A wonderful anniversary, the 100th, of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Jean Szathmary, is reported from Hungary. This appears to be a circumstance which is entirely impossible, but the marriage of this aged pair is duly and officially recorded as having taken place in May, 1793, at which time, according to the record, they were of marriageable age. As in Hungary at that time a bridegroom must have reached the age of 20 and a bride that of 15, the pair must now be at least 120 and 115 years old.

If snow falls heavily there is a blockade in some of the mountain gorges, and during the rainy weather of spring there are frequently land slides in places where the track hugs the hillsides closely. The most phenomenal of these was one that occurred about a year ago, at what is known as Reed's farm, a few miles west of Bonneville. At that time large bowdlers, trees and great quantities of earth came do n from the mountai side, ca rying with them ev-rything that attempted to block their course, and a house now lies about 200 yards below the track, where it was taken by the avalanche of dirt and debris. nothing new when we state that it pays to engage in a permanent, most healthy and pleasant bushines, that returns a profit for every day's work. Such is the business we offer the working class. We teach them how to make money rapidly, and guarantee every one who follows our instructions faithfully the making of $3500.00 n thought.

Every one who takes hold now and works will surely and speedily increase their carnings; there can be no question about it; others now at work are doing it, and you, render, can do the same. This is the best paying business that you have ever had the chance to secure. You will make a grave mistake if you fail to give it a trial at once. If you grasp the situation, and act quickly, you will directly find yourself in a most prosperous business, at which you can surely make and save large sums of money. The results of only a few house' work will often equal a week's wage.
