

NO DEMOCRATIC TREASON YET.

We commend the following spirited article from the Portland Sunday Wheel to the attention of those who think that over one half the American people are disloyal, dishonest and weak, in the hope that a more generous and truer knowledge of the aims of so many of their countrymen may be appreciated by those extremists;

A Democratic President has now stood at the wheel for some time, and as yet the ship of State has not been dashed to pieces, nor even has it struck a rock of any large size. Those wild-eyed, "bloodyheart" orators of the Republican party who tried to frighten the American people into voting for Blaine by positively asserting that the wicked Democrats would not sooner be in power than they would repudiate the National debt transfer the pensions to confederate soldiers, and pay all the Southern war claims now find themselves in the same category with Ananias and Sapphira.

When the American is always an American, be he Democrat, Prohibitionist or Republican, and no one party contains all the brains or patriotism of the country, nor all the fools and rascals. A Democrat loves free government as dearly as any Republican that ever lived, and is willing to make as great sacrifices for the principles enunciated by Thomas Jefferson—the father of Democracy—in the Constitution of the United States.

Intelligent people were not scared off by the "bugaboo" warnings of the hired stumblers of the Republican party; and to-day they scarcely think to call attention to the fact of the Democratic Administration's fidelity to the country, taking it as a matter of course and the ominous prognostications of the orators for Blaine as the veriest stuff.

When the Republican leaders cease to arrogate to themselves the only hearts that beat with love for the United States, they will compliment and please that great body of well informed voters who cast their ballots according to the dictate of brains and conscience.—Guard.

Tennessee has a new sensation in the campaign of Alfred and Robert Taylor who are brothers and rival candidates for governor of the state, the former on the Republican and the latter on the Democratic ticket. The brothers are stumping the state together and recently they had a falling out, which is described as follows:

"At Franklin Bob ridiculed Alf and threw him off his guard, when Alf in rejoinder gaffed Bob to the quick. The circumstance produced a sensation. When Alf got to his hotel he sent for Bob. The governor and other friends went with Bob to act as mediator. Alf said: 'No, gentlemen, Bob and I can settle this.' They returned to Alf's room, and in five minutes they came out arm in arm, and since then the canvass has been free from the slightest asperity. They speak one and a half hours each, with fifteen minutes for a rejoinder.

They are sons of Nathan G. Taylor, the old line whig leader and ex-member of congress.—Ex.

The Statesman speaks well of one of the sons of France in something like the following: The President of the French Republic has given expression of his feeling of sincere friendship for the United States by designating his brother, Senator Geo. Grevy, to personally represent him at the dedication ceremonies of the Statue of Liberty on the 28 inst. It is but fitting that he should be accompanied on his mission by Senator Lafayette, the grand-son of the famous General who fought so bravely in our behalf in the war for Independence. Both of the French delegates will be welcomed here in the American fashion as the representatives of a nation of whose warm friendship for the United States the great statue in New York bay will remain a lasting memorial.

ANOTHER FAILURE.

LIABILITIES UNKNOWN.

Just as we go to press the news reaches us that the Caro Bros. have been attached. This failure will be much regretted by the citizens of Douglas county, and especially in the vicinity of Roseburg.

This failure of the Caro Bros. was caused by the financial stress, and personal loss sustained in the recent Owens' failure. These sudden stoppages in business is always hurtful to the general business interest of the community, and is more to be regretted because the Caro Bros. invested all they ever made here in this city and county, and displayed an energy in building up our local interests that was highly commendable. We hope that the assets will much more than cover the liabilities, and that they will resume business at an early date. Up to nine o'clock this morning only about $4,000 attachment has been laid, and that by I. R. Dawson, Secretary of the merchants Protective Union, Portland Oregon. We learn that some of the firm's San Francisco creditors are here, and will lay attachments to-day. We shall give the full particulars next week.

CONVICT LABOR.

Statistics Showing the Effects on Honest Toil in Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., Oct. 19.—The State Board of Labor Statistics has prepared a pamphlet of 150 pages on the subject of the convict labor. The purpose of the publication at this time is to throw light upon the pending amendment of the State Constitution, proposing the abolition of the contract system at all the State institutions. The tables show a total prison population of 3,320, of which number 1,873 are employed under contract exclusively, being a greater number than in any other State, except New York. The effect of prison labor upon various industries is elaborately worked out in the statistics. One of the tables shows, for example, that out of a total of 1,099,700 packages of coopersage consumed in Chicago last year, 67 per cent was manufactured in prisons. In another table it is shown that contract business in coopersage has increased in this State 300 per cent in the ten years, while the increase of private establishments outside has been only 31 per cent.

The Northwestern Lumberman, published at Chicago, says there is marked increase in the demand for lumber at that place for Eastern shipment. Chicago dealers have salesmen in the Eastern cities and are grading for the Eastern trade. The yellow pine of the South in now making serious inroads on territory in the Southwest, heretofore supplied through Chicago. This is said to be one of the chief reasons why the Chicago yards are turning attention to the Eastern trade. Of the field west of Chicago the Lumberman says: "The redwood of California is already a competitor at Missouri river points, and it will not be long before Oregon and Washington fir will be rustling for a place in the yards of trans-Missouri territory. As a matter of fact that part of the country is to be the battle-field between the rival woods of the North, the South and the Pacific slope. So there is no occasion to wonder how the country between the rivers and mountains is to get along under a division of the white pine supply between the East and the west."

The "Saratoga walk" is said to be the latest fashionable walk for women. One who describes it says that "the first requisit is to throw your shoulders back, the chest forward, chin up, and stomach in, and then walk, wriggling head, limbs, body, and especially bust. The aim is to secure a series of revolutions which shall be simultaneous, but opposite. In simple brevity, if your head moves to the right your body must move to the left, and before your foot reaches ground you must describe a circle with the entire limb. The gait is practiced in a night-dress before the mirror. The part of the business most difficult to master is the proper position of the head."

JAY GOULD is building a sepulchre to cost $85,000, to bury his bones in. He has also a yacht worth about a quarter of a million. If he should make a mistake some day and launch the sepulchre for a sail, he would never know whether the strikers won or not. His heirs could set the yacht up in a grave yard for a monument, with watered Western Union stock in it, and in a thousand years from now nobody would ever know the difference.—The Star.

HENRY Ward Beecher has caused a sensation in England by insisting that if there was to be retribution in the next world, no man ought to marry. Does Mr. Beecher mean to say that his punishment here would be sufficient, and any more would be unjust and unequal?

THE NEW YORK TIMES asserts that the movement in behalf of Henry George in that city is "visibly on the wane." We shall know more about this two weeks hence.

HENRY GEORGE, who is candidate for mayor of New York City, will be George Henry when the election is over.

SOUTH STRICKEN.

Yellow Fever Now Raging at Biloxi, Mississippi.

SECRET BURIALS IN THE NIGHT. The List of Victims of the Recent Flood now Reaches Two Hundred and Fifty—The Work of Relief.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 17.—The state board of health having received information of the prevalence of fever at Biloxi, Miss., eighty miles from New Orleans, a member of persons from this cause, held a special meeting to-day to consider the matter. Statements before the board showed that an itinerant mechanic named Sumpter, who came from Biloxi, died yesterday at Mississippi City. Physicians pronounced Sumpter's disease bilious fever, but one of the nurses said he vomited "black stuff."

Dr. Walker made an alarming statement, as coming from people from Biloxi, that nearly every family there had cases of fever. He was told that there existed up to last night 200 cases; that for the past two weeks people were being buried quietly at night, and that in the day time bodies were laid away surreptitiously.

THE SOUTHERN DISASTER.

The List of Drowned now Placed at Two Hundred and Fifty.

BEAUMONT, Tex., Oct. 17.—Refugees from the flooded district about Sabine Pass continue to arrive on every small craft that comes up to the river. It is estimated by those here who have been over the scenes of devastation at Sabine Pass, Johnson Bayou and Taylor's bayou that the death list will exceed 200 souls. Eighty-five corpses have been recovered and buried around Johnson's bayou, and fifty-four bodies thus far have been buried at Sabine, while sixty-six persons are still missing at Sabine, and these are of course dead, as it would be impossible for any human being to survive this long in the swamps and lagoons without food or shelter.

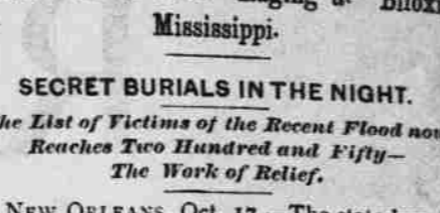

An examination of the country back of Beaumont immediately in the vicinity of Beaumont shows that salt water came back from the coast fully forty miles, through the swamps, and hundreds of thousands of acres are still submerged by water that was forced back to the river. This fact makes the search for the bodies very difficult.

The carcasses of thousands of drowned cattle, hogs, horses and fowls are strewn everywhere, and clouds of sea gulls and buzzards hover over the desolate country for an area of thirty square miles.

Empress William Very Ill.

BERLIN, Oct. 19.—Reliable private advice from the court circles reporting Empress William as being in good health and positively untraced. According to these advices the empress is subject to an attack of syncope and prolonged drowsiness, and recently was semi-comatose for twenty hours, from which the doctors were unable to arouse her. Her condition is aggregated, it is said, by a chronic disease of the bladder. It is feared it will be impossible, with the utmost care, to preserve her life for more than a few months longer.
