

JAMES G. BLAINE.

The resignation of Hon. James G. Blaine as secretary of state, which was handed to the president Saturday morning and accepted, was a surprise to the country, and demonstrates the fact beyond question that Mr. Blaine is a candidate before the Minneapolis convention...

No one will deny that Secretary Blaine is in every way qualified for the position, and if nominated will carry the full strength of the party in every state of the union. He has conducted the state department with rare statesmanlike ability, and in complete harmony with the doctrines of the Republican party.

The election Monday is one of great importance in many respects. It is the first time in the history of the state that the Australian ballot law has been in operation, and while it has met with great favor in other localities, it is in a certain measure experimental in Oregon.

THE DEMOCRACY IN NEW YORK.

The rural press of New York is a mirror in which the hostility between the Cleveland and Hill factions is most plainly seen, says a Chicago exchange. The bad blood is not confined by any means to the chiefs or their leaders.

It is easy to imagine that each side might sincerely feel abused. The Cleveland people denounce the Albany convention of Feb. 22 as "midwinter" and "snap," a trick to capture the delegates before their side had a chance to get their forces in line.

The convention at Minneapolis has not become interesting yet, because it has simply effected organization. When the ballot for the nominee takes place, then the interest will center in that city.

The news from the oil regions in Pennsylvania is horrible in the extreme. Floods and fire have reaped rich harvests, and those who remain are penniless and homeless.

A SURPRISING RESULT.

The result of Monday's election is a complete surprise to both Democrats and Republicans. Wasco has been considered for a number of years Republican by 100 to 150 majority, and if the recent vote on some of the minor offices is taken as a criterion it will reach 200.

THE ELECTION.

From Tuesday's Daily.

The result of the election in this county yesterday is a matter of great surprise to Democrats and Republicans, as those who were considered popular candidates did not poll the vote that was expected.

Perhaps it will never be known who were guilty of this defection; but we are fearful it will work disastrously to the party in the future. In elections hereafter there will be "old scores" to be paid, and no doubt they will be liquidated.

Adherence to political principles should be above petty personal feeling, and during a campaign when great interests are at stake, Republicans should not, in any manner, obey the dictation of selfish factions.

The election Monday is one of great importance in many respects. It is the first time in the history of the state that the Australian ballot law has been in operation, and while it has met with great favor in other localities, it is in a certain measure experimental in Oregon.

HARRISON AND PROTECTION.

The nomination of President Harrison to succeed himself in Minneapolis Friday will be received with enthusiasm all over the country, and his name will unite the party in November.

There appears to be a determined fight by the Democracy of the state to defeat the Republican candidates for supreme judge and attorney-general, and to accomplish this they are busy to see the press of that party lending aid to all sorts of personal abuse of Hon. F. A. Moore and Hon. Lionel R. Webster.

The convention at Minneapolis has not become interesting yet, because it has simply effected organization. When the ballot for the nominee takes place, then the interest will center in that city.

The result of Monday's election is a complete surprise to both Democrats and Republicans. Wasco has been considered for a number of years Republican by 100 to 150 majority, and if the recent vote on some of the minor offices is taken as a criterion it will reach 200.

THE ELECTION.

From Tuesday's Daily.

The result of the election in this county yesterday is a matter of great surprise to Democrats and Republicans, as those who were considered popular candidates did not poll the vote that was expected.

Perhaps it will never be known who were guilty of this defection; but we are fearful it will work disastrously to the party in the future. In elections hereafter there will be "old scores" to be paid, and no doubt they will be liquidated.

Adherence to political principles should be above petty personal feeling, and during a campaign when great interests are at stake, Republicans should not, in any manner, obey the dictation of selfish factions.

The election Monday is one of great importance in many respects. It is the first time in the history of the state that the Australian ballot law has been in operation, and while it has met with great favor in other localities, it is in a certain measure experimental in Oregon.

HARRISON AND PROTECTION.

The nomination of President Harrison to succeed himself in Minneapolis Friday will be received with enthusiasm all over the country, and his name will unite the party in November.

There appears to be a determined fight by the Democracy of the state to defeat the Republican candidates for supreme judge and attorney-general, and to accomplish this they are busy to see the press of that party lending aid to all sorts of personal abuse of Hon. F. A. Moore and Hon. Lionel R. Webster.

The convention at Minneapolis has not become interesting yet, because it has simply effected organization. When the ballot for the nominee takes place, then the interest will center in that city.

The result of Monday's election is a complete surprise to both Democrats and Republicans. Wasco has been considered for a number of years Republican by 100 to 150 majority, and if the recent vote on some of the minor offices is taken as a criterion it will reach 200.

THE ELECTION.

From Tuesday's Daily.

The result of the election in this county yesterday is a matter of great surprise to Democrats and Republicans, as those who were considered popular candidates did not poll the vote that was expected.

Perhaps it will never be known who were guilty of this defection; but we are fearful it will work disastrously to the party in the future. In elections hereafter there will be "old scores" to be paid, and no doubt they will be liquidated.

Adherence to political principles should be above petty personal feeling, and during a campaign when great interests are at stake, Republicans should not, in any manner, obey the dictation of selfish factions.

The election Monday is one of great importance in many respects. It is the first time in the history of the state that the Australian ballot law has been in operation, and while it has met with great favor in other localities, it is in a certain measure experimental in Oregon.

HARRISON AND PROTECTION.

The nomination of President Harrison to succeed himself in Minneapolis Friday will be received with enthusiasm all over the country, and his name will unite the party in November.

There appears to be a determined fight by the Democracy of the state to defeat the Republican candidates for supreme judge and attorney-general, and to accomplish this they are busy to see the press of that party lending aid to all sorts of personal abuse of Hon. F. A. Moore and Hon. Lionel R. Webster.

The convention at Minneapolis has not become interesting yet, because it has simply effected organization. When the ballot for the nominee takes place, then the interest will center in that city.

The result of Monday's election is a complete surprise to both Democrats and Republicans. Wasco has been considered for a number of years Republican by 100 to 150 majority, and if the recent vote on some of the minor offices is taken as a criterion it will reach 200.

SEMI-OFFICIAL ELECTION RETURNS.

Table with columns for Candidates, Precincts, and Votes. Includes names like F. A. Moore, J. G. Blaine, and various precinct names like Astoria, Beaverton, etc.

HARRISON NOMINATED.

Proceedings of the Republican Convention in Minneapolis.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM PREVAILED.

Harrison Receives the Nomination for President on First Ballot.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Stocrook, Cal., June 6.—Miss Tillie Ludwig shot and instantly killed William DeClark this afternoon.

Charged With Murder.

Seattle, June 7.—The coroner's inquest held on the remains of Richard Parker, the infant son of Mrs. and Frank W. Parker, who died Monday morning of arsenic poisoning, resulted in a verdict that the child was killed by arsenic poisoning.

The Northern Outrages.

Boston, June 8.—The colored citizens of Boston in mass meeting adopted strong resolutions, denouncing the outrages on the colored race in the South and New York.

Burying the Dead.

Ott. City, Pa., June 7.—In accordance with the proclamation issued by Mayor Hunt, every place of business in Ott. City was closed, and for the first time since the disaster attention is being given to comforting the bereaved living and the burial of the dead.

A NEW FABLE FOR CRITICS.

A cockroach sat on an editor's desk. With a cynical smile on his face, and watched the editor make grotesque.

Notice to Ice Consumers.

The Dalles Ice Company have now on hand a large supply of clear, pure ice which they are prepared to furnish in any quantity at reasonable rates.

The Radloff Case.

Seattle, Wash., June 8.—Ludwig Kostrach, one of the conspirators in the famous Radloff case, escaped conviction on the charge of arson on a defect in the law.

Big Bank Failure.

London, June 9.—The effect of the New Oriental bank suspension is in no way comparable with the crash of Baring Bros.

Protestants on Home Rule.

Belfast, June 9.—A statement giving the views of the Protestants of Ulster on Irish home rule, and signed by the chief officers of the Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist and Congregational churches in Ireland, and by 604 ministers, elders, etc., has been posted to every dissenting minister in the United Kingdom.

Weavers' Strike Ended.

Osborne, Or., June 7.—The strike in the weaving room of the woolen mill is practically ended, the weavers, having most of them returned without arrangements.

Work of the Restaters.

Buffalo, Wyo., June 7.—A party of cattlemen who had reached here report the finding of the shyned bodies of four men hanging to a tree. They were unrecognized, and evidently had been hanging there several weeks.

Children Cry

CASTORIA

Look Up This Matter

Seal of North Carolina

Look up the record of

Seal of North Carolina

Look up the record of

Seal of North Carolina

The New Umatilla House,

THE DALLES, OREGON

SINNOTT & FISH, Proprietors

THE LARGEST AND FINEST HOTEL IN OREGON.

Free Omnibus to and from the Hotel. Fire-Proof Safe for the Safety of all Valuables.

Ticket and Baggage Office of the UNION PACIFIC Railway Company, and Office of the Western Union Telegraph Company, are in the Hotel.

You Want Your Dry Goods

We keep the Largest and Best Assorted Line in the city of Dry Goods and Notions, Gents' Furnishing Goods and Clothing, Men's, Ladies' and Children's Fine Shoes.

We Want Your Patronage.

Of course we will put Prices to suit. Always do that. Nobody undersells us. Come around and investigate.

A. M. WILLIAMS & CO.

THE ORO FINO WINE ROOMS

AD. KELLER, Proprietor.

- Port 81, Sherry 83, Muscat 83, Angelica 83, Mountain 83, Burgundy 83, Zinfandel 84, Riesling 83, Hook 83, Table Claret

All Wines and Brandies Guaranteed Strictly Pure

The Best Wines, Liquors and Cigars Always on Sale.

Try the best remedy for Dyspepsia, "Dandelion Tonic."

PRINZ & NITSCHKE

Furniture and Carpets.

Second Street, The Dalles, Oregon

Z. F. MOODY,

General Commission and Forwarding Merchant.

391, 393 and 395 SECOND STREET, (Adjoining Railroad Depot)

Consignments : Solicited!

Prompt Attention to those who favor me with their patronage.

The Highest Price paid in Cash for Wheat, Barley, Etc., Etc

E. JACOBSEN & CO.,

Proprietors of the

BOOK & MUSIC STORE,

ARE THE LEADERS IN

School Books, Stationery, Notions, Pianos, Organs, Music, Fancy Goods, Cigars, Toys, Baby Carriages and Express Wagons.

162 Second Street, THE DALLES, OR

Crandall & Barget,

DEALERS IN

Fine Upholstered Goods

Furniture, Carpets, Mattings, Parlor Ornaments, Window Shades, Etc.

Undertaking a Specialty.

Can be had all hours of the day or night at their place of business,

160 SECOND STREET, THE DALLES.

San Francisco Beer Hall

SECOND STREET BETWEEN UNION

F. LEMKE, PROPRIETOR.

—KEEPS ON DRAUGHT—

COLUMBIA BREWERY BEER,

—AND FOR SALE—

ALL KINDS OF BOTTLED BEER.

BEST IMPORTED WINES, LIQUORS AND CIGARS.

Packed in Patent Cloth

Pouches and in Pail.

ALL WHO SMOKE A PIPE ARE THE ADVERTISERS OF THE "SEAL."