ROSEBURG CHAPTER No. 8 O. E. S. hold their regular meetings on the first and third Thursdays in each month. Visiting members in good standing are respectfully invited to attend.
MRS. JULIA ABRAHAM, Worthy Matron. M. F. RAPP, Secretary.

WANTED.—A girl or woman who is a good cook. Inquire of Mrs. Moore at Moore's restaurant.

MACHINERY.—Thos. L. Gannon keeps the Osborne machinery the best in the world and will not be undersold by any standard machinery. Come and see me.

CATHOLIC MISSION.—A mission will be given at St. Stephen's Roman Catholic Church in Roseburg under the direction of Rev. Father McLoughlin, a missionary of the Redemptorist's Order. It is to begin on Sunday, July 31st, and will last for several days. Everybody invited to attend. J. HEINRICH.

NOW OR NEVER.—"Don't let your best opportunities pass you like the sunbeams"—No, when you see the sample casket of Plated Silver Ware from the Standard Silver Ware Co. of Boston, Mass. with all statements about the ware printed by the aforesaid firm, or those interested in the growth of Methodism, see our fine Illustrated History of Methodism, or see the just merits of the Patent fence, carefully deliberate and quickly decide, if you can, and let M. E. Judkins take your order. Yours for honor.
M. E. Judkins.

HOT DAYS.—We have a hot day in Oregon occasionally, or think we do, which amounts to the same thing. But our most perspiring growler must be shamed into silence at Chicago's record of Sunday which showed the record at 90 deg. at 7 in the morning and 102 deg. at noon, the hospitals full of men prostrate and unconscious from the heat, and a mortality list of sixty-two from its fierce effects. Joliet, some fifty miles south of Chicago, beat even this record, coming in with 100 deg at day break and 113 deg. at noon. Such a degree of heat as this, if it does not wholly prostrate people, renders them so limp that breathing is a burden and sleep impossible.

RELIGIOUS.—A gentleman of this city received information that Rev. T. J. Conner will preach at the Pine Grove church on or about the first Sunday in August, instead of the last Sunday in July as has been announced. The Rev. Mr. Conner was the leader of the first band of missionaries sent out by the U. B. church to this coast. He was once elected acting bishop; was one of the principal founders of Philomath college, and has filled many other responsible positions in church and educational work. He is one of the most eloquent ministers, who have visited this coast and it is to be hoped that arrangements can be made so that he may preach at least once in Roseburg ere he leaves for his present home in Indianapolis.

THE STATE FAIR.—The Oregon State Fair will begin on September 12th and continue for twelve days. Special efforts will be made this year to make the fair more successful than usual. For instance, a prize of $150 will be given to the county making the finest display of sheaf and shelled grain and vegetables and fruit. The premiums on industrial exhibits have been largely increased. A prize of $500 is offered for the best drilled militia company in the State. This will be a specially interesting feature. The following named persons have horses on the fair grounds which they are training for the races: T. H. Tongue of Hillsboro, L. B. Lindsey of Portland, John Pender of Salem, and Major J. L. Halleck of Dilley, W. T.

OUR POLITEST BOW.—The Portland News hits the nail square on the head in the compliment to Oregon's country press and in return in behalf of the fraternity THE REVIEW doffs its hat and makes its politest bow. Here is what the News says: "The character and excellences of the country press of Oregon is so high that of themselves they speak volumes of praise for the communities which they represent. No one who investigates this matter can fail to note their whole-souled loyality and enthusiasm. Their existence and outward evidence of prosperity afford a tolerably accurate index to the condition of the people. A paper is seldom better than the community in which it is published demands. The majority of the country papers of this State are away above the average of country journalism. They are not only newsy, but are edited by men who show evidence of aptitude for their work by the character of the news given and the bright manner in which it is presented to their readers. In editorial expression they are always alive to the true interests of their patrons."

SCHOOL MONEY DISTRIBUTED.—Acting in accordance with the directions of the board of commissioners for the sale of state lands, Treasurer Webb is now engaged in sending to the various county treasurers their proportion of the state school money, which is the accrued interest on the irreducible school fund. The amount to be disbursed is over $87,400, just one dollar for each person of school age in the state. This is the largest amount of school money which has ever been sent from the office of the state treasurer. Last year the amount averaged 90 cents, and this year's distribution counts up 10 cents more, as stated. The irreducible school fund is loaned out at an average of 8 per cent., and brings in a bout $90,000 per year. The present fund, about $1,200,000, is being increased at the rate of from $15,000 to $20,000 per month, from the sale of school lands. Proportionately, Oregon has one of the largest school funds of any state in the Union. With careful and judicious use of the interest, it ought to be an easy matter for the state to maintain its rank as having the second least percentage of illiterates in proportion to its population.—Statesman.

The Columbia Fire and Marine Insurance Company, the Northwest Fire and Marine and the Oregon State Insurance Company joined the Union on Saturday. This makes the compact solid, and all take risks at the same rate.

Murder, mob law and lynching seems to run riot. Kelty and Hong Di lynched and now comes J. Jaskulek and deposeth that he has assassinated old High Price, alias Big Profit. Go to his bargain store and discover the fact.

Not a particle of calomel, nor any other deleterious substance, enters into the composition of Ayer's Pills. On the contrary, this medicine is carefully compounded from the curative properties of purely vegetables substances. Try it.

A. Salzman, Chas. Clements, H. Parry and Oscar Benedick returned from their pleasure trip to Brewster valley Saturday evening, much to the suprise of those who saw them start on their trip. They report having had a most enjoyable time.

The lowest bid for carrying the mail from and to the depot and post office at this place per year, was $330. The department did not accept and sends word that only $200 will be allowed for this purpose. It remains to be seen what will be done in the matter.

If you wish to restore the bloom to your wasted cheek, and so improve your health that plumpness and strength will succeed emaciation and debility, purify your blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This remedy will benefit you more surely and speedily than any other.

The prices at which the Beethoven Piano-Organ Company, of Washington, Warren Co, N. J. offer to sell their magnificent Pianos and Organs, are astonishingly low, while the instruments themselves are unsurpassed in quality and durability. Write them for particulars.

John W. Lincoln has secured the agency for the California Nursery Co., and is prepared to furnish all kinds of fruit trees and vines. Our farmers are rapidly turning attention to fruit cultivation as a sure means of money-making. Mr. Lincoln has placed an ad. in THE REVIEW. Read it.

Dr. M. T. Crawford, for several years past a resident of this city, died of dropsy on Wednesday morning, after an illness of considerable length. He was over sixty years of age, and came to Roseburg from California, where his family resides. He was buried in the Masonic cemetery.

Hon. Hyman Abrahams, of Portland, came up on a visit to friends on Monday and was serenaded by the Junior band on Tuesday evening. Mr. Abrahams has a host of friends in old Douglas who rejoice in his good fortune in being appointed collector of customs at Portland.

Many friends of THE REVIEW have dropped into see us this week, but deputy sheriff Sam Miller, who used to be a daily visitor has failed to put in his appearance. Never mind Sam, she'll return. This item is in to fill up and to give our correspondents a sample of the kind we dont want.

The Polk County Itemizer reports a supposed case of hydrophobia. Some two months since the 9 year old daughter of F. D. Hellrey, who resides near Willamina, was bitten by a dog, which was immediately killed. Since then the child has been gradually falling off, and she is now afflicted with periodical fits, and Dr. Fields, of Sheridan, thinks it is hydrophobia, as all the symptoms of that terrible disease are present.

Geo. H. Saubert, foreman of the Statesman office, is on his way to the Siuslaw country, where, for a couple of weeks, he will visit his father, Dr. Wm. Saubert, who is in the lumbering and mercantile business at Acme. He is expected to visit his Roseburg friends before returning.

A. L. Talmage, the founder of the West Side Telephone, has sold his interest in that paper to H. L. Heath. The new management will not only change the mechanical style of the paper, making it a seven column folio, but will also change the political aspect to a straight out and out Democratic journal.

Haying is about completed in the Willamette Valley. The crop is good and has been harvested without the interference of rain. Wheat cutting has already commenced what is a good crop and in about two weeks more threshers will be filling up bushel after bushel of great brown ricks of sacks which a little later on the farmer will convert into an equal number of big American dollars. With this condition of things times ought to be lively in the Willamette Valley this fall.

The Dallas Itemizer is making itself ridiculous shouting over the Kelty lynching, and vociferating the query, "Is Polk county under mob law," While THE REVIEW deprecates mob violence, lynching and other crimes, still Kelty deserved hanging and the foulest crime that was ever committed in Oregon was his murdering his wife. Shout a little on that subject, neighbor, and it will look less as though there would have been an attempt to defraud justice by allowing Kelty to escape the meshes of the law.

Special attention is called to the advertisement of the Portland Business College which appears in another column. This school has been in successful operation for more than twenty years and is favorable known in all sections of the Pacific Northwest. The school now employs six teachers and has in operation a shorthand and type-writing department and a common school department in addition to the Business College. THE REVIEW takes great pleasure in recommending the school to the favorable consideration of its readers. Those feeling the need of a practial education should send for a copy of the catalogue, from which full particulars concerning the school can be learned.

The gang of jolly fishermen that have been taking an outing in the Coast Range, returned last Saturday night, tired and dusty, but chuck full of talk. The yarns they told would have done justice to older hands at the business. Salzman eat so many minnows that the bones worked out between his ribs so thick that he has not been able to change his shirt since coming in. The boys say he looks like a cross between the "fretful porcupine" and a pin-cushion. Among the rest of the curiosities brought in, was a fossil specimen that Clements tried to play off on the boys as bread; but we must take all their fishy yarns with a grain of allowance for

Fishermen will fish,
And fishermen will lie;
And what a fisherman cannot catch
A fisherman will buy.

OAKLAND ITEMS

Miss Mira Cathcart of Cottage Grove is in Oakland visiting, the guest of Mrs. Katy Churchill.

G. J. Stearns and wife have returned from Elkton whither they went to visit Hon Henry Brown and family.

G. W. Dimmick was in Oakland Wednesday consulting a physician in regard to an injury received by falling from his wagon. We wish him a speedy recovery.

The Baily Hotel is now closed, Mrs. Baily having gone to Roseburg to take charge of the Depot hotel at that place we regret this change, but wish Mrs. Baily the success she deserves in her new enterprise.

We came nearly having an ugly fire near town last Monday by the dry grass being accidently set on fire. Every one should be very cautious with matches or other means of starting fire at this season of the year.

Prof. G. T. Russell, our townsman, was elected Grand Master of the Ancient Order of United Workman at the session held in Portland. The Prof. has been a zealous member of this order since its organization in this state, and worthily merited the highest honor within the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge.

Messrs. Page & Dimmick have purchased the entire stock of Drugs, Medicines &c, of De Vore Bros. These gentlemen are well and favorably known in the Drug trade, and we bespeak for them the same large and liberal patronage they once enjoyed. The business will, we understand be run on the cash system.

Looking Glass Notes.

The days of summer excursions are upon us.

Concerts and church sociables too numerous to mention.

Horse back riding is the popular recreation nowadays.

Mr. A. E. Smith and family of Nonpariel spent a few days here visiting releatives and friends.

Miss Pearl Wright of Roseburg is here visiting her grandparents Mr. and Mrs P. W. Williams.

Jeff and Budd Williams have gone to the beautiful valley of Brewster to try their luck at hunting and fishing.

Mrs. D. S. West and Mrs. Godfrey of Roseburg were guests of Mrs. C. W. Wright's on Wednesday last.

Miss Annie Kent of Civil Bend was in town Sunday night while on her way to visit her sister living at Port Orford.

Divine service at the school house next Sunday at eleven, also on the fifth Sunday at four P. M. by Rev. G. W. Miller.

Miss Ida Goodman who has been visiting here for some time past returned to her home last Saturday accompanied by Miss Mary Mynatt.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Waters and Miss Bell Waters spent a few days of recreation last week on Hubbards Creek and at the Fishery.

Mr. Frank Lehnherr, Roseburg's tonsorial artist on his return from Brewster valley spent a few days in our Village. "Her bright smiles haunt me still."

Mr. Dave Noah the black-smith who on the account of ill health went to Camas Valley to spend a few weeks. has returned looking well and hearty and ready for work.

"Well, well. if they aint all getting married. I wonder who'll be left for me. I'm trying my best to get entangled in the prevailing matrimonial boom."———young man.

Walter Wooden the son of Mrs. Geo Wilson who died in Salem was buried at the Looking Glass cemetery on Monday July 11th at 2 oclock P. M. The afflicted mother sisters and brothers have the sympathy of this community in this dark hour of affliction and bereavement. M. C.

HEAR HIM CROW!

OLD PUBLIC OPINION LIFTS HIS VOICE IN CLARION TONES.

How dear to my heart is the elegant rooster—
Old public opinion we all know so well,
Who lifts up his voice when people are tickled,
And crows when his tidings are joyful to tell.
The dooster, the booster,
The bouncing old rooster,
The bully old rooster with tidings to tell.

Now lately this rooster has taken to crowing
In favor of us and the goods we sell.
Our trade is unceasing and daily increasing,
Due to puplic opinion we know very well.
Then hurrah for the rooster!
The bouncing old booster,
The bully old rooster with tidings to tell,
At Moore & Evans's postoffice store.

AS IT SHOULD BE.

THE CLEVELAND ADMINISTRATION ORDERS WAGON ROAD FRAUDS INVESTIGATED.

A Washington dispatch gives the pleasant information that the present honest and vigorous national administration of public affairs is to investigate the wagon road frauds in this state. The telegram reads as follows:

"The secretary of the interior has concurred in the recommendation of the commissioner of the general land office of May 10th last, that a commission be appointed to make a thorough and exhaustive investigation of the Willamette valley and Cascade mountain wagon road, The Dalles military wagon road and the Oregon Central wagon road, in the state of Oregon, especially as to whether those roads have been constructed, and whether or not the certificates of the governor of the completion of said roads were obtained by false and fraudulent representations made by parties interested in obtaining said lands. The secretary has appointed John B. McName, of Cleveland, Ohio, now of the adjutant general's office, to represent the department on the commission, and will soon appoint two others to represent the general land office, on recommendation of the commissioner. The investigation will be commenced early in August. Complaint is made to the general land office that neither of these wagon roads have been completed according to law, although their completion has been duly certified to by a former governor of Oregon. The grants to these roads aggrgate about 2,300,000 acres."

A DANGEROUS WEED,

OUR FARMERS SHOULD DECLARE WAR ON THE HYPERICUM PERFORATUM.

A short time since, T. J. Singleton handed C. W. Johnston a very peculiar looking weed, which has grown very rank on Deer Creek and is spreading very rapidly. Mr. Johnston sent the plant to Washington for investigation and has just received the following reply:

Washington, D. C., July 14th.

Mr. C. W. Johnston, Roseburg, Oregon. Dear Sir: Your letter of the 6th inst. and the package containing specimens of weed for investigation have been duly received and referred to the Botanist of the Department who reports that the plant is botanically called Hypericum Perforatum, the common Saint John's wort, a common weed in the Eastern states, and quite difficult to exterminate. Farmers should make war against it upon its first appearance, and prevent its spreading. It is a native of Europe, but has become extensively naturalized in this and other countries. Respectfully,

NORMAN J. COLMAN, Commissioner.

SAVE YOUR FRUIT.

SOME GOOD ADVICE TO FARMERS FROM A PRACTICAL SOURCE.

"Tell the people to dry and save their fruit this year, as everything indicates that it will bring a good price," is the remark of one of the most wide-awake and best-posted farmers to a REVIEW reporter. We consider this good advice and present it to our many country readers. The time is here in this magnificent country of ours, when everybody should be on the high road to prosperity. Cultivate diversified crops, pay more attention to your orchards. There's a fortune in prunes. Eighteen pounds of dried fruit from a green bushel, at 10 cents per pound will make $1.80 per bushel. Save your fruit, subscribe for THE REVIEW, get rich and be happy.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepard, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at 50 cents a bottle and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25cents per box by Marster's & Co.

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes, that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs: had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, did so and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all Coughs and Colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands wose lives have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery Trial Bottles free at A. C. Marsters & Co's. Drug Store.

A. E. Clayton of Coles valley came near meeting with an accident last week. While crossing the river near Clark & Baker's saw mill in an old boat, it filled with water and went under. Mr. Clayton had taken the precaution to loosen his horses from the wagon and they jumped off and swam ashore and the wagon being light, the boat righted and was towed ashore by Mr. Davidson in a skiff.

Liver Pills.

Use Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills for Sallow Complexion, Pimples on the face and Biliousness. Never sickens or gripes. Only one for a dose. Samples free at W. S. Hamiltons.

THE COUNTY FAIR.

A CORRESPONDENT GIVES SOME INTERESTING FACTS CONCERNING IT.

EDITOR REVIEW:—Having recently traveled through the southwestern portion of Douglas county, I have noted the following facts. Crossing at Winston's ferry, I found large quantities of lumber and plank piled up and other preparations being made to commence the construction of the new county bridge across the South Umpqua river. About one mile from the ferry, I found several men and teams at work on the new fair grounds. Nature seems to have designed this place for a public park or fair ground. W. R. Wells was superintending the work and expressed great confidence in the ultimate success of the enterprise. I might here mention that since Mr. Wells became a consistent Prohi, the people speak very highly of him. Meeting Mr. Brockway, who is president of the "Agricultural and Mechanical Union," of Douglas county, I got the names of the officers of the association. Mr. Brockway is an old settler and a well-to-do farmer having served this county in the state legislature, and also as commissioner. E. H. Lenox, the secretary, is a young, energetic farmer and a graduate of Portland Business College. The financial agent is James Byron, a French gentleman from Cork, whose energies were developed in the charging squadrons of Phil Sheridan, and will not now be repulsed by an Oregonian—his business is to sell stock and he sells it. The company's treasurer was well chosen, it is James Davlin, a successful prudent farmer and financier. James Dillard, W. C. Winston and Jeptha Green are of the board of managers. They are strong, honest successful men. So you see, Mr. Editor, that with such men as those for leaders the first county fair must be a great success.

OTHER ITEMS.

Throughout Civil Bend, Olalla, Ten Mile and Camas Valley the spirit of enterprise can be observed everywhere. The crops are generally good, work very plentiful and money more easily got than in the recent past. In that particular portion of Douglas county there are without doubt some live active farmers. Last week, I am told, frost visited Camas Valley and injured some gardens, George Smith having fifteen acres of corn bitten.

Great surprise is expressed on account of the failure of the county road from Looking Glass to Lenox's gate in Civil Bend. Get up your petition again, boys, the people almost unanimously favor your road. Circulate your petition out and you will certainly succeed.

VERITAS.

EAST PORTLAND.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS REPORTED FOR THAT ENTERPRISING CITY.

THE REVIEW is always pleased to speak a good word for any neighboring city, and calls attention to the glowing great expectations of East Portland, as voiced by the Star of that place. Here is the item:

"East Portland is probably the most prosperous town in Oregon. It has excellent manufacturing facilities and such have but recently been placed to a practical test. As a location for residence, it offers many exceptional inducements, and in view of the fact that many Portlanders whose business is located on the other side prefer a residence in East Portland, it is but a matter of little time when our's will be the city. In the course of a few months, East Portland will be illuminated with electric lights, and have railroads connecting with all places in our vicinity. New business will spring up, and every available space will be occupird by thrift and toil. Our enterprising ferry company will run a line of horse cars to Selwood, Vancouver and Albina, not ignoring Mount Tabor, and many other places. We can likewise reasonably expect to see Oregon City and East Portland united by a street railway, and pleasant excursions and picnic resorts located between the two cities. We will guarantee a remunerative return upon any investment in East Portland, that cannot be equalled elsewhere. Many eastern capitalists seeking investments, will find a richer harvest in store for them in our locality, than in any other part of the country. Now is the time, and the watchword "invest!"

THE OREGON PACIFIC.

A CONTRACT LET FOR ITS COMPLETION TO THE CASCADE SUMMIT.

The contract has been let for the work of construction on the Oregon Pacific railroad eastward of Albany to the summit of the Cascade mountains. Contractor Nelson Bennett, who has been engaged in railroad work on the Northern Pacific secured the contract for the construction of 40 miles of the new road. It is expected that the work of construction will commence at the east bank of the South Santiam river, follow the line of the permanent locatiou to and across the crossing of the North Santiam to a point constituting a distance of about thirty miles. Then starting from a point in the Cascade mountains, in the pass known as Hogg Pass, and thence westward along the line of the permanent location for a distance of ten miles, including such additional work as shall be designated by the general manager within thirty days from date of contract, eastward from the end of the first thirty miles. It is expected that the work of construction will commence as soon as the tools and appliances can be forwarded to the front. The work is to be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible and consequently will give employment to a great many men.

Track-laying has already commenced on the portion of the road already graded between Albany and the Santiam. A force of 75 extra Chinamen were also put on and this portion of the road will be completed immediately, in order to furnish means of transporting the materials for work on the road eastward.—Albany Herald.

Cure for Piles.

Piles are frequently precededby a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanco's Pile remedy, which acts directly upon the parts effected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address, The Dr. Bosanco Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by Dr. S. Hamilton.

ARCHBISHOP SEGHERS KILLED CROP OUTLOOK—OIL WORKS BURNED—WHEAT BURNED—THE HOT WAVE.

ARCHBISHOP SEGHERS KILLED.

Information has just come to San Francisco by the latest Alaska steamer, that the Catholic Archbishop, Charles J. Seghers, formerly of Oregon, was shot and killed on the Yukon river by a traveling companion named Fuller. It appears that the two men, accompanied by a party of Indians, in November last were traveling in the wilds of Alaska. On the 27th day of that month, says one of the Indians, Fuller became morose and quarrelsome, and desired to camp at a certain place, but the Bishop acted on the advice of the Indians and the party moved on. Fuller complained that more attention was paid to the Indians than to him. He talked about it constantly. In the morning Fuller arose first and said: "Bishop, get up!" The Bishop lifted his head and half arose, when Fuller shot him with a rifle, the bullet struck squarely in the forehead, killing instantly. One of the Indians, being awake, saw it all, and secured the murderer, who will be taken to Sitka for trial. When interviewed by priests he confesses his crime and cries about it. Fuller was formerly a watchmaker in Portland and went to Alaska with the Archbishop. Most Reverend Charles John Seghers was born in Belgium, December 29, 1839, ordained a priest in 1863; moved to Victoria in the same year; appointed administrator of Vancouver Island in 1871 and Bishop in 1873; made a missionary tour of Alaska in 1878, accomplishing much goed; appointed coadjutor to Archbishop Blanchet in 1878, and succeeded him in 1880; resigned in 1883, and went for further missionary work to Alaska in July 1886. At Rome he had received a special blessing from Pope Pius IX, and had been twice invested with the pallium.

Archbishop Seghers once lectured before the Philalathean literary society in this city on the subject, "Truth." He was an able man, an eloquent speaker and universally beloved.

THE CROP OUTLOOK.

The drought throughout the northwestern states injured all crops more or less. Corn, although not materially damaged so far, is commencing to show the effects of the dry season, and must suffer considerably if rain does not fall soon in sufficient quantity. As a result of the drought the oat crop is ripening too fast, and, without rain, will hardly make three-quarters of a crop. Estimates of the average yield in different states of winter wheat is as follows: Illinois, 15 bushels per acre; Indiana, 15; Kansas, 17 in some counties, much lighter in others and the average will be very poor; Kentucky, 13; Missouri, 19; Wisconsin, 17; Ohio reports a good crop, but no figures are given. The spring wheat report indicates an average of 72 per cent, with almost a total failure on account of insects in six counties in Iowa; in Minnesota, 71 per cent; in Nebraska, 84 per cent; in Dakota, 89 per cent. Throughout the states mentioned, pastures are suffering from lack of rain. Potatoes and apples do not promise much more than a half crop. Hay will hardly reach that figure.

1,100,000 BUSHEL OF WHEAT BURNED.

The St. Anthony elevator, triple structure, the largest in the Northwest, located on the Manitoba road, two miles east of Minneapolis, was totally destroyed by fire, Tuesday night, together with contents, about 1,100,000 bushels of wheat. Loss on building and machinery will be about $250,090, on grain $825,000; fully insured. The wheat destroyed was one-tenth of the visible supply of the Northwest outside of Duluth. The origin of the fire is unknown. Two watchmen were on duty in the engine-room, but cannot tell the cause.

STANDARD OIL WORKS ON FIRE.

Fire in the Standard Oil Company's works at Constable Hook N. J. broke out at 12:30oclock Wednesday morning. The flames rapidly spread and at three o'clock the barrel factory, supply house and warehouses were entirely consumed, and the sulphur factory of T. & S. White's was on fire and the whole town was threatened. The loss has reached $1,000,000.

THE HOT WAVE.

Saturday and Sundays were the hottest days ever experienced in Chicago and throughout Illinois, West Virginia, Indiana, Michigan, Missouri, Pennsylvania and Ohio, the thermometer indicating from 100 to 113 degrees in the shade. Hundreds of people were prostrated, some two hundred dying. There has been nothing like it for thirty years.

The Beginning of the End.

The beginning of disease is a slight debility or disorder of some of the vital organs, the stomach, the liver or the bowels usually. There are dyspeptic symptoms, the liver is troublesome, the skin grows tawny and unhealthy looking, there are pains in the right side or through the right shoulder blade. The climax is often an utter prostration of the physical energies, perhaps a fatal issue. But if the difficulty is met in time with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is always effective as a remedy, and it should be resorted to at an early stage, there will be no reason to apprehend those injurious subsequent effects upon the system often entailed by entirely cured diseases. Far better is it also, to employ this safe remedial agent in fever and ague, and other malarial complaints, than quinine and other potent drugs, which, even when they do prove effectual for a time, ruin the stomach and impair the general health.

AN ANSWER DEMANDED.

Is There a Hidden Cause for Most Suffering? A Careful Investigation.

The inhabitants of Boston and New England have been considerably awakened the past week over some important facts which have come out in articles in the papers as to the real cause of most modern diseases. Every one has known that there has been some mysterious cause for unexplained suffering that even the doctors could not account for. A hidden disease has been shown to be the real cause of most so called pneumonia, convulsions, apoplexy, etc. If this is true, it is of greatest importance that we understand it thoroughly. With this end in view, a representative of this paper has collected facts from various sources which are given herewith.

REPORTER AND DOCTOR.

Dr. J. H. Cutler, who resides at 20 Popular street, said: "I have, in common with all physicians, observed the alarming increase of kidney diseases leading to that fearful scourge, Bright's disease, and have been constantly seeking for the proper means of meeting it. I have been prescribing Hunt's Remedy for a great many of my patients with great success. I also administered it to my mother, and with much benefit."

Mr. Samuel Littlefield, 1482 Washington street, said: "I was troubled with kidney disease for years, which finally turned to gravel. I would be free from suffering for a long while, and then have the most terrible pains in my back. I also had inflammation of the worst kind in my bladder, and I was altogether in a fearful condition. I went to several physicians, but all to no purpose, and I found I was growing very feeble. A friend in Malden urged me to use Hunt's Remedy. He had been cured of gravel and liver complaint by its use, and believed it would help me. Well, its effect was wonderful, and I cannot too highly thank my friend for the timely recommendation he made. I wish I could make every one know and understand what a valuable medicine it is."

Mrs. Wm. Gray, 1416 Tremont street, said: "I was troubled with kidney disease for a number of years, at times being so bad from swollen limbs and pains in the back that I was completely under the doctor's care. I received only temporary benefit until I began using Hunt's Remedy, which cured me entirely, and I cannot say too much in its favor."

Captain Joseph L. Hayden, connected with the Walworth Manufacturing Company, residing at 924 East Fourth street, South Boston, spoke in the highest terms of Hunt's Remedy. "Many of my friends in Enfield, Mass., have used it with unusual results, and would not be without it, I employed it in my family when other remedies had proved wholly useless, and it was remarkable in its results. It completely cured my wife of pain in the back."

WELL WITHOUT; DYING WITHIN.

Mr. H. Burney, baggagemaster of the Eastern Railroad, declared that he had used Hunt's Remedy in his family for a long time, and would not be without it. He had not only found it good for kidney complaints (a trouble with which all railroad men are more or less afflicted) but his wife had used it successfully in a severe case of what was, apparently, dyspepsia.

The uniform testimony which was given to the worth of this Remedy in Boston was born out by equally strong statements from residents in the suburbs.

Mr. Joseph G. Bicknell of Cambridge-port asserted that he had been a great sufferer. The fluids he passed were thick with brick dust sediment, and were voided with the greatest pain. Within four days from the time he began using Hunt's Remedy he passed a gravel stone larger than a pea, followed by other smaller ones. A speedy cure was the result, and he cannot recommend the remedy too highly.

Mr. George P. Cox, proprietor of the last factory at Malden, had seen such wonderful effects of Hunt's Remedy among so many of his relatives and friends that he was enthusiastic in its favor. He had not only used it himself with the greatest benefit, but two cousins, William W. and John F. Cox, had experienced untold relief. He would not be without it if it cost $5 a bottle.

Such statements lead us to the inevitable conclusion that, while Bright's disease of the kidneys is the concealed and actual cause of many complaints which bear other names, it can be both met and cured. Let all readers look to their condition at once, and thoroughly convince themselves whether they are or are not in perfect health, and then use that means which has been proven, and is known to be both pure, efficient, and good.
