ROSEBURG REVIEW
FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1886.

Strange Citizenship.

"The Muddle in Jackson Co., between Kent and Colvig has been settled; Colvig carrying off the cake—the attorneyship, awarded by Judge Webster. As this was a contest between two casehardened democrats we feel a little like the man who watched the blacksnake and crow fighting—did not care much which whipped."—Plaindealer.

The above is from the pen of our cotem. It is a strange conception of citizenship to be so indifferent as to the rights of different men simply because they do not belong to the party of which that paper pretends to be an exponent. "Casehardened democrats" indeed, Messrs Colvig and Kent are both gentleman contending for a certain position in which the people in their section are interested. Judge Webster decided in favor of Mr. Colvig, and with the evidence and law before him he reached the above conclusion. This was in fact a celebrated case in some respects, and then for a public journal to be "like the man that watched the snake and crow fighting, and did not care much which whipped," shows a peculiar sort of interest in public affairs.

A GOOD SHOWING.

The state tax levy this year is two and one twentieth mills on the dollar. This administration has been an economical one. While public improvements have been made in all directions, the debts constantly decreased and for the most part entirely wiped out, the tax levy has been gradually lowered, and this burden gradually lifted from the shoulders of the people. The states finances have also been put on a solid basis, and her credit is as sound as that of the government. If the same wise policy is pursued in the future, there is no necessity for the levy to ever again be raised above the figure at which it has been placed this year. That the same general course may be pursued is the wish of every taxpayer.—Statesman.

The Angel of the Covenant is the title of a poem by Mrs. Dr. S. Hamilton of this city. The publication is by THE REVIEW of this city. The book will form a volume of about 70 pages of eight stanzas to the page, neatly printed on tinted book paper with brevier type, printed on the Plaidealer power press. We are not sufficiently endued with the spirit of poesy to fully appreciate poetical genius; but from a hasty prusal of a few stanzas at random, the author seems to have successfully courted the Muse and came enraport with rythmic condences in metaphor, simile and personification, that marks the author as highly classical; and no doubt her poem will be read by many with much interest and profit.—Plaindealer.

YESTERDAY'S bond call for another ten millions of the three per cents of 1882 places the Democratic administration record as having reduced the public debt over one hundred and seventeen millions since it came into power. In the forthcoming executive message to congress the president will, it is understood, plant himself and his cabinet squarely on a tariff reduction platform. The veto of the Morrison surplus resolution appears to have been somewhat Pickwickian—New York World.

The Mother Superior of the conventat Springfield, Mass, is greatly interested in gaining signatures to the World's Woman's Christian Temperance Union petition. She has nearly 1,000 names of Catholics of that city. Temperance text-books are to be used hereafter in the convent of which she has charge.

Just the Man,

The most active worker, at least, and most successful postal inspector ever on duty in this section is Mr. George Mason. All recent improvements in postal affairs in his line are due to his efforts. Such appointments as his are a credit to the administration.—Democrat.

At a meeting of the Chicago strikers Sunday night it was resolved to obey powderly's order and resume work at the yards Monday morning. Thus the great strike is finished after two weeks of conflict The strikers are greatly dejected at their defeat.

Fred Winkleman, the boy murderer, died Thursday at the Oregon insane asylum. He had been sentenced to the penitentiary for life, and it proved to be a short term.

UNCLE SAM is not a dude, but he has a seal ring on his hands in Alaska. It is an expensive decoration too.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

TAKE SIMMONS
LIVER REGULATOR
For all Diseases of the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Spleen.

This purely vegetable preparation, now so celebrated as a Family Medicine, originated in the South in 1828. It acts gently on the Bowels and Kidneys and corrects the action of the Liver, and is, therefore, the best preparatory medicine, whatever the sickness may prove to be. In all common diseases it will, unassisted by any other medicine, effect a speedy cure.

The Regulator is safe to administer in any condition of the system, and under no circumstances can it do harm. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage to lead to intemperance; will promote digestion, dissipate headache, and generally tone up the system. The dose is small, not unpleasant, and its virtues undoubted.

No loss of time, no interruption or disturbance of business while taking the Regulator.

Children cutting teeth, suffering with Colic, Headache or Sick Stomach, a teaspoonful or more will give relief.

If taken occasionally by patients exposed to MALARIA, will expel the poison and protect them from attack.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.

I have been prescribing medicine for twenty years, and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would, like Simmons Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system.
