HALIFAX, Nov. 16-Yarmouth shipowners are much exercised over the refusal of the Brazilian dictator to permit cable dispatches to be delivered to Canadian vessels in distress in Brazillan ports. The Yarmouth bark Lettie was recently compelled to put back to Rio Grande do Sul leaking. The owner cabled his instructions to the captain yesterday, but the message was returned, with the state-ment that the authorities refuse to allow it to be delivered. Eugene Guard: Last Thursday afternoon, about 2:30 o'clock, Mr. Schriver, who lives near Crow postoffice, about 12 miles southwest of Eugene, shot himself. It happened in this highly interesting manuer: He was out hunting with his brother and had wounded a pheasant, and both the parties were pursuing it. His brother espied the pheasant and halloced for him to throw him the shotgun, which was loaded with No. 5 shot. He took the gun by the barrels and threw it over a pile of brush, about fifteen feet distant, when one of the barrels went off, the charge striking a fir tree, and three of the shot glanced off, two of them entering after dressing the wound. He reports the wound a dangerous one, but not necessarily

Clark, and the old carpenter shop of John Clark, and the unfinished carpenter shop of W. F. Thurnagle was burned and torn down. It required hard work to save the blacksmith shop of Billie Dunlap, as it stood about 30 feet from the fire, and the wind was blowing in that direction. The drug store of Mr. Darling, standing over 100 yards away, took fire and some ladies turned the hose on and special thanks is due the ladies, as usual, for their work in pumping and carry ing water. The fire was purely accidental, but just how it originated is unknown, as the men who occupied the building put all fire out before leaving an hour before.

A sheepherder while in the vicinity of the north fork of the John Day a short time since made a discovery of an old tunnel, abandoued long ago by its workers, per-haps through fear of Indians, which has been hunted for years by parties who knew of its existence, until lately, without success, as the entrance was overgrown and hidden. The tunnel is about 100 feet in length, and English coast. Not one vessel of the fleet has returned to port since the gale began and it is feared the whole fleet is been taken to Pendleton and will be assayed lost. to determine its richness. It has been ru-mored that one of the original miners was killed and left in the tunnel but his remains were not discovered. The find is believed to be a valuable one.
