S. Hamblin, Mrs. Smick, Miss E.
Imbler, Mrs. M. Crawford, Messrs. F. P.
McDevil, L. L. Hurd, D. Clements, Major E. F. Walsh; committee on ways and means, Mr. Rans, W. F. Owens, Mrs. A. Jones; visiting committee, Mrs. O. L. Willis, Mrs.
Owens, Mr. and Mrs. C. Gaddis and H.
Lahrs.

D. C. McClellan had one hundred turkeys offered him in this county. That number was too many for Mr. at one time, although he has turkey on his table quite often.

Certainly, it is guaranteed pure and of good quality, and has not been coated with green blue, Soapstone and Gypsum, as all press laws without exception have been.

After we went to press last Friday, N. T. day of Calapoola called and reported that he had just finished sowing 100 acres of grain, Wm. Voss, A. E. Anderson, J. G. Bell, J. R.
D. C. McClellan had one hundred turkeys
has turkey on his table quite often.

Mr. Morris, who has been working in the mill, took his departure a short time ago.
We did not learn his final destination.

The boys brought in eight more rafts last week, and have just returned home. They were, when through rafting, to have a ball at Mr. Cowans.

Several teachers from this remote part of the county were attending the Institute, but due to the distance and muddy roads, concluded not to go.

Why don't the young people here rustic around and organize a literary society. There is enough local talent to support one, and make it profitable and entertaining.

The Rockie lake was a success, both socially and financially, as there was a larger crowd than has been in Gardiner since the holidays.
This was because the Smith River people were down.

Mr. Wankin, better known as Tacoma John met with quite an accident a few days ago. We did not learn the particulars, but think he was struck in the face with an ax in such a way as to cause a painful wound.

DRAIN ITEMS.

A large number of our students are in attendance at the Institute in Roseburg. The entire faculty are also in attendance.

At the annual school meeting, Hon. J. C.
Drain was elected director, and M. C. Johnson, clerk, without any opposition. The enrollment for this term in the Normal school is the largest in its history.

Our stage company is still running covered coaches to Scottsburg, and doing everything possible to make their best line to Coos Bay.

You Roseburg people must look out for our candidate for county clerk, R. A. Booth. He is not out of the fight by any means, and we predict that he will win with flying colors.

Among our people who are visiting your city, we note W. S. Lane, W. M. Heilich, Jno. Kent, R. B. Deane, O. C. Brown, and the Misses Brown, Green, Hamilton and Boas.

The Drain Echo is rapidly growing in favor with our people as a staunch Republican paper which, like THE REVIEW, has no sympathy with a third party movement.

CASARILLAN

THE LAST MEETING.—The last meeting of the Adelphean Society last Friday evening at the Court house was a splendid success. How happy we were made to feel to see our children on the high road to good morals and a proper education. How kindly those children spoke of each other as some of them were about to part. O vain man be not mistaken, the proper education and training of our children is the only safeguard of American liberty. An educated, moral people without a dollar of surplus, is far superior to a people with wealth and affluence and to a great degree destitute of both morals and a good education. Boys and girls of the public school of Roseburg you have done well. Teachers we feel indebted to you for the training you have given our children.
May you all be prospered in your pursuits and good work is the sentiments of THE REVIEW and Garrison, William Caster, Alex. Rondon, CALAPOOLA ITEMS.

Mr. John E. Kerley will finish his seeding this week. The undersigned legal voters of Gardiner precinct Douglas County Oregon, respectfully pray that license be granted to Messrs Verrell-man and Brant to sell spirituous wine and vicious liquors at Gardiner in said precinct in less quantities than one gallon for the term of one year from April 1st 1886. Dated at Gar-diner Ore. this 24th day of Feb. 1886.

imals a six months old heifer which he valued worth $200. Singular, but true, the most valuable a man loses.

GARDNER ITEMS.

Our little burg is rather quiet.

The school at Sulphur Spring has an enrollment of twenty-one.

Miss Cameron of Coos has been visiting here for a couple of weeks, the guest of Mrs.
Cornwall.

Johnny Simmons made a flying visit up Smith River lately; we wonder what the attraction was.

Miss Mary Murphy who has been at Sulphur

James Richard has put scales in his barn for weighing stock &c. Uncle Jim has an eye to sell.

Miss Lillie Starr has returned home from Drain where she has been attending school.

Rev. Joseph Ensey some time ago had a bushel of shells taken from his premises without permission. The perpetrator undoubtedly has no fears of the great hereafter.

J. C. Richardson will hold divine services at the school house next Sunday at 11 o'clock A. M. Rev. R. stands highly in this community as a christian and able gospel expounder.
