There was a very pleasant party at the estaches of Mr. Chas. Stubling Tuesday venng. A number of friends came to old year out and the new year in and with songs and recitations rang the requiem of the death of the old and the birth of the new. A very pleasant time was en-joyed, and all seemed to drink inspiration

The death of Mrs. Floyd is a severe blow n her husband. He has lost seven children, and has only one remaining, and now mother has passed to the slient shore. r. Floyd lives only for his family, and the ows which have heretofore fallen upon almost crushed him to the earth, and now to lose the partner of his sorrows appears to be the culminating one. In his orief he will receive the heartfelt symathy of this community.

W. W. Union: In the probate court on John Hyart, an old resident and of inmate of the county poor house, was examined as to his sanity and adjudged unsound mind. He will be taken to the insaue asylum at Steilacoom to-day in charge of the sheriff. Hyart, who is a very I man, was one of the first settlers in Inland Empire, coming to Eastern ington and Oregon soon after the mas-of Dr. Marcus Whitman, and has been a constant resident for over 40 years. The cause of his insanity is great age and Oregonian, Tuesday: Information was re ceived yesterday morning from the Cascades by Port Captain J. W. Troupe, stating that gauge portage railway between and lower Cascades, had been forced to suspend operations on account of a snow blockade. The road is six miles ing, and is the only means the company have of making connections and transfer ring the freight from the upper to the lower er boats. As there are no snow plows on this road, it is not known just when the obstacle will be overcome. If the falling snow is allowed to accumulate on the track intil it gets so deep that it cannot be cleared away, all communication by river to s must be suspended.

The body of Themas Humphrey was the tunnel between Old and New Tacoma. With a companion, Alfred G.
