ROSEBURG REVIEW

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1886.

HEWITT.

Abram S. Hewitt, who was yesterday elected mayor of New York city is about 64 years of age. He was born of poor parents at Haverstraw, N. Y is a graduate of Colmbia college, to which he earned a "free scholarship" by competitive examination with a number of other candidates from the common schools. He paid his own way through college by teaching; went to Europe to be treated for some infirmity of eyes; was shipwrecked on his return and reached New York at 22 years of age with but $3 in his pocket. He studied law, but did not practice long; became acquainted with Peter Cooper, married his daughter, became associated with him in business, and is at the head of a large iron works which employs 5000 men. He was elected to the forty-fourth, forty-fifth, forty-seventy, forty-eighth and forty-ninth congresses. He is the ablest champion of revenue reform in congress, and leaves nobody behind him who is his equal in economic knowledge of all subjects that are involved in the discussion of tariff and finance. Mr. Hewitt is an able, honest, sincere thinker, trained under Peter Cooper to believe that the best friend of the workingman is he who helps him to turn his hands to skilled labor and multiplies his opportunities for the exercise of his skill.—Oregonian.

Elections took place last week as follows: Arkansas, Virginia, Maryland, Louisiana, Kentucky, Georgia, Rhode Island and Mississippi elect congressmen. California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Wisconcin elect state officers, legislature and congressmen. Indiana, Iowa, Missouri and Ohio elect minor state officers, and congressmen. Florida elects legislature and congressmen and votes upon the proposed new constitution of the state which as framed by the convention which met in 1885. North Carolina elects justices of the supreme court, legislature and congressmen. West Virginia elects legislature and congressmen, Illinois elects minor state officers, legislature and congressmen, and votes upon a proposed amendment to the constitution of the state to abolish the contract system in the prisons of the state.

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS.

The Sunday Welcome sounds the slogan for Hewitt and Pennoyer for 1888, which, by the way, is not far off, Mr. Cleveland. So far as Pennoyer is concerned it is worthy of the highest consideration of Eastern democratic statesman; for he is recognized as the foremost champion of labor on this Pacific coast and yet beyond any suspicion of sympathy with anarchists He could carry Oregon "as easy as falling off a log," and we believe the same as to California and Nevada. His name would ensure three otherwise republican electoral votes and probably fourteen. Pennoyer's name would be a tower of strength with the laboring masses in every state. Pass it around.—Evening Democrat.

If President Cleveland's policy has secured us three senators net gain it has done the country incalculable good for it will about destroy that great monopoly stronghold the present republican United States Senate. If it was the arousing of the laboring masses that did it, all the more credit to the oi polloi.—Ex.

The lates news from the elections all over the United States shows much more favorable to the Democrats, that the first reports which were published last week.

The tone of a Sunday Oregonian editorial indicates a relapse to Blaineism. That paper is coquettish.—Evening Dem.

Grants Pass Items.

Cold nights and heavy frosts.

Health generally good.

We have a number one school here, 225 scholars come to Grants Pass for good times and lots of fun.

More dogs in town than Masters.

Mr. John Hannum and Mrs. Galphort was married last Monday the 8th. We all wish them much joy.

A train was seen this week coming into Grants Pass from Gold Hill with a box car on two wheels, it was thrown off the track by a cow.

Several new residences are in course of erection in our town.

Mrs. Wm, Sawyer and Bruce Kitterman nearKerby are both very sick.

Another old pioneer, L. J. C. Duncon, of Jacksonville, has gone from among us.

X X X.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

CLEVLEAND and Blaine will be the candidates for the next presidential election, so the prophets say.
