The fire has burned from the river back on the mountain a distance of perhaps two miles, and is rapidly spreading in every direction, burning against the wind nearly as fast as with it. Everything is perfectly dry, and only a heavy rain can stop the terrible destruction of timber. There is as yet no clue to the origin of the fire

Nearly all who can take a vacation are in the mountains or at the seasids, and resi-lents of The Dailes may be found on the ocean beach or in almost every sheltered nook from the Lock- to favored spots in the Blue mountains. Such vacations are sensi-ble, and help to furnish a supply of visal force for the battle of life. When the mercury climbs up in the ninetics it is evidence f very poor judgment, if not a species o isanity, for any one to exercise his mental culties in anything but necessary routine ork.

An exchange eays the reason that there have been no bank failures in Seattle is the fact that the people of Seattle, from bank presidents to hod carrier, stand together for t e common good of the city, which they are all proud. They take a common pride of the record of her sp ended growth and brilliant - achievements and they are to a man, almost resolved to preserve her stability. Such a course stead astly pursued will make a name that will be worth millions to her, and it will furnish an object lesson for other cities.

A large number of friend of the family were in at tendance, and the afflicted parents received the heartfelt sympathy of all present. This s the sixth child that Mr. and Mrs Cross have followed to the grave, and three these have died by accident-two killed on the railroad and one drowned. Their cup sorrow must be full to the brim, and such harrowing incidents cast shadows over the pathway of life.
