And dance past meadows and cornfields an Across the broad plain like a cyclone I rush

Through its storms and its sands and its far-off hush;
Then I climb the high mountain and leap Down its caverns headlong, never thinking Till my master draws rein, and at hi

What Dr. Shrady Says of La Grippe

Dr. George F. Shrady, of New York, has contributed to the Medical Record his views on 'la grippe." Dr. Shrady says:

"There is now no doubt that influenza,
or what is popularly known as "the grip," has become epidemic in this city and is scattered broadcast over the country. "The type of the present epidemic par-takes more of the febrile and nervous variety than of the purely catarrhal. The increased temperature in the beginning of the attack, with the severe pains in the head, back and lower extremities, are the leading phenomena which are noted in the large majority of cases. Only in a comparatively lew instances are the cory-zal symptons the leading features of the seizure. This latter is, perhaps, a fortu-nate circumstance in view of the generally accepted opinion concerning the greatly exaggerated danger of bronchits and pheumonia as necessary complications. The prostration is oftentimes extreme but by no means dangerous and readily yields to the usual reme hes. "The reports of the latality of the dis ease, as might have been expected, have larly does this remark apply to the alarming reports of the recent death rate in Paris. In point of fact, there is no disease with such a wide prevalence which has such a compartively low mortality. In this country, at least, there is yet to be reported the first case of death which can be laid to a pure and simple attack of the disease. From present indica tions and from past history, the epidemic is likely soon to pass over, a few days more settling the question of immunity from attack."

about it. You may yourself be one of the many who staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any throat, lung or chest tronble, secure a trial bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial bottles free at Snipes & Kinersly's drug store.

STANLEY HAS COME! the Hero of Africa-A New Bock of

His Wonderful Adventures. Henry M. Stanley stends now as the reatest explorer and adventurer the world has known. He is the hero of the most emarkable discoveries in all the records of daring and explorations. Emin Pasha was wandering somewhere in the tropical wilderness, and struggling to hold the country of which he was ruler. Stanley hastens to the rescue. He yanishes from the sight of the civilized world; months and seasons pass, and still no news from Stanley.

After untold privations and amazing triumphs, he emerges from the wilds of the Dark Continent accompanied by Emin Pasha. In his last great triumpl Emin Pasha. In his last great triumph he has put the climax upon all his previous explorations and yictories.

His adventures and discoveries have been grand, wooderful and marvelous.
The full and authentic accounts will be clated in the new genuine Stanley book, rom his first entrance into Africa, and richly illustrated with over 400 of the grandest and most wonderful new en-gravings and colored plates ever seen in a book of travels. The History Company, 723 Market Street, San Francisco, Cal are the publishers. The book will be sold by subscription only. Agents are wanted to sell the book, to whom most liberal inducements will be offered or application. We call attention to the adertisement in another column.

Womanhood and childhood fleet!"

is a type of thousands of young girls whe are emerging from the chrysalls stage of thoir existence, as they enter upon their "teans." Nervous, excitable, irritable, stirred by strange, unknowable forces within them, each a mystery unto herself, our girls need the tenderest care, the most loving, patient oversight, and the aid of Dr. Plerce's Favorite Prescription, to safely carry them through this critical period, during which, in too many lives, alas, are sown the seeds of distressing forms of diseases peculiar to the female sex. But this boon to womankind will prevent all such diseases, or cure them if they have already seized a victim. Woman owes it to herself, to her family, and to her social station, to be well and strong. Let her then not neglect the sure means of cure. "Favorite Prescription" is a legitimate medicine, carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. Sold by druggists; $1.00, or six bottles for $5.00.

THE FORUM has won the highest place reached by any periodical; for it publishes articles by more authoritative writers and by more workers along instructive lines of activity than any other publication. It contains eleven studies of great subjects every month. It is impartial, giving hearings alike to each side. It is financially independent, and it belongs to no sect or party or "interest." It is never sensational, but it aims always to be instructive.

The Forum is of great value to that part of my college work which deals with practical politics and rent questions. Two sets are hardly enough for daily use by students.—Prof. ALFRED BUSHNELL THE FORUM continues to hold its place as the foremost of our magazines, for the variety, the due, and the weight of its contributions.—THE NEW YORK TIMES.

There has come forward no problem of grave importance since The Forum was established that has not been discussed in its pages by masters of the subject. Announcements of forthcoming articles can seldom be made long in advance, for The Forum's discussions are always of problems of present concern. Every such problem that the year 1890 will bring forward will be discussed, whether in politics, or religion, or social science, or practical affairs. The January number will contain a reply by ex-Speaker J. G. Carlisle to Senator Cullom's recent article on "How the Tariff Affects the Farmer."
