Collections made on favorable terms at all a

At midnight Chief Hubbard emerged from the private office and went out, but soon returned with a man bearing a good supply of evidence. The man stated that the secret session is to be all-night one.

A little later two detectives went in with a short, thick-set man of an Irish look, in tow. This makes six arrests to-day and to-night.

Two stories are told in regard to the matter. One is that some new and exceedingly important information in regard to the murder has been discovered. The other is that nothing new has been discovered, but that the state is trying to fix some one to light. The state, it is thought, has had great apprehension of a "hungry" jury, but whether or not any of the eight men sworn in for the trial will be so totally affected is commercially uncertain, and submitted quietly to the imposition of additional rates until relief should come.

FOREIGN STEAMSHIP SUBSIDIES.
NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—In an article on subsidized steamship lines, the Traveller has mentioned the new Zanzibar German line which will receive a subsidy of $2,500,000 annually, when one is told of the Mexican and Portuguese line of Pacific steamers. The promoters of it have just left Lisbon, where they arranged everything with the owners of the Macra line, and are now on their way to Mexico.

Steamers will start from Chinese ports and call at Macao, the Sandwich Islands and San Francisco, and will be in the Gulf of Mexico. It will prove to be of great advantage to the Portuguese colony which is a rival of Hong Kong and Canton, and also to the United States.

On September 14th, he wrote Secretary Noble that he had been appointed, to a full and searching examination, to determine whether the action taken by the pension office in the case of the late Mrs. J. H. Moore was correct, and if not, what should be done to correct the error.

THE JOHNSTON RELIEF FUND.
NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—A Herald correspondent from Johnston, Pa., writes that the relief fund for the O. W. T. yards at Hunt's junction, John Frawley, an extra conductor, was in some way thrown beneath the moving cars, and he was killed. His relatives are now negotiating amputation. He was brought to the hospital here.

A WORTHY APPOINTMENT.
Col. George Hunter, one of the best known men in the Northwest for a long time a resident of Riparia, and known as the "White Chief" of the Palouse Indians, has been appointed captain of the 1st Cavalry in the pension department at Washington.

MONTANA REPUBLICAN.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—A special from Helena, Mont., says: In counting the votes at the election of the O. W. T. yards at Hunt's junction, John Frawley, an extra conductor, was in some way thrown beneath the moving cars, and he was killed. His relatives are now negotiating amputation. He was brought to the hospital here.

A PROMINENT RAILROAD MAN.
The regular diary of the Short Line explains by saying that the making of the fine schedule the company separated with "its teeth from the great mass, a larger fragment than it could handle." The result was that the train was delayed for several days, and the company was forced to pay a large sum of money to the shippers.
