Are Taxed to Death.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The latest acquisition among the natives over the methods pursued by the commissioner appointed by the three foreign powers, the United States, England and Germany, in the application of funds received for "taxes." The complaint is made that the tax fund is consumed in the payment of high salaries to the commissioner and his appointees, and that they get no return in the way of improvements for the heavy assessments made upon them. Consular affairs in the Samoa group are unsatisfactory and threatening. For this reason an order will be sent by the mail steamer which leaves San Francisco tomorrow for the cruiser Alliance, now at Honolulu, to go to Samoa. It is not the intention to send another vessel to Honolulu to relieve the Alliance. The Boston is now there and will be kept in those waters indefinitely. The Alliance and the Kaiser will depart for San Francisco the moment it becomes apparent that the Boston requires reinforcements.

The Next Congress.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The election just held will also have an important bearing on the control of the senate during the last two years of President Cleveland's administration, for a number of those elected last Tuesday will hold over to serve for senators two years hence. The term of 27 senators expires March 4, 1895. They come from:

Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Delaware, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Carolina, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, West Virginia and Wyoming.

Immigrants in Quarantine.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The steamer Waiman, which has arrived at Baltimore from Bremen with 1000 immigrants on board, will be detained in quarantine 20 days by order of Secretary Foster, who declares that he proposes to strictly enforce the president's proclamation.

Kept Lying His Place.

HOPKINS, Kan., Nov. 12.—M. T. Peck, the postmaster here, was shot and killed yesterday in the postoffice by shooting him self in the head with a revolver. He was financially embarrassed and feared losing his place under Democratic rule.

A Fatal Explosion.

READING, Pa., Nov. 14.—An engine drawing a train of empty coal cars on the Philadelphia and Reading road blew up this morning, killing five men, tearing up tracks, dismantling the locomotive, hurling machinery several squares, and scattering destruction all around. A large crowd gathered from the surrounding country, and got together the remains of the railroads, whose bodies were fearfully mutilated.

Woman's Awful Crime.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 11.—A horrible story of cannibalism comes from Besarabia. A woman named Akerman, a giantess in stature and strength, applied for shelter at the house of a peasant woman named Yooreki Sariera. They became friendly and the peasant went out to get a fresh supply of vodka when she left her alone. In her absence Akerman killed the peasant's baby, sucked its blood and devoured part of its body. As the peasant returned she saw Akerman trying to kill her 8-year old girl. The mother tried to defend her offspring, but the giantess snatched her and killed the little girl with a blowgun. The peasant, left a raving maniac, tried to kill herself. The neighbors, after a desperate struggle in which she was severely hurt, managed to overcome the giantess, and tied her with ropes. On the way to jail the populace tried to lock up.

Mysterious Shower of Insects.

GAUDALAJARA, Mexico, Nov. 11.—A correspondent at Matanzas says that the inhabitants of a small place known as La Puerta Zapatos, between Mazamita and Zapalita, were thrown into the utmost consternation recently by the appearance of a heavy, lowering cloud, which hung over their little village. The terror increased when it was seen to descend in rain there fell myriads of little insects, such as had never been seen in that country. Special religious services were held in all the churches, and the inhabitants fled together in what they considered their only place of safety. It was afterward learned that the same phenomenon had occurred at other places later at the same place and for a distance of three leagues around about, and that the people were becoming accustomed to the curious occurrence.

His Fifth Murder.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 11.—Nicholas Strasser, a blacksmith at Gilman, died today of a pistol shot wound inflicted by John Brackie, about 4 o'clock Wednesday morning. Strasser and Brackie had been drunk, and were fighting with John Gannon, who was struck when Brackie came up and fired at Strasser. The bullet passed right through the body from the right side to the left, and struck the heart, and into the cost, but strangely did not touch the heart or any bone. Brackie was arrested with a revolver in his hand and brought to Seattle. Strasser lingered in great agony and died of internal hemorrhages. No cause for the shooting is known. Brackie is a bad man and since the shooting has boasted that this is the fifth man he has shot.

A Bloody Election Fight.

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn., Nov. 11.—News reaches here of the bloodiest election fight on record at the polls at Big Rock, Mitchell county, N. C., between Republican factions. George K. Pritchard, Republican nominee for sheriff, was opposed by Isaac McKeen, an independent candidate. The fight was precipitated by one of McKeen's adherents knocking down his opponent. Immediately the whole crowd of 500 took to their heels, and the two factions, armed with stones, knives and pistols were used with terrible effect. Twenty were wounded, of whom four will die. The whole population is in arms, and more bloodshed is expected.
