

ROSEBURG REVIEW

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1887.

PHILANTHROPIC SOCIETY. No. 8, I. O. O. F. meet each week at 7 1/2 o'clock in their hall at Roseburg.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

ROSEBURG LODGE No. 16, meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 7:30 P. M. in the old Masonic Hall.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Coop. Hop. Prunes. Peaches. Business is improving. County fair next week. Weather is cool and pleasant. Roseburg needs a sewer system. County court convenes next week. Bring on your wood on subscription. Business lively in Roseburg this week. Don't forget the county fair, next week. City candidates are growing numerous. Now is the time to invest in real estate. Roseburg roller flour at M. R. Howell's. Hop picking has commenced in earnest. Job work a specialty at THE REVIEW office. The circus will be here two weeks from today. The county fair commences next Wednesday. Jas. Cannon was in town a few days this week. A good milk cow for sale at THE REVIEW office. The circus is coming boys. Save your shakels. The coins paid for beer are the bar-nickels of society. Justice's blanks of all kinds at THE REVIEW office. Wood taken on subscription at THE REVIEW office. Old newspapers very cheap at THE REVIEW office.

Mrs. G. W. Cartwright of Yoncolla was in town this week. Several towns in California are enjoying a building boom. Why not reorganize the old Philanthropic literary society? Candidates for city offices are looming up on every corner. Marshall Krewson is erecting a new residence north of town. Gum chewing is all the rage among the girls in La Grande. The year and yellow leaf of autumn has begun to come down. S. H. Barrett proprietor of Barrett's circus was in town Tuesday. There will be a series of bicycle races at the coming state fair. The cow roamed at large with none to fear or make her afraid. Will Singleton killed a large panther on East Umpqua last week. F. P. McDevitt was seen spending a few days in town this week. Mrs. A. W. Compton went to Portland on a business trip, Monday. The alleys and streets are much in need of being cleaned. J. R. N. Bell went to Salem Monday to attend to his railroad business. All adjoining counties are invited to participate in the County Fair next week. The new Baptist church is assuming proportions, and is an ornament to the city. Any one wishing hop tickets can have them printed cheap at THE REVIEW office. Several of the district schools throughout the county will commence next week. For good job work neatly and promptly executed come to THE REVIEW office. A new bridge is being put across the creek at Rose and Flook's mill just above town. The new school for Rose and Flook's mill has been put in and is running on full time. Prof. J. W. Merritt of Jacksonville returned home from his trip to New York last week. A large number of Roseburgers attended the basket meeting at Pine Grove last Sunday. Barrett's circus will be in Roseburg Sep. 16th. The town was billed this week. The recent entertainment for the benefit of the library has placed that institution out of debt. Threshing is almost done and the machines are being housed earlier this season than ever before. Jas. A. Sterling is in Roseburg this week engaged in writing up the tax roll for Douglas county. Bishop Morris will preach in the Episcopal church next Sunday morning and evening Sept. 4. Bishop Wright delivered an excellent sermon in the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening. The foundation for the new school house is completed and the work will be pushed right forward. Mrs. Nina Larowe who has been in this city for several weeks, left this morning for Portland. Christopher Lehner returned this week from Lake county, where he has been for several months. J. B. Whiteman, formerly of this city, has purchased a bakery and confectionery business at La Grande. Jas. G. Blaine makes $20,000 a year out of Kennebec river ice. Rather a cool way of making money. J. H. Allen continues to bring nice fish to town from the fishery. They are delicious, try them. Place your advertisement in THE ROSEBURG REVIEW and reach a large and growing constituency. E. D. Cule has been building a neat little residence on Cawfield avenue, which is now almost completed. Mr. Fullerton and family of Canyonville are visiting Mr. J. C. Fullerton's family in this city this week. Henry Woodward presented us with a basket of fine apples this week for which we were very thankful. Moore & Evans are the leading grocers. Farmers should make a note of the fact when they come to town. In a drunken brawl in Chehalis W. T. this week three men were killed outright and two others wounded. Prof. and Mrs. F. W. Benson are at home and report having spent a most delightful summer in California. Mr. T. S. Patty southern traveling passenger agent for the Northern Pacific railroad is spending a few days in this city. Hon. Binger Hermann's family returned from a trip to Coos county this week. Mr. Hermann accompanied them. Idaho wants to be admitted into the Union of states. She wants her line extended North to take in two counties of Montana. To fill a long felt want will not some good samarian bring in a box of peaches as part payment for his lack of subscription? And to make business look all around being some good cholera morbus ones so that the doctors may have a chance to make a little money out of us, if they can. School begins Monday. This year promises so far to eclipse the previous one in attendance and we have no doubt all will be realized that is expected. We hope that each succeeding year may be the same, a continual increase in pupils until our school will rank among the foremost of the institutions of learning throughout the state.

Private School. A term of private school will be opened next Monday at the old Masonic hall and at our residence on Jackson street. Miss F. J. Howell. Miss Lucy Hay will not begin teaching in Roseburg next week as has been previously announced having made other arrangements. Mr. E. H. Kilham, representing J. K. Gill & Co. wholesale booksellers and stationers, Portland, gave THE REVIEW a call this week. Mitchell Melanson is rusticating in the mountains for his health, and in his absence N. T. Jewett has charge of the furnishing store. Fred Clift will run a stage between Ashland and Linkville the coming fall and winter, beginning early in September, says the Tidings. The north-bound train, Wednesday morning, was nearly four hours late, owing to a collision near the state line. No one hurt in the accident. Mrs. W. A. Smith, for the past several weeks has been taking lessons in elocution from Mrs. Latow. She has decided ability in that line. The piers will be completed for the South Umpqua bridge at Winstons in about two weeks. The work is being pushed forward to completion. Indians are largely employed in hop picking throughout the valley and Washington territory. Their labor is cheaper than Chinese or white labor. We heard from our old friend W. M. Wheeler last week. He is in Medicine Lodge, Kansas, in the mercantile business and is doing well. Who says Roseburg is not going to boom? Why, she's looming already; just look at the real estate transaction and the building that is going on all the time. Mrs. S. E. Morgan and her daughter, Miss Nellie Morgan, lately of Denver, Colorado, but formerly of Roseburg, have taken up their residence in Portland. All who are liable to a poll tax that the assessor missed in his assessment of the county should pay their poll to the sheriff for their names are on his books. There is a pretty steady string of what wagons coming into town daily. But the signs of a dollar year are not as thick as coon tracks on a clam beach. Miss Clara Hardison and her brother returned from a trip to Bandon this week, and the stopped in Roseburg to pass examination for a teacher's certificate. And still the pedestrian number pursues his pedestrianism in darkness, with no friendly gleam of light to guide his footsteps in the paths of rectitude. Stonewall Cawfield left last Tuesday for Albany where he will visit a few days when he will go to Hoquiam, W. T., where his sister resides to spend a few months. Prof. A. N. Knight of Ollala gave THE REVIEW a call last Saturday and says he will commence a fall term of school in that district a week from next Monday. The Deer Creek reform club is called to meet at the Boggs school house on Saturday evening September 17th, by order of J. H. Whitsett, chairman of Executive committee. Mrs. M. V. Shelby, of Portland, and little grand-daughter, Miss Eugenia Shelly, who have been the guests of Mrs. Judge Mosher, returned home on Wednesday morning's train. The Ute Indians in Colorado have left the reservation and are on the war path. "Colorado's land was defaced last week after killing a skunkish to which several were killed on both sides. R. R. Duncan met with the misfortune of getting something in one of his eyes about two weeks ago which caused him to lose the sight of it. This is a real misfortune for the old gentleman. Call on M. R. Howell for the best and cheapest drug and fruit liquors in the market, Cumberland coal, French Burr flour, doors, windows and moldings all at lowest rates for cash. When used according to directions, Ayer's Ague Cure is warranted to eradicate, from the system, Fever and Ague, Intermittent, Remittent, and Bilious Fevers, and all malarial diseases. Try it. An elocutionary entertainment was given by Mrs. Nina Larowe in Stetson's hall last Saturday evening. She rendered selections from Shakespeare, Longfellow and others to a fair-sized audience. Moore's Hair Invigorator may be found on sale at A. C. Marsters & Co. No ladies toilet is complete without it. It is excellent for the face and chapped hands. Sample bottles free, call and try it. $29. Call at THE REVIEW office and get your blank deeds and mortgages with the note printed in the mortgage. All kinds of blanks on hand cheap. Call and see us before purchasing elsewhere. M. O. Wimberly has the agency for the California insurance company, and any one having property to insure and want it insured in a good reliable company should call on him at THE REVIEW office. J. P. Martin has the agency for a book entitled "The Worlds We Admire," and is canvassing the county for this work. It is an interesting work and he will no doubt meet with a good success in its sale. A boy named "Jim" Jennings was killed last Friday night near Lebanon, while out cow hunting with a couple of other boys, by one of them accidentally discharging his shot gun and killing him almost instantly. A great many peaches and other choice fruits are being shipped from here to different points in the Willamette valley now. They give general satisfaction and are attracting considerable attention toward us. Disorders of the stomach, liver and kidneys, can be cured by restoring the blood to a healthy condition, through the purifying and cleansing action of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the safest, most powerful, and most highly concentrated alternative available to the public. W. W. Baker, editor of the Rural Spirit, who recently purchased the Willamette Farmer, of Salem, will combine the two papers under the name of the North Pacific Rural Spirit, of Portland. It will be devoted to the best interests of the Northwest. To fill a long felt want will not some good samarian bring in a box of peaches as part payment for his lack of subscription? And to make business look all around being some good cholera morbus ones so that the doctors may have a chance to make a little money out of us, if they can. School begins Monday. This year promises so far to eclipse the previous one in attendance and we have no doubt all will be realized that is expected. We hope that each succeeding year may be the same, a continual increase in pupils until our school will rank among the foremost of the institutions of learning throughout the state.

Private School. A term of private school will be opened next Monday at the old Masonic hall and at our residence on Jackson street. Miss F. J. Howell. Miss Lucy Hay will not begin teaching in Roseburg next week as has been previously announced having made other arrangements. Mr. E. H. Kilham, representing J. K. Gill & Co. wholesale booksellers and stationers, Portland, gave THE REVIEW a call this week. Mitchell Melanson is rusticating in the mountains for his health, and in his absence N. T. Jewett has charge of the furnishing store. Fred Clift will run a stage between Ashland and Linkville the coming fall and winter, beginning early in September, says the Tidings. The north-bound train, Wednesday morning, was nearly four hours late, owing to a collision near the state line. No one hurt in the accident. Mrs. W. A. Smith, for the past several weeks has been taking lessons in elocution from Mrs. Latow. She has decided ability in that line. The piers will be completed for the South Umpqua bridge at Winstons in about two weeks. The work is being pushed forward to completion. Indians are largely employed in hop picking throughout the valley and Washington territory. Their labor is cheaper than Chinese or white labor. We heard from our old friend W. M. Wheeler last week. He is in Medicine Lodge, Kansas, in the mercantile business and is doing well. Who says Roseburg is not going to boom? Why, she's looming already; just look at the real estate transaction and the building that is going on all the time. Mrs. S. E. Morgan and her daughter, Miss Nellie Morgan, lately of Denver, Colorado, but formerly of Roseburg, have taken up their residence in Portland. All who are liable to a poll tax that the assessor missed in his assessment of the county should pay their poll to the sheriff for their names are on his books. There is a pretty steady string of what wagons coming into town daily. But the signs of a dollar year are not as thick as coon tracks on a clam beach. Miss Clara Hardison and her brother returned from a trip to Bandon this week, and the stopped in Roseburg to pass examination for a teacher's certificate. And still the pedestrian number pursues his pedestrianism in darkness, with no friendly gleam of light to guide his footsteps in the paths of rectitude. Stonewall Cawfield left last Tuesday for Albany where he will visit a few days when he will go to Hoquiam, W. T., where his sister resides to spend a few months. Prof. A. N. Knight of Ollala gave THE REVIEW a call last Saturday and says he will commence a fall term of school in that district a week from next Monday. The Deer Creek reform club is called to meet at the Boggs school house on Saturday evening September 17th, by order of J. H. Whitsett, chairman of Executive committee. Mrs. M. V. Shelby, of Portland, and little grand-daughter, Miss Eugenia Shelly, who have been the guests of Mrs. Judge Mosher, returned home on Wednesday morning's train. The Ute Indians in Colorado have left the reservation and are on the war path. "Colorado's land was defaced last week after killing a skunkish to which several were killed on both sides. R. R. Duncan met with the misfortune of getting something in one of his eyes about two weeks ago which caused him to lose the sight of it. This is a real misfortune for the old gentleman. Call on M. R. Howell for the best and cheapest drug and fruit liquors in the market, Cumberland coal, French Burr flour, doors, windows and moldings all at lowest rates for cash. When used according to directions, Ayer's Ague Cure is warranted to eradicate, from the system, Fever and Ague, Intermittent, Remittent, and Bilious Fevers, and all malarial diseases. Try it. An elocutionary entertainment was given by Mrs. Nina Larowe in Stetson's hall last Saturday evening. She rendered selections from Shakespeare, Longfellow and others to a fair-sized audience. Moore's Hair Invigorator may be found on sale at A. C. Marsters & Co. No ladies toilet is complete without it. It is excellent for the face and chapped hands. Sample bottles free, call and try it. $29. Call at THE REVIEW office and get your blank deeds and mortgages with the note printed in the mortgage. All kinds of blanks on hand cheap. Call and see us before purchasing elsewhere. M. O. Wimberly has the agency for the California insurance company, and any one having property to insure and want it insured in a good reliable company should call on him at THE REVIEW office. J. P. Martin has the agency for a book entitled "The Worlds We Admire," and is canvassing the county for this work. It is an interesting work and he will no doubt meet with a good success in its sale. A boy named "Jim" Jennings was killed last Friday night near Lebanon, while out cow hunting with a couple of other boys, by one of them accidentally discharging his shot gun and killing him almost instantly. A great many peaches and other choice fruits are being shipped from here to different points in the Willamette valley now. They give general satisfaction and are attracting considerable attention toward us. Disorders of the stomach, liver and kidneys, can be cured by restoring the blood to a healthy condition, through the purifying and cleansing action of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the safest, most powerful, and most highly concentrated alternative available to the public. W. W. Baker, editor of the Rural Spirit, who recently purchased the Willamette Farmer, of Salem, will combine the two papers under the name of the North Pacific Rural Spirit, of Portland. It will be devoted to the best interests of the Northwest. To fill a long felt want will not some good samarian bring in a box of peaches as part payment for his lack of subscription? And to make business look all around being some good cholera morbus ones so that the doctors may have a chance to make a little money out of us, if they can. School begins Monday. This year promises so far to eclipse the previous one in attendance and we have no doubt all will be realized that is expected. We hope that each succeeding year may be the same, a continual increase in pupils until our school will rank among the foremost of the institutions of learning throughout the state.

Private School. A term of private school will be opened next Monday at the old Masonic hall and at our residence on Jackson street. Miss F. J. Howell. Miss Lucy Hay will not begin teaching in Roseburg next week as has been previously announced having made other arrangements. Mr. E. H. Kilham, representing J. K. Gill & Co. wholesale booksellers and stationers, Portland, gave THE REVIEW a call this week. Mitchell Melanson is rusticating in the mountains for his health, and in his absence N. T. Jewett has charge of the furnishing store. Fred Clift will run a stage between Ashland and Linkville the coming fall and winter, beginning early in September, says the Tidings. The north-bound train, Wednesday morning, was nearly four hours late, owing to a collision near the state line. No one hurt in the accident. Mrs. W. A. Smith, for the past several weeks has been taking lessons in elocution from Mrs. Latow. She has decided ability in that line. The piers will be completed for the South Umpqua bridge at Winstons in about two weeks. The work is being pushed forward to completion. Indians are largely employed in hop picking throughout the valley and Washington territory. Their labor is cheaper than Chinese or white labor. We heard from our old friend W. M. Wheeler last week. He is in Medicine Lodge, Kansas, in the mercantile business and is doing well. Who says Roseburg is not going to boom? Why, she's looming already; just look at the real estate transaction and the building that is going on all the time. Mrs. S. E. Morgan and her daughter, Miss Nellie Morgan, lately of Denver, Colorado, but formerly of Roseburg, have taken up their residence in Portland. All who are liable to a poll tax that the assessor missed in his assessment of the county should pay their poll to the sheriff for their names are on his books. There is a pretty steady string of what wagons coming into town daily. But the signs of a dollar year are not as thick as coon tracks on a clam beach. Miss Clara Hardison and her brother returned from a trip to Bandon this week, and the stopped in Roseburg to pass examination for a teacher's certificate. And still the pedestrian number pursues his pedestrianism in darkness, with no friendly gleam of light to guide his footsteps in the paths of rectitude. Stonewall Cawfield left last Tuesday for Albany where he will visit a few days when he will go to Hoquiam, W. T., where his sister resides to spend a few months. Prof. A. N. Knight of Ollala gave THE REVIEW a call last Saturday and says he will commence a fall term of school in that district a week from next Monday. The Deer Creek reform club is called to meet at the Boggs school house on Saturday evening September 17th, by order of J. H. Whitsett, chairman of Executive committee. Mrs. M. V. Shelby, of Portland, and little grand-daughter, Miss Eugenia Shelly, who have been the guests of Mrs. Judge Mosher, returned home on Wednesday morning's train. The Ute Indians in Colorado have left the reservation and are on the war path. "Colorado's land was defaced last week after killing a skunkish to which several were killed on both sides. R. R. Duncan met with the misfortune of getting something in one of his eyes about two weeks ago which caused him to lose the sight of it. This is a real misfortune for the old gentleman. Call on M. R. Howell for the best and cheapest drug and fruit liquors in the market, Cumberland coal, French Burr flour, doors, windows and moldings all at lowest rates for cash. When used according to directions, Ayer's Ague Cure is warranted to eradicate, from the system, Fever and Ague, Intermittent, Remittent, and Bilious Fevers, and all malarial diseases. Try it. An elocutionary entertainment was given by Mrs. Nina Larowe in Stetson's hall last Saturday evening. She rendered selections from Shakespeare, Longfellow and others to a fair-sized audience. Moore's Hair Invigorator may be found on sale at A. C. Marsters & Co. No ladies toilet is complete without it. It is excellent for the face and chapped hands. Sample bottles free, call and try it. $29. Call at THE REVIEW office and get your blank deeds and mortgages with the note printed in the mortgage. All kinds of blanks on hand cheap. Call and see us before purchasing elsewhere. M. O. Wimberly has the agency for the California insurance company, and any one having property to insure and want it insured in a good reliable company should call on him at THE REVIEW office. J. P. Martin has the agency for a book entitled "The Worlds We Admire," and is canvassing the county for this work. It is an interesting work and he will no doubt meet with a good success in its sale. A boy named "Jim" Jennings was killed last Friday night near Lebanon, while out cow hunting with a couple of other boys, by one of them accidentally discharging his shot gun and killing him almost instantly. A great many peaches and other choice fruits are being shipped from here to different points in the Willamette valley now. They give general satisfaction and are attracting considerable attention toward us. Disorders of the stomach, liver and kidneys, can be cured by restoring the blood to a healthy condition, through the purifying and cleansing action of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the safest, most powerful, and most highly concentrated alternative available to the public. W. W. Baker, editor of the Rural Spirit, who recently purchased the Willamette Farmer, of Salem, will combine the two papers under the name of the North Pacific Rural Spirit, of Portland. It will be devoted to the best interests of the Northwest. To fill a long felt want will not some good samarian bring in a box of peaches as part payment for his lack of subscription? And to make business look all around being some good cholera morbus ones so that the doctors may have a chance to make a little money out of us, if they can. School begins Monday. This year promises so far to eclipse the previous one in attendance and we have no doubt all will be realized that is expected. We hope that each succeeding year may be the same, a continual increase in pupils until our school will rank among the foremost of the institutions of learning throughout the state.

Private School. A term of private school will be opened next Monday at the old Masonic hall and at our residence on Jackson street. Miss F. J. Howell. Miss Lucy Hay will not begin teaching in Roseburg next week as has been previously announced having made other arrangements. Mr. E. H. Kilham, representing J. K. Gill & Co. wholesale booksellers and stationers, Portland, gave THE REVIEW a call this week. Mitchell Melanson is rusticating in the mountains for his health, and in his absence N. T. Jewett has charge of the furnishing store. Fred Clift will run a stage between Ashland and Linkville the coming fall and winter, beginning early in September, says the Tidings. The north-bound train, Wednesday morning, was nearly four hours late, owing to a collision near the state line. No one hurt in the accident. Mrs. W. A. Smith, for the past several weeks has been taking lessons in elocution from Mrs. Latow. She has decided ability in that line. The piers will be completed for the South Umpqua bridge at Winstons in about two weeks. The work is being pushed forward to completion. Indians are largely employed in hop picking throughout the valley and Washington territory. Their labor is cheaper than Chinese or white labor. We heard from our old friend W. M. Wheeler last week. He is in Medicine Lodge, Kansas, in the mercantile business and is doing well. Who says Roseburg is not going to boom? Why, she's looming already; just look at the real estate transaction and the building that is going on all the time. Mrs. S. E. Morgan and her daughter, Miss Nellie Morgan, lately of Denver, Colorado, but formerly of Roseburg, have taken up their residence in Portland. All who are liable to a poll tax that the assessor missed in his assessment of the county should pay their poll to the sheriff for their names are on his books. There is a pretty steady string of what wagons coming into town daily. But the signs of a dollar year are not as thick as coon tracks on a clam beach. Miss Clara Hardison and her brother returned from a trip to Bandon this week, and the stopped in Roseburg to pass examination for a teacher's certificate. And still the pedestrian number pursues his pedestrianism in darkness, with no friendly gleam of light to guide his footsteps in the paths of rectitude. Stonewall Cawfield left last Tuesday for Albany where he will visit a few days when he will go to Hoquiam, W. T., where his sister resides to spend a few months. Prof. A. N. Knight of Ollala gave THE REVIEW a call last Saturday and says he will commence a fall term of school in that district a week from next Monday. The Deer Creek reform club is called to meet at the Boggs school house on Saturday evening September 17th, by order of J. H. Whitsett, chairman of Executive committee. Mrs. M. V. Shelby, of Portland, and little grand-daughter, Miss Eugenia Shelly, who have been the guests of Mrs. Judge Mosher, returned home on Wednesday morning's train. The Ute Indians in Colorado have left the reservation and are on the war path. "Colorado's land was defaced last week after killing a skunkish to which several were killed on both sides. R. R. Duncan met with the misfortune of getting something in one of his eyes about two weeks ago which caused him to lose the sight of it. This is a real misfortune for the old gentleman. Call on M. R. Howell for the best and cheapest drug and fruit liquors in the market, Cumberland coal, French Burr flour, doors, windows and moldings all at lowest rates for cash. When used according to directions, Ayer's Ague Cure is warranted to eradicate, from the system, Fever and Ague, Intermittent, Remittent, and Bilious Fevers, and all malarial diseases. Try it. An elocutionary entertainment was given by Mrs. Nina Larowe in Stetson's hall last Saturday evening. She rendered selections from Shakespeare, Longfellow and others to a fair-sized audience. Moore's Hair Invigorator may be found on sale at A. C. Marsters & Co. No ladies toilet is complete without it. It is excellent for the face and chapped hands. Sample bottles free, call and try it. $29. Call at THE REVIEW office and get your blank deeds and mortgages with the note printed in the mortgage. All kinds of blanks on hand cheap. Call and see us before purchasing elsewhere. M. O. Wimberly has the agency for the California insurance company, and any one having property to insure and want it insured in a good reliable company should call on him at THE REVIEW office. J. P. Martin has the agency for a book entitled "The Worlds We Admire," and is canvassing the county for this work. It is an interesting work and he will no doubt meet with a good success in its sale. A boy named "Jim" Jennings was killed last Friday night near Lebanon, while out cow hunting with a couple of other boys, by one of them accidentally discharging his shot gun and killing him almost instantly. A great many peaches and other choice fruits are being shipped from here to different points in the Willamette valley now. They give general satisfaction and are attracting considerable attention toward us. Disorders of the stomach, liver and kidneys, can be cured by restoring the blood to a healthy condition, through the purifying and cleansing action of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the safest, most powerful, and most highly concentrated alternative available to the public. W. W. Baker, editor of the Rural Spirit, who recently purchased the Willamette Farmer, of Salem, will combine the two papers under the name of the North Pacific Rural Spirit, of Portland. It will be devoted to the best interests of the Northwest. To fill a long felt want will not some good samarian bring in a box of peaches as part payment for his lack of subscription? And to make business look all around being some good cholera morbus ones so that the doctors may have a chance to make a little money out of us, if they can. School begins Monday. This year promises so far to eclipse the previous one in attendance and we have no doubt all will be realized that is expected. We hope that each succeeding year may be the same, a continual increase in pupils until our school will rank among the foremost of the institutions of learning throughout the state.

Private School. A term of private school will be opened next Monday at the old Masonic hall and at our residence on Jackson street. Miss F. J. Howell. Miss Lucy Hay will not begin teaching in Roseburg next week as has been previously announced having made other arrangements. Mr. E. H. Kilham, representing J. K. Gill & Co. wholesale booksellers and stationers, Portland, gave THE REVIEW a call this week. Mitchell Melanson is rusticating in the mountains for his health, and in his absence N. T. Jewett has charge of the furnishing store. Fred Clift will run a stage between Ashland and Linkville the coming fall and winter, beginning early in September, says the Tidings. The north-bound train, Wednesday morning, was nearly four hours late, owing to a collision near the state line. No one hurt in the accident. Mrs. W. A. Smith, for the past several weeks has been taking lessons in elocution from Mrs. Latow. She has decided ability in that line. The piers will be completed for the South Umpqua bridge at Winstons in about two weeks. The work is being pushed forward to completion. Indians are largely employed in hop picking throughout the valley and Washington territory. Their labor is cheaper than Chinese or white labor. We heard from our old friend W. M. Wheeler last week. He is in Medicine Lodge, Kansas, in the mercantile business and is doing well. Who says Roseburg is not going to boom? Why, she's looming already; just look at the real estate transaction and the building that is going on all the time. Mrs. S. E. Morgan and her daughter, Miss Nellie Morgan, lately of Denver, Colorado, but formerly of Roseburg, have taken up their residence in Portland. All who are liable to a poll tax that the assessor missed in his assessment of the county should pay their poll to the sheriff for their names are on his books. There is a pretty steady string of what wagons coming into town daily. But the signs of a dollar year are not as thick as coon tracks on a clam beach. Miss Clara Hardison and her brother returned from a trip to Bandon this week, and the stopped in Roseburg to pass examination for a teacher's certificate. And still the pedestrian number pursues his pedestrianism in darkness, with no friendly gleam of light to guide his footsteps in the paths of rectitude. Stonewall Cawfield left last Tuesday for Albany where he will visit a few days when he will go to Hoquiam, W. T., where his sister resides to spend a few months. Prof. A. N. Knight of Ollala gave THE REVIEW a call last Saturday and says he will commence a fall term of school in that district a week from next Monday. The Deer Creek reform club is called to meet at the Boggs school house on Saturday evening September 17th, by order of J. H. Whitsett, chairman of Executive committee. Mrs. M. V. Shelby, of Portland, and little grand-daughter, Miss Eugenia Shelly, who have been the guests of Mrs. Judge Mosher, returned home on Wednesday morning's train. The Ute Indians in Colorado have left the reservation and are on the war path. "Colorado's land was defaced last week after killing a skunkish to which several were killed on both sides. R. R. Duncan met with the misfortune of getting something in one of his eyes about two weeks ago which caused him to lose the sight of it. This is a real misfortune for the old gentleman. Call on M. R. Howell for the best and cheapest drug and fruit liquors in the market, Cumberland coal, French Burr flour, doors, windows and moldings all at lowest rates for cash. When used according to directions, Ayer's Ague Cure is warranted to eradicate, from the system, Fever and Ague, Intermittent, Remittent, and Bilious Fevers, and all malarial diseases. Try it. An elocutionary entertainment was given by Mrs. Nina Larowe in Stetson's hall last Saturday evening. She rendered selections from Shakespeare, Longfellow and others to a fair-sized audience. Moore's Hair Invigorator may be found on sale at A. C. Marsters & Co. No ladies toilet is complete without it. It is excellent for the face and chapped hands. Sample bottles free, call and try it. $29. Call at THE REVIEW office and get your blank deeds and mortgages with the note printed in the mortgage. All kinds of blanks on hand cheap. Call and see us before purchasing elsewhere. M. O. Wimberly has the agency for the California insurance company, and any one having property to insure and want it insured in a good reliable company should call on him at THE REVIEW office. J. P. Martin has the agency for a book entitled "The Worlds We Admire," and is canvassing the county for this work. It is an interesting work and he will no doubt meet with a good success in its sale. A boy named "Jim" Jennings was killed last Friday night near Lebanon, while out cow hunting with a couple of other boys, by one of them accidentally discharging his shot gun and killing him almost instantly. A great many peaches and other choice fruits are being shipped from here to different points in the Willamette valley now. They give general satisfaction and are attracting considerable attention toward us. Disorders of the stomach, liver and kidneys, can be cured by restoring the blood to a healthy condition, through the purifying and cleansing action of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the safest, most powerful, and most highly concentrated alternative available to the public. W. W. Baker, editor of the Rural Spirit, who recently purchased the Willamette Farmer, of Salem, will combine the two papers under the name of the North Pacific Rural Spirit, of Portland. It will be devoted to the best interests of the Northwest. To fill a long felt want will not some good samarian bring in a box of peaches as part payment for his lack of subscription? And to make business look all around being some good cholera morbus ones so that the doctors may have a chance to make a little money out of us, if they can. School begins Monday. This year promises so far to eclipse the previous one in attendance and we have no doubt all will be realized that is expected. We hope that each succeeding year may be the same, a continual increase in pupils until our school will rank among the foremost of the institutions of learning throughout the state.

Private School. A term of private school will be opened next Monday at the old Masonic hall and at our residence on Jackson street. Miss F. J. Howell. Miss Lucy Hay will not begin teaching in Roseburg next week as has been previously announced having made other arrangements. Mr. E. H. Kilham, representing J. K. Gill & Co. wholesale booksellers and stationers, Portland, gave THE REVIEW a call this week. Mitchell Melanson is rusticating in the mountains for his health, and in his absence N. T. Jewett has charge of the furnishing store. Fred Clift will run a stage between Ashland and Linkville the coming fall and winter, beginning early in September, says the Tidings. The north-bound train, Wednesday morning, was nearly four hours late, owing to a collision near the state line. No one hurt in the accident. Mrs. W. A. Smith, for the past several weeks has been taking lessons in elocution from Mrs. Latow. She has decided ability in that line. The piers will be completed for the South Umpqua bridge at Winstons in about two weeks. The work is being pushed forward to completion. Indians are largely employed in hop picking throughout the valley and Washington territory. Their labor is cheaper than Chinese or white labor. We heard from our old friend W. M. Wheeler last week. He is in Medicine Lodge, Kansas, in the mercantile business and is doing well. Who says Roseburg is not going to boom? Why, she's looming already; just look at the real estate transaction and the building that is going on all the time. Mrs. S. E. Morgan and her daughter, Miss Nellie Morgan, lately of Denver, Colorado, but formerly of Roseburg, have taken up their residence in Portland. All who are liable to a poll tax that the assessor missed in his assessment of the county should pay their poll to the sheriff for their names are on his books. There is a pretty steady string of what wagons coming into town daily. But the signs of a dollar year are not as thick as coon tracks on a clam beach. Miss Clara Hardison and her brother returned from a trip to Bandon this week, and the stopped in Roseburg to pass examination for a teacher's certificate. And still the pedestrian number pursues his pedestrianism in darkness, with no friendly gleam of light to guide his footsteps in the paths of rectitude. Stonewall Cawfield left last Tuesday for Albany where he will visit a few days when he will go to Hoquiam, W. T., where his sister resides to spend a few months. Prof. A. N. Knight of Ollala gave THE REVIEW a call last Saturday and says he will commence a fall term of school in that district a week from next Monday. The Deer Creek reform club is called to meet at the Boggs school house on Saturday evening September 17th, by order of J. H. Whitsett, chairman of Executive committee. Mrs. M. V. Shelby, of Portland, and little grand-daughter, Miss Eugenia Shelly, who have been the guests of Mrs. Judge Mosher, returned home on Wednesday morning's train. The Ute Indians in Colorado have left the reservation and are on the war path. "Colorado's land was defaced last week after killing a skunkish to which several were killed on both sides. R. R. Duncan met with the misfortune of getting something in one of his eyes about two weeks ago which caused him to lose the sight of it. This is a real mis