Wool Matters.

Several loads of wool arrived at Moody's varehouse last evening and some this morning, and, we understand, there are very many on the road to The Dalles from the interior. The cold weather has delayed shearing; but it may be expected to begin An informal reception was held in the effect of a favorable winter. From the entirely free from dirt; but this season it is much better than formerly. The market is still in a very unsatisfactory condition, and buyers are only offering 10 and 12 cents while last year prices ranged from 14 to 16 cents, Sellers are not disposed to accept this offer, and will hold the product hoping for a future rise. We apprehend no great buoyancy this year, for, aside from the agitation of the silver question making money matters tight, the advent of the Democratic make dealers look to the foreign product, which can be laid down in Boston at a muc lower figure than that grown in this country.

Mr. James McDonald, who has been sick with consumption for several months past, died vesterday morning at 4 o'clock at the was able to walk around until the past two days since which time he has been confined to his bed. Together with his father and mother, four brothers and two sisters, he came to The Dalles in 1878, and in the fall of that year the family moved on the farm where they now reside. For several years Mr. McDonald and his brother Walter were in business in this city, until the fire of Santember, 1891, and since he has lived with his mother. He was a genial, good hearted companion and had many friends among his acquaintances. At the time of his death he was 38 years old, and until the dreadful disease afflicted him bid that promises to help you.

But there's only

But there's only one medicine of its kind that can and does promise it. It's Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's the guaranteed remedy for all Blood, Skin and Scalp Diseases, from a common blotch or eruption to the worst scrofula. It cleanses, purifies, and enriches the blood, invigorates the system, and cures Saltrheum, Tetter, Eczema, Erysipelas and all manner of blood-taints from whatever cause. Great Eating Ulcers rapidly heal under its benign influence.

It's the best blood-purifier, and it's the cheapest, no matter how many doses are offerd for a dollar—for you pay only for the good you get. good you get.

Can anything else, at any price, be really as cheap?

Nothing else is "just as good" as the "Discovery." It may be better—for the dealer.

But he wants money and you want help.
