PROCLAMATION.

The President Designates Thursday, November 25, as a Day of Thanksgiving.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Following is President Cleveland's proclamation designating Thursday, November 25, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer:

A PROCLAMATION

By the President of the United States. It has long been the custom of the people of the United States, on a day in each year especially set apart for that purpose by the chief executive, to acknowledge the goodness and mercy of God, and to invoke his continued care and protection. In observance of such custom, I, Grover Cleveland, president of the United States, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, the 25th day of November instant, to be observed and kept as a day of thanksgiving and prayer. On that day let all our people forego their accustomed employment and assemble in their usual places of worship, to give thanks to the Ruler of the universe for our continued enjoyment of the blessing of free government, for a renewal of business prosperity throughout our land, for the return which has rewarded the labor of those who till the soil, and for our progress as a people in all that makes a nation great And while we contemplate the infinite power of God, in earthquake, flood and storm, let the grateful heart of those who have been shielded from harm through his mercy be turned in sympathy and kindness toward those who have suffered through his visitations.

Let us also in the midst of our thanksgiving, remember the poor and needy with cheerful gifts and aims, so that our service may, by deeds of charity, be made acceptable in the sight of the Lord.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this first day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and of the independence of the United States of America one hundred and eleventh.

GROVER CLEVELAND,
By the President.
T. F. BAYARD, Secretary of State.

GOV. HILL of New York, made a speech last week in Pennsylvania, in which he scored Mr. Blaine for his insincerity in many directions. It is really strange that some would-be politicians claim that Mr. Blaine is stronger than when he ran against Cleveland. What has made him so? Certainly Cleveland has given an administration of which the nation is proud. Then it is not Cleveland's imbecility. What has made him so, we ask again? Cast your horoscope once more, and then tell us.

Scene in Kentucky.

Kentuckian (rushing into a saloon in great haste)—Here, give me a drink of whiskey.

Bartender—I'll have to go down cellar and tap a fresh barrel, colonel; the old one has run out. But it won't take me ten minutes.

Kentuckian—All right, go ahead; but be quick about it. I've just heard that my house is on fire, and I've no time to loose.

THE capitol at Salem is being put in condition for the legislature, which meets in January. There will be no Senator to elect this year, but still the session will have its pleasant features in the inauguration of Governor Pennoyer and the introduction into office of the State officers elect. It is a cold day when the Oregon Legislature can not hold an interesting session. In 1888 they will elect another senator. PARRY.

A Wide Difference

WHEN the Democratic party is in authority, the government clerk and federal office holder rejoice because they are not called upon for large portions of their salaries to carry selections with, while on the contrary, when the Republican party was in power these officials were annually made to mourn for the reason that they were assessed to pay the expenses of the party's campaign which often amounted to as much as one-fourth of their saleries. Ex.

BOB INGERSOLL has announced himself in favor of the election of Henry George. He advises Republicans to endorse and vote for the labor candidate.

MR. BLAINE says that prohibition tends to destroy the Republican party—which means that the Republican party can't survive without whiskey.—World.

THE WEDDING BELLS.

Last Tuesday just after the gloaming of a beautiful autumnal evening was the harbinger of a happy nuptial event which took place in Slocum's Hall at precisely 9 o'clock P. M., Peter McKinney one of our leading citizens, and Mrs. Anderson were joined in holy wedlock by the city marshal.

The large crowd assembled to extend congratulations, was an evidence of the esteem in which he and his handsome bride were held. After the ceremony, and a couple of hours of pleasure, the guests dispersed, all wishing the bride and groom a life of prosperity and happiness.

How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.

As a general family remedy for Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.
