

ROSEBURG REVIEW
FRIDAY, JULY 16, 1886.

A. O. W. W. ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the Odd Fellows Hall. Members in good standing are invited to attend.

O. E. S. CHAPTER No. 1. ASHLAND OREGON Regular meetings 1st and 3rd Tuesday. All men in good standing are invited to attend.

PHILANTHROPIC SOCIETY No. 8, I. O. O. F., meets on Saturdays evening at 7 o'clock, in their hall at Roseburg. Members are invited to meet with the help when convenient.

LAUREL LODGE A. F. M. WILL HOLD regular meetings on Wednesday or on before full moon. W. A. BEATH, W. M. J. P. DICKSON, Sec.

EMPIRE CHAPTER No. 11, F. A. M., hold their regular communications every first and third Monday of each month at 7 o'clock, in their hall at Roseburg. Members are invited to meet with the help when convenient.

A BIG FIRE.—One day this week T. J. Hamilton was burning some brush on his place. The fire spread and got into his fence and burned considerable of it.

COWS FOR SALE.—Stephen Linnbeck has two fresh cows for sale, at reasonable prices. Inquire at THE REVIEW office or Mr. Linnbeck himself, about one and one half miles south of Roseburg.

REARERS NOTICE.—All persons holding county warrants endorsed prior to Jan. 16th, 1886 are hereby notified to present them at the treasurer's office in the Court house in Roseburg on or before July 20th, 1886, as interest will cease from that date.

A GOOD SHOWING.—W. N. Moore having been agent for the State Board for four years handling all the school fund for this county, has turned over the business to David S. Weaver, our County Treasurer, who will succeed Mr. Moore as the Board's agent. The amount of notes on hand June 30th, 1886 was $36,703.08, principal fund on hand $517.86. Interest fund on hand deposited in the Douglas county bank $3,670.08. Total amount turned over $40,891.02. This is a good showing for William.

ON A VISIT.—Our old time friend, Mrs. Myers formerly of Douglas, now of Ellensburg, W. T., is on a visit to her parents on the California. His wife and child preceded him some weeks, to this valley. Mr. Myers will visit Roseburg before he returns. He wears his newly acquired honors with ease, that is to say he was elected to the majority of the city of Ellensburg, with a majority that makes a man feel good and against one of the city's leading citizens.

COMPLIMENTARY.—From the Oregonian reporter for the State Teachers Association we take the following which speaks for itself and speaks well for those spoken of. "It is a noticeable fact the heads of nearly all the important schools represented at the association were educated east of the Rocky mountains. Prof. Crawford of Portland, Hornor of Roseburg, and Robinson of Dallas, are among the notable exceptions. Are the people of Oregon ashamed of the workmanship of their own schools?"

SUCCESSFUL.—Prof. Henry S. Strange, formerly teacher in the public school of Roseburg was last week elected to the principalship of the Brownville graded school which in point of attendance is the second school of Linn county. Prof. Strange was a student in Willamette University; his certificates are first grade; he has been very successful as a teacher, and we predict that under his able management that the Brownville school will keep pace with the growth of that prosperous portion of the Willamette valley.

ROSEBURG REFORM CLUB.—Mr. S. F. Flood's address to the members and visitors of the club was a powerful appeal to those who face the real issues of the day, solemnly denouncing in the strongest terms the present system of whiskey law. The club room, has just been renovated presents a handsome appearance reflecting great credit on the man who managed it. A good entertainment is promised for next meeting, two weeks hence.

FARMERS READ.—To the farmers and fruit growers of Douglas county, Oregon, who patronize nurseries from abroad, when you get a better variety at home. We have every variety of fruit, shade, and ornamental trees, shrubbery etc. We are responsible for any quantity that we may make, and we will give you trees suitable to this section and warrant each and every tree just as recommended. Remember that every tree is grown in this climate and warranted true to name. North Western Nursery, located at Salem, Oregon.

T. D. JONES, Prop. Chase & Ford, agents, Red Front, Roseburg, Oregon.

OPPOSITION.—It seems to be the nature and disposition of some people in this world to operate in opposition to the best interests of the whole country. To illustrate the country has been paying what would seem liberal bounty on the scalps of coyotes and seemingly had the business all its own way but opposition ever ready for an opening has caused two young boys of the county to leave the county in the shade by paying fifteen dollars for coyote scalps. This may discourage and drive the county out of the business. Some one will get into trouble yet, by bringing coyote and wolf scalps from other counties and selling them to our county court, but we are glad to say that the authorities are equal to the racket.

GOOD TELEGRAPHISTS.—There is no more lucrative business to-day than that of telegraphy. It can be mastered in a few weeks. More young men and women are at the present time rising to financial eminence as telegraphists and lookkeepers than through any other six professions or classes of business. It is confidently reported that a gentleman in this state will this winter afford an opportunity to the young men and women to learn the business thoroughly at about one-half what it would cost elsewhere. A good practical knowledge of the business will be guaranteed. This will be one of the finest inducements ever offered in Southern Oregon. The question now is, will our promising young men and women accept so favorable an opportunity?

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

For job work go to THE REVIEW office. Harvesting in full blast now in the various parts of the county.

Mrs. H. C. Stocum returned from her trip to Coos Bay last Saturday.

Mrs. Susan Gatterman has gone to Portland to learn the dressmaking trade.

The State University is the place to get a good practical education. See ad.

E. A. Hinkle returned from an extended trip through Eastern Oregon this week.

THAT HACKING COUGH can be so quickly cured by Shiloh's Cure, at S. Hamilton's.

Dr. Little at Oakland believes you at once of that terrible toothache in a dental manner. "HACKLEBACK" a lasting and fragrant perfume. Price 25 and fifty cents at S. Hamilton's.

A second hand two-seated hack to be exchanged for wood. For particulars apply at this office.

THE WHOOPING COUGH and Bronchitis. Croup Whooping Cough and Bronchitis. S. Hamilton agent.

A NASAL INJECTOR free with each bottle of Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy. Price 50 cents at S. Hamilton's.

We give our readers this week a complete account of the State Teachers Association, held at Yajuna City last week.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY—a positive cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria, and Canker Mouth, at S. Hamilton's.

Rev. Skipworth and family passed through this city Monday last on their way to Corvallis from the Klamath Agency.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the most effective blood purifier ever devised. It is recommended by the best physicians.

WHY WILL YOU cough when Shiloh's Cure will give immediate relief. Price 10 cts., 50 cts., and $1. at S. Hamilton's.

A. O. Rose's boy fell from the barn loft last Tuesday evening and was badly hurt, for a time it was thought he would not recover.

Miss Mary Baker who has been visiting relatives and friends in Roseburg for a few days gave us a very pleasant call last Saturday.

If you want set of teeth, or want teeth extracted, in first class shape, or any dental work, go to Dr. Little of Oakland Oregon.

Col. Shields returned from Portland last Monday, looking hale and hearty. He will remain with us some time now we are glad to say.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Aiken left for Coos Bay Thursday. John will return in a few days, while his wife will remain a month or six weeks.

The attendance at the State Teachers Association just closed at Yajuna city was about three times as large as any previous Association held in this state.

Dr. S. Whitmore can always be found at his office and tends his professional services to all at the most reasonable prices. Give him a call when you get sick.

ASK YOUR DRUGGIST for Indigestion, Constipation, Diarrhea, Loss of Appetite, Yellow Skin, Shiloh's Vitalize is a positive cure. S. Hamilton agent.

Dr. E. J. Page of Oakland will now give his whole attention to the practice of his profession. The doctor stands in the front rank of the science of medicine, and will give relief to many "ills to which flesh is heir."

Mr. Willis E. McElroy who attended the Roseburg Public School last winter is now clerk and private secretary in the State Superintendents office at Salem. We are glad to see our boys take the lead wherever they go.

Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Restorer never fails in restoring gray hair to its youthful color, lustre, and vitality. Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, writes it, and all who try it testify to its many virtues.

Judge Pimm and daughter of Jacksonville stopped over last Tuesday in Roseburg en route from Portland home. The acquaintances the Judge made and renewed, were pleasant to his friends in Roseburg and no doubt to himself as well.

Read C. M. Hall's new ad. He leads all competitors in his line in Oakland, Oregon. Reasonable prices and fair dealing are the elements of his success. Call on Charley Hall or Arthur Williams at our earliest convenience and be convinced.

Every state in the Union that pretends to have a public school system, has one or more State Normal Schools. Oregon has been without such a school until four years ago when the State Normal School was located at Monmouth. It is being felt as a power in the school work of the State.

Prof. F. W. Benson, ex-School Superintendent of Douglas county was this week elected to the principalship of the State Normal school at Salem. Prof. Benson is an educator in the true sense of the word and his able management of the school at Dr. Benson will continue to be an honor to this county.

The term of office of the governor of Oregon is four years but the present incumbent, Z. F. Moody, will exceed that time. He was inaugurated on September 13, 1882, and should go out of office on September 13, 1886. The meeting of the legislature was changed in 1882 from September to January, and thereby Gov. Moody's term was lengthened over three months. It is the first instance of the kind known.

S. H. Hazard, who had a narrow escape at the races Saturday, is not expiring any ill from the accident. He was unconscious for about fifteen minutes after his fall; and is reported as saying with his restored consciousness: "Am I in time for the next heat?" But there is a dispute as to whether he actually realized which world he was in at the time; but that makes no difference. Hazard is a young man really to come to time—in this world or the next.

"Long looked for, come at last!" What Sunbeam Tea. The importer Mr. Abraham desires respectfully to inform his many patrons that he has secured the privilege of importing a most delicious brand of full flavored and perfectly matured Japanese Tea, to which the name of "Sunbeam Tea" has been applied. He also respectfully informs that the brand of tea cannot be obtained in bulk, nor in any other package than the Perfection Tea Can, all its aroma and strength reaches the consumer unimpaired, just as it left the hands of the shipper.

OAKLAND ITEMS.

Cash Gaddis is now in the employ of A. F. Brown, Mr. Barr having retired from business.

M. Farton was in town Friday last.

Ral Stearns is hauling hay for his father.

A fine black mare belonging to Charley Freyer which was seriously kicked died last Thursday.

John Bayless went to Portland on Thursday.

Harry Sacry is again able to be among us after being confined to the house for a week.

Mrs. E. J. Saterlin mother to Eugene next month for the purpose of schooling her child.

Louis Kruse returned Saturday night from near Cottage Grove where he has been teaching school.

Mrs. John Bayless who has been to Portland on a visit returned home on Saturday's train.

Austin Mues came home on a visit Saturday.

Mr. Fate, father of Mrs. Robt. Stephens, is here from Canyonville on a visit.

Alonso Smith while riding a fractious horse Thursday had his arm broken by the horse falling upon it.

Rev. Earl T. Lockard is visiting friends at this place.

John Euland arrived home this week after a trip through Eastern Oregon, looking hale and hearty.

Rev. J. R. N. Bell delivered two very interesting sermons in the Baptist church Sunday to a large audience. Come again Pro. Bell you are always welcome.

W. A. Perkins and Ed. Kaykenthal were in town over Monday night.

Our Marshal had the misfortune Sunday blackberrying to lose his star.

C. M. Hall and family and G. Hingham and family went out near Rose's mill blackberrying on a camped and as they say had a good time and plenty of berries.

Louis Kruse had charge of Baggio's business this week.

Morris the Photographer left for the north on Monday's train.

Ira Howard moved to Coles valley Monday.

John Bayless has sold his saloon to Dave Baker and good East.

Miss Fannie Mahoney is visiting C. G. Durand's family.

J. H. Shupe went to Portland Wednesday morning.

Dr. Raymond and family are visiting on Deer Creek.

Smith Bailey and Grover Cleveland took Bailey's race track to Coos Bay Saturday at which place they will train them for the coming races to be run soon.

Dr. Page now occupies the office formerly occupied by Dr. J. E. McElroy. The doctor will devote his whole time to the practice of medicine and surgery only.

Jay Jones had a narrow escape from being seriously hurt Monday morning east of Roseburg while coming home in his buggy from fishing and while going down a sliding hill the buggy dropping over the side of the bank and the horse being unable to hold the buggy, horse and buggy fell to the creek below about fifteen feet breaking the buggy and bruising the horse; had it not been for his wife walking who probably would have had published an account. Jay escaped by jumping from the buggy.

Stas Gott is the father of a bouncing boy, father able to attend to the duties of the farm.

The citizens of "Poverty Hill" are talking of petitioning the city council to change the name of the hill to "Neville" which no doubt would be very appropriate.

DeVore and Elliot have purchased the entire stock of goods of Page & Diamond, and business will be carried on as usual only under the above named firm, they mean business, come one, come all.

DAVIDSON'S RANCH, July 4, 1886. REV. J. R. N. BELL, Dear Sir: Having a few leisure moments, I thought I would write you a few lines. Since leaving Roseburg I have been occupying the position of foreman on the ranch of J. W. Davidson, eleven miles east of Modesto. The grain in this section is ripe, and cutting, and threshing is in full blast. A great many combined harvesters are in the field this year. I am running one, and there are four others in sight of mine. If any one thinks there is any fun in running a combined harvester, he is badly off. Take it for instance in cutting hay or wheat, where a man comes in off of the machine, somewhat resembling his Satanic Majesty in hue. Combines here, are most of them working twenty-four hours or more, and they are driven by a single line called a jerk-line. The majority of them are having very poor luck so far. Several of the machines have had runaways that have done more or less damage, we had one but no damage of any consequence resulted. We cut and thresh from 150 to 200 acres a day, according to the grain, and ours is the only one in the neighborhood, that has not had to stop from one-half a day to two days on account of break downs. We have about four weeks cutting yet, if we have no bad luck, and I shall be thankful when the job is finished. The fun of business comes in when we put in a broncho mule to break. After lassoing the mule, he is harnessed and then tied to an old steady mule and taken to the machine, then one has to stand at his head while another slips up behind like a cat creeping upon a mouse, and hits the traces, then all is well till it comes time to unblock, when the same tactics have to be pursued, in order to get the "animal" unblock. We are going to put in three more bronchos tomorrow. In order to celebrate the "glorious fourth" in fitting style, as we have to work while others are enjoying themselves. My employees cost is estimated at 5,000 sacks of wheat and about 1,000 sacks of barley. He owns three and one-half sections of land, and about 200 head of stock (cattle horses and mules) the latter being the majority. The price of wheat ranges from $1.10 to $1.14 per ton. My employer has already sold and delivered two tons of this year's crop. Some of the ranchers around here have agreed to deliver from 100 to 200 tons by the 15th of July, and they will not be able to fulfill their agreement on account of misfortunes to their machinery, and consequently there will be "wailing and gnashing of teeth."

Yours Truly, CHAS. E. FLETCHER, Modesto, Stanislaus Co., Cal.

SNOWDEN SPRINGS.

ED. REVIEW: Since I left Roseburg I have been visiting the celebrated Snowden Springs. I found them well patronized by guests from different parts of Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. James Hamilton and Prof. F. W. Benson and wife from Roseburg were among the cravellers. The last I saw of them they were crawling upon their hands and knees through the brush and rocks on a precarious expedition. James came out ahead as he always does, leaving Frank on a plank drying his feet in the rays of old Sol. I met Mr. Hadley of Eugene, who has been stopping for sometime at Snowden. Mrs. Rose and family of Roseburg, and Mrs. James of Portland. I noticed among the guests Mr. and Mrs. Kline of Corvallis came the evening before last. They will probably remain a month or two. I find the waters to be of a saline class and resembles the Hot Springs at Foley, only stronger. The analysis shows that the water contains 435 grains of solid matter to the gallon, of this 273 grains are chloride of sodium, 145 grains of magnesium, 114 grains chloride of calcium, with a small quantity of carbonate of lime and iron. With the facilities for reaching them, and under the able management of Prof. Tobias, these springs will be the most celebrated in any in the state. I understand that Gov. Moody has written to Prof Tobias his intention of visiting the springs at an early date.

Yours Truly, JAMES LONG.

THE FUGITIVE SAUNDERS CAPTURED AT WALLA WALLA.

WALLA WALLA, July 12.—A man supposed to be Saunders, the escaped murderer, has been captured here by Deputy Sheriff Lampkin. He answers the description in every particular, and is positively identified by an acquaintance from Corvallis. Saunders was coming with immigrants in the outskirts of town, and went to the hospital Friday, claiming he was sick. He did not deny his identity at first, and now claims his name is Chestnut.

Saunders was admitted to the Catholic hospital Saturday, and claimed he was sick. Lampkin had been watching at the camp Friday, and finding him gone Saturday traced him to the hospital, and arrested him in the yard. Saunders did not at first deny his name but went along willingly. Soon, however, he protested that he was not the man. B. B. Demore, formerly of Corvallis, recognized the prisoner as Saunders. He is a dark-skinned, squint, has a mutilated finger, a bullet wound in the left breast, is six feet tall, and weighs only 130. The campers were harvest hands from Spokane county, and say they knew nothing of the man, who joined them last Tuesday in the Harrington neighborhood.

THE ELECTION AT SEATTLE. SEATTLE, July 12.—The municipal election which took place here to-day ended one of the most bitterly contested campaigns in local annals. Two tickets were in the field. The loyal citizens, headed by A. A. Shoney, and the people's head W. H. Shoney. The latter was successful. Shoney being elected by a forty-three majority. The loyal citizens elect councilmen from the Second and Third wards, their opponents electing the mayor, chief of police, city attorney and councilmen from the First and Fourth wards.

Through Whirlpool Rapids, Niagara in a Canoe. Buffalo, July 11.—Very few of the thousands of persons who visited Niagara Falls to-day, had any idea, that another adventurous man would attempt to swim Whirlpool rapids, in which Capt. Webb lost his life. For some time past C. D. Graham has been making preparations for the attempt, but few persons really believed that his courage would hold out long enough for him to make it. Such, however, was not the case.

At about 4 o'clock this afternoon Graham started on his perilous voyage, which he successfully accomplished. Graham had told Mr. Potter all about his plans, and related that he would carry them out at the time he did, but requested that the time not given in publishing the article, for fear that the authorities would prevent him in his purpose. Accordingly very few were among the spectators.

Graham kept the cork in his intended to make the trip in a saloon, in this city. He was accompanied by several friends, who started for the falls. They arrived there about 4 o'clock this morning and unloaded the cork at a point on the American side of the river below the falls and about 300 rods above the cantilever bridge. Policemen arrested him on suspicion of being a Tappan horse thief, but his Buffalo friends secured his release on bail.

THE PERILOUS JOEY. When everything was ready Graham got into the cork and closed the manhole at the top. At this point of the river the current is strong and a small boat towed the cork out into the river, to which Graham was carried by the current, and where Graham was started on what might have turned out to be his trip of eternity. The towing process took only a few minutes, and then the stream caught the cork and started it toward the Whirlpool. At first it moved slowly down, then faster and faster, until the current dashed on with its full force. The cork bounced up and down over the great waves and several times turned a complete somersault, but the water portion remained uppermost, although it tumbled round like a top. The cork kept pretty well in the center of the river until it reached the whirlpool, when it struck a strong side current, and was carried swiftly through, reaching the waters beyond in safety. From here the journey was comparatively quiet.

The cork was picked up, at Lewiston, about five miles below the starting point, and Graham crawled out of the barrel with only a slight bruise on his arm. He remarked, "When I struck the eddies it was one continuation of jerks, and I am not hurt a bit." Graham is a native of Philadelphia, 33 years old, and a cooper by trade. He is a poor man, and did this thing for "glory."

The cork is 7 feet long, 13 inches in diameter at the widest portion, 23 inches at the top and 10 inches at the bottom. It is bound around with iron hoops, which weigh about 250 pounds. Ballast, which was attached to the cork to keep it in position, weighs 240 pounds. Graham will probably repeat the trip: He says he will yet go over Horse shoe falls.

MANNING VISITS TIDEN. NEW YORK, July 6.—Secretary Manning and party left New York yesterday morning for Greytown to visit Samuel J. Tiden. It is Manning's intention to stay in and around New York for several days and then to go to Albany.

BIG FIRE IN COLOS. COLOS, N. Y., July 6.—A storehouse containing cotton, wool and knit goods belonging to numerous manufacturers, including Parsons & Co., and Silliman, Books & Co., was destroyed by fire late last night. Loss $200,000.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN. Notice is hereby given that an application for the pardon of Joseph Russell convicted of the crime of manslaughter at the May 1884 term of the Circuit Court of Douglas county will be presented to His Excellency Governor Moody on Tuesday, the 26th day of October, 1886. Wm. RUSSELL.

BEING MORE PLEASANT. To the taste, more acceptable to the stomach, and more truly beneficial in its action, the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, is rapidly superseding all others. Try it. For sale by S. Hamilton.

DISPATCHES.

THE RETIRING TREASURER OF UNATILLA COUNTY. PENELTON, July 12.—The transfer of the books of N. Hendricks, a three-term Republican Treasurer of Unatilla county, to his successor to-day revealed the fact that he was $2,000 short on the state school fund and some $18,000 short on the county general fund, $18,000 in all. No efforts were made to conceal the deficiency. His bondsmen nine in number, are held to the tune of $30,000. They will pay the shortage, as they started suit against Hendricks for $19,000. Attachments were levied on the firm of Honser & Hendricks by Murphy, Grant & Co., San Francisco, and a number of Portland houses for over $18,000. The firm is thought to be solvent, but will be crippled by attachments. Hendricks cannot account for the money, but it is thought he used the most of it in buying into the firm. He has considerable property. The town is with excitement.

THE FUGITIVE SAUNDERS CAPTURED AT WALLA WALLA. WALLA WALLA, July 12.—A man supposed to be Saunders, the escaped murderer, has been captured here by Deputy Sheriff Lampkin. He answers the description in every particular, and is positively identified by an acquaintance from Corvallis. Saunders was coming with immigrants in the outskirts of town, and went to the hospital Friday, claiming he was sick. He did not deny his identity at first, and now claims his name is Chestnut.

Saunders was admitted to the Catholic hospital Saturday, and claimed he was sick. Lampkin had been watching at the camp Friday, and finding him gone Saturday traced him to the hospital, and arrested him in the yard. Saunders did not at first deny his name but went along willingly. Soon, however, he protested that he was not the man. B. B. Demore, formerly of Corvallis, recognized the prisoner as Saunders. He is a dark-skinned, squint, has a mutilated finger, a bullet wound in the left breast, is six feet tall, and weighs only 130. The campers were harvest hands from Spokane county, and say they knew nothing of the man, who joined them last Tuesday in the Harrington neighborhood.

THE ELECTION AT SEATTLE. SEATTLE, July 12.—The municipal election which took place here to-day ended one of the most bitterly contested campaigns in local annals. Two tickets were in the field. The loyal citizens, headed by A. A. Shoney, and the people's head W. H. Shoney. The latter was successful. Shoney being elected by a forty-three majority. The loyal citizens elect councilmen from the Second and Third wards, their opponents electing the mayor, chief of police, city attorney and councilmen from the First and Fourth wards.

Through Whirlpool Rapids, Niagara in a Canoe. Buffalo, July 11.—Very few of the thousands of persons who visited Niagara Falls to-day, had any idea, that another adventurous man would attempt to swim Whirlpool rapids, in which Capt. Webb lost his life. For some time past C. D. Graham has been making preparations for the attempt, but few persons really believed that his courage would hold out long enough for him to make it. Such, however, was not the case.

At about 4 o'clock this afternoon Graham started on his perilous voyage, which he successfully accomplished. Graham had told Mr. Potter all about his plans, and related that he would carry them out at the time he did, but requested that the time not given in publishing the article, for fear that the authorities would prevent him in his purpose. Accordingly very few were among the spectators.

Graham kept the cork in his intended to make the trip in a saloon, in this city. He was accompanied by several friends, who started for the falls. They arrived there about 4 o'clock this morning and unloaded the cork at a point on the American side of the river below the falls and about 300 rods above the cantilever bridge. Policemen arrested him on suspicion of being a Tappan horse thief, but his Buffalo friends secured his release on bail.

THE PERILOUS JOEY. When everything was ready Graham got into the cork and closed the manhole at the top. At this point of the river the current is strong and a small boat towed the cork out into the river, to which Graham was carried by the current, and where Graham was started on what might have turned out to be his trip of eternity. The towing process took only a few minutes, and then the stream caught the cork and started it toward the Whirlpool. At first it moved slowly down, then faster and faster, until the current dashed on with its full force. The cork bounced up and down over the great waves and several times turned a complete somersault, but the water portion remained uppermost, although it tumbled round like a top. The cork kept pretty well in the center of the river until it reached the whirlpool, when it struck a strong side current, and was carried swiftly through, reaching the waters beyond in safety. From here the journey was comparatively quiet.

The cork was picked up, at Lewiston, about five miles below the starting point, and Graham crawled out of the barrel with only a slight bruise on his arm. He remarked, "When I struck the eddies it was one continuation of jerks, and I am not hurt a bit." Graham is a native of Philadelphia, 33 years old, and a cooper by trade. He is a poor man, and did this thing for "glory."

THE PERILOUS JOEY. When everything was ready Graham got into the cork and closed the manhole at the top. At this point of the river the current is strong and a small boat towed the cork out into the river, to which Graham was carried by the current, and where Graham was started on what might have turned out to be his trip of eternity. The towing process took only a few minutes, and then the stream caught the cork and started it toward the Whirlpool. At first it moved slowly down, then faster and faster, until the current dashed on with its full force. The cork bounced up and down over the great waves and several times turned a complete somersault, but the water portion remained uppermost, although it tumbled round like a top. The cork kept pretty well in the center of the river until it reached the whirlpool, when it struck a strong side current, and was carried swiftly through, reaching the waters beyond in safety. From here the journey was comparatively quiet.

The cork was picked up, at Lewiston, about five miles below the starting point, and Graham crawled out of the barrel with only a slight bruise on his arm. He remarked, "When I struck the eddies it was one continuation of jerks, and I am not hurt a bit." Graham is a native of Philadelphia, 33 years old, and a cooper by trade. He is a poor man, and did this thing for "glory."

THE PERILOUS JOEY. When everything was ready Graham got into the cork and closed the manhole at the top. At this point of the river the current is strong and a small boat towed the cork out into the river, to which Graham was carried by the current, and where Graham was started on what might have turned out to be his trip of eternity. The towing process took only a few minutes, and then the stream caught the cork and started it toward the Whirlpool. At first it moved slowly down, then faster and faster, until the current dashed on with its full force. The cork bounced up and down over the great waves and several times turned a complete somersault, but the water portion remained uppermost, although it tumbled round like a top. The cork kept pretty well in the center of the river until it reached the whirlpool, when it struck a strong side current, and was carried swiftly through, reaching the waters beyond in safety. From here the journey was comparatively quiet.

The cork was picked up, at Lewiston, about five miles below the starting point, and Graham crawled out of the barrel with only a slight bruise on his arm. He remarked, "When I struck the eddies it was one continuation of jerks, and I am not hurt a bit." Graham is a native of Philadelphia, 33 years old, and a cooper by trade. He is a poor man, and did this thing for "glory."

THE PERILOUS JOEY. When everything was ready Graham got into the cork and closed the manhole at the top. At this point of the river the current is strong and a small boat towed the cork out into the river, to which Graham was carried by the current, and where Graham was started on what might have turned out to be his trip of eternity. The towing process took only a few minutes, and then the stream caught the cork and started it toward the Whirlpool. At first it moved slowly down, then faster and faster, until the current dashed on with its full force. The cork bounced up and down over the great waves and several times turned a complete somersault, but the water portion remained uppermost, although it tumbled round like a top. The cork kept pretty well in the center of the river until it reached the whirlpool, when it struck a strong side current, and was carried swiftly through, reaching the waters beyond in safety. From here the journey was comparatively quiet.

The cork was picked up, at Lewiston, about five miles below the starting point, and Graham crawled out of the barrel with only a slight bruise on his arm. He remarked, "When I struck the eddies it was one continuation of jerks, and I am not hurt a bit." Graham is a native of Philadelphia, 33 years old, and a cooper by trade. He is a poor man, and did this thing for "glory."

THE PERILOUS JOEY. When everything was ready Graham got into the cork and closed the manhole at the top. At this point of the river the current is strong and a small boat towed the cork out into the river, to which Graham was carried by the current, and where Graham was started on what might have turned out to be his trip of eternity. The towing process took only a few minutes, and then the stream caught the cork and started it toward the Whirlpool. At first it moved slowly down, then faster and faster, until the current dashed on with its full force. The cork bounced up and down over the great waves and several times turned a complete somersault, but the water portion remained uppermost, although it tumbled round like a top. The cork kept pretty well in the center of the river until it reached the whirlpool, when it struck a strong side current, and was carried swiftly through, reaching the waters beyond in safety. From here the journey was comparatively quiet.

The cork was picked up, at Lewiston, about five miles below the starting point, and Graham crawled out of the barrel with only a slight bruise on his arm. He remarked, "When I struck the eddies it was one continuation of jerks, and I am not hurt a bit." Graham is a native of Philadelphia, 33 years old, and a cooper by trade. He is a poor man, and did this thing for "glory."

THE PERILOUS JOEY. When everything was ready Graham got into the cork and closed the manhole at the top. At this point of the river the current is strong and a small boat towed the cork out into the river, to which Graham was carried by the current, and where Graham was started on what might have turned out to be his trip of eternity. The towing process took only a few minutes, and then the stream caught the cork and started it toward the Whirlpool. At first it moved slowly down, then faster and faster, until the current dashed on with its full force. The cork bounced up and down over the great waves and several times turned a complete somersault, but the water portion remained uppermost, although it tumbled round like a top. The cork kept pretty well in the center of the river until it reached the whirlpool, when it struck a strong side current, and was carried swiftly through, reaching the waters beyond in safety. From here the journey was comparatively quiet.

The cork was picked up, at Lewiston, about five miles below the starting point, and Graham crawled out of the barrel with only a slight bruise on his arm. He remarked, "When I struck the eddies it was one continuation