Mr. Z. P. Taylor, formerly a resident of Grass Valley, but now of Elgin, Union county, is in town. Mr. James G. Woodworth, ass't general western freight agent of the Union Pacific, is in the city.

Misses Grace and Nellie Michell left on the morning train for a short visit to Portand and the Exposition.

Mr. Boyd Ashby, of Antelope, is in the city. He reports good crops this year, but very dry since harvest. The weather these days are very de

The roads to the interior are badly cut up by wheat wagons. These should be improved as quickly as possible. Mr. Charles Stewart Parnell, the great Irish leader, died at Brighton, England, this morning, aged about 48 years. Mr. Peter LaGorce, an old-time sheep man of Wasco county, but at present re-siding in Ellensburgh, Wash., is in the

Mrs. M. T. Nolan and family are visitng Mrs. Nolan's mother, Mrs. Moabus, Tacoma, Wash., where she will likely Mr. Walter Fraine came up from the

Locks to-day. He reports work on the canal progressing nicely, and a good snowing for work done. Justice Doherty has removed his office to one door north of the TIMES-MOUNT-AINEER, where he will be happy to deal out law and justice to all alike. The usual number of drunks was not jailed last night. There was not the or-dinary crop; but this will be no argu-ment against the productiveness of the

Mr. Louis Rorden is on a visit to his native land, from which he immigrated long years ago. He will return in a few weeks, when he will still continue his Next Tuesday the eleventh annual session of the grand lodge, K. of P. will be held in Portland, and this popular order will have representatives from all portions of the great state of Oregon.

We received a call to day from Mr. Wm. E. Ward, formerly editor of the Pomona Daily Times. He is making a tour of the northwest for the benefit of his health and for recreation. Mr. W. R. Graden, of Burns, Harney county, came in to-day with John Jordan, who was captured there for larceny of a mare and colt in Wasco county. Jordan will be examined here for the larceny. Wheat wagons block the streets in the East End. Moody's warehouse is shipping carloads every day. They pay the highest price and receive the bulk of the

To-morrow evening, for the benefit of the Y. P. S. C. E. the great Norwegian yiolinist, Mr. Aamond will give rendi-tions at the court house. This gentleman is considered the prince of violinists, and all lovers of music should not fail to at-the Union-Journal office, Walla Walla, destroying property to the amount of Union office is the heaviest loser, being $7000. It is supposed the roof caught from sparks from the engine. Mr. Nicholas Sinnott, who is in his senior year at Notre Dame university, has been honored by an invitation to de-liver the address of welcome to Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia, on the oc-casion of the delivery of address before The discordant notes of a chariyarı party disturbed the quietude of last night lowed by the sweet tones of the mandol: thing very marked; but not more so than is usual in human affairs. Those who were thus annoyed and pleased were Mr. Bailey and his bride—nee Cooper—and last night was the occasion of their mar-One of our oldest siwashes in this vicin-Sheridan at the Cascades in 1856, with Gen. Wright the year following, and was one of the scouts of Major Haller when he was defeated on the Simcoe. Joe is always good natured, and bears his age remarkably well con-sidering the long years he has lived and the habits he has followed.

the habits he has followed.

East Oregonian Monday a freight brakeman, name unlearned, fell from a caboose this side of Baker City and had an arm broken. While he was being taken back to Baker with an engine and caboose they left the track, delaying the west-bound passenger. Sunday a head-end collision between two freights is reported to have occurred on the Short Line, and Monday twenty freight cars left the track.

Amiel's Journal asks the question: eternity? Shall we then understand, in its unity, poem or mysterious episode of our existence, which till then we have spelled must remain unanswered as far as we are prosper, and make money while we for the things which perisheth.

From Thursday's Daily.

Our alleys should be cleaned before the fall rains begin. Mrs. C. G. Roberts, of Hood Leaves have their time to fall, and this is For stoves and ranges go to Maier Benton's before buying elsewhere. Frosts have been experienced sever nights past on the lowlands near Mill creek.

Mr. W. G. Sayles, a civil engineer of Walla Walla, gave us a pleasant call to-The city jail received last night one drunk and disorderly person, for which misdemeanor he was arrested. Those who have returned from the exposition in Portland, speak of the exhibit in very complimentary terms.

Miss Matilda Hollister has been engaged as teacher in the public schools. She is an educated young lady and is well adapted to

Mr. L. O. Lakin, has accepted the posi-tion of salesman in McFarland & French's slore, instead of porter as mentioned pre-

Houses are going up as if by magic in the burned district, and in a few months this desolate portion of the city will be pretty well covered with buildings.

be larger than any previous season.

Mr. F. L. Houghton is excavating for a residence on the lot nearly opposite the Court street school house. This will be a cottage in the latest style of architecture.

Preparations are being made by the reactors to add the additional street and the state of the state Preparations are being made by the con-tractors to add the additional story to Mr. Skibbe's brick. Work will be pushed rap-idly, as he desires to open his hotel at an

John Jordan, the man brought from Harney county for largeny of a horse, was bridge and sewerage, and with these four objects the power to float bonds stops.

Lord Stanley has promised to do all he fixed his bail at $500, and he now languish-

Prof. Asmold will give an entertainment for the benefit of the Y. P. S. C. E., of this city, at the court house this evening. He has a world-wide reputation as a violinist, grocery. As soon as the new building on the corner of Third and Federal is com-

Complaint is heard from several sources of the muddiness of the streets by reason of excessive sprinkling. It is advisable to keep the dust down; but to do this it is not necessary to flood our thoroughfares. Irrigation may be needed on our farms; but not on the streets.

Work is being pushed rapidly on the arc light on the steps leading to the bluff on Court, and in two or three days it will be ready to shed its effulgent rays on those who are forced to travel after dark this unwho are forced to travel after data that sus-safe route. This light will be appreciated by those residing on the bluff, and it has been desired for a long time. Yakıma Herald: The second artesian we of the artesian company was down 250 feet when a stratum of sand was encountered and work had to be suspended to secure casing. The casing arrived here Wednes-day and the boring has again been resumed. Every indication so far is favorable to the early striking of artesian water.

Mr. W. Lord reports crops in the Klick-itat country as excellent. His harvest was not as large as it was last year, but still the outcome was very good, and the average will be fully twenty bushels of wheat to the acre. Summer fallow produced 35 bushels to the acre. It is very evident that ground cultivated in this manner will produce A son of Columbus Jock, an Indian, is an outlaw from justice charged with man-slaughter. On Sunday last he filled his carcass full of lemon extract or some of the patent medicines and while in a delirious patent medicines and while in a delitious state rode his pony over a four-year-old boy at Capt. Dunn's ranch, killing the youngster almost instantly. When brought to a full realization of his crime, the Indian mounted his horse and left for other parts.

Baker Democrat: Sheriff J. T. Bolles, Union, arrived in this city Tuesday after-noon, having in charge Andy Johnson, who is charged with being implicated in the murder of Patrick Sheehan, at La Grande last Thursday. There are three persons charged with this crime, two of whom re pose behind the bars of the Union county men until circuit court convened in that county, and Johnson will remain the guest of Sheriff Conde.

Hon. Geo. W. Johnston, of Dufur, is the city. Hon, W. H. H. Dufur, of Dufur, is town to-day.

Mr. T. B. Hoover, of Fossil, formerly a resident of The Dailes, was in the city yesterday. One good, old-fashioned "drunk" was housed last night, and to-day he is working for the city on the streets. Mr. E. S. Waterman, of Athena, is in the city. He is en route to the Grand Lodge, K. of P., which convenes in Portland next

The roadway down Court street on beach is being placed in excellent condition for teams coming and going to the landing of the Regulator. The shade trees which are being down are being placed in piles and will furnish considerable wood to those who were burned out. These days of the sere, the yellow leaf, and police courts, and nothing of importance appear to be transacted. Constant complaints we hear about the continual hauling of wheat has cut them in bad shape, and repairs should be made im-

Mr. J. R. Taylor, a real estate

Whatcom, Wash., arrived in the city on the midnight train He represents every-thing in a very flourishing condition in that The shipments of salmon and fruit this year have nearly ended. Transportation companies have done a good business in the different varieties; but the run of salmon has been below that of ordinary seasons. There are eight men in the county jail, two for burglary—one from Hood River and one from Antelope; one for rape; one for horse stealing; one for forgery; two for larceny, and a Chinaman for assault with a

Before sidewalks are built in the portio of the city lately burned the grade should be established, and there should be no inclines This would be very convenient to pedes-trians, and would give a much better ap Goldendale Sentinel: Mr. W. B. Presby was down to Portland a day or two, returning Tuesday eyening. He took in the big Exposition, and remarking about the exhibits there, thought Klickitat's display of fruits was beyond any other locality in excellence.

A force of men are engaged in excavating for the new pipe down Union and other streets north of the bluff. This plan was adopted by the commission since the recent fire, and is a very advisable one, if the old mains now in the ground will stand the in-

Klickitat Leader: A large quantity of wheat was hauled on Monday to The Dalles, where good prices were realized. As most of the wheat was good it fetched 80 cents ward to 72 cents. Wheat at Grants is fetching 72 cents. Rev. H. W. Eagan, clerk of Walla Walla county courts, carries his right arm in a sling the result of a knock down he received from careless women drivers on Main street last week. Careful examination showed Mr. H. E. Reed, a reporter of the Oregonian, gave us a call to-day. He is in the city in the interests of the paper, and has been interviewing several citizens regarding facts or opinions in reference to the con-struction of the portage road at the Cas-

Union Scout: There are now sixteen pris sheriff's home, among them several parties charged with murder. From present indi-cations the coming term of circuit court will be a very lengthy one, and of considerable

An amusing incident of the recent fire in Walla Walla was when Jack Macay, at the risk of his life, rescued an armful of patent office reports from the Union-Journal. Having taken them to a place of safety he was told that they were of no value, when he replied: "Well, I didn't know; I did not ave time to read them.'

Wheat is coming in very lively to the different warehouses in the city. At Moody's yesterday large quantities were received; but the quality is not of first grade. The prices offered range from 50 to contract was let and work begun on the hall. Now it is learned that the issuance hall. Now it is learned that the issuance of the bonds was illegal and the successful bidder will not take them. It seems that the charter simply authorizes the people to issue bonds for water works, electric light, Lord Stanley has promised to do all he can to have the Dominion of Canada make a creditable exhibit at the Columbian Ex-Mr. C. E. Wilson, pharmacist for Mrs.

C. E. Dunham for the past six months has resigned his position, and will leave Saturday for Fairfield, Illinois, where he has accepted a good position with Baker & department of electricity of the exposition. Electric Light Association at Montreal.

Pendietoa Tribane: Fritz Zorn, living near the Oregon-Washington line, about ten miles this side of Walla Walla, Saturand every lover of music should hear his renditions.

Astoria Talk: The first railroad in Clatsop county was sold last week by J. C. Trullinger to Fitzgerald & Morrison, the Wisconsin lumbermen, who have been logging on Deep river. The iron and rolling stock will be moved from its present loca-

Sentinel: Mr. J. W. Presby, of Columbus, took down a car load of fruit to the Portland Exposition, consisting of grapes, of the Rose of Peru, Flaming Tokay, Muscat, Black Spanish and Black Hamburg varieties, peaches, and other fruits, which takes the cake over all exhibits. He has the fruit spread out on a long table, and the large tempting clusters (weighing five or six pounds each) attract a large crowd at all tended, and the gentleman was frequently applauded in his renditions. Aside from applanded in his renditions. Aside from the performance of the great violinist the audience was favored by a quartette by Messra. Ernst and Patterson and Mrs. B. S. Huntington and Miss Crandall, and solos by Miss Slutz, of the Wasco Acad-emy, and Mr. Ernst. Every person ap-peared especially pleased with the evening's of $2395. Messrs. Wheelhouse & Son were the builders. It would be an ornament to any locality, and is a credit to the good people of Columbus. Mrs. James Rusk and son are engaged as teachers, and began school Monday morning last.

while out hunting in the northern part of the county last week, met his death. He was shot by his companion, named Parks, which, to say the least, was a very reckless piece of work. During the night Campbell hundred wood engravings. It will be pub-lished in English, German and French. The best artists are now employed on the work

The Dickinson Type Foundry is casting type especially for it. The typography and press-work will be by the Barta Press of Boston, the first edition to be not less than one hundred thousand, probably double that number. Published by A. M. Thayer & Co., of Boston. The J. Dewing Co., 813 Market St., San Francisco, Cal., exclusive agents for California, Washington, Oregon, Idaho. Nevada, Montana, Utah, Arizona,

After Being Buried Three Years.

Oregonian, 7th. Marion D. Egbert, the well-known South Bend attorney, yesterday told of the singular recovery of a skeleton. "Three years at Willapa City, was drowned by the upsetting of his boat while on his way to Uysterville. The family being only in ordinary circumstances offered a reward of $50 for the recovery of the body. Soon after the drowning the body drifted ashore and was found by two young men named Grant and one in Moro, Sherman county, were arrested yesterday for felling liquors without license, and fined in sums, ranging the place where they found it and told no one of the discovery. Time wore on and no higher reward was offered. Tores or four days aun a skelaton was wached ashora near the place where Morris was buried. and the discovery was brought to the notice of the family. One of the Morris boys and Dr. Tait, of Willapa, repaired to the place. and on making an examination found the skeleton to be that of the long-lost Morris. Dr. Tate, who had been Morris' attending physician, identified the skeleton by a fractured skull, a split knuckle and the teeth. The skeleton was taken back to Willana City and given a decent burial."

Engene Guard: On a telegram from Sheriff Noland the sheriff of Laramie City, Wyoming, that he had arrested one Sime Hixon and would hold him until called for. It appears that Hixon and George Feulner. who lives near Creswell, formed an acquaintance a few months ago, and that the last named party had agreed to pay Hixon's fare to Laramie and that they would go into usiness at that point. They were sleeping together on Sept. 19th, near Creswell, and when Feulper went to bed he had $90 in his ocket. Hixon arose early and when Feulner got up he found that he had been robbed. Hixon went to Cottage Grove and spent money in that town freely and displayed to several persons the $90, although previously he had been "broke." Last Friday, Hixon left on the early train for parts unknown. In a day or two Feulner rade a complaint before the prosecuting attorney in Justice Kinsey's court and the ederiff had the prisoner apprehended as above stated. Hixon has a family in Laramie City. East Oregonian: Sad misfortune has now early flush of manhood is the source much grief to their family and triends.

ARE THEY DROWNED?

tion on the Walluski to Deep river, and then Wahknakum county can boast of a railroad. Mr. Trullinger has brought out a great many million feet of logs with the road, but the supply in that vicinity is about exhausted.

At the Umatilla House, next Friday night a ball will be given for the benefit of the Third Regiment band. The boys lost nearly all their instruments and uniforms during the late fire, and the ball should be liberally patronized.

The Eastern Oregon Co-Operative Association have opened temporarily on Second street, one door east of A, L. Newman's groever. As soon as the new building on Sentinel: Mr. J. W. Presby, of Columbus.

The entertainment by Prof. Aamold at the court house last night was largely at-Goldendale Sentinel: Columbus (District No. 9) has just completed a new school house which they claim—reasonably claim, too—to be the best in the county. It is 32x50 and two stories high, and cost $1975; furniture $350, and bell $50, making a total

While the lodge of United Workmen were holding an initiation ceremony in the third story of a society building at Sedalia. Mo, a few nights ago, a sneeze was heard at one of the windows. The shutters were thrown open just in time to see the white-robed figure of a woman go scurrying over the adjoining roofs. She was not caught, but her name is known and trouble is promised her. The Knights of Pythias, United Workmen and Masons use the same hall, and the opinion prevails that the woman is well up in the secrets of these societies. Mr. James Campbell, of Fifth Plain, left the tent unnoticed, and when returning Parks mistook him for a cougar trying to make an entrance, and shot him on the where Justice of the Peace Clark held an inquest, resulting in the exoneration of Parks.—Vancouver Register. thousand large pages, printed upon high grade paper and illustrated with several twice visited the Palmer family, who reside west of Birch creek. About a year ago Wesley Palmer was crushed to death by a load of rails which he was hauling for Saturday, October 10, 1891, Persons from the mountains, and Saturday, Oct. 3d. Hiram Palmer died at the home of A. the date on which they were advertised. D. Culp in Camas Prairie from the effects of an accident received several days previous. He was driving along the road and got out of the wagon to pick up a rock. As he did so a pistol dropped from his pocket and exploded. The ball struck his side and ranged upward, inflicting a bad wound. He was taken to Mr. Culp's nome near by and everything done tor his relief without result. The deceased, a son of A. R. Palmer, was aged 24 years. He and his brother Wesley were industrious young men of excellent habits, and that they should both be cut down in

Saturday from Mount Hood, relates the particulars of a terrible accident which occurred a few days since in a remote locality on the old Barlow road across the Cascades. A young man named Bronson, son of a grabbed, choked and struck him, and when nountaineer, was out hunting grouse and | he was at their mercy took $25 or $30 from that one in the top of a small forked tree. The bird lodged in the branches and the boy slimbed up one of the forks to get it. When about twenty feet from the ground he had occasion to pass across a space from one fork of the tree to the other, and atempted to walk over on a dry limb, which proke under his weight, and he fell between the trees, going down feet first. He fell bout six feet, and his head caught between the forks, breaking his neck and suspending him there until he was found several days later by a search party, which rescued his body and bore it home.

From $3000 to $5000 for one year. Secured by mortgage on improved city by all classes and conditions of manking property. Address, Postoffice box 449, The fire and life insurance agents are seen

The Dalles, OreSon.

Real Estate Transactions.

Out. 8—Hood River Town Site Company; to Ida A. Zeigler; lot A, Hood River proper; upon our streets, and also other persons who imagine in this, our time of adversity, there is an opportunity to reap a harvest.

During the history of this city, it has sufficient in the persons of the unders good, either by book account or note, are requested to call and pay the same immediately, as all claims in t paid in finishing at the properties of the unders good, either by book account or note, are requested to call and pay the same immediately, as all lawyer for collection.

Macrachern & Macrachern

Astoria Town Talk. The fearful storm which swept along the oast the first of last week caused at least one fatal accident, and two Astoria men who left here in a plunger are among the streets to the court house block on the cormissing. The men, Captain C. M. Turner and H. E. Johnson, left here last Sunday of these disasters The Dalles has gone for week on a deep sea fishing trip, intending ward and built up the demolished structures to remain outside for three or four days. and been a better town than ever before, They crossed out about noon and were seen Now, when she has an opposition boat or that evening by the lookout from the cape the river, is projecting railroads to the in heading for the northward. The next day terior, and is acknowledged to be the lead the heaviest gale of the season was lashing city in the Inland Empire, a million dollars the ocean into a foam and sweeping every- gone up in smoke will not cripple her re thing before it. The pilot schooner San Jose is the only vessel from here that has prosperity. Grit, pluck, energy and enterreported since then, and the pilots abourd schooner had ever experienced. The wind will exert them to the advantage of The at the cape blew 72 miles an hour, and grave fears were then expressed for the safety of the fishermen in the plunger, but nothing definite was known until yesterday when a man living at Tokes Point, Wash., reported that last Monday, during the height of the storm, he had seen a plunger in court next December. Specifications with two men just abreast of the point and of the charge not having been made pubthe man thought she had rode the gale out, but two days later a wrecked plunger came ashore bottom side up between Shoalwater Bay and Gray's Harbor. There was no name on it, but from the description given it is thought to be the one in which Turner and Johnson left this city, and their hibits letters written to him during the friends have given them up as lost. Turner came here from England about a year ago large fee. He claims that he was verbaland has made frequent trips over the bar ly promised one half of the whole amount, experimenting with a new fishing gear or $600. When the claim was finally known as a beam trawl net. He was about paid Burtenshaw retained this amount, 45 years of age and leaves a wife and four and this is the sum he is charged with children in England. His companion, embezzling. As between a lawyer and a Johnson, also leaves a family. Both men were experienced seamen, but the gale in with the latter. In this case, certainly,

Institute at Warnic.

WARNIC, Oct. 5, 1891. County Superintendent Shelley assisted by local teachers held a very successful institute at this place on Saturday, October 3d. The committee on programme, J. T. Nowlin, Asa Stogsdil and A. C. Connelly, had united their effofts to secure the best spot. The body was taken into Fifth Plain, oratorical, elecutionary and musical talent for the occasion. The result was an excellent programme. A day and an evening session was held. There was a good attend-General Butter's forthcoming book will be one of the largest historical autobiographies ever published. It will contain one the evening. the evening.

Mr. Shelley's efforts in trying to arouse an interest in progressive education are highly appreciated in this community. Besides numerous discussion, on various practical school questions, in which both teachers and parents took part, the following literary programme, interspersed with music rendered by the ablest local talent under the auspices of Mrs. Fred Gordon. was executed:

Song—Lattle Annie Roone) ... Little Rena Woodcock, Levi and Laura Harvey, accom-paniment by Mrs. Frank Woodcock. Recitation—"Europe and America"... Ass. Stogsdi Address "The Practicability of Teaching the Exact Sciences in Ungraded Public Schools"

From Turner F. Leavens. Oregonian, Oct. 6th. The Oregonian has received the follow ing which it publishes without commen CASCADE LOCKS, Oct. 4, 1891 .- [TO THE EDITOR]-Referring to your article entiallow me to state that neither the editor of The Datles Chronicle nor any other rom me denying the authorship of any articles. The statements have been made in det al, and I believe every one of them to be true. Yours respectfully.

TURNER F. LEAVENS. Personally appeared before the under signed, a justice of the peace in and for alls precinct, Wasco county, state of Oregon, the above Turner F. Leavens. who is personally known to me to be the dentical person whose signature is anpended to the above named article, and acknowledged to me that said signature was appended to said article for the uses and purposes therein set forth. M. McKinnon.

Justice of the Peace. In and for Falls Precinct, Wasco Coun-

A Close Estimate. The following is a close estimate of the wheat crop of 1890, of Oregon and Washington, and its destination: Shipped from the Columbia river (bush) 4,871,875 1,874,212

303,548 16,586,332 847,927 5,670,000

Letters Advertised. The following is the list of letters maining in The Dalles postoffice uncalled calling for these letters will please give Barber, J Brown, Mrs G Bemthal, J Brown, Clint Burnette, Mrs Craig, Ret Evans, Lee Lyons, Mrs D Mason, S W McFadden, J D Newcome, Frank Morgan, Mrs M J McPherson, C lown Sunday evening on the Spokane branch, bound for Baker City, fell in with two scoundrels who vained his confidence and while he was waiting for the train led his person. He was left with his watch, a certificate of deposit and about $20, which the thieves failed to find or were in too much of a hurry to steal. The victim, who was under the influence of liquor, was found about 9 o'clock by the officers. He was bleeding profusely from a bad cut the eye and in such a condition that he the eye and in such a condition that he could give but little information. A diligent search was made for the men without result. The wounded man was taken to jail and cleaned up. He refused to give his name, but is believed to be an old miner named Cox, from Baker county.

Wilson, C B M. T. Nolan, P. M.

NOTICE is hereby given that at the regular term of the county court for Wasco county, State of Oregon, held in the court house in this city during September the undersigned was appointed administrator of the estate of M. Diamond, deceased. All hills due the said deceased, will be collected by the undersigned, and all debts owed by the deceased should be presented within six months from this date.

Administrator of estate of M. Diamond, deceased.

Since the fire The Dalles has been visit was arrested in Coos county and taken to Jacksonville on a charge of embezzlement, has given bail for his appearance lic, it will be of interest to know on what grounds the arrest was made. Burtenshaw undertook to collect some insurance money for a widow, whose son had died leaving an insurance policy. The company refused to pay, and Burtenshaw exprogress of the case promising him a widow, human sympathy will always be prived of the comfort and support of a NEW TO-DAY son .- Oregonian. This young man was formerly a resident of The Dalles, at-(No. of Bank, 3441.) ended the Wasco Independent Academy, REPORT OF THE CONDITION was a strict member of the Y. M. C. A. and was considered an exemplary cit disasters. In 1871 all buildings-except the residence of Prof. Condon-were les elled to the ground; in 1879 all busines houses east of Washington and north of Third, west to Court and to the river were a mass of smouldering ruins, and the freshets of 1866, 1876, and 1880 flooded the ner of Third and Court streets. After each sources or stop her in the opward road of prise will accomplish wonders, and we are satisfied our business men possess these and Good Templar without the least violation of the obligation he as assumed. man was killed on the railroad track about three miles this side of Setas. He was standing or walking on the track when he was struck by an extra east-bound freight, and knocked into the ditch. His throat was cut and skull crushed, and death must have been instantaneous. Coroner Clark was notified, but for some reason, which will bear enquiring into, he was unable to get on to the caboose which was instructed to pick him up, and as a consequence he did not leave for the scene of the accident until Friday afternoon, and all this time the body of the dead man was lythis time the body of the dead man was lythis time the body of the dead man was lythis time the body of the dead man was lythis time the body of the dead man was lything the dead m structed to pick him up, and as a conseing in the ditch where it was thrown by the pilot of the engine.

zen by the prohibitionists of this city.

Undoubtedly he still holds to his principles of total abstinence; for these do not stop him from robbing the widow and fatherless, from defrauding his neighbor or taking advantage of the duplicity of his friends. These are simply rules of business, and can be followed by the going up at the rate of a foot and a half per day. The lower gate will be completed by the middle of next month. Heretofore the work has been slow, as it was all under water, but now they can hurry it. The outh gate is completed and the north one s up probably a third of the way-twenty eet. The building of these great locks is a magnificent piece of work which, when ompleted, will stand as a monument to the ngmeering skill of the age. The gates, when hung, will be the largest lock gates in the world, being 93x40 feet, and weighing 130 tons. They are of steel and are to swing on giant hinges.

Union-Journal: A man came staggering into Kirk's stable on South Main street about 5 o'clock Tuesday eyening, and the men in the stable thinking he was drunk, put him to bed. While the men were busy grooming and watering the stock in Mr. Kirk's stable the would-be drunk got up, saddled Mr. Ed. Vail's horse, which was in the stable at the time, and decamped for parts unknown. He left a coat, vest and $10 m charge of Mr. Crowder. The man gave his name as H. L. Black. Judge Taylor issued a warrant for his arrest. Deputy Sherif Dolt started in pursuit of the pur loiner of equine flesh. The Oregon Coal and Navigation com pany's outbound steamer Arago, 1000 tons capacity, Captain A. Donaldson, went shore on the south spit, near Guano rock, at the entrance to Coos bay, Saturday at 11 o'clock. She had a cargo of coal and miscellaneous freight. All the passengers, fifteen in number, were rescued by the life saving crew stationed three miles from the scene of the disaster, after several hours' 3,765,251 164,420 hard labor. Only for their having been stationed at this point there is no assurance that the passengers could have been saved. Eugene Guard: The Southern Pacific railroad company is having all the trestles between Ashland and Grants Pass filled by contract. Erickson & Co. are doing the work with scrapers, taking earth from alongside the line. They are pushing the work energetically, and will have their contract completed within a month. The earth is hauled from Bloody Run, where a steam tract completed within a month. The earth shovel is at work making an excavation Lake Labish 1250 feet of trestle is being filled with scrapers, and the remainder wil be newly piled.

Final Settlement Notice n the county court of the county of Wasco n the matter of the estate of John Dunn, de To whom it may concern:

Notice is hereby given that William Poley, administrator of said estate, has this day filed in said cour in said matter his final account as administrator of said estate, and that Monday, November 2, 1891, the day appointed by said Court for the hearing objections to said final account and the settlement objections to said final account and the settlement of the said final account and the said final account account and the said estate.

Notice to Contractors.

iron pipe and appurtenances, and for hauling a distributing the same. Profiles and specification can be seen at the once of the Board. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids. sep17 C. L. PHILLIPS, Secretary Administrator's Notice.

FINAL NOTICE.

Pimples, Headaches, Loss of Sieep, a Weary Feeling, Pains in Body or Limbs, Want of Appetite, Eruptions. If you suffer from any of these symptoms, take DOCTOR CKER'S write to W. H. HOOKER & CO. 46 West Broadway, New York.

BRANNER—At Nansene, Oct 6th, to the wife of W Branner, a son; weight 9½ pounds. WALKER-Near Wasco, October 6th, to the wife of Mr. E. L. Walker, a ten-pound boy.

COOPER—BAILEY In this city, Oct. 6th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Miss Prudence Cooper to Mr. Frederick Bailey, by Rev. W. C. Curtis.

HURST—HURST—In this city, at the residence of Mr Morvin Herdricson, Oct 6th, by Elder G Banett, Mrs Nancy J Hurst to Mr Uulah J Hurst.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK t The Dalles, in the State of Oregon, at the close RESOURCES: urrent expenses and taxes pa.d.. actional paper currency, nickels, and cents Redemption fund with U S. Treasurer (5 per cent. of circulation)

LIABILITIES.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of O.t., 1891. Frank Meneres, Notary Public for Oregon,

J. S. SCHENCE. )

THAT it has been shown by our advertisement of the last month that the selfstyled leaders in the Book and Stationary Business are in re-

ON and after this date we will pursue the even tenor of our way, from time to time making announcements of the advantages to be derived by purchasing Boohs and Sta-

THE DALLES, Oct. 7, 1891.

Smoked Salmon for Sale Prices to Suit THE BEST in the MARKET

And all kinds of Fresh Fish. In the Waldron Building, Front Street, The Dalles, Oregon.

Orders from a Distance Promptly At-tended to, and Fish Shipped in Refrigerating Cars. MY MOTTO: Cheap Prices and Quick Sales. Ad THE DALLES FISH CO.

SECOND STREET. Third door east of A. L. Mewman's grocery

LADY COOKS. No Chinamen employed.

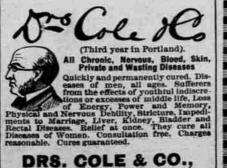

Meals, 25 Cents Mr. and Mrs. P. Howard will open the above restaurant to-morrow, and desire a share of the public patronage.

THE OLD ESTABLISHED COLUMBIA BREWERY

Second St., East End, AUGUST BUCHLER, PROP. Has been refitted throughout with the LATEST IMPROVED MACHINERY

Best Keg and Bottled Beer and Porter

Eastern Oregon.

Children Cry for PITCHER'S

CASTORIA Castoria is so well adapted to children that ecommend it as superior to any prescription own to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 South Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y

"I use Castoria in my practice, and find it pecially adapted to affections of children." ALEX. ROBERTSON, M. D., 1057 2d Ave., New York. "From personal knowledge I can say that Castoria is a most excellent medicine for chil-dren." Dr. G. C. Osoco, Lowell, Mass.

Castoria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhea, and Feverishness. Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Castoria contains no Morphine or other narcotic property.

DR.WOOD'S LIVER REGULATOR

VEGETABLE PANACEA ROOTS& HERBS,

DYSPEPSIA . JAUNDICE . · CHILLS & FEVER · ·DISORDERED DIGESTION. ·SICK HEADACHE· ·GENERAL DEBILITY·

AND ALL OTHER DISEASES ARISING FROM A DISORDERED STATE OF THE STOMACH INACTIVE LIVER. FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS & GENERAL DEALERS

WHAT IS BUHACH? Dry Goods,

Buhach is the only absolutely and thoroughly effective Insect Powder upon the market, and is manufactured solely by the Buhach Producing and Manufacturing Company, of Stockton California.

The word "Buhach" is made a STUDEBAKER WAGONS. HACKS AND BUGGIES part of the trade mark of said company, and all dealers are cautioned against selling any other of Buhach.

Persons who order Buhach from their dealers and receive Insect Powder that is not an effective Insecticide will confer a favor by reporting the fact to the Buhach Producing and Manufacturing Company in order that COLUMBIA BREWERY BEER all parties guilty of such practices may be exposed and prosecuted. If your dealer don't keep Buhach, don't let them cheat you by selling you an inferior and worthless insect powder, but you communicate directly with the Buhach Producing and Manufacturing Co., Stockton, Calif. who will fill your orders by mail have established a Lumber Yard on Where may be found a com-plete stock of Rough and Dressed Lum-ber, Lath & Shin-gles, at

Wm. Butler & Co.

The pocket. Special attention given to orders from the country. WOOL GROWERS -IF YOU WANTa Good Clip Use Hayward's Sheep Dips, A SURE CURE AT MODERATE COST. Hayward's "Paste Dip.

To Keep Your Sheep Healthy and Insure

Mixes with either cold or warm water Hayward's Liquid Dip. s non-poisonous, improves the wool and does not stain it. CHRISTY & WISI

Navigation Company's ELEGANT STEAMER,

REGULATOR

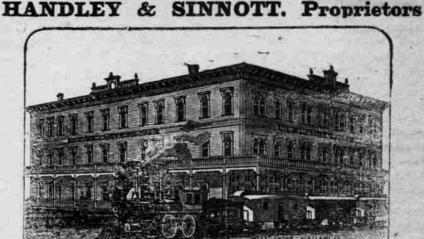

Portland and Way Points. Connections will be made with

For passenger or freight rates, apply to the agent, or purser on board.

S. L. BROOKS, - - - Agent

... THE CELEBRATED .... Send for Illustrated Catalogue and Price List to SMITH & WESSON, SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

The New Umatilla House,

THE LARCEST AND FINEST HOTEL IN OREGON

Free Omnibus to and from the Hotel Fire-Proof Safe for the Safety of all Valuables

Ticket and Baggage Office of the UNION PACIFIC Railway Company, and Office of the Western Union Telegraph Company, are in e Hotel.

E. WINGATE & CO.

General Merchandise

Groceries.

Hardware. Iron and Steel. Farm Implements.

tioned against selling any other Insect Powder under the name of Buhach.

San Francisco Beer Hall

F. LEMKE, PROPRIETOR.

SECOND STREET BETWEEN UNION AND COURT,

---AND FOR SALE-ALL KINDS OF BOTTLED BEER. Also, the very best Imported Wines, Liquor and Cigars.

Z. F. MOODY, or otherwise, and guarantee satisfaction.

Gener'l Commission and Forwarding Merchant

> 391, 393 and 395 SECOND STREET. (Adjoining Railroad Depot.) Consignments

> The Highest Price paid in Cash for Wheat, Barley, Etc., Etc. CUSTOM-MADE CLOTHING

> P. Fagan's Tailoring Establishment,

Mr. Fagan has been appointed Sole Agent for this celebrated firm, and will attend to all orders personally.

SECOND STREET, THE DALLES, OREGON.

JACOBSEN & CO.

SCHOOL BOOKS, STATIONERY, Pianos and Organs Sold on easy installments. Call and see for yourself that it i for your interest to buy of us.

162 Second Street, - - THE DALLES, OR.

Crandall & Burget. ine Upholstered Goods

Undertaking a Specialty.

Can be found at all hours of the day or night at their place of business, 166 SECOND STREET, The Dalles. L. RORDEN & CO.

-WITH A FULL LINE OF-DALLES CITY, Crockery and Glassware

> FOR THE PRE ENT WILL BE FOUND AT J. Frieman's Boot and Shoe Store.

CORMONTED 1886. Cole Con REVOLVERS THE DALLES LUMBERING COMPANY

> Building Material and Dimension Timber 7 FIR, PINE,

-Wholesale and Retail Dealers and Manufacturers of-

OAK and SLAB PROMPT DELIVERY TO ANY PART OF THE CITY. Yard at Old Government Barrnek a