

ITEMS IN BRIEF

Mr. G. P. Bears received a stroke of paralysis this morning at his residence in this city. This is the third time the old gentleman has been afflicted with the same disease. He was rendered speechless, and at last reports his limbs were losing all action.

Across the mountains last Wednesday on a visit to his parents, who live on the McKenna. At that time there was fifteen inches of snow on the ground, the deepest about one foot. There was considerable falling timber on the road.

At the recent session of the grand lodge, K. of P., at Hepper, there was an unwritten chapter of proceedings outside the hall which it would be well to put in print.

At the head waters of the John Day river, Albert Valentine, who escaped from the county jail a few days ago, was arrested by Sheriff DeWitt. He is now confined in the county jail.

Wm. Gray, a Union Pacific brakeman, went back over the line from Pendleton to Barham's station on a railway wagon loaded with coal.

There were two boys picked up on our streets yesterday afternoon, who require more than a passing notice, and who should elicit the sympathy of all humanitarians in this city.

Wm. H. Hume, a candidate for the Oregon legislature, is believed to be the best candidate for the Oregon legislature.

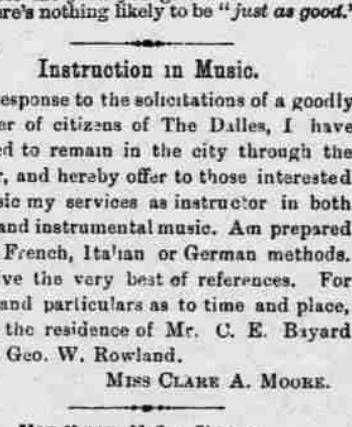

The grand jury returned a verdict in the case of John Day river, that the defendant was guilty of the charge of larceny.

Shot by Burglars. A dispatch was received from Pullman today by Blackman Bros. of this city, giving news of the burglary of their store at that place last night and the shooting of their clerk, A. B. Cooper, while endeavoring to defend the property of his employer. Particulars very meagre, but it seems that Cooper occupied a room in the rear of the store. He was awakened at 1 o'clock A. M. by a noise in the store, and was confronted by burglars, who covered him with their pistols.

Lively Runaway. Mr. Henry Stegman's four-horse team attached to a wagon was tied in front of Miss. Priss & Nitchols's furniture store this afternoon, when they became frightened and pulled themselves loose, taking Dr. Second street rapidly. They ran into a wagon tied in front of Mr. C. Schmidt's grocery store, breaking the wheels out of shape, and breaking the gearing and the hound attached to the tongue. They still continued rampant until the wagon they were hauling was completely wrecked by the front wheels striking the curb above Hartland, Wash. It is doubtful if they will return home to night.

Thought to be Lost. We are in receipt of the following communication: Weekly Herald, Albany, Oregon: Will you give room in your columns for publishing in regards to three men who left here on the 12th of September, to go to Canyon City, from the headquarters of John Day river mines. One of the men was being scarce they started with the full determination of going through to White Bluff on this office.
