

WAR IN THE AIR.

Senator Ingalls of Kansas made a speech in the U. S. Senate last Monday that made the blood of the average American flow a little quicker. The bill was pending in reference to the fisheries between Canada and the United States, and wherein Canada and England as well, have not observed the 1818 agreement, and therefore the president is expected now to see that all of our rights are observed. When Mr. Edmunds asked Mr. Ingalls a question the following is his reply:

Ingalls—"That is this case. This trouble has got to be settled, so far as this bill is concerned, either by diplomacy or by blood. England has always been a ruffian, a coward and a bully among the nations of the earth; insolent to the weak, tyrannical to the feeble, and cringing and obsequious to the strong. Her history for centuries has been a record of crime against the human race. In England, in Scotland, in Wales, against the Roman Catholics, against the Boers of South Africa, against the Hindus and the Chinese. Wherever there has been a feeble, weak and helpless nation, Great Britain has been there for the purpose of rapacity and plunder and conquest. England bears no good will to this country. The memory of two defeats, rancorous, I dare say, in the breasts of Englishmen. When I say that Great Britain is not friendly to this country, I mean that the ruling classes are unfriendly to this country. Her course has been always one of wrong, insolence and outrage. England cheated the South with false hopes of recognition, and injured the North by violations of neutrality. I believe that there is no special reciprocity of good will on the part of America toward England. There are few Americans who do not recognize the fact that the course of England towards this country has been one of insolence, suspicion and outrage from the beginning of our national existence. If I read this transaction aright, there is no purpose on the part of Great Britain to recognize a peaceful solution, a pacific interpretation of the doubtful provisions of the treaty of 1818, but rather a deliberate purpose so far to foment the irritation and discontent between Canada and the United States as to prevent pacification in the immediate future, which would be inevitable if both people were left to the operation of the natural laws of trade and society. I see very plainly what the purpose of Great Britain has been in the matter. She desires to render it impossible for free, friendly, reciprocal relations, political and otherwise, to exist between Canada and the United States. Therefore I was glad to hear of the interpretation placed on the proposed legislation by the senator from Maine (Mr. Frye), that so far as he is concerned it is to be a declaration to Great Britain to recognize her agency and her power in the matter, that she will persist further at her peril.

State Temperance Alliance Call.
The Sixteenth annual session of the Oregon State Temperance Alliance will convene in Salem, Oregon, on Wednesday, February 16th, 1887, at 2 o'clock p. m. Each organized County Alliance is entitled to twice as many delegates as there are members of the Legislative Assembly from that county. Also each church, Sunday school and temperance society is entitled to one delegate. Much depends upon this session of the Alliance. The temperance forces of our State are on the eve of a great victory, or terrible defeat. The part each temperance and religious body takes in supporting and making the State Alliance a success, will have much to do in determining which it shall be. Then let there be a strong delegation from all parts of the State at this session of the Alliance.
Greatly reduced rates of fare will be granted to all delegates in attendance by the different lines of travel within the State.
G. M. MILLER, Secretary.
H. S. STANGE, President.

GREAT HEAVENS! ANOTHER!
EDITOR STATESMAN.—Some other man wants to be circuit judge with next to nothing to do at a salary of $3,000 a year, and a bill is before the legislature for another judicial district. If the legislature would take the trouble to intelligently redistrict the state, it would find that we have one superfluous district already. The seven we now have could easily be put into six, and then several of the judges of these would not be employed half the time. As it is, some of them are not now employed more than one-third of the time.
Women Suffrage Rejected.
The U. S. Senate rejected the woman suffrage bill this week by a large majority. Dolph and Mitchell voted for the bill, and Dolph made a speech. We were surprised at some of Mr. Dolph's remarks, wherein he said that woman must have her rights, and more protection. He is a protectionist throughout. Mr. Dolph's reasoning was very fallacious in some respects for everyone who knows anything is aware that the American woman has superior rights and a protection unsurpassed in the world.

ELECTION OF UNITED STATES SENATORS.

The Evening Democrat talks somewhat after this fashion in regard to the above heading, and correctly too. It seems as if the election of United States senators directly by the people was now upon us. There is an atmosphere of easy acceptance of the idea everywhere. That two-thirds of the legislatures of all the states will recommend it to congress is very likely. But will two-thirds of the U. S. senate concur in submitting such amendment to the legislature? Will the Millionaire Boss Club surrender their machinery to the people? There's the rub. It requires two-thirds of each house of congress to propose amendments. The only other means of amendment is by the legislatures of two thirds of the states applying to congress to call a National Convention for proposing amendments which amendments must then be ratified by the legislatures or by constitutional conventions of two thirds of the states. It may require a great popular revolution to unsettle the Millionaire Bosses, but the rumbling of the popular dissatisfaction over their purchase of that branch of congress can plainly be heard.

Mr. Blaine writes a letter to Mr. Ford regretting his inability to "leave home" and attend a meeting given in honor of Mr. Davitt in New York, Jan. 23d. Mr. Blaine closes his letter in these words:
We desire Mr. Davitt to interpret this sentiment to his suffering countrymen, and to give the most illustrious statesman of England our greeting and blessing. We pray God that Mr. Gladstone's life may be spared until his career shall have been crowned with the noblest achievement of British statesmanship. Very sincerely yours, JAMES G. BLAINE.
Mr. B. is interpreted, "desires Mr. Davitt to shew his sentiments" as above indicated. The true interpretation is, Mr. B. wants to get all the Irish vote in 1888 to make him president of this country. Mr. B. wrote that sentiment, not for Gladstone, nor Davitt, nor the eyes of the Irish in Ireland, but for the eyes of those that are in America. As Shakespeare says, "it is too thin."

The Rev. Dr. Talmage is emphatic in his remarks. In a recent sermon he thus alludes to the "dishonest dollar." "You put one dishonest dollar in an estate, but it will not stand. You may take a dishonest dollar and put it down into the very depth of the earth and you may roll on top of it rocks and mountains, and on top of those rocks and mountains you may put all the banks and moneyed institutions piling them up heavens high; but that one dishonest dollar in the depth of the earth will begin to rock and heave, and up it will itself until it comes to the resurrection of damnation. You cannot hide a dishonest dollar."

We still have serious doubts as to the propriety of a State Rail Road Commission. This present Legislature would do well to be careful in this regard, and look well to the surprising interest that the O. R. & N. company take in this matter. There are rail roads in Oregon that do not desire these commissions by any means.

AND now it appears that whisky was the cause of the terrible accident on the Baltimore and Ohio P. R. A brakeman on the freight train collided with the passenger train admits that not only himself but others in charge of the train were in an intoxicated condition.

IS six trades in New York city employing from 100,000 to 200,000 men and women, the average wages are $1 a day. That explains why destitution annually drives 20,000 women into evil ways in the great city.

IT is all very well for Congress to talk about reorganizing the navy, but it cannot be done. It is impossible to reorganize that which does not exist. The better plan is to build a new one.

THE H. B. No. 7, introduced by Mr. Mitchell in reference to the Re-districting of the State of Oregon will hardly pass, because of its unconstitutional features as regards the census etc.

WOMEN are charged with smuggling European goods into this country in their bustles. Clearly, the bustle is a thing to be set do wn upon.

THE New York World calls upon the republicans to unite with the democrats and elect Roscoe Conkling United States senator.
NOTHING but rumors of war keep armies standing in Europe. They might as well sit down and wait for the fighting to begin.
THERE is nothing small about the young man who has his evenings to himself. He generally goes and gives them to some one else.
DR. McGLYNN has established a home for orphans in New York city that shelters 600 inmates.
MAYOR says the vote of Virginia is not honestly counted. He is counting it.
THE republican party would never be imprudently by a tax on conscience.

STOLIS' accusation against Wager declares the latter "guilty of conduct unbecoming a senator and gentleman." The people of Oregon are the rightful judges of the conduct of both men; and since he has forced a comparison of conduct" as senators and gentlemen," Mr. Siglin will have no cause to complain when the decision goes against him as it surely will. Mr. Wager will be sustained by the people and Mr. Siglin will not.—Oregonian.

THE press dispatches are full of war between France and Germany, but war on paper and actual war are two very different things. However, war is liable to come at any moment and all of Europe be torn from center to circumference before it closes.—Allany Bulletin.

THE Mackay Bennett Postal Telegraph company will soon have their lines in working order and then will commence operations.

RAILROAD magnates in the east express their views freely about the important commerce bill. To make a long story short, "they don't like it."

THE powers of Europe are all arming for war. Where there is so much smoke there ought to be some fire.

It is reported in Boise City that Mrs. Dunniway will purchase the Boise Stationman from Milton Kelley.

SENATORS Dolph and Mitchell both voted for the inter-state commerce bill.

THE GREAT SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR FOR LIVER, KIDNEYS, AND BOWELS.

THE People of Douglas should push with energy the petitions for aid from the present Legislature for the roads to Coquille via Camas valley and to the Klamath basin. The opening of these two roads will do much good for this section, and the state at large will profit thereby.

AGENT Shaekelford's report to Congress seems to cast a cloud over the Thayer and Moody administrations. This report implicates them in the great swamp land swindle, and everyone knows that H. Owens is chief. We hope these gentlemen will exonerate themselves, and we will venture the prediction that Gov. Penneyer with all his crochets will not pre-empt any swamp land during his administration.

MANY members of the legislature told us while in Salem recently that good, wholesome temperance laws would be enacted this session. The amendment to the constitution will undoubtedly be submitted to the people for their action at a general election, for to submit this proposition at a special election would be unconstitutional.

THE Inter-State Commerce bill pass of the house without amendment and just as it left the senate. It may have some defects, said its friends, but the paramount necessity is putting the great railroad combination under the jurisdiction of the people. They have grown so great as to be dangerous.—Ex.

BRO. PIPES of the Benton Lader, declines any further discussion upon the sentimentalism vs law question. We are truly glad that he has reconsidered his untenable doctrine, and which ought not to have any countenance in America.
