

ROSEBURG REVIEW

FRIDAY, AUGUST 26, 1887.

PHILANTHROPIC SOCIETY. The regular meeting of the Philanthropic Society...

UNION ENCAMPMENT. The regular meeting of the Union Encampment...

LAUREL LODGE. The regular meeting of the Laurel Lodge...

ROSEBURG LODGE. The regular meeting of the Roseburg Lodge...

UMPIGA CHAPTER. The regular meeting of the Umpiga Chapter...

ROSEBURG CHAPTER. The regular meeting of the Roseburg Chapter...

APPOINTMENTS. The following are appointments for the week...

PHRENOLOGICALLY MARRIED. Prof. G. Morris, whose lectures on phrenology...

RUNAWAY. Last Saturday, the team of D. C. McClallen, which A. C. Hoise was driving...

ROSEBURG LEAGUE. The meeting last Monday evening was called to order by vice president W. F. Benjamin...

WHEN SCHOOL WILL BEGIN. Owing to the fact that enough well-lighted rooms cannot be secured...

THE BOOM ARRIVED. The boom has come at last, and Roseburg is moving right to the front...

SENATOR DOLPH'S RETURN. Senator Dolph, in his tour of the state to interview his constituents...

PROF. POWELL'S FUNERAL. The funeral services over the remains of the late Prof. L. J. Powell were conducted at Seattle on Friday...

HOBBED. Our sidewalks are now an unmitigated nuisance. Planks broken, nails sticking up, one stringer down and another up...

EASTERN TOUR. State Supr. E. B. McCleary contemplates making a trip to the eastern states during the months of September and October...

LOCAL BRIVITIES.

What next? Subcribe now. It is smoky yet. Entertainment. Weather still pleasant. Roads are very dusty now. Judicious advertising pays. Hop picking is close at hand. Read our new ads. This week. Oh! for a good shower of rain. Attend the Douglas county fair. More immigrants in town this week. Days are growing perceptibly shorter. Oregon state fair, September 12, 1887. Seattle has 3,594 children of school age. Threshing is almost done in this county. The grouse crop is rather plentiful this year. Barrett's circus is at Spokane Falls today. Job work a specialty at THE REVIEW office. A good organ to rent or sell cheap at this office.

Mrs. H. C. Slocum is in Portland this week. Road supervisors receipts for sale at this office. Rumor reports another wedding for next week. Wheat has commenced coming in for storage. Mrs. Larowe at Slocum's hall, Saturday evening. Increased attractions at J. Jaskulek's Bargain store. Justice's blanks of all kinds at THE REVIEW office. Wood taken on subscription at THE REVIEW office. THE REVIEW contains the State Fair advertisement. Old newspapers very cheap at THE REVIEW office. Considerable wood and grain being hauled to town now. A good rain would be very much appreciated just now. Camping parties are going out and returning all the time. Read our new ads, and then go and see the advertisers. Grain is expected to bring one dollar per bushel in Trineville. D. Welker of Mt. Scott gave THE REVIEW a call yesterday. About the dampest thing we know of is the street sprinkler. Lute Savar has returned to Salem from his extended visit east. Don't forget the entertainment to-morrow evening at Slocum's hall. Considerable sickness at present throughout this section of country. A sharp shock of earthquake was felt in Fresno California August 18th. Remember Mrs. Larowe's entertainment Saturday night at Slocum's hall. Gov. Chadwick came up from Salem Monday and spent a few days in town. At Slocum's hall, Saturday evening Mrs. Larowe's eloquent entertainment. A few people are still leaving town for recreation camping, hunting and fishing. For good job work neatly and promptly executed come to THE REVIEW office. A grand harvest list is to be given at Looking Glass on the evening of September 22d. Rev. Ira Richardson preached in the Methodist church in this city last Sunday. The fair grounds are almost completed and the Douglas county fair will be a grand success. A fine vein of coal was struck in digging a well back of Nichol Bros, drug store in Sam Valley. Watermelons are becoming very plentiful in the market and the average small boy is happy. Mrs. Mary T. Lathrop, the distinguished lecturer will make a tour of Oregon next month. Mr. E. Wimberly and family of Mt. Scott returned from a week's visit to Elkon last Monday. G. L. Abraham and Sig. Heller went to Glendale the first of the week on business and pleasure. The Umpqua river is very low, and indications are that it will be lower than it was last year. Mr. Glen Aiken ex-sheriff of Coos county has been in our city and vicinity for a few days past. Go to Page & Dimmicks Oakland for your school books, slates, writing materials &c., at bed rock prices. Place your advertisement in THE ROSEBURG REVIEW and reach a large and growing constituency. Cattle on the ranges are reported as looking fine at this season of the year, says the Grand county News. Read Buick & Benjamin's real estate advertisement published elsewhere in this issue. They mean business. A young man named Neil Grigley, aged 18, suicided at Fish Lake, near Jacksonville last Saturday. Next Sabbath Rev. T. P. Haynes will preach for the people of Myrtle Creek at 11 a. m. and at 8 p. m. A Shakespearean club is to be organized this evening at Mrs. Snicks. If interested do not fail to attend. The Chicago Inter-Ocean has a poetic heading for its divorce column. It is "The Meaning of the Tied." The price of Hill's Annotated Code of Oregon is $13 for the two volumes. It is now ready for delivering. A sure road to fortune, to save your money by buying any thing you need at J. Jaskulek's Bargain store. Do not fail to attend Mrs. Larowe's eloquent entertainment Saturday evening. For benefit of library fund. The grand salute of the high-armed, light-running Singer make other machine agues squal, tremble and quake. Governor Bartlett of California was stricken with paralysis of the left side last Monday. He is in a critical condition. Prof. L. J. Powell, formerly superintendent of public instruction for this state, died last week at his home in Seattle. Miss Winifred Mosher will leave next week for Grant's Pass to resume her position as teacher in the public school. Look at Moore & Evans mammoth ad in this issue. They are live business men and know the power of printers ink. Miss Lucy Hay will commence a term of private school the first Monday in September in the old Masonic hall in this city.

Charles Wilson, the genial conductor is taking a ten days vacation on the sound and Mt. Young has charge of his train. Don't fail to write the Bethovena Piano Organ Co., of Washington N. J., if you contemplate purchasing a Piano or Organ. Rev. Edward Gittins will preach at Garden Valley at 11 o'clock A. M. and at Wilbur in the evening at 7:30 P. M. on next Sabbath. Mr. W. H. Delano has sold his marble works in Eugene and moved to California with his family for the benefit of his health. The Douglas county fair opens September 7th, and continues three days. Now spend we didn't tell you when the fair would be held. N. Johansen and S. Morgan of Astoria were visiting H. French in this city over to Camas Valley Monday on a hunting expedition. Last week the dwelling, barn and hay of J. Williams and son on the Umpqua above Al. Ingles was totally destroyed by fire. Cause unknown. A son of A. A. Mills near Scio slipped into the cylinder of a threshing last Saturday and so lacerated his foot as to render amputation necessary. W. R. Skelton, at Spokane Falls had a fearful encounter with a rattlesnake, was bitten three times but saved himself by rare presence of mind. O. F. Rehner left last Monday for a visit to friends in the Willamette and will return and perfect arrangements for attending school at Drain this winter. R. B. Houston takes Mr. Burt's place at the depot as assistant agent, and will give satisfaction no doubt, as he is well known and a sober and competent young man. A great deal of work is being done on the railroad in this vicinity. The gravel train has been busy here for some weeks past, and the road bed is being put in good condition. No matter how poor a man's memory may be, he is always remember good treatment, and that is why so many people remember J. Jaskulek's Bargain store when they are buying goods. Every farmer should have a good stock back to bring his produce to town in. Go to Moore & Evans and get one warranted to bear 1500 lbs. made especially for Pacific coast use. Call at THE REVIEW office and get your bank deeds and mortgages with the note printed in the mortgage. All kinds of blanks on hand cheap. Call and see us before purchasing elsewhere. Johnny Dowell has the thanks of the entire REVIEW force for some delicious melons which he gave us yesterday. Johnny is a good gardener and can supply you with vegetables on short notice. The best medical authorities acknowledge the value of Ayer's Pills, and prescribe them with the utmost confidence, as the most efficient remedy for diseases caused by derangement of the stomach, liver, and bowels. Moore's Hair Invigorator may be found on sale at A. C. Marsters & Co. No hair is so full and complete without it. It is excellent for the face and chapped hands. Sample bottles free, call and try it. The Chatsworth disaster, now that the dead is reduced below eighty, stands second in the list of American railroad accidents—Ash-tabula, when 107 were killed eleven years ago on the Lake Shore, being the most fatal on the list. Mr. Freeman, of San Francisco, representing the California Insurance Company was in this city this week, in the interest of that reliable company, and appointed our local editor, M. O. Wimberly, resident agent for Roseburg. Messrs. D. T. Lattler, of Springfield, Illinois, and E. E. Anderson, of New York, Members of the Pacific Railroad Commission, held a meeting in Portland this week. No business was done. They will go east over the Oregon Short Line. If you desire to possess a beautiful complexion try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It cleanses and purifies the blood, and removes blotches and pimples, making the skin smooth and clear, and giving it a bright and healthy appearance. Take it this month. James Sheffield has returned from Portland where he went to have Dr. McLenan treat him for deafness. Our readers have certainly seen the doctor's flaming advertisements in the Portland papers and it is only necessary to say that he did him Sheffield no good. Judge Fitch returned yesterday from a trip to Riddle, Canyonville and Glendale where he went to inspect the work on several county bridges which are being constructed in that section. The Judge is alive to the interest of the county, and is doing much good work. "Eastward the founders of empire take their way" On the 15th of September an excursion of Oregon pioneers will leave Portland and go east over the Canadian Pacific R. R. to Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Washington and return. Tickets will be good for 90 days. The annual hop crop is fast becoming an important factor in the production of the state. Last year we shipped about 12,000 bales. It is, of course, impossible to say what this year's crop will be, but it will nearly equal the figures of last year. While the yield this year is not quite so heavy, the acreage is greater. A. B. Burt assistant depot agent at this place was honored this week with the promotion to the depot agent at Oakland vice M. F. Hummer resigned and gone to California. Mr. Burt has proven himself worthy of this recognition by the railroad authorities, for he is always at his post, and fully competent to discharge the business entrusted to him. Bishop Wright will preach at Pine Grove next Sunday morning and at 3 P. M. There will be a basket dinner between services. This will be a very pleasant and profitable occasion, and notwithstanding the busy time of year there will be a large attendance present. It would be pleasant to have him preach in Roseburg on Sunday evening. We are pleased to state that the Oregon State Normal School at Drain will continue under the management of Prof's Benson and Booth. The school year commences on Monday Sept. 26th. Parents sending children to this school can feel assured that thorough instruction will be given. Drain is a peculiarly suitable location for a school as a city ordinance prohibits the saloon business. Even in the purchase of trifles the saving to be made by consulting our Catalogue is surprisingly large. Hundreds of people buy from it every day. If it pays them well if not pay you? The Catalogue is sent free to any address, and is a valuable tool to have whether one cares to buy or not. Waitstock & Lubin, Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Household Supplies, etc., 400-410 K St., Sacramento, Cal., wherever they may go.

Rev. J. R. N. Bell will fill Rev. W. A. Snick's pulpit next Sunday morning in this city and Bishop Wright will fill it in the evening. A concert will be given at Slocum hall next Wednesday evening August 31st, by Prof. Parvin assisted by Miss Hallie Parish of Salem. Miss Parrish has won quite a reputation as a singer all through the state, and is acknowledged the prima donna of Oregon. Her proceeds to be given to the Presbyterian church in this city. All are invited to this rare treat, and help the work in your own city. The woolen mill question is being talked up at Union. Roseburg capitalists should take active steps for such an enterprise here, where there are so many natural facilities, and situated in the midst of a country where there is a growing demand for a woolen mill as well as many other manufacturing enterprises, all of which would build up the county, and develop its natural resources. All it needs is a little push and energy. Who will lead? It is daily becoming more apparent that the great rush of people to the fertile valleys of the Umpqua to seek for homes where land is cheap will be followed by a boom in prices. Land that produces the finest quality of fruits of all kinds as well as all kinds of grain and produce in abundance will sooner or later command high prices. As for climate the Umpqua valley has no superior, and the coming boom of which THE REVIEW has been talking has arrived. Mrs. Nina Larowe will give an eloquent entertainment at Slocum's hall in this city on Saturday evening next, August 27th. If a fair audience is assembled one half of the proceeds go to the library fund. The readings will comprise a miscellaneous and widely varied selection, and will fill an evening of merrily, comedy and farce. The press of the city is unanimous in favorable mention of Mrs. Larowe as an eloquent. Every one should attend. One comic piece, a school girls composition, rendered in costume is alone worth the price of admission so well the entire press. Tickets at Taylor's cigar store, admission fifty cents, children half price.

AKLAND ITEMS. Mrs. A. J. Chapman of Gardiner, is in town visiting friends. R. S. P. Dear is in temporary charge of Wells Fargo & Co's. office. Philip Pinkston went to Elkon this week, conducting business and pleasure. Drs. Page and Little made a professional trip to the Umpqua on Saturday. Rolt. Hutchinson Esq., brother to Hon. J. C. Hutchinson, is here from California on a visit. Dr. J. C. Shambrook passed through Oakland recently en route for his father's home on the Umpqua. Z. L. Dimmick Esq. went to Umpqua Ferry Wednesday afternoon on business as Notary Public. Jack Howard Esq. of Kellogg, was in town Monday last, and reports peace and prosperity in his community. Winifred's steam threshing cleaned out one day last week 2562 bushels of grain and set twice. Who can beat this? Mr. Hunter of Deer creek, and grand-son of Hon. P. C. Parker of Oakland, is here with his family visiting relatives. Our School Superintendent visited Prof. Boggs' school at the mines last Tuesday and reports faithful work and good progress. J. S. Beckley was out on Wednesday in search of an individual who is said to have printed a lot of harness in our neighborhood city. A. G. Young Esq., accompanied by his wife, will go to Portland in a few days and while there will purchase a heavy stock of fall and winter goods. Mrs. Pauline Young reached home from the Soda springs on last Saturday, and reports her husband, A. C. Young Esq., as much improved in health. Miss Mira Cathcart, grand-daughter of Judge Cathcart formerly of this county, after spending several weeks in Oakland and vicinity, returned to her home at Cottage Grove last Tuesday morning. Thos. Banks, John Long Sen., Rolt. Hutchinson and W. E. Denahof, all old pioneers, dined at the Depot hotel on last Monday as invited guests. The reunion was enjoyed very much by all. R. T. Rochford of San Francisco, was in our city on Wednesday in the interest of the Domestic sewing machine, and displayed in great variety the finest and most artistic lot of needle work it has been our pleasure to look upon. Messrs. Young and Hammitte are agents for this machine here.

TEACHERS EXAMINATION.—Notice is hereby given that for the purpose of making an examination of all persons who may offer themselves as candidates for teachers of the schools of the county, the county school superintendent thereof will hold a public examination at Roseburg on the 31st day of August, 1887. Dated this 15th day of August, 1887. G. T. RUSSELL, County School Supt. for Douglas Co., Or.

NOTICE.—"Don't let your best opportunities pass you like the unbaked bread, when you see the simple packet of Plated Silver Ware from the Standard Silver Ware Co. of Boston, Mass. with all statements about the ware printed by the Standard firm, or those interested in the growth of Methodism, see our fine Illustrated History of Methodism, or see the just merits of the Patent fence, carefully deliberate and quickly decide, if you can, let M. E. J. Perkins take your order. Yours for honor. M. E. J. Perkins.

A GOOD YOUNG WORK.—Rev. J. W. Miller and family left last Thursday for Conference which is to be held in Portland commencing August 31st, 1887. Rev. Mr. Miller has done a good year's work here and his many friends in Roseburg are sorry to have him leave, and hope the conference will see fit to return him to this work. The following is a summary of the work done during the past year. Much improvements has been done on the parsonage, a new roof and a coat of paint from foundation to comb, and a beautiful set of parlor furniture. The church edifice was repainted on the inside, seats and pulpit grained and varnished. A beautiful hanging lamp just in front of the pulpit. A good new organ was donated by Mrs. Smith of Portland all of which added much to the comfort of the church and parsonage. The number of church members have nearly doubled with fair prospects of spiritual success than ever before. Brother Miller is an earnest zealous christian worker, and heartily endorses christian fellowship with other denominations. The best wishes of the people of Roseburg will be with him and his family wherever they may go.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

The Steamer City of Montreal Burned. LONDON, Aug. 19.—The Inman line steamer City of Montreal has been destroyed by fire at sea, and thirteen persons aboard perished. The Montreal left New York August 6th for Liverpool, commanded by Capt. Land. News of her destruction was learned upon the arrival at Queenstown this morning of the British steamer York City, Cap. Benn, which left Baltimore Aug. 4th for London. This steamer rescued the survivors from the burning vessel and brought them to Queenstown.

The burning of the steamer occurred on the 11th, five days after she left New York. A boat containing six passengers and seven of the crew is missing. The occupants of the boat are the thirteen persons reported to have perished. The ill-fated steamer had 420 passengers on board.

THE RICE CRUP SHORTAGE. Serious Questions as to Food for the Negroes. COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 23.—It is probable that the loss to the rice crop will exceed by $100,000 the estimate of two weeks ago. Discouraging news continues to come from the flooded districts of lower Carolina, along the Santee and Savannah rivers. A very serious question now before rice planters is what disposition is to be made with the negroes on plantations until the first of next year. There is no way for them to earn a living and in the meantime they will have to be supplied with food. If nothing is done for these negroes during the next few months they will starve.

ARIZONA EARTHQUAKES. The County Terribly Broken up, and Many Chances Made. BENSON, Ariz., Aug. 23.—A party of men arrived yesterday from San Bernardino ranch, seventy miles south of here, near the Sonora line. They say the country in that vicinity has been so broken up by late earthquakes that traveling is almost impossible, and stock men have the greatest difficulty in gathering their cattle. Earthquakes occur daily, and the ground is so cut up with fissures that a person cannot move except in day time and on foot. Thousands of springs have been formed, and there is abundance of water in places where it hitherto has been scarce.

FOREST FIRES. SHASTA, Cal., Aug. 23.—Large forest fires have again broken out about ten miles north of this place and are burning fiercely on Trinity mountain, near Trinity Center, and are doing a great deal of damage.

Kind Words From a Leading Minister. DEAR BROTHER: Accept my hearty thanks, for you have so freely given, not only by inserting notices of my appointments whenever sent, also in sending me a regularly copy of your bright and enterprising paper without money and without price during the two years of my ministry in Douglas county. Long may it continue, not only to review, but also to record with cleanliness and clearness, the story of passing events. As a factor in the moral and material prosperity of Douglas county, THE REVIEW has clearly established its right to exist, and it is to be hoped that at no distant day the helpful suggestions in regard to manufacturing establishments will crystallize into the hum of the spindle and the rattle of the fruit can, and enough of them to rival the roar of the Umpqua in winter. With climate, soil, water power and wood, it seems to me accomplished much good in raising young men upon the solid rocks of truth for a foundation upon which to build a character. We have no space for any extended synopsis of his remarks, but as he will make a tour of southern Oregon do not fail to hear him when he visits your nearest point.

AN ENTERPRISING FIRM. MOORE & EVANS, THE PEOPLES GROCERS ARE BOUND TO LEAD. THE REVIEW takes great pleasure in calling the attention of its readers to the large display advertisement of Moore & Evans, who are determined to do the leading business in their line, distancing all competitors. These gentlemen have adopted the title of the People's Grocers and propose by fair dealing, low prices and attention to the wants of their customers to prove their right to the name. They are preparing to lay in an immense stock of staple and Fancy Groceries for the Fall trade. In addition to their grocery trade, they are also the leaders in the book and stationery line, and at the proper time will also make a grand display of Holiday Goods the equal which was never before seen in Roseburg. They are agents for the leading agricultural house of Knapp, Burrell & Co. Portland, a firm which handles only the very best machinery, including the Bain wagon, Racine hoes, Evans Chilled plows, etc. Messrs. Moore & Evans' plan of business is in the post office building, where they can always be found ready to wait on customers. Remember that they are in business to lead, and will not be undersold. Give them a call at once. Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION. ARRANGEMENTS FOR A GRAND GATHERING AT THE DALLES SEPT 22 TO 25. The fourth annual convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of Oregon, Washington territory and British Columbia will be held in The Dalles, Oregon, Sept. 22 to 25th. The convention of 1886 held at Astoria will long be remembered by those attending as a gathering of more than ordinary profit. The programme for this year is nearly completed, and from present indications the convention will far exceed both in numbers and interest that of any previous year. Practical topics bearing on all branches of religious and social work will be opened by experienced men and several attractions are offered that will make the gathering one of special interest. All Association men, pastors, superintendents and teachers of Sunday schools, and all interested in work for Young Men are invited to correspond with Mr. E. C. Frost, chairman of the executive committee, Portland, Oregon, who will give all particulars.

LANE COUNTY FAIR. The Lane County Agricultural Association will give its fifth annual fair Sept. 21, 22 and 24. This society will give this year $2000 in premiums and invites the competition of all especially of Douglas county. No charge for entrance fees except races and feed furnished free for stock on exhibition. The Society has the best half mile track in Oregon and has made a reputation for fair racing. Special rates on railroad. Send to J. R. Campbell, Sect. Eugene City for premium lists.

All stock raisers should bring their fine stock to the fair and by this means be enabled to promote the grade of stock.

THE RAILROAD COMMISSION.

AN INTERESTING BATCH OF ITEMS GLEANED AT CLERK BELLS OFFICE.—COMPLAINTS. Yesterday, says the Statesman of the 17th, Clerk J. R. N. Bell, of the railroad commission, was found at his office, busily engaged in his multifarious clerical duties, but not too busy, in fact he never is, to welcome a reporter, and to fill him up with solid facts about the business of the public as conducted by Commissioners Waggoner and Slater. He reports these two gentlemen traveling in eastern Oregon, "seeking whom they may devour" in the way of extortionate tariff-takers among the railroads.

There were two complaints filed in his office yesterday. One was by Mr. Witze, a resident of Albany, who complained of overcharges by the Oregon & California Railroad company on a car load of wheat from Tangent to Albany, a distance of seven miles. For this distance he claims the company charged him $16, while the rate to Portland is only $20. The commission, in their recommendations to the company, suggested that six dollars would be fully equivalent to the service rendered on such a haul.

The other was by Mr. Summerville, of Pendleton, against the O. R. & N. Co. He claims that for a car load of wheat from Pendleton to Portland he was charged the sum of $55, while the commission had recommended to that company that for such a haul the sum of $44 was a reasonable consideration, and that no greater amount should be charged. Mr. Summerville further claimed that he was charged for loading and unloading the car, and that this was only further extortion.

The Oregon Pacific, it is understood, has the lumber and timbers for replacing the bridges, as recommended by the commission, on the bridge sites, and by the time the rains set in they will have all the old bridges replaced by No. 1 trestles, and the road in safe running order. The Santiam bridge will be a magnificent structure.

The narrow gauge, of which C. N. Scott is receiver, is replacing all its old ties with new ones as fast as possible, as instructed by the commission, and will soon have its road bed in excellent running order.

AN ABLE LECTURER. AN ENTERTAINING SERIES OF LECTURES BY PROF. M. V. RORCK. As was announced in last week's issue Prof. M. V. Rorck, of Michigan gave a series of lectures in this city Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The lecturer is the principal of the public schools of Lansing, Michigan, and is in Oregon in the interest of the prohibition amendment and treats that subject from an entirely original point of view, his lectures dealing with grand scientific, religious and moral truths. To hold and fasten the attention of his audience, to stir the intellect to activity, to introduce new thoughts and to show the immortal grandeur of man, we have met with but few equal to the professor. The series of lectures delivered in this city were parts of one symmetrical whole and the audience increased in number each night, Sunday evening Slocum's hall being substituted for the court house in order to better accommodate the crowd. The great strength of Prof. Rorck's lectures lies in the convictions which he impresses upon young men and women. He teaches a religion of righteousness and good works rather than death-bed repentance and forgiveness. There is much food for thought here, and we know whereof we speak when we say that in this place, Mr. Rorck has accomplished much good in raising young men upon the solid rocks of truth for a foundation upon which to build a character. We have no space for any extended synopsis of his remarks, but as he will make a tour of southern Oregon do not fail to hear him when he visits your nearest point.

AN ENTERTAINING SERIES OF LECTURES BY PROF. M. V. RORCK. As was announced in last week's issue Prof. M. V. Rorck, of Michigan gave a series of lectures in this city Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The lecturer is the principal of the public schools of Lansing, Michigan, and is in Oregon in the interest of the prohibition amendment and treats that subject from an entirely original point of view, his lectures dealing with grand scientific, religious and moral truths. To hold and fasten the attention of his audience, to stir the intellect to activity, to introduce new thoughts and to show the immortal grandeur of man, we have met with but few equal to the professor. The series of lectures delivered in this city were parts of one symmetrical whole and the audience increased in number each night, Sunday evening Slocum's hall being substituted for the court house in order to better accommodate the crowd. The great strength of Prof. Rorck's lectures lies in the convictions which he impresses upon young men and women. He teaches a religion of righteousness and good works rather than death-bed repentance and forgiveness. There is much food for thought here, and we know whereof we speak when we say that in this place, Mr. Rorck has accomplished much good in raising young men upon the solid rocks of truth for a foundation upon which to build a character. We have no space for any extended synopsis of his remarks, but as he will make a tour of southern Oregon do not fail to hear him when he visits your nearest point.

AN ENTERTAINING SERIES OF LECTURES BY PROF. M. V. RORCK. As was announced in last week's issue Prof. M. V. Rorck, of Michigan gave a series of lectures in this city Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The lecturer is the principal of the public schools of Lansing, Michigan, and is in Oregon in the interest of the prohibition amendment and treats that subject from an entirely original point of view, his lectures dealing with grand scientific, religious and moral truths. To hold and fasten the attention of his audience, to stir the intellect to activity, to introduce new thoughts and to show the immortal grandeur of man, we have met with but few equal to the professor. The series of lectures delivered in this city were parts of one symmetrical whole and the audience increased in number each night, Sunday evening Slocum's hall being substituted for the court house in order to better accommodate the crowd. The great strength of Prof. Rorck's lectures lies in the convictions which he impresses upon young men and women. He teaches a religion of righteousness and good works rather than death-bed repentance and forgiveness. There is much food for thought here, and we know whereof we speak when we say that in this place, Mr. Rorck has accomplished much good in raising young men upon the solid rocks of truth for a foundation upon which to build a character. We have no space for any extended synopsis of his remarks, but as he will make a tour of southern Oregon do not fail to hear him when he visits your nearest point.

AN ENTERTAINING SERIES OF LECTURES BY PROF. M. V. RORCK. As was announced in last week's issue Prof. M. V. Rorck, of Michigan gave a series of lectures in this city Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The lecturer is the principal of the public schools of Lansing, Michigan, and is in Oregon in the interest of the prohibition amendment and treats that subject from an entirely original point of view, his lectures dealing with grand scientific, religious and moral truths. To hold and fasten the attention of his audience, to stir the intellect to activity, to introduce new thoughts and to show the immortal grandeur of man, we have met with but few equal to the professor. The series of lectures delivered in this city were parts of one symmetrical whole and the audience increased in number each night, Sunday evening Slocum's hall being substituted for the court house in order to better accommodate the crowd. The great strength of Prof. Rorck's lectures lies in the convictions which he impresses upon young men and women. He teaches a religion of righteousness and good works rather than death-bed repentance and forgiveness. There is much food for thought here, and we know whereof we speak when we say that in this place, Mr. Rorck has accomplished much good in raising young men upon the solid rocks of truth for a foundation upon which to build a character. We have no space for any extended synopsis of his remarks, but as he will make a tour of southern Oregon do not fail to hear him when he visits your nearest point.

AN ENTERTAINING SERIES OF LECTURES BY PROF. M. V. RORCK. As was announced in last week's issue Prof. M. V. Rorck, of Michigan gave a series of lectures in this city Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The lecturer is the principal of the public schools of Lansing, Michigan, and is in Oregon in the interest of the prohibition amendment and treats that subject from an entirely original point of view, his lectures dealing with grand scientific, religious and moral truths. To hold and fasten the attention of his audience, to stir the intellect to activity, to introduce new thoughts and to show the immortal grandeur of man, we have met with but few equal to the professor. The series of lectures delivered in this city were parts of one symmetrical whole and the audience increased in number each night, Sunday evening Slocum's hall being substituted for the court house in order to better accommodate the crowd. The great strength of Prof. Rorck's lectures lies in the convictions which he impresses upon young men and women. He teaches a religion of righteousness and good works rather than death-bed repentance and forgiveness. There is much food for thought here, and we know whereof we speak when we say that in this place, Mr. Rorck has accomplished much good in raising young men upon the solid rocks of truth for a foundation upon which to build a character. We have no space for any extended synopsis of his remarks, but as he will make a tour of southern Oregon do not fail to hear him when he visits your nearest point.

AN ENTERTAINING SERIES OF LECTURES BY PROF. M. V. RORCK. As was announced in last week's issue Prof. M. V. Rorck, of Michigan gave a series of lectures in this city Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The lecturer is the principal of the public schools of Lansing, Michigan, and is in Oregon in the interest of the prohibition amendment and treats that subject from an entirely original point of view, his lectures dealing with grand scientific, religious and moral truths. To hold and fasten the attention of his audience, to stir the intellect to activity, to introduce new thoughts and to show the immortal grandeur of man, we have met with but few equal to the professor. The series of lectures delivered in this city were parts of one symmetrical whole and the audience increased in number each night, Sunday evening Slocum's hall being substituted for the court house in order to better accommodate the crowd. The great strength of Prof. Rorck's lectures lies in the convictions which he impresses upon young men and women. He teaches a religion of righteousness and good works rather than death-bed repentance and forgiveness. There is much food for thought here, and we know whereof we speak when we say that in this place, Mr. Rorck has accomplished much good in raising young men upon the solid rocks of truth for a foundation upon which to build a character. We have no space for any extended synopsis of his remarks, but as he will make a tour of southern Oregon do not fail to hear him when he visits your nearest point.

AN ENTERTAINING SERIES OF LECTURES BY PROF. M. V. RORCK. As was announced in last week's issue Prof. M. V. Rorck, of Michigan gave a series of lectures in this city Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The lecturer is the principal of the public schools of Lansing, Michigan, and is in Oregon in the interest of the prohibition amendment and treats that subject from an entirely original point of view, his lectures dealing with grand scientific, religious and moral truths. To hold and fasten the attention of his audience, to stir the intellect to activity, to introduce new thoughts and to show the immortal grandeur of man, we have met with but few equal to the professor. The series of lectures delivered in this city were parts of one symmetrical whole and the audience increased in number each night, Sunday evening Slocum's hall being substituted for the court house in order to better accommodate the crowd. The great strength of Prof. Rorck's lectures lies in the convictions which he impresses upon young men and women. He teaches a religion of righteousness and good works rather than death-bed repentance and forgiveness. There is much food for thought here, and we know whereof we speak when we say that in this place, Mr. Rorck has accomplished much good in raising young men upon the solid rocks of truth for a foundation upon which to build a character. We have no space for any extended synopsis of his remarks, but as he will make a tour of southern Oregon do not fail to hear him when he visits your nearest point.

AN ENTERTAINING SERIES OF LECTURES BY PROF. M. V. RORCK. As was announced in last week's issue Prof. M. V. Rorck, of Michigan gave a series of lectures in this city Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The lecturer is the principal of the public schools of Lansing, Michigan, and is in Oregon in the interest of the prohibition amendment and treats that subject from an entirely original point of view, his lectures dealing with grand scientific, religious and moral truths. To hold and fasten the attention of his audience, to stir the intellect to activity, to introduce new thoughts and to show the immortal grandeur of man, we have met with but few equal to the professor. The series of lectures delivered in this city were parts of one symmetrical whole and the audience increased in number each night, Sunday evening Slocum's hall being substituted for the court house in order to better accommodate the crowd. The great strength of Prof. Rorck's lectures lies in the convictions which he impresses upon young men and women. He teaches a religion of righteousness and good works rather than death-bed repentance and forgiveness. There is much food for thought here, and we know whereof we speak when we say that in this place, Mr. Rorck has accomplished much good in raising young men upon the solid rocks of truth for a foundation upon which to build a character. We have no space for any extended synopsis of his remarks, but as he will make a tour of southern Oregon do not fail to hear him when he visits your nearest point.

AN ENTERTAINING SERIES OF LECTURES BY PROF. M. V. RORCK. As was announced in last week's issue Prof. M. V. Rorck, of Michigan gave a series of lectures in this city Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The lecturer is the principal of the public schools of Lansing, Michigan, and is in Oregon in the interest of the prohibition amendment and treats that subject from an entirely original point of view, his lectures dealing with grand scientific, religious and moral truths. To hold and fasten the attention of his audience, to stir the intellect to activity, to introduce new thoughts and to show the immortal grandeur of man, we have met with but few equal to the professor. The series of lectures delivered in this city were parts of one symmetrical whole and the audience increased in number each night, Sunday evening Slocum's hall being substituted for the court house in order to better accommodate the crowd. The great strength of Prof. Rorck's lectures lies in the convictions which he impresses upon young men and women. He teaches a religion of righteousness and good works rather than death-bed repentance and forgiveness. There is much food for thought here, and we know whereof we speak when we say that in this place, Mr. Rorck has accomplished much good in raising young men upon the solid rocks of truth for a foundation upon which to build a character. We have no space for any extended synopsis of his remarks, but as he will make a tour of southern Oregon do not fail to hear him when he visits your nearest point.

AN ENTERTAINING SERIES OF LECTURES BY PROF. M. V. RORCK. As was announced in last week's issue Prof. M. V. Rorck, of Michigan gave a series of lectures in this city Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The lecturer is the principal of the public schools of Lansing, Michigan, and is in Oregon in the interest of the prohibition amendment and treats that subject from an entirely original point of view, his lectures dealing with grand scientific, religious and moral truths. To hold and fasten the attention of his audience, to stir the intellect to activity, to introduce new thoughts and to show the immortal grandeur of man, we have met with but few equal to the professor. The series of lectures delivered in this city were parts of one symmetrical whole and the audience increased in number each night, Sunday evening Slocum's hall being substituted for the court house in order to better accommodate the crowd. The great strength of Prof. Rorck's lectures lies in the convictions which he impresses upon young men and women. He teaches a religion of righteousness and good works rather than death-bed repentance and forgiveness. There is much food for thought here, and we know whereof we speak when we say that in this place, Mr. Rorck has accomplished much good in raising young men upon the solid rocks of truth for a foundation upon which to build a character. We have no space for any extended synopsis of his remarks, but as he will make a tour of southern Oregon do not fail to hear him when he visits your nearest point.

AN ENTERTAINING SERIES OF LECTURES BY PROF. M. V. RORCK. As was announced in last week's issue Prof. M. V. Rorck, of Michigan gave a series of lectures in this city Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The lecturer is the principal of the public schools of Lansing, Michigan, and is in Oregon in the interest of the prohibition amendment and treats that subject from an entirely original point of view, his lectures dealing with grand scientific, religious and moral truths. To hold and fasten the attention of his audience, to stir the intellect to activity, to introduce new thoughts and to show the immortal grandeur of man, we have met with but few equal to the professor. The series of lectures delivered in this city were parts of one symmetrical whole and the audience increased in number each night, Sunday evening Slocum's hall being substituted for the court house in order to better accommodate the crowd. The great strength of Prof. Rorck's lectures lies in the convictions which he impresses upon young men and women. He teaches a religion of righteousness and good works rather than death-bed repentance and forgiveness. There is much food for thought here, and we know whereof we speak when we say that in this place, Mr. Rorck has accomplished much good in raising young men upon the solid rocks of truth for a foundation upon which to build a character. We have no space for any extended synopsis of his remarks, but as he will make a tour of southern Oregon do not fail to hear him when he visits your nearest point.

AN ENTERTAINING SERIES OF LECTURES BY PROF. M. V. RORCK. As was announced in last week's issue Prof. M. V. Rorck, of Michigan gave a series of lectures in this city Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The lecturer is the principal of the public schools of Lansing, Michigan, and is in Oregon in the interest of the prohibition amendment and treats that subject from an entirely original point of view, his lectures dealing with grand scientific, religious and moral truths. To hold and fasten the attention of his audience, to stir the intellect to activity, to introduce new thoughts and to show the immortal grandeur of man, we have met with but few equal to the professor. The series of lectures delivered in this city were parts of one symmetrical whole and the audience increased in number each night, Sunday evening Slocum's hall being substituted for the court house in order to better accommodate the crowd. The great strength of Prof. Rorck's lectures lies in the convictions which he impresses upon young men and women. He teaches a religion of righteousness and good works rather than death-bed repentance and forgiveness. There is much food for thought here, and we know whereof we speak when we say that in this place, Mr. Rorck has accomplished much good in raising young men upon the solid rocks of truth for a foundation upon which to build a character. We have no space for any extended synopsis of his remarks, but as he will make a tour of southern Oregon do not fail to hear him when he visits your nearest point.

AN ENTERTAINING SERIES OF LECTURES BY PROF. M. V. RORCK. As was announced in last week's issue Prof. M. V. Rorck, of Michigan gave a series of lectures in this city Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The lecturer is the principal of the public schools of Lansing, Michigan, and is in Oregon in the interest of the prohibition amendment and treats that subject from an entirely original point of view, his lectures dealing with grand scientific, religious and moral truths. To hold and fasten the attention of his audience, to stir the intellect to activity, to introduce new thoughts and to show the immortal grandeur of man, we have met with but few equal to the professor. The series of lectures delivered in this city were parts of one symmetrical whole and the audience increased in number each night, Sunday evening Slocum's hall being substituted for the court house in order to better accommodate the crowd. The great strength of Prof. Rorck's lectures lies in the convictions which he impresses upon young men and women. He teaches a religion of righteousness and good works rather than death-bed repentance and forgiveness. There is much food for thought here, and we know whereof we speak when we say that in this place, Mr. Rorck has accomplished much good in raising young men upon the solid rocks of truth for a foundation upon which to build a character. We have no space for any extended synopsis of his remarks, but as he will make a tour of southern Oregon do not fail to hear him when he visits your nearest point.

AN ENTERTAINING SERIES OF LECTURES BY PROF. M. V. RORCK. As was announced in last week's issue Prof. M. V. Rorck, of Michigan gave a series of lectures in this city Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The lecturer is the principal of the public schools of Lansing, Michigan, and is in Oregon in the interest of the prohibition amendment and treats that