The Arizona Bicker.

little nap myself!"

HE WAS CORRECT.-There was con siderable astonishment exhibited by our people the other day when the governor of Arizona shook hands with us in front of the postoffice, and we have noticed a considerable change in the demeanor of certain people toward us ever since. The governor was correct. We are no clam shell hidden in the drifts, and he appre ciates the fact. He knows and respects the power of the press. He knows that a great paper like the Kicker, having behind it, but under one and the same roof, a grocery, feed store, butcher shop, har-ness shop, crockery store and gents' fur-nishing, must wield a mighty influence of good.

The people in this burgh who have been looking upon us as a one-mule power had better get their eyes open. CAME TO GRIEF -The suit of the widow Gibbs against us for breach of promise, damages $15,000, came up in court last Friday. This suit was instituted six months ago by the court house ring, which has sought our downfall ever since the first issue of this paper. That is, they put the widow up to sue us, and have advanced the money as it was needed,

When the widow was put on the stand she testified that on the night of Febru-ary 21, 1887, we asked her to marry us. She insisted that the date was correct, and that nothing could change her mind about it. We then exhibited the recordof the jail to prove that on that day and hight we were a prisoner, having, as some of our readers may remember, departed from the line of virture and gone on a Lender. This exhibit knocked the widow cut in the first round, and confounded I er supporters, and we don't believe they will tackle us sgain after that fashion. As for the widow, she was only a cat's paw, and we have sent to her house basket of groceries, a clothes line, a set of cups and saucers and a sack of flour to prove that we have no malice.

IT WILL BE VERY QUIET .- Our city election, which takes place next Tuesday, will be a very quiet one, and the singular specticle of two tickets almost without candidates, will be presented. As both tickets were made up of ring candidates, we felt our duty to publish, as far as we could secure it, a history of each. Our biographies included thirteen out of the sixteen candidates, and the publica tion was only three day old when most of them were honting other localities. They averaged all the way from murderer down to barn burners, and we are not likely to be troubled with them again What is left of the two tickets is fairly clean and honest. We are sorry we had to interfere and thus place the parties in a queer fix, but we felt it a duty we owe

A WASTE OF MONEY. - Some person who has a grievance against The Kicker left an infernal machine on our doorstep one night last week. It was a starch box filled with giant powder and two pounds of bullets, and was so arranged as to explode when the cover was lifted. We took it in and started to open it, supposing some modest admirer had left us a box of fruit or confectionery, but on second thought concluded to soak it for a while. This action saved our life. Not only that, but it prevented the destruction of our institution and probably of much surrounding property.

We have made every effort to trace the flend who put up this job, but so far without success. We realize that there are many men in this community who hanker for our life, but we hope to disap point them. If they feel that they must have it, why not fire buckshot into our bed-room window, ambush us at night or pick a quarrel in the street? This plot ting to scatter our bloody fragments over our large and excellent stock of groceries is both unkind and unreasonable.

In lifference to Peril.

A Denver gentlemen, who has been on a camping tour through the mountains, has recently returned, and relates an inci-dent which testifies to the statement that even the most dangerous callings become ordinary every day affairs to the men engaged in them, the element of danger being apparently lost sight of. He was driving his team across a mountain road when, coming to a narrow place, another team was met. In this latter were the driver and his wife, and as the passage was narrow and rough, there being many boulders on the side where the turning out had to made, his wife got out of the wagon. This was to be expected, but when the Denver tourist saw her run somewhat speedi'y and hide herself be-hind a large rock, it somewhat astonished

"I say," he asked, "what makes your wife act that way?"
"Oh, I don't know exactly, but I guess she may be a little scared." "But what is she scared about?"

"Oh, I have got some stuff in my wagon which she does not like to see bumped over these rocks," and he coolly proceeded to head his team over the "Say, what have you got in your

"You see those three boxes-well, they are full of giant powder." "My God, man, you don't intend to drive over the crocks with all that ex plosire matter?" "Yes, I do. Why not? I have been teaming gi nt powder for ten years."

"But it might explode and blow us, horses and all, to the devil."

"What of it? We would never know what hurt us, would we?"

And it was with difficulty that he was persuaded to wait and carry it about fifty feet.

A little boy was very fond of rambling around in the woods of Southern Georgia, and every time I e went out he would capture a rattlesn; ke and bring it home "How did you catch them, Johnnie?"

said the mother.
"Jes so," said the boy, and he showed her the operation. He would take a large candy jur and place the open mouth of the jar in front of the rattler. Then he would firmly fix his gaze upon the snake and hold him spell-bound. He would then punch the snake's tail with a long stick and shove him along notil he had him secure in the bottle. In this manner he captured thirty rattlers, and placed them on shelves in the ers, and placed them on shelves in the itchen.

The curious collection remained there

Sensational Preaching.

On Sunday morning, November 3, Rev. . J. Graham, rector of Holy Trinity scopal church, in Minneapolis, startled his congregation by declaring at the com-mencement of his sermon that he had re-nounced Christianity and denied the Bible and the church, as well as their teachings. He said he had a confession o make to his hearers, with a hope that they would listen to him patiently and withhold their judgement until he had finished. He at once expressed his doubts whether it paid to draw all the fine dedu tions that theologians do in matters of belief. He said the Bible was full of falsities, and mentioned Jonah in the whale's belly and the stopping of the sun and the moon. He did not believe it was inspired by God. He entertained a belief in God, but had no faith in a heavenly father who watched over his hildren. He supposed that some of the old fogies would leave the church, but he would be able to fill it with people of superior intellect, who refused to believe bese false doctrines.

The effect of this was most startling or the occupants of the pews. Some in the congregation were in tears, some beheved he pastor insane, and all were shocked at the deliberate renunciation of their faith. It was evident that they could not bear much more, and the rector suddenly announced that he had only been acting part. If there were mysteries in religion, they were not for them to under

A HORSE WHO CAN TALK!

Everybody has heard of a "horse laugh," but who has ever seen an equine gifted with the power of speech? Such an animal would be pronounced a miracle; but so would the telegraph and the telephone a hundred years ago. Why, even very recently a cure for consumption, which is universally acknowledged to be scrotuis affecting the lungs, would have been looked upon as miraculous, but now people are beginning to realize that the disease is not incurable. Dr. Pierco's Golden Medical Discovery will cure it, if taken in time and given a fair trial. This world-renowned remedy will not make new lungs, but it will restore means have failed. Thousands gratefully estify to this. It is the most potent tonic, or strength restorer, alterative, or blood-cleanser and nutritive, or flesh-builder, known to medical science. For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrin in the Head, and all Lingering Cougha, it is an unequaled remedy.
