Worthington's Illustrated Magazine to April, opens with a timely paper upon "American War-Ships of To-Day," by Hon. S. G. W. Benjamin. Nothing could furnish a more striking object lesson upon the treendous progress America, is making in echanical and scientific invention than one of our latest men-of-war. In the quality of its ships the United States now stands in the foremost rank of the natious; we are also the only nation in the world that is able to construct and equip a modern ship of war entirely from the products of our own soil, manufactories, inventive geniu and mechanical skill. No less than nineteen ships of war have been added to our nave during the administration of President Har rison, every part of wh ch, together with their arnaments, with the exception of five guns, have been constructed in the United States. The article is fully and handsomely illustrated from photographs, drawings and paintings by the noted artist, Franklyn

In a Wet Place.

Up in the Cour d'Alene country is an ambitious little town called Harrison, says an exchange. It was necessary for congress to pass a special act before the townsite could be surveyed and located. A bill making such provision was produced at the last session by Congressman Sweet. When the bill was drawn, the instructions as to the survey incorporated therein were taken from an incorrect map. When the surveyors finished their work they had located the town in the middle of the Coor d'Alene lake. Mr. Sweet attempted to bring the townsite to allow the whole matter to go tn the bot tom, if necessary, while he prepared ansecure a location for the place in a section a trifle less squeous in its formation.

Governor Sylvester Pennover this morning appointed the board of regents of the norma, school at Weston. He had delayed naming the members of the board until personally visiting this section of the state ponsible duties of directing the affairs of the chool in its incipiency. Those who learned today of the selection express general satis faction at the course of the governor. cording to the terms of the bill, the board will have complete charge of the institution from the start, and will superintend the onstruction of the bui'dings as well as the making up of the faculty. The new board will consist of J. H. Raley and W. M. Pierce, of Pendleton; R. M. Powers, P. A. Worthington and William Steen, of Weston; Nathan Pi rce, of Milton; George Webb, of La Grande. The new board will probably hold a meeting in Weston the latter part of

She will address the children of the M. E. Sabbath school on Sunday, at 12:30, and will deliver a lecture Monday evening in the M. E. church. Mrs. Unruh is well known in Western Oregon, and for the last two weeks has been in Eastern Oregon. Everywhere she is spoken of as an interesting, witty and forcible speaker. The local union extends a forcible speaker. The local union extends a most cordial invitation to all to come out and listen to the charming speaker.

Oregonian: Judge Deady, whose condition was considered as very critical Tuesday night, rallied yesterday morning, and was able to recognize his family and friends, Last evening his condition was somewhat improved, and this gave his friends some hope. He has not been able to hold court for two weeks, but his condition was not for two weeks, but his condition was not such as to excite serious alarm till Tuesday, when he fell into a comatose condition, and the worst was feared. He is very weak, and but slight hopes are entertained of any and but slight hopes are entertained of any can have it done at the cost of $1 per month. The governor and state treasurer returned o Pendleton Wednesday evening from their rip to Milton and Walla Walla. While at the latter place they made an examination of the jute full in connection with the penitentiary there, and were very much pleased with the institution, and feel that the information they gathered will be of great enefit to them in arranging for the estab shment of the jute mills at Salem. They were met in Pendleton upon their arriva by Senator Blackman and Otis Patterson, o leppner, and left on the 9 o'clock train for ows, where a special train was in waiting to convey the party to Heppner, where they made an examination of the sites offered by the people of Heppner for the branch insane asylum, after which they returned to Willows on a special train took the overland train for Portland. They will visit this city in a few days to make investigations here.

Salem Independent: Some strange hings occur under the administration o our government. Jason Wheeler, of Albany, was Indian agent at the Warm Springs Agency under Cleveland's first reign, and when he went out of office and made a settlement, he was reported $800 short. A bill was presented for his relief, but somehow was never acted upon. Now comes Senator Mitchell. who has succeeded in having the matter re-examined in the interior department, and as a result it is now claimed the gov ernment owes Wheeler $230. If this be true, the deficiency bill which passes con gress will afford Mr. Wheeler relief.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC. Not a Monopolist,

I would respectfully inform the public that I have been able to procure a protty fair outfit for raising or moving houses, and am willing to do that kind of work at ressonable figures. But, I do wish it distinctly nderstood, that after looking at a job, am to be the sole judge of the price to b set upon the work that I am to undertake, or may do. If there is any person who may think that there is big money to be made at house moving in The Dalles (by doing work for less than I can do it) I would advice him to prepare himself, by buying tools, and reap some of the rich harvest. In conclusion, I will say, that if I called upon to do any work in my line I shall endeavor in the future, as in the past, to give entire satisfaction in all respects t my employer.

Most respectfully, ANDREW VELARDE. THE DALLES, March 20, 1893.

East Oregonian: Decision was rendered Wednesday by Judge Fee in the Shelton divorce case. His honor overrules the de murrer to Mrs. Shelton's complaint and also the motion to strike out certain parts of the complaint relating to Lawyer Shelton's character and reputation as a moral gentle-man. Ten days are allowed the defense for answer. Judge Fee has filed an opinion is the case, the second filed by him since he has occupied the bench. In this he takes ground against the allegations of the defense that the complaint did not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action and that the court had no jurisdiction over the subject matter. Numerous authorities are cited. So it seems that Mrs. Shelton is which cause trouble and misery. At the two critical periods in a woman's life—the change from girlhood to woman's life—mate medicine—purely vegetable, perfectly harmless—and carefully adapted, by an ex-perienced physician, to woman's delicate needs.

For all the derangements, irregularities, and weaknesses peculiar to the sex, the "Favorite Prescription" is a remedy so certain that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't give satisfaction in every case, the money is returned. No other medicine for women is sold in this way. No other medicine can be.
