

ROSEBURG REVIEW

FRIDAY, AUGUST 26, 1887.

be fully organized and form one "common brotherhood."

Your respectfully,
D. J. ASBURY.

OFFICE LAKE CO. EXAMINER,
LAKEVIEW, Aug. 4, '87.

Com. State Press Ass'n, Yaquina City, Or.—Gentlemen:—Thanking you for invitation, would say, that owing to distance and press of business we are unable to attend your meeting on August 12th and 13th. You have our best wishes for a successful and permanent organization of a State Press Association.

Yours fraternally,
BEACH & BEACH.

OFFICE ASHLAND TIDINGS,
ASHLAND, Aug. 5, '87.

Messrs. M. L. Pipes, Coll. Van Cleve, J. H. Aldrich, Com. of Invitation.—Dear Sirs:—Your invitation to attend a meeting of the editorial fraternity at Yaquina City, Aug. 12th inst. was duly received. I regret to say that I will be unable to be present. The purpose of the meeting, however, the organization of a State Press Association, I shall be glad to assist, if it be in my power to do so in any way. From what little I know of the effects of such organizations in other states, I am persuaded that you will accomplish a benefit for the newspaper men of Oregon if you succeed in your object.

Very truly yours,
W. H. LEEDS.

OFFICE COURIER,
OREGON CITY, August 5, '87.

M. L. Pipes, Yaquina City, Or.—Dear Sir:—I acknowledge the receipt of your invitation to "attend a meeting of the Editorial Fraternity of Oregon," and was in hopes the Courier might be able to have a representative present; but it cannot be. I recognize the need of organizing a State Press Association, and hope that a permanent beginning will be made by the gentlemen who have interested themselves in the matter.

Fraternally yours,
I. L. MAHIEU.

BAKER CITY, August 9, '87.

Messrs. M. L. Pipes, Coll. Van Cleve and J. H. Aldrich, Invitation Committee State Press Association.—Gents:—Your kind invitation to me to be present at the organization of a State Press Association at Yaquina City on the 12th and 13th inst. has been received and it is with regret that I hereby notify you that owing to pre-arrangements I will be unable to attend the meeting. The object of the meeting is, in my opinion, a good one, and will, if properly carried on, be of great benefit to our young, noble and growing State. As is well known to some of your readers at least, I am one of the oldest printers and Editors on the Pacific coast, being 66 years of age having gone to the "case" in 1837, and commenced slinging the "old gray goose's quill" as editor in 1843, in Iowa and have resided on this coast 37 years. I have a love for the business in all its branches. The art preservative is the power that moves and controls the thought of the world to a greater extent than any other influence that can be brought to bear upon the human mind; then why should not its members unite to increase its influence and elevate its standard for influence and good. Let your motto be onward and upward until the topmost round of the ladder is reached. I will be proud to have my name enrolled as one of the members of the Oregon State Press Association. Again thanking you for your kind invitation, and wishing you God speed, I remain

Yours fraternally,
J. M. SHEPHERD.

OFFICE FARMER & DAIRYMAN,
PORTLAND, Aug. 10, '87.

To M. L. Pipes, Col. Van Cleve, Etc., Yaquina, Or.—Gentlemen:—Having received your invitation to attend a proposed meeting of the editorial fraternity to be held at Yaquina on the 12th, and 13th, insts., I deem it a pleasure as well as a duty to acknowledge the same in behalf of the F. & D. Pub. Co., which wishes such a move as you propose every success, and I heartily regret that we are unable to be present as I had hoped to be up to this date. If there is any one thing needed in the newspaper business in Oregon more than the "filthy lucre" itself, it is organization for mutual protection and advantage. Please count us in, in anything you may organize, and oblige us with whatever proceedings you may have. With abundant success,
Yours truly,
EDWARD CASEY.

OFFICE SALEM STATESMAN,
SALEM, Aug. 10, '87.

Messrs. M. L. Pipes, Coll. Van Cleve, J. H. Aldrich, Com. on Invitation, State Press Ass'n, Yaquina City, Or.—Gentlemen:—This office begs to acknowledge the receipt of the invitation to be present at Yaquina Bay on Friday and Saturday, and in speaking to you the regret we feel at our inability to be present, to assure your committee, and through it, the gentlemen of the newspaper fraternity of Oregon, gathered with you, of our entire sympathy with the movement. We have delayed answering the invitation, in hopes that, in some way or another, we would be able to be represented by one or another of our staff. However, it transpires that this will not be possible, so we take pleasure in wishing the members of the press of this State that may gather there—and we hope they will be many—a delightful visit, a successful and interesting meeting, the formation of an association for mutual benefit, and that the entire time passed on the shores of beautiful Yaquina Bay, the pleasure resort of Oregon, may prove of benefit to each one there, individually, and to the gentlemen of the editorial profession of the State of Oregon, generally. If any assess ments are made we will take pleasure in being counted in, and will also be glad to meet with you at the next meeting of the Association. Very truly, gentlemen, we beg to remain, for the best interests of the Oregon press,

Yours to command,
ISAAC A. MANNING,
R. J. HENDRICKS,
GEO. H. SAUBERT,
E. B. PIPER.

PROPRIETARY MEDICINES.

A visit to Dr. Green's Laboratory, at Woodbury, N. J., has considerably changed our views, and especially our prejudices in regard to what are generally known as "Standard Patent Medicines." Of course we are getting to that age in life when we are forced to conclude Life itself is a hunch, and naturally distrust anything that has not withstood long and tried experience. Being a physician I had the curiosity to know how such a sale of two medical preparations could be sustained for so many years. The perfect system upon which the business is conducted, and the pharmaceutical arrangements for the manufacture of the two recipes with which we were made acquainted, are sufficiently convincing to us that the AUGUST FLOWER, for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaints, and BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP, for Throat and Lung Troubles, were for the complaints they are recommended, most excellent remedies, and only regret that in much of our practice, medical ethics prevent us from prescribing them without making the formulas public. When we were shown the great quantity of voluntary letters forwarded Dr. Green from all parts of the country, and from all classes of people, lawyers, ministers and doctors, giving a description of their ailments, testimonials of their cures, etc., I feel like endorsing Dr. Green's suggestion that the Government accept such valuable formulas, and license them for general use by giving protection to the inventor same as patents generally.—Copied from N. Y. Druggists' Circular of Oct., 1886.

When you preach have a definite aim at some sin, some doctrine, or some class of persons, if you expect to effect much by your ministry. If you aim at nothing in particular, you will be very apt to hit it.

Of all that is wearisome in the modern pulpit nothing is more unbearable than heartless statements of doctrines of which the preacher manifestly knows nothing except from books or hearsay.—W. C. Wilkinson, D. D.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

Perfect Hair

Indicates a natural and healthy condition of the scalp, and of the glands through which nourishment is obtained. When, in consequence of age and disease, the hair becomes weak, thin, and gray, Ayer's Hair Vigor will strengthen it, restore its original color, promote its rapid and vigorous growth, and impart to it the lustre and freshness of youth. I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for a long time, and am convinced of its value. When I was 17 years of age my hair began to turn gray. I commenced using the Vigor, and was surprised at the good effects it produced. It not only restored the color to my hair, but so stimulated its growth, that I have now more hair than ever before.—J. W. Edwards, Coldwater, Mass.

Ayer's Hair Vigor, Sold by all Druggists and Perfumers.

If you are suffering from debility and loss of appetite; if your stomach is out of order, or your mind confused; take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine will restore physical force and elasticity to the system, more surely and speedily than any tonic yet discovered.

For six months I suffered from liver and stomach troubles. My food did not nourish me, and I became weak and nervous. I took six bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and was cured.—J. M. Palmer, Springfield, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla, Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by Druggists. Price $1.00 per bottle, $5.00 per six bottles.
