ROSEBURG CHAPTER No. 8 O. E. S. hold their regular meetings on the first and third Thursdays in each month. Visiting members in good standing are respectfully invited to attend.
MRS. JULIA ABRAHAM, Worthy Matron. M. F. RAPP, Secretary.

TAKE NOTICE.—All persons having any business with this paper will always direct their communications to "ROSEBURG REVIEW," and not personally to any member of the firm. This observed, will prevent the delay of correspondence.

LOST.—A pocket book some where in the city of Roseburg belonging to J. H. Whitsett. It contained papers valuable to him, and would be to no one else. The finder will be liberally rewarded by returning the same to this office.

DRESSMAKING.—Mrs. J. N. Barker would announce to the public that she is now engaged in the dressmaking business, and will guarantee satisfaction in fitting, character of work and prices as well. Rooms in the Library building near City Bakery.

THE LITTLE ECHO.—The Drain Echo should learn something about the glass house theory. Never mind about our Warner ads. etc., but we would suggest to it to continue its "patent outside" for it seems to be the leading feature of that brilliant journal.

PUBLIC SCHOOL.—Last month there were 203 pupils in the public school of this city. The attendance will be in all probability quite regular through this month which will close the school year. Parents should when practicable send their children to school regularly. This they have done.

HE'S COMING.—Our agent, M. E. Pogue, will call on you from time to time in various parts of the county, and as he is a very pleasing, as well as business man, we hope you will subscribe for THE REVIEW at once, and order all your job work from this office. Don't fail to smile on him as he approaches you.

SHERIFF SALE.—Sold on execution of S. Marks & Co. last Saturday, at the Court House, the following property to wit;—To Finas Dillard 1 hay rake $21.00 A Marks 1 horse $25.00 James Sheffield 1 harness $2.00 Cyrus Smith 1 harness $3 00 William Silvers 1 wagon $34.00 Edward Singleton, harrow teeth $2.00, A Marks one mower $39.00 Cyrus Smith 1 thrasher $400.00, total receipts of sale $526.50.

CHARTS RECEIVED.—Spencerian complete charts on penmanship may be seen in our public school. There are about fifty of them and they are neatly bound so as to be the best ever made. Every school in the county should have them. By the aid of these anyone can learn penmanship easily or may be enabled to teach that art successful. We learn that they are sold by Ivison, Blakeman Taylor & Co., New York.

THE DRAMA.—The entertainment given by the fire department last Friday and Saturday evenings was well attended. The drama "Down by the Sea," was rendered in a manner that did credit to the actors. The talent displayed, on the part of some was equal to that of some proffessional actors we have seen. We have not space to enter into detail, but will say that all did well, and it was a success financially.

EXCURSION PARTY.—Judge Matthews P. Deady of the U. S. Circuit Court celebrated his 63d birthday by an excursion party in a palace car to Ashland from Portland. The distinguished party consisting of leading citizens of the state arrived in Roseburg at six o'clock Thursday evening on the return trip and remained until twelve. They were visited by the legal gentleman of the city and by many others. Judge Deady carries his years lightly and may he have many happy returns of the day.

INTERSTATE LAW.—The Interstate Commerce Laws seem to have had a benificial effect on the liquor dealers of California, increasing their spring sales over one half. Mr. Feldtman drummer for the Uncle Sam wine cellars of Napa city, in conversation last night said they generally sold about twenty car loads on their spring trip, but this spring have shipped over fifty car loads, and still have orders for more. Men who took half a car load formerly now take a full car to save duty. But this will not last forever we are sure. It is also reported that over 151 circus managers dropped their troops rather than pay duty on their baggage.

RETURNED.—Dr. E. J. Page and his three children returned to their home in Oakland last Wednesday morning from their visit in Tennessee. Mrs. Page evinced no desire to return with her children and husband, and will remain east somewhere we suppose. The Dr's many friends both in Roseburg and Oakland are anxious for him to make his home in their midst. The Dr. will cast about before he determines at which place to resume his practice. THE REVIEW bespeaks for him an extended practice, as he is skilful and successful. Welcome home and may the unseen hand direct in the training of those little children.

GONE EAST.—Rev. W. A. Smick pastor of the Presbyterian church in this city left last Tuesday morning for Omaha to attend the general assembly. Mr. Smick is an earnest zealous worker for the cause of Christ. As he stated in his farewell sermon last Sunday he has labored 14 years in this county, and when he came here there was not a Presbyterian church in the county, where now there are three with a membership of 140. The church last year received $500 from the missionary board, and will receive this year about $450. The church is growing rapidly and will soon be able to support itself without assistance from the board. During our pastors absence his pulpit will be filled by Revs. Bell, Ingle and others. He will be absent about two months.

Mrs. Dr. Rice, daughter and son are now residents of Roseburg. Mr. Lyle Rice is manipulating the night lightning at the depot, and is doing it well. We are glad for the return of these kind friends to Roseburg.

Extensive preparations have already been made for a grand celebration at Albany on the 4th of July. Officers have already been appointed. Why don't the citizens of Roseburg follow the example of her sister city?

Hannibal Smith went over to the Calapooia this week and purchased two full blooded grey hounds and we now expect to hear of the coyotes and jack rabbits all being run to the land beyond the setting sun, or in that direction.

A large number of Dr. Page's friends met him in Oakland at midnight last Wednesday to welcome him home. No doubt these kindly tokens of regard are duly appreciated by one who has passed through the fiery crucible of an indescribable misfortune.

The greatest wonder of the world the high armed, light running, self threading, no shuttle singer machine at the office of D. B Ream in Marsters drug store, also the Howard machine oil and needles and everything and anything that belongs to a sewing machine.

It is well to hear the other side, especially in international questions. In The American Magazine, June number, J. Macdonald Oxley, of the Marine Department at Ottawa, gives the Canadian view of the fishery dispute, and some interesting details about the armed vessels with which our neighbors guard the coast.

The editor of the Plaindealer will be careful in the future how he connects the name of the editor of THE REVIEW with a horse race. The Plaindealer editor turned pale when Mr. Geo. Haynes last Friday drew a "howitzer" to defend THE REVIEW editor. The trouble has been amicably settled however.

That dog that made an attack upon the corpulent part of THE REVIEW force last Saturday morning, came near going "where the woodbine twineth," or words to that effect, and THE REVIEW part came near going "where the whangdoodle mourneth," or in that dirction. Dogs are mighty bad things, and ought to be taxed $1000 each.

District Conference for the Oregon District Columbia Annual Conference M. E. Church South, will be held at Myrtle Creek, commencing June 9th, 1887, continuing over the following Sabbath and probably longer. The 3d Quarterly Conference for the Roseburg circuit will be held in connection with District Conference. Let every body come prepared to remain through the entire meeting. Those living at a distance come and camp.

The currant number of The West Shore contains many beautiful engravings of scenery in Oregon, Washington, Idaho Montana and British Columbia. Among the leading articles, are "Myths of the Columbia River Indians," "Hydraulic and Placer Mines," and "Kjokken Moddings," an essay on the shell mounds of the Northwest coast. "Mary Queen of Scots and Robt. Burns," is the title of another of those interesting rambles through Scotland. It is illustrated with numerous fine engravings. This popular western magazine has no rival in its special work of placing before the people the scenery and literature of the West, and making the world acquainted with its wonderful resources and progress. Published by L. Samuel, Portland, Oregon, at $2.50 per year.

LAUGHABLE ENTERTAINMENT.—Considering everything, the Peck Bad Boy troupe had a fair audience at Farragut theatre last evening. It was nearly 8:30 when the curtain went up, and the entertainment was opened with the laughable comedy entitled "Fun on the Boulevard." The troupe showed talent from the first move, and the audience soon laughed itself into forgetfullness of the annoying delay. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wells, M. H. Kusel and J. H. Barnes are very funny people, and soon established their popularity. "Peck's Bad Boy" come next and highly amused the audience. The preformance as a whole gave complete satisfaction.—Vallejo Daily Times.

AMENDMENT LEAGUE.—The League was called to order by the president, the regular speaker of the evening, Mr. Manning, not being present, Mr. C. A. Schlbrede of Oakland favored us with an address. He spoke of the minor issues that would arise during the coming campaign to offset the main issue, such as high license etc. Mr. S. F. Floed also gave us a short address. Mr. Benjamin on account of uncontrollable circumstances was compelled to resign his position as president and the election of another was postponed until the next meeting. Mr. G. W. Genger was elected to address the League at its next regular meeting. The meeting adjourned to meet in two weeks.

LEE BELL,
Secretary.

TO EXPLORE JOSEPHINE COUNTY CAVES.—Mr. W. G. Steel, who has imbided a love for exploration, and whetted his zeal by a journey to Crater lake last summer, proposes to explore the caves of Josephine county as soon as the weather will permit. He will go with a party of four or five, and will do his best to reach the "head waters." These caves are situate about thirty two or thirty three miles southwest of Grants Pass, and thus far have been ineffectively explored. Prof. Thomas Condon, of the university of Oregon, visited them, but for lack of time penetrated only about 600 feet. He states that so far as he went there were very few points where a man could stand upright. A Southern Oregon man, who did some exploring last summer, said he found a room fully sixty feet high. When Mr. Steel goes, it will be with the intention of staying long enough to find the innermost recesses of the cavern.—Oregonian.

Sabbath School Convention.

On last Monday evening a meeting was held at the Presbyterian church for the purpose of taking the preliminary steps for organizing a County Sabbath School Convention. The convention will consist of various Sabbath schools in the county. Many important questions relating to Sabbath school work will be discussed. The convention will be addressed by several ministers and other good speakers. The first meeting will be held in Roseburg Saturday, June 4th, when steps will be taken to permanently organize. It is possible that a Sabbath school mass meeting will be held on the Sabbath following. The executiye committee consisting of Hon. H. C. Stanton, Rev. F. Post, Hon. C. Gaddis, Mrs. W. A. Smick and A. C. Cloak will arrange an excellent programme. Mrs. S. C. Flint has been appointed musical directress for the occasion. More of the particulars will be published next week.

After the above was in type we received the following report: Prof. Horner of the Roseburg public schools, having been appointed by the secretary of the State Sunday school convention, statistical Secretary for the county of Douglas, vice Rev. W. A. Smick, issued a general invitation to all persons interested in Sunday school work to meet together for the purpose of organizing a Sunday school convention for Douglas county; in response to which a number of the residents of Roseburg and near vicinity met together in the Presbyterian church on Monday evening, the 9th of May 1887, and effected a temporary organization, Prof. Horner in the chair and Rev. Fred H. Post acting secretary. The question, "whether it is advisable to hold a Sunday school convention" was stated by the chair and a general discussion followed. Rev. J. W. Miller of the M. E. church gave a brief sketch of the history and work of the state convention, of which he has been a member for several years past. Mr. Gaddis, a Sunday school worker and superintendent of many years standing, and Mr. Cloak who has also been for a long time an earnest worker in the Sunday school spoke in favor of holding such a convention. Rev. Mr. Post of the Episcopal church being called upon by the chairman said a few words encouraging the undertaking. He said that a general meeting together of persons engaged in Sunday school work would without doubt be conducive to a better understanding of the various methods of work in the Sunday school and to mutual aid among teachers. He said that in order to make such convention a success, the special object of the undertaking must be kept very prominently in the mind. The convention is for the teachers instruction, and not for their recreation. After further remarks by Mrs. Smick and Mrs. Flint, the question was put to a vote, and it was unanimously decided to hold such convention on the fourth of June next at such place as should be afterwards determined upon by the committee appointed for the purpose. A committee on topics for the papers to be read before the convention was appointed by the chairman, and the following were suggested as likely to be interesting and instructive.

1 The relation of the Sunday school to the church. 2 The relation of teachers to scholars. 3 The object, subject-matter and method of instruction in the schools. 4 How to retain young men and women in the Sunday school, 5 How to induce scholars to commit passages of Scripture to memory. 6 The advantages of black board illustrations. 7 The duty of parents to the Sunday school. 8 The infant class instruction. 9 Chinese in the Sunday school. 10 The financial system for Sunday schools. It was further arranged the following persons should prepare papers on the above. No. 3 Rev. F. H. Post, No 4 Mr. Stanton, No 5 Rev. J. R. N. Bell, No 6 Prof. Horner, No 7 Mr. C. Gaddis Sr., Nos 8 and 9 Mrs. Smick, No 10 Mr. C. N. Gaddis of Oakland. On motion adjourned to meet at call of chairman.

Day's Creek Items.

Grass is exceedingly fine.

Rem likes to go with a Flock by himself.

It is reported that there are rich mines struck on the head of Shivley.

Frank Wooley has been sick for sometime but is improving very fast.

There will be church at the school house a year from the fourth of July, all attend.

Crops look better than for many years in this part of the county, and especially the fruit crop.

Put on your best suit Bud and talk sweet to them, and they will take you in preference to the dudes. Try, try again.

Be sure that you are ready Dennis, and be sure her papa is willing and that she is at home before you go again.

Great was the fall of Scotty. But by breaking his leg he gained his old true love again. Stay with her now, my dear boy.

Game seems to be very plentiful in this section, judging from the amount of hides that are being shipped to Canyonville.

Mr. F. M. Gabbert will move his store to Myrtle creek soon. Mrs. Gabbert's health is very poor and he wishes to be at home.

It is said there is considerable school land of very fine quality, laying vacant at the forks of the river about ten miles above Purdue. This would be about thirty miles from Canyonville.

There are about twenty men engaged in working the Coffee mines and it is thought they will average two dollars per day this season. This is not so bad. The recent rains are doing the miners much good.

The Days creek school is flourishing nicely under the management of Prof. J. Sheppard. He has fifty-eight scholars enrolled and so far has had a daily attendance of fifty-four. This is one of the most flourishing districts in the county.

Sheep shearing has commenced and it is reported that N. Pool lost four hundred and fifty head by the storm this winter. Frank Worley lost thirty-six old sheep and a hundred and fifty lambs. N. Pool also claims to have lost a hundred head of cattle. This is very severe indeed, and we hope for better fortune to our friends next winter.

Some parties by the name of Vaughn, having brought their cattle to the Elk creek country from Jackson county last fall, came down this week to see how they had spent the winter, but to their surprise found nearly fifty head shot down on the range. This is rather severe treatment to receive in a civilized country. Suspicions are strong as to who did the deed.

GENERAL.

JOHN CARTER'S VINDICATION.

LINKVILLE, Or., May 1, 1887.

EDITOR REVIEW: Will you please publish the following article which I have clipped from the Lake County Examiner at my expense for I consider that a great injustice has been done to Mr. Carter through false publications that were made by our leading papers before the facts in the case were ascertained and I wish his many friends in Douglas county and elsewhere to know the truth of the matter.

Most Respectfully Yours,
Jesse N. Banks.

Sometime since, Mr. J. W. Carter of this place, who has been for the last year a stage driver for Wm. Carll on the western route, was arrested on complaint of one Mrs. Hague, charging him with rape, committed upon her, on the road between Bly and Lakeview. The only evidence adduced against him at the examination was that of the complaining witness. In his own behalf, he submitted a complete and full denial of all her statements. The evidence of many other parties called on behalf of the defense was strong and corroborated in a circumstantial way the testimony of the defendant, showing almost conclusively to a disinterested hearer that the crime could scarcely have been committed as charged. The violent and unmanly act was committed in a sleigh, by a man of ordinary strength, and upon a person of a robust, agile, married woman; and, one might add, of very pleasing address, at least she appeared so to us as we heard her unblushingly tell the story of her alleged wrongs before a hundred persons, naming the crime adultry. Does any man believe that a virtuous woman could tell the tale she did with such stolid indifference to modesty? Does any man who heard her story believe it to be anything but a blackmailing fiction? in fact, does any one who heard the facts as she stated them believe in the probability of such a thing being physically possible? Now the finale is her departure to places unknown. She was not required to give bonds for appearence before the grand jury, though Carter's attorney asked it, and hence this "daughter of Eve of virtue bereft" has wrapped herself up and stolen away to green pastures. Yet, this matter got into the newspapers and was scattered broadcast leading the public to believe Mr. Carter a villian. He has borne a good reputation as to morality, sobriety and virtue, is respected by the better class of our citizens, and since his coming among us has so demeaned him self as to gain the respect of this community. He is here in his usual avocation awaiting his vindication, and where is the helpless and unwilling adulteress? These questions arise in the minds of justice loving citizens, and they ask for a solution. Was it to sustain the majesty of the law that compelled her to cause the arrest of Carter? She failed to distinguish the difference betweeen rape and adultery. Was it her intention to elevate the morals of the community by coming into court with her manly detail and edifying the male community by her rehearsal of the "naughty affair?" Was it anything other than a shameful attempt at black mail upon a person of unsullied reputation heretofore? It is high time that the people of this vicinity learn to distinguish between the vile stratagems of an adventuress and the honest claims of a virtuous woman, and forsooth, I think it behooves our good people to handle such characters as stringently as the law provides; and let me say further, I believe I speak the sentiments of Lakeview when I assert that Mr. Carter has been shamefully wronged by giving him this undeserved notoriety. Carter's defense by Mr. Cogswell was able and should have dispelled all doubts of guilt, since every item bearing on the case was skilfully handled.

But then withal, he was held in bonds and is now left to mourn the absence of his prosecutor. There ought to be some redress for such unwarranted injury; and yet I believe that Lakeview can only thank God that the perpetrator of this outrage on Mr. Carter has skipped out, and many of us will fervently pray that she will not henceforth be a subject of our courts nor an object of mistaken sympathy.

RIDDLE ITEMS.

The weather is an old topic, and rain, rain all the day long, makes the farmers jubilant for the crops look fine. and they hope the prices will be O. K.

An epidemic or endemic of scarlet fever is the topic of the day here, but as long as we have Dr. S. Whittemore with us we feel alright, as we believe him to be the ablest M. D. in southern Oregon.

The school of this place closed doors for the present on account of scarlet fever.

Hon. Geo. W. Colvig our R. R. agent for several years and ex-state senator left us for the purpose of taking care of his father and mother at Rock Point, Jackson Co. Oregon. He leaves a host of friends and they wish him health and success. Mr. Gilmore of West Fork succeeds him.

We are sorry to learn that Dr. S. Whittemore intends to leave this place and Myrtle for Roseburg, at the same time our loss is Roseburg's gain. We can reccomend him as a No. 1. M. D.

The Riddle hotel is in charge of Messrs. W. and H. Nickols. They keep a No. 1 hotel.

CUMTUX.

Riddle Items.

It is reported that Stilly Riddle's folks have the mumps.

B. R. Mynatt and wife are visiting with relatives in Cow creek valley.

The weather being so rough, delays the several parties who are going to Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Sanderson has been very sick for sometime but is improving and we hope will soon be well.

Several of the miners have returned from Whisky creek and report plenty of gold but very hard work to get it.

Seymore Catching's house caught fire on Saturday, and but for the timely aid of the neighbors would have been consumed.

We are sorry to learn that Frank Cane the worthy section foreman of Salt creek, is very sick but under the able treatment of Dr. Cathey, think he will soon recover.

Our friend John David Cornutt has been very unfortunate. Three of his children took the scarlet fever, and on Sunday evening the oldest boy died. The community sympathizes very deeply with the bereaved parents.

Geo. W. Colvig former agent for the O. & C. R. R. at this place has moved on to his fathers farm in Jackson county for the purpose of taking care of his aged parents. Mr. Gilmore formerly of West Fork has taken his place at Riddle.

Mrs. John Chapman and her mother who have been visiting friends and relatives in Canyonville, left on Monday evening's train for their home in Montana. They report that John Chapman who was a former resident of this county, lost one thousand six hundred sheep out of a band of eight thousand.

RAILROAD COMMISSION.

Routine Business only Transacted at its First Meeting—It Adjourns.

The railroad commission, which has been in session since last Monday, occupied its time only in the transaction of routine business, and in mapping out plans for future work. The following rules respecting the verifications of petitions and answers and the service and form of notice were adopted:

Rule 1. All petitions to the board and answers thereto by parties complained of shall be verified in the same manner as petitions and complaints in the courts in the state are required to be verified by the civil code of Oregon.

Rule 2. Notice of the filing of a petition making complaint against any corporation shall issue under the seal of the board and shall be served ten days before the party complained of shall be required to answer. Such notice shall be served by the clerk of the board sending to the party complained of a copy of the notice, together with a copy of the complaint enclosed in a letter, directed to the party to be served at his address or postoffice where he resides or usually receives his mail, the said letter to be registered and sent through the United States mail; service to be deemed complete after the mailing of such letter, when the usual time has elapsed for the conveyance of the United States mail from the place where such letter was mailed to its destination. The clerk shall make his return of service on the original notice, and file the same in the office of the board. Service of said notice may be made upon a corporation by serving the same on any officer or person connected therewith, upon whom a summons in an action at law can be made under the civil code in like cases. Said notice shall be in the following form:

Office of the Board of Railroad Commissioners of the State of Oregon.

To ——————:

You are hereby notified that———— has filed in the office of the board of railroad commissioners for the state of Oregon a complaint against you, a copy of which is hereto attached, and by the order of said board you are hereby called upon to satisfy the said complaint, or answer the same in writing within ten days from the service thereof.

Salem, Oregon, —— —, 188-.

Yesterday morning, the board adjourned to meet in special session at the St. Charles hotel in Portland, on Monday, May 9, 1887.

ROSEBURG.

This city is situated in the center of a great fruit growing and agricultural region, the finest we may say, in the world, taking into consideration the climate, soil, latitude and longitude.

This city is also in the center of a great timber belt of the Pacific slope. It is here all the valleys center from the Cascade and Coast Ranges of mountains. On the heads of the streams in the mountains are vast bodies of sugar pine, cedar and fir timber and along the margin of the streams there is considerable soft maple and ash timber and the foot hills are covered with white and black oak timber that is quite valuable for fuel, furniture and machinery now being utilized quite largely in the latter as it is found to be very tough, elastic and durable.

The soils have been formed by deposits from the hills and mountains and are being continually renewed each year by sedimentary deposits from the same sources, washed down by the rains and melting snow, furnishing an inexhaustible fertilization.

The grand trunk railway, the O. & C R. R. runs north and south through the county passing this city, furnishing ample facilities for travel and transportation for all the products of the soil and lumber that may be manufactured to all parts of the country.

Now when we get a railway to Coos bay on the west and to connect with one of the main lines of railroads from the East as we shall have at no distant day. Roseburg will become one of the most thriving towns on the coast and our county will not be behind in the race for wealth and general prosperity.

Then when we take into consideartion a climate the most equable and salubrious of any county in the United States, the advantages of Roseburg as a home, permanent or temporary, cannot be excelled any where.

BOUGHT.—The Pacific Improvement Company—that is, the Southern Pacific Railroad Company—has bought the new narrow-gauge line between this city and Dundee. the key to the narrow gauge system in the Willamette valley. The chief purpose of this purchase was, no doubt, to secure a level rout into Portland for the O. & C. trains and for through California trains. Either the link between Junction City and Corvallis will be closed, or connection between the east and west side lines will be made at Ray's Landing and all O. & C. general trains will come in on the west side. A third rail will probably be laid, making the road available for both standard and narrow-gauge cars.—Oregonian.

FIRST OREGON STRAWBERRIES FOR 1887.

Roseburg sends in a small shipment—the fruit as a weather "land mark."

The weather has not been the most pleasant imaginable for the past week or ten days and there has been no end to growling on that account. The general verdict is that no such spring has ever been seen in Oregon. This shows how forgetful people are of their blessings and what a tendency they have to magnify their troubles. Yesterday the first lot of Oregon strawberries of the season, eight pounds, was received here from Mr. Bellows, of Roseburg. In looking over the files of The Oregonian for last year, it is found that the very first lot of Oregon strawberries was received here from The Dalles May 22, and there were none for sale in the markets till the 25th, when they came in from both The Dalles and Southern Oregon. The paper of May 26 says: "Those who grumbled about the showery weather of last week would be glad to see a smart shower now." In the paper of May 17 mention is made of "the moist cloudy weather of the past few weeks" and of the fact that the sun came out on that day and the thermometer went up to 81 degrees and it seemed as if summer had come to stay. And then follow some remarks about the cool, moist weather being all for the best.

So it seems that there was as much cool, moist weather last spring as we have had this spring, and probably more. In 1885 Oregon strawberries were received here about the 5th, of May. The spring was dry and warm, and great fears were expressed that there would be poor crops on account of lack of rain. And so it goes. If there is lack of rain we whine, and if there is plenty we growl and belie our glorious climate. In a short time we will have the most lovely weather imagniable, and while longing for occasional showers, will not be worried by fears of drouht. The rain is the glory of Oregon, and it is seldom that we get too much of it.—Oregonian.

CARD OF THANKS.

ROSEBURG, OR., May 5, 1887.

I wish to express my thanks to the ladies of Roseburg for the care and attention to my mother Mrs. Sarah Taylor in her recent sickness and death, that I think all was done for her that was possible to be done, and the ones who did for her have my most hearty thanks.

Yours Truly,

WHO WILL APPLY?

SOUTH GASTON, N. C. April 29, 1887.

To whom it may concern, After thinking over the many troubles of life through which we all are subject to, I have concluded a companion for life would add to my happiness as a woman is dependent upon father or husband all through life, therefore if any gentleman wishes to correspond with me with the view of marrying, and getting a kind companion he is at liberty to do so, and I will answer his letters, provided he is not a disapated man and a christian gentlemen is preferred. I can give the best reference if desired. Awaiting an answer I remain true, with the understanding I am at liberty to ask for good reference where the gentleman lives who may correspond with me. Address as above S. R.

The Nanaimo Sufferers.

THE REVIEW office will receive any and all contributions to the Nanaimo Sufferers and acknowledge the receipt of same in its columns, and forword to the proper authorities for distribution, free of charge. This is a worthy cause and Roseburg should do some thing.

Looking Glass Items.

Misting rain to-day.

Base ball is raging very high with the young men of Looking Glass. They think they are the champion players.

Oh Mary don't feel offended at O. for going to supper with U. M. last Friday night for I know she couldn't help it.

School is getting along as well as could be expected, about eighty-eight students attending. Prof. H. D. Thomas principal, Miss Mollie Callahan assistant.

Mr. White our late artist has been taking pictures of residences in Looking Glass for a week or two. He took the Looking Glass school house, it is grand I'll tell you.

Oma was up to make Lizzie and Ada a visit last Sunday. I suppose she enjoyed her self as smiles flashed over her face as she passed through the village on her way home.

Our May dance came off very quietly last Friday evening, no better time could be expected, good music was furnished by Mr. Cal Wright on the violin assisted by Miss Belle Waters as second on the organ.

CLOE.

The Effects of Mental Exhaustion.

Many diseases, especially those of the nervous system, are the products of daily renewed mental exhaustion. Business avocations often involve an amount of mental wear and tear very prejudicial to physical health, and the proffessions, if arduously pursued, are no less destructive to brain and nerve tissue. It is one of the most important attributes of Hostetters's Stomach Bitters, that it compensates for this undue loss of tissue, and that it imparts new energy to the brain and nerves. The rapidity with which it renews weakened mental energy and physical vitality is remarkable, and shows that its invigorating properties are of the highest order. Besides increasing vital stamina, and counteracting the effects of mental exhaustion, this potential medicine cures and prevents fever and ague, rheumatism chronic dyspepsia and constipation, kidney and uterine weakness and other complaints. Physicians also commend it as a medicated stimulant and remedy.

Cure for Piles.

Piles are frequently precededby a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanco's Pile remedy, which acts directly upon the parts effected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address, The Dr. Bosanco Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by Dr. S. Hamilton.
