

ROSEBURG REVIEW

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1886.

LOCAL BRIEFINGS.

No mail east, 15 feet of snow on N. P. R. R.

The Drain Echo poetry last week was all O. K.

Some excellent correspondence crowded over to next week.

A. A. Fink is in our midst, showing signs of good preservation.

Rev. J. R. N. Bell will preach at Wilbur next Sunday morning.

The refreshing bouquet of Mr. Sol. Abraham's "Sunbeam Tea."

Rev. Gittings will preach at Oakland next Sunday morning and evening.

There will be a meeting of the Reform club next Tuesday evening. Everybody invited to attend.

The new steamer N. S. Bently wrecked at Albany Tuesday, by striking a pier of the new bridge.

IMPOTENCY in man or woman cured by Gilmore's Aromatic Wine. For sale at Marster's drug store.

When there is no sunshine to gladden you, a cup of Mr. Sol. Abraham's "Sunbeam Tea" will do quite well.

WE warrant Gilmore's Magnetic Elixir to relieve the Asthma in one minute. For sale at Marster's drug store.

Hon. W. F. Benjamin is spoken of for the next Speaker of the House. We say, here is our vote for you Bro. B.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Johnston will be happy to receive friends at their home Jan. 1, 1887, between 10 A. M. and 2 P. M.

An able article on "Industrial Education" will appear in next week's issue, from the pen of President B. L. Arnold of Corvallis Or.

J. F. Terry's wife left for Los Angeles last Monday week to visit her parents. Mr. Terry will feel sad and lonely for a few weeks.

Our January number will have something to say about this timber question that is agitating the public mind at present, in Douglas county.

LADIES is life and health worth preserving? If you think so, use Gilmore's Aromatic Wine. For sale at Marster's drug store.

I left my book (The Universal Household Assistant) through mistake. Will the person who has it be so kind as to leave it at the Central hotel. I will pay for their trouble.

MRS. SARAH A. TAYLOR.

The railroad commissioners went south with Sup't. Brandt last Thursday morning, to inspect the road. This is a sign of early completion of the "missing link," between California and Oregon, so we surmise.

Why go to Roseburg or anywhere else for teeth when you can get them in Oakland as cheap by calling on Dr. S. K. Raymond whose work has stood the test for years. His office is at his residence and prices to suit the hard times.

Dr. M. T. Crawlford has recovered his health and will enter upon the active practice of his profession. His office is temporarily over Judge Gaddis cabinet shop. We wish him success, office hours from 9 to 4.

Lew Johnson's Colored Minstrels gave a well received entertainment to a crowded hall last night. The singing, chorus and ballad, was fine, while "Mamma's Black Baby Boy" and plantation delineations took the audience by storm.—Boise City, Idaho, Democrat.

The Roseburg correspondent for the Drain Echo seems to have had his gall turned over by Rev. Ingle of late. We venture the remark that Mr. Ingle has done as much real good morally for this city as the criticising correspondent ever did. We hope the wounded bird will get better.

Lew Johnson's Colored Company appeared at the opera house last night in one of their concert performances and entertained their audience in a pleasing and satisfactory way. They caused considerable merriment and were frequently applauded. They are sure to please all who may attend.—St. Louis, Mo., Globe Democrat.

The Signal Service Observer reports that the total precipitation for December 1886 to date 30th, has been 6.82 inches; average December precip. 6.23 in., or .49 of an inch more precip. this month than the average for 9 years. Total precip. for the season, from July 1, 15.41 inches; average for same period 14.61 inches, or .80 of an inch more precip. this season than the average for 9 years.

Lew Johnson's Colored Combination.

Did you ever hear the singing at a southern camp meeting? or have you ever listened to the wild-wood harmony of a parcel of colored deck-hands on a lower river steamer. If so, you can imagine the concert given by the Lew Johnson Colored Company at Sherman Hall last evening. Among the attendants were several prominent ministers and for most citizens of the city, all of whom heartily applauded a most meritorious concert. They show a knowledge of music outside the plantation melodies that will be appreciated by the most critical. What is lacking in theory is fully made up in heart felt harmony such as the darkey only is capable of rendering. The final performance will be given to-morrow evening, and even the most fastidious will be pleased.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Goodness Items.

Plenty of bad weather here.

That is a queer tug boat George wants to get onto.

There has been an Anti-Bachus hospital established at the head of navigation on Smith river.

The Sunday school is preparing a Christmas tree to be on Saturday night. There will be a dance on Friday night.

The school will give two weeks vacation during the holidays. It is prospering nicely under its present efficient management.

The schooner Neptune arrived the 19th, 31 days from San Francisco. She brought freight for the G. M. Co., and will load with lumber for the city.

The late rains has done some good in the way of bringing logs down the small streams. There has been about 600 logs arrived at the mill, and the loggers are anxious for more rain and high waters.

The Sinslaw stage-driver found a dead man on the beach on the 20th. Justice Wade and another party went to bury him on the same date. It is supposed to be the man who drifted over the bar at the mouth of Coos bay some two weeks ago.

The weather has been very rough on the coast. One vessel, the Emma Utter went ashore on the south beach at the mouth of the Sinslaw river on Saturday night last. Another one bound for this port was seen some days ago, but has not succeeded in crossing the bar yet.

WINDIES.

OLD YEAR GOOD BYE.

How can we say good bye Old Year,
When we've been friends so long?
How can we clasp the parting hand,
And sing the parting song?
In cold and heat and sun and sleet,
In storm and fairest weather,
Through days and nights and weeks and
We've fared alike together. [months,
Sometimes our hearts have been so light
We almost wonder why;
Sometimes gray clouds of chilling gloom
Have hid our sun lit sky.
Some precious things we've gained Old Year,
And some, alas, have lost:
Some tears have shed, some lessons learned
That many a dream have lost.
Now we must say good bye Old Year,
Thy time is now full done;
So lay thee down and take thy rest,
But I must still go on.
Think of me at my best Old Year;
As I'll remember thee;
Take with thee only memories fair
On to eternity.

SILVER WEDDING.—Hon. A. C. Jones and wife celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary last Thursday evening, Dec. 23, 1886. Many and valuable were the silver presents presented by their many friends. The repast was all heart could wish, and we return thanks for some of the splendid cake. May they reach their golden wedding before their sun sets. We would say more had we room.

FOR SALE.—Two beautiful lots for sale in the western part of Roseburg near the bridge, well located, fenced, and sidewalk on one side. Terms reasonable. Inquire at THE REVIEW office.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—On January 11th, 1887 at the farm of Robert Phipps I will sell the following personal property, 600 head of sheep, a few cattle and horses, one thrasher and one header.

B. C. AGREE,
Sheriff.

OAKLAND ITEMS.

Christmas passed off quietly.

Dr. Little has returned from Cottage Grove. J. W. Norwood made a flying visit to Myrtle Creek.

H. B. Saery and wife of Kelloggs spent Christmas here.

Jack Wilson spent several days visiting friends at Albany.

Johnson's Colored Minstrel troupe are billed for here Jan. 4th.

Dr. Fields now occupies Mrs. E. J. Walters residence on Betener street.

The post office is to be fitted up for a drug store, if so let the good work go on.

The Enterprise issued a larger supplement for the Christmas number than itself.

The Christmas tree was largely attended, the principal object being Santa Claus.

Rail Hamblin left for Portland on Tuesday's train to fill the position he formerly held.

Dr. Osler of Roseburg was in town last week, the Dr. has a host of friends here.

We had the pleasure of shaking hands with Gus Taylor at Thursday's train while on his way home to Roseburg.

It is rumored that the residents along Elk creek are complaining about the two dams across the creek thereby preventing fish from going up stream and unless they are opened they propose taking the proper means of compelling the same to be done.

DUPLEX.

Rev. F. M. Culp has gone back to his old trade, that of dentistry. He will be ready in a few days to do all work in his line in first-class order. He will not allow this work to interfere with his regular preaching.

NOTICE.

All persons are forbidden to hunt on my premises, with dogs or in any way whatever, under a penalty of prosecution.

JOHN DIXON.

Roseburg, Or. Dec. 10th, 1886.

GEN. JOHN A. LOGAN DEAD.

This distinguished statesman and soldier died in Washington city last Sunday in his 61st year. A more extended notice will be given next week.

City Election.

On last Monday the annual city election took place. Everything passed off quietly, with good feeling on all side. Three tickets were in the field, but the ticket known as the People's ticket triumphed about three to one. The following named gentlemen were elected: Mayor, A. Mires; marshal, J. R. Wallace; councilmen, D. Murray, I. T. Keene, M. Becker, P. McGrath, H. Baker; School directors, Ruth Ford, M. Mitchell, H. B. Starr, Jno. A. Shoudy. Annie Salladay, clerk of school district.—New Era W. T.

It is quite comparable to sunshine in its stimulating and invigorating effect—Mr. Sol. Abraham's "Sunbeam Tea."

MARRIED.

MANN, COCHRAN.—At the residence of Wm. Cochran in Looking Glass last Wednesday T. S. Mann of Portland and Miss Leona B. Cochran, Rev. J. Howard officiating. The prospects for these newly married persons are bright, and they have our very best wishes for a happy voyage down the stream of life.

The groom is a wide awake business man in Oregon's metropolis, he having inherited the elements of success that characterizes his father, who is an eminent physician. The bride is one of Douglas county's fairest daughters. Her father, Wm. Cochran being one of our most energetic, and enterprising citizens. This lady is accomplished in all the culture that goes to make up character in the girls of this day. The dress, dinner, guests and ceremony were fully up to the mark, which make a happy and genial wedding. On yesterday the nuptials left for Portland where they will reside. May prosperity and happiness be theirs.

BOYLE, JACKSON.—At the bride's residence December 23th, Miss Della C. Jackson near Canyonville, and Joseph L. Boyle, all of Douglas county Oregon, Rev. J. R. N. Bell officiating. Had we space we should like to indulge in a description of the nuptial festivities. It was Christmas day also, and happy were those that attended the wedding at John Jackson's home on the flowing Umpqua last Saturday. L. Wollenberg led the groom and blushing bride to the altar, and presented them to the officiating clergyman, and he did this in his most happy, euetonic style. The reception on Sunday at the groom's father's residence, was all that heart could wish. We should like to say more, but want of room forbids, except to say, the very best wishes of the entire REVIEW force goes with the happy couple.

SMITH, SLOCUM.—H. E. Smith of East Portland to Miss Nellie Slocum of Wilbur on December 25th, 1886, at bride's residence, by Rev. Mr. Gittings. The wedding was an elegant affair. The bride is a granddaughter of Col. Wm. Martin of Douglas, and the groom is a gentleman of good business of East Portland. These persons will make life a success.

MALONEY—SHRADER. M. Maloney and Miss Barbara Shrader at the McClallen house Dec. 24th, 1886, by Rev. J. R. N. Bell. The very best wishes of THE REVIEW are hereby extended to this happy couple.

BORN

THORNTON.—Born to the wife of Isaac Thornton last Thursday a boy, weight ten lbs. Oh how high Isaac steps now.

NECROLOGY.

REESE.—Mrs. D. Reese died at Civil Bend December 24, 1886, after a lingering illness of about 25 years. She was a patient sufferer, and has now entered into the rest of the redeemed at God's right hand.

DeMOSS.—Mrs. E. A. DeMoss, wife of Prof. James DeMoss died in this city Tuesday December 28th, 1886, aged 46 years, 5 months and 1 day. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. G. W. Miller. Her relatives and friends deeply mourn her loss.
