TO BE TESTED IN THE COURTS.

Col. Charles P. Lincoln, ex-deputy commissioner of pensions, and an old soldier now practicing law in Washington, proposes to test in the courts the legality of Secretary Hoke Smith's action in suspending pensions granted by his predecessor, Secretary Noble, under the act of June 27, 1890, says the Chicago Inter Ocean. Colonel Lincoln maintains that a pensioner has a vested right to his pension after it has been properly adjudicated, and that even the secretary of the interior has no authority to suspend or reduce such a pension unless fraud in procuring it is shown. In the cases suspended by Secretary Smith there is no charge of fraud. It is simply a difference of opinion 'that Secretary Smith uses for his excuse. Secretary Noble made one requirement for applicants Day. The Oregon City band and The Dalles tance. The interior of the building pre-administration but also overturn the we might expect to see him rescind the emancipation proclamation of President Lincoln, because the Democ party is now in power and the We have no doubt Hoke Smith would sustain Mr. Cleveland in such an assumption of authority, for Hoke is one of the young Georgians who believe that the south has won by ballots what they lost by bullets, and that because that section is again in power it can undo everything accomplished by the Republicans in the last thirty years to restore the conditions before the election on Lincoln. Hoke Smith is a smart young man, but the country is too big for such a smart Aleck. Let Colonel Lincoln have the encouragement of all old soldiers in his test case against the young man from Georgia.

It is a proud boast of the g. o. p. that it is the party of sound and honest money, but when a financial seer like Sherman devises such iniquitous legislation as that which bears his name, and a Republican from a rockribbed state like Michigan refuses to help repeal the measure, the distance between the Populists and the rautled Republicans does not seem so far after all; - Detroit Free Press.

The Free Press is not wise, or would not raise such questions as it does. In the first place Sherman did president not "devise the measure which bears his name," but he is among the leaders asking for its repeal. He asked it a year ago and no Democrats seconded it. Besides all that the record of the recent vote shows that 111 Democrats and 13 Republicans voted for free comage, while 110 Republicans and 116 Democrats voted against it The Democracy have 80 majority in the house, and yet the friends of sound money were dependent upon Republicans for the defeat of the measure.
