

ITEMS IN BRIEF

From Wednesday's Daily. One by one the roses fall. Mr. Jones of the Moro Oversee, is in the city.

Mr. F. P. Mays, of Portland, is in the city. The sidewalks should be cleaned of fallen leaves.

Rain fell copiously last night, and the ground is in excellent condition for fall plowing.

Mrs. J. Smith, of Salem, is waiting at the residence of Mr. Geo. W. Rowland, in this city.

Mr. G. W. Smith, of Rockland, left on the Exposition for a short visit to Portland.

A carload of excellent Rock Springs, Wyo., coal arrived in the city yesterday, consigned to Z. P. Moody.

Mr. Saltmarsh will ship a carload of fat hogs this evening to the American Dressed Meat Co. at Troutdale.

Mrs. Ursula Mitchell, who has been very sick at her daughter's residence in this city for some days past, is improving very much.

Two carloads of mutton sheep are in Saltmarsh & Co.'s stockyards today. They will be shipped this evening to Troutdale.

Mr. L. W. Wells, of Sherar's bridge, is in the city. He reports cattle in good condition, but the fall of rain had been very light this fall.

Mrs. A. M. Crossen and daughter, who have been visiting friends in Portland for several days past, returned Monday evening on the Exposition.

Mr. T. Nolan, at the Postoffice Book Store, has Harper's for November on sale. This is a most excellent number, and should be on the shelves of every collector of keeping posted on current literature.

The plot of Central Hood River Water Ditch Company was filed in the clerk's office in the columns of the W. W. Statesman will show "The fearful and wonderful way in which the state has been governed is held to necessitate an entire reorganization of the government."

There are nimbros in Southern Oregon. Read this from the Roseburg Review: "Arthur Woods, of the Mountain House, killed five deer, three bears and half a dozen huts last week. Not a bad record that."

The next residence of Mr. Frank Egan in the burnt district near the city is one of the prettiest cottages now being erected, and the plans were drafted by our well-known contractor, Mr. J. C. Ostlund.

The attempts to induce the Yakima Indians to enlist in the army have been futile. Said one old buck: "Twenty years ago they were forcing me to lay down my arms for the plow, and now they are urging us to lay down the plow for the gun."

Albany Herald: Mr. Geo. Hochstetler had the misfortune Monday while operating a buzz plane at the Sugar Pine Door & Lumber Co. to have his fingers caught in the knives, lacerating the middle finger, so that it required amputation.

A warrant was issued this morning for Jeff Sullivan, who, it is claimed, robbed the room mate of $25 last night in the Columbia Hotel. He was searched the city for him, and ascertained that he left on the boat this morning for Portland.

The city jail had three occupants last night, and these were safely housed until this morning, when they were interviewed by the recorder. Of course they were not furnished with satin covers and spring mattresses; but the way of the transgressor is hard, and no sympathy should be exhausted on him.

The product of a ten-acre apple orchard in the Rogie river valley, near Grand Falls, was sold last week to the East Fruit Company in San Francisco, for $4,800. The price paid was 85 cents per box, the buyer did the packing, picking and finished boxes. The apples were of the red winter variety and were packed for the Australian and Japan markets.

Oronoke, Monday: A dispatch received last night from Lewiston, Idaho, announces the death of Alonzo Leland, who came to Oregon in 1850 with A. S. Fennell, and in 1854 began the publication of the Standard at Lewiston. He was afterward editor of the Oregon Enterprise and the Portland Times. He was also a member of the first school board of this city.

Articles of incorporation were filed today of the Columbia River Fruit Company of Grand Falls, Wash., and The Dalles, Ore., capital $100,000, divided into 2000 shares of $50 each; incorporators, A. E. Dunham, A. T. Higley and O. D. Taylor; president, A. E. Dunham; Oregon Fruit Growers Association; capital stock, $250,000, divided into 640 shares, incorporating Francis N. Thurnburt, T. A. Hudson and W. J. G. Hudson.

Albany Democrat: According to bulletins posted along the line of the Oregon Pacific Wednesday, C. C. Hogue, paymaster for Receiver Hogg, will pay the employees of the road for three months, March, April and May. This will put considerable money in circulation and will give the men a good idea of what they are coming six weeks before the time expected the proceeding is being appreciated by the employees. This leaves four or five months due.

A party of men arrived in this city today from California, having driven a band of horses from the East Fruit Company during the past season. They started from Dayville July 1st, and in six weeks arrived in Astoria. One of the men was forced to sell at a very low price. One of the men, with whom our reporter had an interview, said some very fine horses in the band were sold for only $15, while he knew one lot of horses to be sold for $10 a head.

We learn from the Eugene Guard that the mines on the McKenzie river are prospecting well, and that Dr. Ogley recently returned from Bolivia with some specimens of quartz from a new discovery which assayed over $1100 per ton. He is highly excited over the discovery, and will return as soon as the weather permits to make further developments. The doctor formerly lived near Fossil, in Gilliam county, and is a thorough mining expert.

There was taken to the insane asylum at Salem Thursday evening Mrs. R. G. Patton, from Sunnyside. Her husband is also crazy, and was taken there from here. He has been in the asylum for some time, and as a result the reason of both has been determined. The state asylum, which already consumes half the revenue of the county, is increasing its number of patients, there being today 720, more than at any previous time.

The healthfulness of ocean breezes has long been acknowledged; but the following from the Astorian is the first instance we have read of general ability causing death. It may be accounted for on account of the extreme age of the person, and if had been younger he might have died of general debility; Thomas Thompson, an old, old man, who for many years has been in the city, died of general debility last Sunday afternoon. He was a native of Sweden and in the 31st year of his age he was a general local place yesterday.

Here is a warning to strong-armed young men and also to slender ribbed girls. Miss Lela, daughter of an Indiana farmer's daughter, was taken ill with what was supposed to be pneumonia. A physician was sent for, and on examination found that she had a fractured rib. She admitted that she felt something crack on Sunday evening when her lover gave her a patting hand. She had had a great pain for two days, and next time will wear some sort of a rior protector.

W. H. DeHans, of Tacoma, who guided the Frank Leslie party during its recent explorations in Alaska, confirms the reports of other Alaskan explorers that there is good placer mining, but he also says: "The diggings do not pay when the expense of living and of working is considered, and the fact that work is possible on only a few days out of the year. In the best diggings the result is only ten ounces a day to each man. The miners up there are barely making wages. A man earns $250 a year, and he gets in Alaska."

of the natives on the Yukon delta, among whom he lived for eleven months. "When I first went among the Kutchin," he said, "I went to cut my own wood, or even to stand on my feet. They did my work for me, kept my barabara in order, and furnished me with meat or fowl when they were stinging themselves or their children to do so."

Statements: A man named Light, working on Osborne's farm on Dry creek, about six miles north of Walla Walla, met with a very painful accident Tuesday morning. It appears that he was engaged in cutting wood with a two-edged log for the purpose of extracting the axe, when his foot slipped and he was thrown on the axe, the blade penetrating the calf of his right leg, cutting a gash one and a half inches deep and four inches long.

Baker Blade: A gentleman from the interior arrived in the city the other day, and after extracting the axe, which he proceeded to take in the sights of the city, imbibing somewhat freely "angelic" liquor, he proceeded to the repair shop to have the axe repaired to his room at the Washburn in the evening with not altogether a clear head and his mental faculties running somewhat at random. Dismissing he proceeded to extinguish the electric light before getting up, but blowing it out, the gentleman remarked to a friend the following morning, that "those lights in the Washburn were the best thing he ever seen."

The Dayton Chronicle has this to say in reference to the alleged discovery of gold in the Yukon: "It is barely possible, but not probable, that a body of ore may be found in the Yukon claim, but it lacks a great deal yet from developing anything that is of value to either miner or the country at large. There is a streak of a mixture of limestone and other kind of rock running across the cut in which the workmen are digging, which is not a good omen. It is not likely that there was any mineral present it would indicate that supply of ore will not be available. But also, in this case, according to the decision of the prospectors, the ledge and the mineral, in a paying quantity, are completely by their absence."

The following is a list of cases on trial in equity, law and criminal matters during the common session of the Circuit court in this city:

ASTORIA: Jack Denney, the famous pugilist, came in on the Columbia morning with $38,000 in his inside pocket which he didn't have when he went down town. The dazzling success of general Jack is enough to make a minister who labors 35 years to make that amount. He is confident that the man who fights the devil hasn't quite as good a thing as the man who fights his fellow man.

Recently was given the rate of taxes in several cities, which were evidently incorrect. According to a Seattle paper the city there is $100,000, while in Portland $100,000 is given as only $100,000 is about the price.

Eugene Guard: The merchants and grain buyers of Eugene were notified today that no amount of promises of grain to San Francisco via Portland could be made for weeks to come. The Portland warehouses are locked and the ocean steamships have fallen. A large grain buyer informs us that shipments made to San Francisco via Yaguina Bay will not be made until they are reached their destination. A railroad is expected to be built, it would mean cheaper rates, but also, in this case, according to the decision of the prospectors, the ledge and the mineral, in a paying quantity, are completely by their absence."

building will be completed. Ever since the fire Mr. Skibbe and his family have been living in a tent in the shell of the building, and will continue until the edifice is finished.

Sidewalks are being laid from Lanchin to Jefferson street on the north side of Second, and when these are completed they will be a great convenience to the traveling public. It may be a great tax on property-owners, but sidewalks should be constructed in every portion of the burned district at the earliest possible date.

ASTORIA: Jack Denney, the famous pugilist, came in on the Columbia morning with $38,000 in his inside pocket which he didn't have when he went down town. The dazzling success of general Jack is enough to make a minister who labors 35 years to make that amount. He is confident that the man who fights the devil hasn't quite as good a thing as the man who fights his fellow man.

Recently was given the rate of taxes in several cities, which were evidently incorrect. According to a Seattle paper the city there is $100,000, while in Portland $100,000 is given as only $100,000 is about the price.

Eugene Guard: The merchants and grain buyers of Eugene were notified today that no amount of promises of grain to San Francisco via Portland could be made for weeks to come. The Portland warehouses are locked and the ocean steamships have fallen. A large grain buyer informs us that shipments made to San Francisco via Yaguina Bay will not be made until they are reached their destination. A railroad is expected to be built, it would mean cheaper rates, but also, in this case, according to the decision of the prospectors, the ledge and the mineral, in a paying quantity, are completely by their absence."
