They Have Confessed.

OREGON CITY, April 28.—Theron Mack and James Burns, the young men under arrest for the murder of the Chinaman

Chin Li at Multnomah three weeks ago, this morning confessed having perpetrated the crime. Their confession was made in the presence of Chief of Police Furdon, District Attorney Barrett and his assistant, C. A. Dye. It was reduced to writing and signed and duly witnessed.

It is understood that the prosecutors will insist grilly to the charge of murder in the second degree and receive sentence accordingly.

The story of the crime runs about as follows: The young men had discussed the worthlessness of the Chinese, and had concluded to terrify them so they would leave the country. They went to the Chinaman's cabin in the night for the purpose of robbery, also desiring to cut off the tongues of the Chinese and bring them to the city to show to their parents. They entered the cabin door with a rifle, and found both an Chinese man, who had just returned from his work, and a young girl, who was sitting at a table. Theron Mack shot him with the rifle, and also discharged the revolver he held, but does not know whether they are still in the city. Mack got outside his door, when Burns again shot with his revolver, and the young man was once again shot in the chin. Mack then got back in the Chinaman's room, but he at once sank down lifeless.

They were completely frightened at the tragic ending of their "terrifying" expedition and at once ran away. They said that they got out of the city in the night of the 27th, and that they are now in the city of Portland, Ore.

They are not yet identified.

A Double Murder and Suicide.

LA GRANDE, Ore., April 28.—Word has just reached this city that Ed. R. Bunnell, a prominent farmer of Wallawa county, had killed his wife and daughter and then hanged himself. Bunnell was a man upwards of 30 years of age, and was one of Wallawa's most extensive farmers, his farm being on Front creek.

It seems that his wife had been granted a divorce at the last session of the circuit court at Enterprise, the grounds of the complaint being cruel and inhuman treatment. They had not been living harmoniously for some time. Bunnell was a man of a very violent temper, and was very jealous. He had been drinking freely for some time, and was very excited. He had been drinking for some
