"A DIRTY FLING."

The above caption heads an article published in the Plaindealer last week which, to the mind of anyone of the most ordinary culture, would prove that "S. S." (which being interpreted means Sinful Sally) though a good speaker on the hustings, yet when he puts pen to paper he commits his greatest blunders. The "dirtiest" thing in the whole article is that he wrote that with the intention of diverting the minds of its readers, and to impress them that we were working against Miss Kent because she is a women. But your trick was gauzy. Our friendship for Miss Kent did not develop just a few weeks before election, and then destined to die with the sunset on June 7th, 1886. We speak what we believe to be true when we say we are sure that Miss Kent is qualified. That is not the question. Neither are we to be governed by the concentrated intelligence of Multnomah county, for their delegations to the late Legislatures of Oregon prove almost beyond a doubt, that they did not know that they had a State Constitution at all. It is simply this, is a women eligible under the laws of Oregon to the office of County School Supt. We think not and said so. Every Attorney in Roseburg is of the same opinion as we are, from the oldest to the youngest, except possibly one, and he says "that he voted for woman suffrage, and is no doubt biased in that direction." You might as well suppose a boy in his minority eligible to this office, as to suppose a lady is. The first legal decision a women would make in the division of a school district, would be appealed by the defeated party, and her ineligibility would be one of the grounds of the appeal, and if the court sustain the appeal, which we are satisfied it would, you see at once, what a confusion our schools would be in, in Douglas county. O Bro. Owens, Bro. Owens, would you violate the constitution of your state to gratify your ambition, rather than acknowledge you are wrong? No sir, if Miss Kent was eligible to the offie, we would be as anxious to give her our vote as you would. Suppose Miss Kent was on the Democratic or Republican ticket this year, would you vote for her? No you would not, for she then would be on the wrong platform. But she would be a women just the same. O my Bro. "how the mighty have fallen." Please when you write, write discreetly, don't say "you are a liar," you are a "Jack" "a—," "a—," but avoid Billingsgate, for it is no argument. Let the people know that your stock in trade is not vile epithets, (if you can) but give a reason for what you say, and say it gentlemanly.

Vote the Democratic ticket and you will, thereby, lay the foundation for prohibition.

COMMUNICATION.

EDITOR OF REVIEW: Who owns and runs the Plaindealer? Is it owned and run by a Republican in the interest of the Republican party? Or is it controlled and run by the leaders of the third party who are endeavoring to carry cold water on one shoulder and the Republican punch bowl on the other? I am led to make these enquiries not merely from idle curiosity, but, that the public may know who it is that has recently launched forth into the journalistic field with such reckless disregard of newspaper etiquette as characterizes the Plaindealer under its present managemement. We observed in the last issue of that paper a cowardly attack made upon the Editor of THE REVIEW under anonymous S. S., which two letters are no doubt the correct termini of what the would be correspondent writes himself down in his article lacking only the prefix A. No gentleman of breeding or newspaper culture will answer or criticise an editorial under the cloak of a non de plume. From the garbled Billingsgate which characterized the article in question we are safe in saying that it never eminated from a modern Chesterfield. The writer exhibits a profound knowledge of the law that would put to shame the shades of a Kent or Blackstone when he asserts that the office of School Superintendent is not a county office referred to by the constitution.

Section 6 of article 6 of the constitution of Oregon provides "There shall be elected in each county, by the qualified electors thereof at the time of holding general elections a county Clerk, Treasurer, Sheriff, Coroner and Surveyor who shall severally hold their offices for the term of two years."

Section 7 of said article provides "Such other county, township precinct and city officers as may be necessary shall be elected or appointed in such manner as may be prescribed by law."

Section 8 provides that "No person shall be elected or appointed to a county office who shall not be an elector of the county, and all county, township precinct and city officers shall keep their respective offices at such places therein, and perform such duties as may be prescribed by law."

The logic of S. S.' position is that any person not an elector of the county may hold any county, township or city office except those enumerated in section 6, because the offices are created since the adoption of the constitution. To claim that a woman who is not an elector of the county can hold the office of Coroner or Justice of the Peace would at once show the falacy of his position. If these disaffected office seekers who are leading the third party in this county with the purpose and intent to defeat certain Democratic candidates, own the Plaindealer why do they not have the honesty to come out and espouse their third party movement in their journal. Is it because they are afraid of suffering pecuniary losses in their newspaper venture, or is it because they are insincere in their third party movement and are using it only as a means of defeating Democratic nominees? The shallowness of their pretensions are too gauzy to cover the iniquity of their real purpose which is revenge upon the Democratic party which they are too vacillating and unable to lead.

C. BALL.

Beware!.

Democrats, as the day of election draws nigh we have occasion to warn you—beware of the Oregonian. As its constant readers can attest for eighteen months in every two years it is thoroughly Democratic but look out for the next six months just preceding election. At the present day it is abusing Hon. Thos. Cornelius, Republican candidate for Governor, and throws cold water on Pennoyer. It is a reproduction of Barnum's "what is it?" Neither fish, flesh nor fowl. Give the cold shoulder to it and vote your sentiments, Harvey Scott to the contrary, notwithstanding. Measure men by their merits and not by the estimate of the Oregonian. Remember a few years ago when the choice for Congress was to be submitted to and selected from farmers, the Oregonian suggested the name of Cornelius as pre-eminently best fitted. Can this change of opinion be accounted for. No more so than his change of opinion concerning Hon. R. S. Strahan, the Democratic nominee for supreme judge. Immediately after nomination he pronounced him a good lawyer and a wise selection. Has Strahan changed since then or is it a fact that the Oregonian is a political—well, humbug. We repeat voters stand by your own judgment and vote to conserve the best results and we will be satisfied.

SYLVESTER PENNOYER is not only the workingman's candidate, but also is the choice of a large majority of the business people, irrespective of politics. The Portland Journal of Commerce, the leading exponent of the business men of the metropolis, in its last issue, comes out warmly in favor of Mr. P., devoting a whole column in presenting his claims. Even Republicans now admit the certainty of his election.

The Democratic county nominees are the men to stand by.

Correspondence.

ROSEBURG, May 24, 1886.

ED. REVIEW: I am informed that Hon. Binger Hermann is posing himself for Congress, not directly prohibitionist, but above and beyond such limited character. In other words, he has written letters to temperance people in which he says that at receptions in Washington his glass or glasses of various kind of wines, whilst others have been emptied, remained (his Hermann's) untouched. This, if true, was a very stupid thing to boast of, because he thereby arrogates unto himself either a purity superior to his compatriots in Congress or a lack of confidence in their judgment of the bogeret of the wine or that he wanted to make an impression in Oregon unworthy his deserts. I do not desire to comment upon the fact that he secured appropriations for harbor improvements immediately contributive to Coos Bay and Roseburg a long, a very long way below the recommendations of the Democratic war department, but I do really want to know what has been his true whiskey record. Until recently he kept a store at Myrtle Point, Coos county Oregon, whereas he or his servants sold whiskey at perfect liberty. He bought much of the ardent from John Flanagan of Empire City, retailed the same and upon a certain occasion his brother, brother-in-law and an Irishman, all his clerks, were indicted for selling liquor under his direction without county license. His brother Emanuel plead guilty and was duly punished, but Hon. Binger derived the benefit of all these criminal sales. Upon what a slender thread hangs everlasting hypocrisy? He is a remote and indirect relative of Hon. W. F. Owens who is sending forth concentrated venom upon Hon. N. L. Butler the Democratic candidate for Congress. Will Owens be any more secure in voting for Hon. G. M. Miller than he was in voting for Hon. John Myers two years ago. If such is Miller's strength his race is a farce. Let every honest voter, his predilections as they may, be on his guard the day of this election, and rebuke chicanery, deceit and conspiracy end of those that may be there. I am sure of one and that's "THE TRUTH."

The Democratic Times has this to say of the Democracy of Douglas county, and T. R. Sheridan for Clerk "The Democracy of Douglas county have placed an exceptionally strong ticket in the field, and though that has generally been a Republican county, there is every probability that most of the Democratic candidates will be elected. The Prohibition party claims this as one of its strong holds, but it will not elect a single one of its nominees nor cast more than a few hundred votes. If the people of Douglas county know their best interests, they will certainly elect Thos. R. Sheridan County Clerk. He is a gentleman in every sense of the term, thoroughly honest and qualified, and will make, as he did before, one of the very best clerks in the state. He should be elected by all means."

THE New York Republican Legislature absolutely refused to submit the whiskey question to a vote of the people about two weeks ago. This is the party of progress and high moral ideas. Now Bro. Echo go back twenty years and show what your G. O. P. has done for the people to ask its continuance in power. Audacity is one thing, sound reasoning is quite another. The Democracy will continue to lead.

"Col." Cornelius had a little family difficulty a few years ago, in which his son was killed, and for which his son-in-law is now in the penitentiary. If he is elected Governor he'll probably pardon his son-in-law and have a reunion. As to who was to blame in the matter we do not know, but as the son in-law is in the penitentiary, he evidently was to blame, or else had the least money.—C. B. News.

SOME people are always saying "vote as you pray." Now this is right, but in order to be consistent we say in a loud voice pray as you vote. Some folks pray prohibition and do not vote it, and "them other fellers" vote prohibition but never pray it or anything else. Now until you begin to pray, shut up about voting.

E. C. SACRY has given better satisfaction than any assessor we have had for a long time. His assessments were fair to the individuals and honorable to the state and county. The business men of the county regard Mr. Sacry as the proper man for assessor for the next two years. And so it shall be.

WHY does not Mr. Bronaugh of Portland cancel his lease where the premises are used for whiskey? Mr. Owens of Roseburg would have canceled a lease not long since if the "beverage" had not been removed from his premises. Mr. Bronaugh you have not tried to cancel, nor purchase.

(New Northwest.)

"Judge Waldo cares more for legal technicalities and quibbles than for sound principles of justice or common sense." Not particularly complimentary, coming, as does the above, from a Republican paper.

R. F. Gibons and Gus. W. Webb, Democratic candidates for Secretary of State and Treasurer, are two of the best men in the State, and will poll a heavy vote wherever known. Both have much better qualifications for the respective offices than their competitors, are connected with no ring; and the people will find it to their interest to elect them.—Exchange.

THE people have become awfully tired of the manipulation of the State affairs by the Republican bosses of Multnomah, and will set down on ring management on June 7th in a manner quite forcible and unmistakable. For this reason many of the best Republicans will vote the Democratic ticket, if none other.

A Safeguard.

The fatal rapidity with which slight Colds and Coughs frequently develop into the gravest maladies of the throat and lungs, is a consideration which should impel every prudent person to keep at hand, as a household remedy, a bottle of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

Nothing else gives such immediate relief and works so sure a cure in all affections of this class. That eminent physician, Prof. F. Sweetzer, of the Maine Medical School, Brunswick, Me., says:—

"Medical science has produced no other anodyne expectorant so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is invaluable for diseases of the throat and lungs."

The same opinion is expressed by the well-known Dr. L. J. Addison, of Chicago, Ill., who says:—

"I have never found, in thirty-five years of continuous study and practice of medicine, any preparation of so great value as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, for treatment of diseases of the throat and lungs. It not only breaks up colds and cures severe coughs, but is more effective than anything else in relieving even the most serious bronchial and pulmonary affections."

AYER'S
Cherry Pectoral

Is not a new claimant for popular confidence, but a medicine which is to-day saving the lives of the third generation who have come into being since it was first offered to the public.

There is not a household in which this invaluable remedy has once been introduced where its use has ever been abandoned, and there is not a person who has ever given it a proper trial for any throat or lung disease susceptible of cure, who has not been made well by it.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has, in numberless instances, cured obstinate cases of chronic Bronchitis, Laryngitis, and even acute Pneumonia, and has saved many patients in the earlier stages of Pulmonary Consumption. It is a medicine that only requires to be taken in small doses, is pleasant to the taste, and is needed in every house where there are children, as there is nothing so good as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL for treatment of Croup and Whooping Cough.

These are all plain facts, which can be verified by anybody, and should be remembered by everybody.
