ANOTHER CHANGE IN FRANCE.

Another French ministry has fallen, says the Inter Ocean, and the Panama list of discredited statesmen daily grows longer. The latest additions are the names of Floquet, De Freycinet, Burdeau and Loubet. Charles de Lesseps has in open court acknowledged himself a briber, and the muddy waves of the scandal daily reach higher and threaten even the name of the illustrious De Lesseps, the grand old Frenchman and first citizen of the republic. M. Floquet attempted to face the members in the chambers Tuesday for re-election as president, but despite the fact that he has made an able presiding officer, he was afraid to stand the test of a roll-call after the hostile demonstrations of the right, and withdrew his candidacy.

The fall of the first Ribot cabined is, however, the significant event of the week, and indicates the gravity of the situation. The resignation of the ministry is said to have been due chiefly to cabinet dissensions over the arrest of M. Baihut, ex-minister of public works; but the confessions of Charles de Lesseps and M. Fontane and the clearer light thrown on the Panama corruption were undoubtedly the chief causes. In the light of recent developments reorganization of the ministry was repdered imperative, and in the new ministry named by M. Ribot at the request of President Carnot, two well-known names were dropped from the previous cabinetthose of De Freycinet and M. Loubet. M. Ribot, in accepting the commissio to form a new ministry, made the declaration that De Freycinet was compromised by public rumor, M. Burdeau by former articles, while M. Loubet lacked the requisite energy in the present crisis. M. Ribot himself seems to be acting with energy and ways of politicians, and their votes audacity, and if, as stated, the reor ganization was necessary, it could not be effected too promptly. Both M. Ribot and the chambe seem to be acting on the determination that no one in any way implicated in the great scandal shall remain in the ministry or in a position to thwart or delay the action of the chamber in the cast without great difficulty. matter of paramount interest at pres-
