DEMOCRATIC RESPONSIBILITY. It is evident from the Washington dispatches that the administration is in a quandary what to do next, says the Chicago Inter Ocean. For over thirty years the party now in power has been relieved from the necessity of doing anything except to object and criticise. Of all the Democrats now prominent from Cleveland down not one was so much as a little bit a political factor during the old Democratic period. To change from objector and critic to devisor and executor is no easy matter. But there is no escape from this responsibility. No doubt it is somewhat difficult for the Republicans to realize that they are no longer responsible for the conduct of public affairs, congressional or administrative, but they could not really assert power if they tried, and the less they try the No. of swine...... 1,808 better it will be for the party.

Just now the administration is struggling with the problem of a de-Scit. All through Mr. Cleveland's first term the Republican senate stood in the way of any practical carrying No. acres agricultural said the revenues of the government were unaffected. Everybody knew that nothing would be disturbed, and that nothing importing and exporting, producing and manufacturing, No. of sheep. . . . . 130,291 No. of swine. . . . . 1,994 kept on the even tenor of their several ways. But now all is changed. The dog is no longer chained, and he can hite as well as bark. Prices for raw materials are away down in apprehension of free listing, the manufactures are largely stopped in apprehension of reduced duties on manufactured articles, importers are going lightly in hope of lower duties in the near future, and from the falling off in imports the government is suffering about the same as the producers and the manufacturers are.

The people, producers, manufacturers, and all, have been told that the repeal of the purchase clause of the Sherman act would restore prosperity all along the line. Already the fallacy of this idea is beginning to be distinctly recognized and conceded. The seat in the regular congress.

by the robbers. One struck Mr. Ropson's left arm and the other his left side. The wounds are painful and serious, but not necessarily dangerous. Cashier Davis escaped with his face badly powder-burned. After the shooting, Mr. Hopson's son handed out $1000 in gold to the robbers from the till and they left the bank.

Cranks have come west, and Mayor Kreft received an incoherent letter this morning making terrible threats against his life. The envelope was addressed to "Leslie Butler, sheepman and hog buyer, city, The Dalles;" for the mayor. It is dated "The Dalles. Nov. 9, '93," and the first sentence reads as follows: "You what is you any how. I am here from Celilo and mean business." We have tried in the above excernt to keen as close to the language as possible, and from this it appears that the fellow is densely ignorant and more idiotic than insane. The ending is absolutely senseless, and an attempt at Chinese and Arabic characters is made for a signature. It would be well for the authorities to investigate the matter, for, in the very nature of things, an idiotic being is more dangerous than one governed by intelligence. It may be a ruse, written by some boy to create notoriety, and, if so, is unworthy of notice.

TELEGRAPHIO NEWS

The Hawaiian Monarchy WASHINGTON, Nov. 11-Inquiry at the department of state warrants the statement that the president has given his approval to the series of findings in the Hawaiian affair. There is still a question as to what will be necessary to restore the status antibellum on the Islands, but it is generally believed that the representations of Minister Willis to the effect that the president desires that the queen be enthroned will not be sufficient. Ad miral Irwin will be called upon to exercise his functions and land the naval for ces of the Philadelphia and Adams and march through the streets of Honolulu dragging gatling guns to the government nouse. It is highly improbable, however, that the provisional government will be obstinate, as resistance would necessitate a resort to military demonstration. It is believed, however, that when the queen is again placed upon the throne the United States will regard its duty accomplished, and the queen must defend the throne and government unaided by the United States. It is said by persons well up in diplomatic lore that this action is equivalent to acknowledging that the queen was dispossessed by the United States. She would have good claim for damages.

MAY LEAD TO CONPLICATIONS. WASHINGTON, Nov. 11-State and navy department officials are extremely reticent regarding what action is to be taken carry out the restoration of the queen. f the United States minister has instructions to carry out the policy of the government he can call upon the government naval forces to assist him.

NEW YORK. Nov. 12-The Herald's Rio dispatch says that all the banks were closed vesterday, and the bombardment 107.825 of the city by Admiral Melio renewed. There was some heavy fighting between the rebels, under Admiral Mello, and President Peixoto's layal troops at Nictheroy, the mest populous suburb of the capital, Wednesday. The principal point of attack was Fort Uncaugue, but the fire from the fort finally sank a rebel torpedo boat, though not before the in-surgents' guns had inflicted considerable njury on the buildings of Nictherov. The Cuban Troubles

NEW YORK, Nov. 11-Leaders of the Cuban revolutionary party in this city say they have private advices which state that the rebellion against the government is already well under way. The movement is thought to be premature but enthusiastic Cubans predict success. nothing new when we state that it pays to engage in a permanent, most healthy and pleasant business, that returns a profit for every day's work. Such is the business we offer the working class. We teach them how to make meney rapidly, and guarantee every one who follows our instructions faithfully the making of $200.00 a month.

Every one who takes hold now and works will surely and speedily insrease their earnings; there can be ne question about it; others new at work are doing it, and you, reader, can do the same. This is the best paying business that you have ever had the chance to secure. You will make a grave mistake if you fall to give it a trial at once. If you grasp the situation, and act quickly, you will directly find yearself in a most prosperous business, at which you can surely make and save large awas of money. The results of only a few house' work will often equal a week's wages. Whether you are old or young, man or woman, it makes no difference, — do as we tell you, and success will meet you at the very start. Nother experience or capital necessary. Those who work for in a save rewarded. Why not write to-day for full particulars, free? R. C. ALLEN & CO.,
