In some parts of Oregon unprincipled parties have been passing off Confederate bills for United States money, and have succeeded in victimizing some people. As the Confederate bills are genuine th reis no law that will reach the party who is guilty of passing them.

Notwithstanding the fact that only a few days will intervene between now and Christmas the hills are still green, and the weather is as/delightful as spring. We hope the old saying will not prove true in this vicinity, that "a green Christ-mas makes a fat graveyard."

Prineville News: Some time ago The Dalles TIMES-MOUNTAINEER published a notice to the effect that Charles Crain, a married man was sent from this county to the penttentiary. Now there happens to be a charles Crain here, he never was convicted of a crime and he is not a married man, but is a very estimable young man. The MOUNTAINEER will please correct the mistake.

President Jordon of Stanford University says: "Football is action. It is genuine. It makes decision of character. It is an antidote to the maladies of diletand so long as it is manly it is the best antidote to its own evils."

Sunday's Oregonian: The report of the adjutment against C. E. Lorkwood, pub lished in yesterday's Oregonian, was in-correct. Mr. Lockwood was not indicted for perjury, nor for representing himself as T. C. Alcock as was stated, but for aiding and assisting and acting as attorney in the prosecution of a claim against the government while he held the positi n of assistant United States district attorney for Oregon.

Eugene Guard: A skeleton, supposed to be the bones of an Indian whose soul has long since been reeing in the happy hust-ing grounds, was found on Joe Myer's place pear the state university last Saturday! The charging of the river channel caused by the last storm and washed the bank away until the skeleton was revealed some dis-tance beneath the surface. The skull and other portions were saved in good condition and presented to Prot. Thomas Condon!

Statesman: Governor Pennoyer said to a reporter yesterday: "Not one single acre of the more than 250,000 acres of school lands embraced in the Cascade reservation has been used, or will be used while I am governor as a basis for lieu lands. I shall again ask the legislature to raise the price of lieu lands from $1.25 to $2.50 per acre, which if done will pre-vent anomaliation and add over a control vent speculation and add over a quarter of a million to the school fund."

We were shown a model this morning of a wagon for damping dirt or stone, which opens in the center of the bottom of the bed, and for which Mr. W. T. Hatton, of Warm Springs, has received a patent from the government. It is a very simple arrangement, worked by a lever ince an ordinary brake, and will empty a wagon bed of dirt, debris or stone, in half the time than by the old method. We are of the opinion that if this improvement was generally known wagons with this attachment would find quick and ready sale.

Ashland Times: Louis Rees, a pioneer resident of Eagle Point precinct, was found dead one day last week by a neighbor, Mrs. J. H. Caton, who went to borrow a sausage grinder. He had evidently been dead some The body had several marks of violence on it, which went to show that Rees had been gored by his bull which was known to be a vicions animal. A coroner's 1863. inquest was held and a verdict returned in dance with the above facts. Mr. Rees was about 65 years of age and highly re-spected by all who knew him. The bull was afterward shot and killed to prevent fire in the stove, and went to the harn to do some chores, and was not gone but a few minutes before he beheld the building in fames. He hastened back as soon as possi ble, and managed to save a few articles rom the house; but the family, consisting of his wife and three children, during th inclement season, will find it a great hard-ship to be deprived of their nome. It is not known whether there was any insur-ance or not; but the loss will be about
