THIRD PARTYISM A FAILURE. The bitter wail of the Kansas Democrat, leading organ of its party in the state, is a finely satirical reply to the boasts of the southern Bourbons, who predicted disruption of the Republican party in the northwest through the agency of the Farmers' Alliance, or, to speak with greater precision, through the agency of the southern Farmers' Alliance and its Ocala platform. The mountain has not come to Mahomet; but Mahomet has gone to the mountain. We have always entertained a high opinion of Mr. Cleveland as a man possessing the courage of his convictions, and attempting to do what he considered for the best interests of the people-as a Democrat; but when he compromised with Tammany for no other reason except to A correspondent of the London be again elevated to the executive promise or associate with that class of Again our cotemporary shows its nfairness in the following excerpt: Flower's election as governor of New York is no Tammany victory by any means, and our joy is keener on that account. Tammany simply assisted in his election, which entitles Tammany to no special 'pull" on his administration.

In 1888 Tammany gave no "assist ance" to Mr. Cleveland, and, in consequence, New York went Republican. When Tammany "assists" any candidate, it means business and will not scruple at any means to Astoria has been "left out in the accomplish its ends. It "assisted" cold" for many years by not having Flower, and he was elected by hail connection with the Willamette 45,000 majority; and never, in the history of the party, has Tammany been in harmony with the country that city would to-day be the scaport Democracy that the state did not roll up a good majority for the party. This simple word "assist" is a relative term and conveys a world of meaning. water, receive their cargoes by river If a poor, decrepit, old man "assists' another there is little help to the unfortunate; but when John L. Sullivan "assists" the under man in a struggle, it is significant that the top man will be down in very short time. So when Tammany "assists" any political party, with their adroitness in the manipulation of methods, it means victor in New York, and no persons are more fully persuaded of this than Grover Cleveland and Mr. Flower.

Bro. Jackson, let us be fair in th discussion of this matter, and in ing so we must acknowledge that Tammany is the personification everything that is corrupt in politics: that it never "assists" any person or faction without having complete control, and that both Grever Cleveland and Gov. Flower have "bent the knee to Baal" for the sake of securing this influence in their behalf.

The Australian ballot system, which will be in operation in this state in the election next June, will be a great improvement on the old methods.
