ROSEBURG REVIEW

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1887.

Appointments.

The following are appointments for the M. E. Church south.

1st. Sabbath in each month at Roseburg 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. 2nd, Sabbath Deer Creek at 11 a. m. and at Roberts Creek 4 p. m. 3rd, Sabbath at Nick Day's school house at 11 a. m, and at Calapooia school house at 4 p. m 4th. Sabbath at Hudson school house at 11 a. m. and at Myrtle Creek at 8 p. m. Rev. T. P. Haynes, Pastor.

Another Fire.—The large saw mill located at Harrisburg was reported to have burned last Monday night. No information regarding the origin of theft re presumably it was of incendary character.

Returned.—Hon. Binger Hermann returned from a trip to Yaquina bay and Portland last Saturday. He went to Yaquina to inspect the government works, and to Portland to attend the reception of Senator Stanford and party.

Take Notice.—All persons having any business with this paper will always direct their communications to "Roseburg Review," and not personally to any member of the firm. This observed, will prevent the delay of correspondence.

Diphtheria.—As we go to press we can find no new cases of diphtheria, and all the afflicted are much better. There is a difference of opinion as to the reported cases of diphtheria anyway. However all necessary precautions have been taken to keep the disease from spreading. A number of the medical fraternity holds there is no diphtheria in town.

Funny.—Prof. Baily of the State University was at the depot at Roseburg last Monday morning purchasing a ticket, when he demanded of the agent his spectacles that he supposed he had laid down, and to the chagrin and pleasure of the Prof. the "specs" were on his nose, and he looking through them at that moment. All hands laughed, even the editor of The Review smiled slightly.

Attention.—Read Sol. Abraham's notice on the editorial page. This is the largest advertisement ever published in Douglas county. Mr Abraham has been in the merchantile business for 30 years in this county, and by always giving the money's worth for his goods he has been one of the most successful merchants in this section, and he now wishes to retire, hence he offers the opportunity to all to get his large stock of goods at bargains unprecedented in Roseburg.

The Monroe House.—The above named house at Salem is just the place for the weary traveller to rest and refresh himself. The house is kept as neat and tidy as a pin. The culinary department is presided over by Mrs. Monroe and her sister, and the repast they furnish you makes glad the palate of the epicure. We know, being somewhat of that kind of an animal of the genus homo our-self. Clint. Monroe is the boniface of the city of Salem.

Missionary Convention.—On last Tuesday under the direction of the Womans Presbyterial Missionary Society, in connection with the Presbytery of Oregon, Rev. H. A. Newell and wife of Salem, and Rev. W. S. Holt of Portland, held a missionary convention in Roseburg. These gentlemen are both missionaries, one representing the home, and the other foreign missions. They are earnest, zealous workers and will no doubt accomplish much good by these conventions.

New Real Estate Office.—This new firm consists of Rudolph Abraham and George W. Colvig. These gentlemen have associated themselves together in this new enterprise to conduct a straight-forward real estate business. Messrs. Abraham & Colvig are too well known in Douglas county to require at our hands any special recommendations. It is sufficient to say that Mr. Abraham has been a successful merchant and cattle man in our county, and Hon. G. W. Colvig has been called upon time and again to represent us at the state capital and in other offices of trust. Look out for their big ad next week. Their office next to G. A. Taylor, Red Front.

Fine Decorations.—Messrs. Tolles and Foster has been engaged lately in painting the residence of H, Wollenbergin this city. We had the pleasure this week of inspecting their work and must pronounce it first class. When the painting and the ceiling decorations are completed the work done will be the highest example of the painters art in this city. Especially fine, artistic and tasteful are the ceiling decorations paper and borders of different shades, colors and arrangements. All of this work was done by the gentlemen from their own designs and evidence of the fact that no one need send out of Roseburg for anything in this line, as the decorations could not be excelled by any workmen.

A Visitor.—Charles E. Barrett of Ridgeville, Indiana made us a very pleasant call last Friday. Mr. Barrett is a farmer from the above named state and is looking through the entire Pacific states and territories. This gentleman shows a thorough understanding of his business and is well informed upon almost any subject. We will tell a little joke on him however. He was walking out on our surrounding hills the other morning when he spied what he supposed to be a fawn and you can imagine his surprise when he found it only one of our ordinary jack rabbits. Mr. Barrett has been a reader of The Review for a number of months and was drawn hither by its perusal. He paid ahead for his subscription, and we hope he will eventually settle among us.

We would caution the public against the frauds practiced on the unsuspecting by New York and London sharpers in regard to information they offer about the "next of kin&c" and advise our readers to have nothing to do with them whatever as it will result in disappointment and loss. There is published by authority every three years by the paymaster a list of statement of accounts in the books of the pay office by order of the Treasury a copy of which is ordered to be inserted in the "Gazette." We take pleasure in saying that Mr. Henry H. Woodward of Roseburg has secured a copy of this authorized published list, which we have seen and examined and find it to contain names of parties having suits &c, in courts of Chancery, Queen's Bench and other law courts of the crown, and we unhesitatelingly pronounce it to be the only authorized list, and that the public are cautioned by the crown officials against relying upon any other information other than from official sources, a copy of which is now in the hands of Mr. Woodward. And we desire to say that persons that believe there is anything due them from their deceased ancestors have now an opportunity to find out, and for one dollar with their full name will receive a reply if their name is on the list, and if so with instructions how to proceed to obtain the amount of fund in court, with date of order in court affecting the same.

SAN FRANCISCO.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE GREAT CITY. SIGHTS AND SCENES.

San Francisco the youngest of the great cities of the world is possessed of a romantic history, bordering on the marvelous. The date of settlement is fixed at several different periods. It is first claimed to be at the time when Portala and Crespi in 1769 selected the site for the old Mission or when Vioget in 1839 surveyed the ground into streets and squares, or when in 1847 the Americans re-surveyed and enlarged the area and gave the name San Francisco. Although young, yet the auspices under which the city was founded has given a certain characteristic of obscurity, and antiquity to its history. In this vast city every state of the Union, every country of the known world is represented. Every language and every color of the human race is to be seen and heard, and every religion has its worshipers. The name California originated from the brain of a novelist, the romance when first discovered read thus: "Las Sergas del Muy Esporzado Esplandian higo del excellente re Amadis de Ganla. This was by Garcia Ordonez de Montaloo of 1510, and interpreted reads as follows: "Know that on the right side of the Indes very near the Terrestrial Paradise there is an island called California which is peopled with black women without men among them, because they are accustomed to live like Amazons." Cortez undertook to search for this "island" and sent out several expeditions in the attempt. Lower California was first discovered in 1539 its true character as a peninsula was discovered by Francisco de Mulloa. In 1542 the coast was explored as far north as Punta de lor Reyes by Juan Rodrignes Cabrillo and on March 3, 1543 Bartolona Ferrilo pilot and successor of Cabrillo reported seeing the Golden Gate. The Golden Gate was, it is believed first entered on the 18th of August 1776 by an expedition led by Francisco Palon and Benito Cambon, two monks of the order of St. Francis de Assissi, who founded the mission on the site selected by Portala. The old mission still stands a revered monument of the years, agone. In 1833 the Pueblo of Yerba Buena was created and in 1835 the first business house was erected by Wm. Richardson. The first merchantile house was built on Dupont street between Clay and Washington. On the 8th of July 1846, Commander Montgomery of the sloop of war Portsmouth, took possession in the name of the United States and raised his flag on the Plaza, since called Portsmouth square. On the 31st of July the ship Brooklyn from New York arrived in harbor having on board 288 immigrants of whom all but twelve were Mormons, under the leadership of Samuel Brannan. Great was their surprise and consternation upon seeing the Stars and Stripes already waving over the land where they had hoped to form their colony and where they might worship in their faith unhindered. They, however proved of value to the earlier settlers. Mr. Braman at once began the publication of the California Weekly Star which is now the Alta California, the first number was issued on July 9th, 1847. On the 19th of Jan. 1848 Jas. M. Marshall made the first discovery of Gold at Sutters saw mill Coloma, the news spread rapidly and soon the whole world was aflame with the fire of the new discovery, Washington Bartlett was elected Governor. A government was formed and San Francisco was henceforth destined to become one of the mighty centers of civilization, around which the commerce of worlds should congregate, and to-day the name of San Francisco is heard in the most remote parts of the earth. At present the public finances are in good condition, her immense wealth has preserved her from debt and she stands comparatively free from all encumbrances. To-day the great metropolis is in her full tide of glory, her lovely houses, her splendid parks, and magnificent business centers, tend to make her one of the most beautiful cities of the world. A visit to Chinatown, Woodwards gardens, Cliff house, and Sutro park should not be neglected, or deferred, when in the city. The sights in Chinatown are extremely novel, booths containing all sorts of Chinese curiosities are erected outside along the thoroughfares; Chinese children and women arrayed in fantastic costumes present an amusing spectacle. One is perfectly safe in visiting the above place at any time, the order and custom prevailing almost equaling that of other portions of the city. An amusing sight was witnessed on Friday and Saturday of last week a Chinese procession in honor of a new Joss company paraded the streets bearing all sorts of flags, banners, minature pagodas and temples. Chinese on horseback dressed in red, green, pink and blue, women on donkeys, boys and girls in wagons drawn by donkeys, discordant music, ending with an immense dragon over one hundred feet long made of different colored paper and cloth, jointed body, borne by men. All this served to produce a most heathenish and uncivilized aspect. Sutro park located on an emminence called Sutro Heights some two hundred feet above the sea to one of the most lovely places of which San Francisco can boast. It is the home of Adolph Sutro four miles from the city, overlooking the ocean, a veritable garden of Eden with its splendid gardens, its profusion of flowers, lovely drives, magnificent statuary, an immense greenhouse filled with rare and beautiful plants of all climes. Well kept lawns, fountains, sparkling in the bright sunlight and gleaming through the stately trees. One almost imagines himself in Paradise while viewing these lovely works of nature and art. Huge statues twelve feet in height, busts of noted men of ancient and modern times such as Richard Wagner, Mendelsohn, Goethe, Schubert, Schiller and others too numerous to mention, a huge figure, the "Satyrs Dream" half man, half cow reposing on a slab forms a hideous picture. Ancient Gods, Hermes, Apollo etc., may be found among the statuary. The park may be seen for some distance by approaching steamers, large statues on the wall at the edge of the precipice overlooking the sea are by old sculptors. Carnova's "Dansense" six feet in height occupies a prominent place. It seems almost useless to attempt to describe this park, all we shall say further is that it is well worth a visit to San Francisco to see this uncomparable spot. Woodwards Gardens are in full blast. A large tumor weighing ten pounds was removed from the shoulder of the twenty-four year old lion on exhibition there, the other day. The old fellow seems to appreciate the operation and waits patiently each morning while the wound is being dressed. The lioness Bess also has a tumor but being located close to large arteries, it would be impossible to remove it without endangering the life of the animal. The view from Cliff House of the ocean and seal Rocks is magnificent. The lions barking and roaring pushing each other from the rocks upon which they clamber is an interesting sight. The white capped breakers rolling in upon the bosom of the old Pacific, dashing against the rocks throwing their spray high into the air, the vessels just discernable to the naked eye rounding the horizon, the beach stretching for miles dotted here and there with carriages and pedestrians, is sufficient to create enthusiasm in the most indifferent breast. Golden Gate park though boasting of well kept lawns, drives, with flowers and trees, can in no measure campare with her sister on the Heights. The Mechanics Fair is open and presents quite an attraction. Robinson's circus is in town. Baldwin theatre offers the best amusement, Clito at the Baldwin to-night. A Chinese woman hung herself on Jackson street recently because her husband scolded her for losing some jewelry. A Chunamen Ah Hai Sabe is to be hung next Friday for murder The private execution of a man for the murder of his sister in law two years ago, was held at the jail last week. A sister Superioress was married recently to an architect by the name of Clark in this city, Sister Mary Joseph was 32 years of age and had been in the convent since 17 years old. The Queen of Pacific arrived this morning from San Diego, she sails again on the 26th.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Widespread Ruin Wrought by the Texas Storm.

THE POOR IN NEED OF HELP.

Brownsville, Texas, Sept. 23.—At 9 o'clock Tuesday evening the norther that had been blowing for several days increased in fierceness, with heavy gusts of rain. In a short time the hurricane was on the town in full force, the wind reaching, in the heighth of the storm, the velocity of seventy eight miles per hour. All night long it continued, the howling being mingled now and then with a crash of a falling house, the thundering sound of falling trees, the rattling of fences as they went over or the shouts of those deserting their crumbling residences or imploring aid. The duration of the storm may be said to be thirty-five hours. The rainfall was very heavy, 10.40 inches.

The damage in the country outside of the cities is incalculable. Countless head of cattle and sheep have been lost, and crops of cotton corn and sugar cane completely prostrated and destroyed. One rancher on a small place calculates his loss in cotton alone at $20,000, and many others are equally heavy losers. The total of losses will be far beyond a million dollars.

In Brownsville the chief sufferers were among the poor. Between sixty and eighty jackals, or cheaper class of dwellings, have been blown down, and fully three hundred have been partially unroofed and rendered uninhabitable.

THE POOR.

In Matamoras about a dozen houses of the better class, and fully 150 or 200 jackals, were prostrated, while from 400 to 500 were unroofed or shattered. Public buildings, and stores, and the better class of dwellings leaked like sieves, and are all afloat.

THE LAGOON DISTRICT FLOODED.

The unfortunate lagoon district south of the Plaza del Capilla is again inundated. A large portion of the houses have fallen. Water is from knee to waist deep.

In Honor of the Big Joss.

San Francisco, Sept. 23.—Probably one of the most magnificent street pageants that has ever been seen in this city occurred to-day. It was a gorgeous demonstration, in honor of the Chinese Joss, Tan Wong. The procession of Mongolians, all decked in the richest Oriental finery, and carrying handsomely draped, fantastic figures and accompanied by the banging of gongs and deafening music, wended its way throughout Chinatown and attracted a great deal of attention. The figures in the procession cost $13,000.

OIL WELLS BURNING.

Streams of Fire Flowing in all Directions —The County in Danger.

Toledo, Ohio, Sept. 23.—The North western Ohio oil wells are in flames, and the fire is rapidly spreading. Ditches, fields and forests are filled with waste oil, in some places many feet in depth, and the refuse is all on fire. It is feared the oil well buildings and houses of the whole township will be swept out of existence. When the well known as Parker No. 1 caught fire Tuesday night from an explosion the flames made a terrible roaring, and burning oil was scattered far and near. Well No. 2 caught on fire next, and aided in the conflagration. Four tanks were destroyed with their contents. The loss will reach $200,000 on these alone. Burning oil was blown through the woods for a long distance, and trees and fences furnished ready food for the conflagration.

Sheep shearing has commenced.

Farmers are about done hauling off grain.

Willie Hogan and Scott Smith are amatuer sheep shearers. We feel for the poor sheep.

Miss Kate Tipton a little thirteen year old girl is the best mathematition in our public school.

Mr. Lewis Denny will shortly remove from our midst. We are sorry to lose him and his interesting family.

Since writing the above Prof. Hutchinson has been removed to Oakland to be near his physician. He is doing well.

The friends of Mr. John Tipton will regret to learn that he has been suffering intense pain with his afflicted arm during the past three weeks.

Prof. Hutchinson is getting along nicely since his arm was amputated, and expects to take charge of the Oakland public school soon. He is very grateful for the kindness of his neighbors during his sore affliction.

Our school is still going on and our teacher, Prof. G. V. Boggs, is taking great pains with his pupils. Great improvement is noticed since he took charge of our school, and we regret that Prof. Boggs intends giving up teaching at the close of this present term, as he is one of our best instructors. Success to him.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.

The following resolutions of condolence are in reference to the son of D. Moore and wife, highly respected citizens of our city, and we join in sympathy with their many friends in mourning for the departed.

At a regular meeting of Fidelity Lodge, East Portland, A. O. U. W. held Sept, 6 1887. The following resolutions unanamously adopted.

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God the Maker and Preserver of the Universe to remove from our midst our late Bro. Frank D. Moore: and

Whereas, It is but just that a fitting recognition of his many virtues should be had: Therefore be it

Resolved, by Fidelity Lodge A. O. U. W, that while we bow in humble submission to the will of Almighty God we do not the less mourn for our worthy Brother who has been taken from us

Resolved, that in the death of Bro. Moore this Lodge laments the loss of a Brother who was ever ready to proffer the hand of aid and the voice of sympathy to the needy and distressed of this fraternity a friend and companion to be was dear to us all.

Resolved, That the heartfelt sympathy of this Lodge be extended to his family in their affliction

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the records of the Lodge and a copy thereof be transmitted to the family of our deceased Brother.

MARRIED.

NICHOLS—FULLERTON.—At the residence of the bride's parents in Canyonville Sept. 26, 1887, Miss Addie Fullerton to Mr. W. L. Nichols, Mr. Manning officiating

The wedding took place at about 1 o'clock after which the invited guests partook of a bountiful wedding dinner. The happy couple are well known, and received the congratulations of a host of friends. The bride received quite a number of handsome presents. The Review joins with the many friends in extending hearty congratulations, and also extends thanks for the cake sent us.

DIED.

BROWN.—At Brooks Station below Salem, Sept. 28, 1887, John Brown, son of Thos. Brown of this county, after 3 weeks illness, aged 22 years, 2 months, and 8 days.

The remains were brought to Roseburg and laid to rest in the Masonic Cemetery. He was delighted to see Father Brooks, who visited him in his last hours, and said to him that his trust was in God and that he had no fears of death. So marked was his fortitude that even Dr. Roland said he had never seen a more patient sufferer. He was industrious and quite in disposition, and gentle in manners; and though dying as he did among strangers, he won the esteem and affection of all who came to see him in his illness, and was as tenderly cared for as if he had died in the bosom of his fathers family. He leaves a father Mr. Thos. Browne and four brothers and three sisters, and many relatives and friends to mourn his departure. We trust when the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest.

MARSHALL.—At the family residence in this city September 25. 1887, Chas. Henry Marshall, aged 14 years, 4 months and 11 days.

The funeral was held at the Masonic cemetary Sept. 27, 1887, at 10 o'clock A. M., Rev. W. A. Smick, officiating.

THOMAS.—Joseph L. Thomas in Roseburg Sept. 29th,inst. Aged about 22 years. Joe was an industrious, well behaved boy, and it was a sore affliction to his father and relative to give him up. Joseph's mother died when he was only 18 months old.

VINCENT.—A child of Mr. Vincent departed this life in this city Sept. 26th, inst. aged about 14 years. "Suffer little children to come unto me," is a blessed consolation.

Useful and Hurtful Medicines.

There is a certain class of remedies for constipation absolutely useless. These are boluses and potions made in great part of podophyllin, aloes, rhubarb, gamboge, and other worthless ingredients. The damage they do to the stomachs of those who use them is incalculable. They evacuate the bowels, it is true, but always do so violently and profusely, and besides, gripe the bowels. Their effect is to weaken both them and the stomach. Better far to use the agreeable and salutary aperient, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the laxative effect of which is never preceded by pain, or accompanied by a convulsive, violent action of the bowels. On the contrary, it invigorates those organs, the stomach and the entire system. As a means of curing and preventing malarial fevers, no medicine can compare with it, and it remedies nervous debility, rheumatism, kidney and bladder in activity, and other inorganic ailments.

What True Merit Will Do.

The unprecedented sale of Boschee's German Syrup within a few years, has astonished the world. It is without doubt the safest and best remedy ever discovered for the speedy and effectual cure of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung troubles. It acts on an entirely different principle from the usual prescriptions given by Physicians, as it does not dry up a cough and leave the disease still in the system, but on the contrary removes the cause of the trouble, heals the parts affected and leaves them in a purely healthy condition. A bottle kept in the house for use when the diseases make their appearance, will save doctor's bills and a long spell of serious illness. A trial will convince you of these facts. It is positively sold by all druggists and general dealers in the land. Price, 75 cts., large bottles.
