TELEGRAPHIC... WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—A factitious feud that promises to rival in bloodshed the famous Hatfield-McCoy...

Particulars of the Loss of the Fernside... ABREHLEN, Wash., Jan. 31.—Your Ohio correspondent visited the wrecked ship Fernside today.

Section Foreman Injured... SPRAGUE, Wash., Jan. 30.—Section Foreman Fogarty, who has charge of the first Northern Pacific section east of Sprague, was severely injured yesterday.

Fire-Bugs in Ascorates... ANACORTES, Wash., Jan. 30.—An incendiary attempt was made to burn the most densely settled portion of this place at 3 o'clock this morning.

Slavish Methods a Success... WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Indian soldiers at a success, Major Theodore W. Shawan, assistant adjutant general, who has just returned from an extensive tour of inspection of posts where these new soldiers are stationed, gives the most satisfactory account of the progress these braves are making in their new duties.

THEIR ONLY HOPE... "When daylight came they determined to try and swim ashore, a distance of about half a mile. They came down, dropped into the water, and struck for shore. The boat was just starting to get away from the wrecked ship when they saw the mizzen rig and then go up again. This was the last he saw of him.

English Comment... LONDON, Jan. 29.—Several English papers today print an alleged dispatch from Washington to the Dalzell Agency, in which it is asserted that President Harrison yesterday informed the senate committee on foreign relations that the senator of Chile to the ultimatum sent her that last week was received before his message was sent to congress, owing to the fact that it was not translated into English until after the receipt of the message.

THE QUESTION OF INDEMNITY SEEN TO BE CONSIDERED... WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—At the cabinet meeting today the Chilean matter was discussed. It was decided that Minister Egan should be instructed to say to Senator Perrera, Chilean minister of foreign affairs, that in reply to the note of Secretary Blaine of the 21st indicated a desire on the part of the Chilean government to satisfy the United States of its feeling of regret over the assault upon the sailors of the Baltimore, the replies as to the Matia note of December 11, and the request for the recall of Minister Egan, and the latter will be directed to say they are entirely satisfactory.

A Peculiarly Mad Death... MOMMOUTH, Or., Jan. 30.—The remains of Miss Emma Davenport, a student of the Normal school, who died here late yesterday afternoon of typhoid fever, were taken to Portland for interment today.

Charged With Poisoning Her Husband... SIDNEY, Wash., Jan. 30.—After two days of deliberation by the court of Deputy Coroner Livingston, of Sidney, it was decided that sufficient damaging evidence had been adduced to warrant the arrest of Mrs. Charles Lindell. She is charged with poisoning her husband, who died January 19 in terrible agony at his home, three miles out of Sidney.

Another Northwest News... VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 30.—The court adjourned here today, all the jury cases being disposed of and but a few civil cases remaining. Judge Wood sent a message to the Dalles, Oregon, penitentiary, that it is virtually a life long trip of whisky, fell in with another when delivering the sentence, denouncing the man for stealing horses because of the enormity of his crime. The superior court for Cowlitz county will open next Monday at Kalama.

ITEMS IN BRIEF... From Saturday's Daily... Mr. George Herbert, of Hood River, is in the city.
