

MCKINLEY AND HILL.

Senator David B. Hill is from the opposite school of politics to Governor McKinley. Throughout the present campaign the Ohio governor has appealed to the common sense of his hearers, while Mr. Hill has attempted to arouse dormant Democratic enthusiasm. Taking into consideration the different styles of the two men it was not to be expected that Mr. Hill would be happy in his reply to Governor McKinley's Albany speech, and that particular expression of McKinley's that "business is politics and politics is business."

The New York senator came as near making an open confession as he has ever done since his position became one of national prominence. He places the lowest estimate on the meaning of both business and politics, seeing in McKinley's reference only that which the ward politician understands, that money can be made out of politics. It is not alone a Republican criticism on Senator Hill that he has held the least exalted views on politics, and has made it a business by the aid of a corrupt machine. This same criticism has been time and again made by the Democratic press and by many of the ablest Democrats in the country. He takes the same view of politics as does Mayor Hopkins, of Chicago, and it is quite natural that both gentlemen from their training should find the lowest possible meaning in any reference to a combination of business and politics.

Senator Hill says: "Business should be business and politics should be politics." There can be no doubt about his sincerity in that utterance. It was just such a division that created Tammany, Boss Croker, and David B. Hill. It is just such a division which business left politics to machine men that gave Chicago a mayor like John P. Hopkins. He is a better example of what such division results in than Senator Hill, because he has never shown even the ability to rise higher than machine politics. The great majority of business men and workmen agree with Governor McKinley that business is politics and politics is business. Only by combining in one view the man's own business and the business of the public can we have the same honesty in the latter as men are compelled to show in the former. In our great cities we have too long followed Senator Hill's plan of business men paying attention to anything but their own business affairs and leaving politics to the professional politicians, who live and thrive by their monopoly upon the business of government. The voters have decided to reform even in New York and dispossess Tammany. Of course Senator Hill objects to the reformation, for without Tammany New York would soon be without Hill.

ITEMS IN BRIEF

From Sunday's Daily. The weather still continues delightful for the fall season. Nov. 2—Saratoga Race to Traph Village and Live Stock Co.; 2:30. 23rd range 12. The rainy season has not fairly begun at the locks yet, and work may be prosecuted with vigor for some time before the winter rains begin. G. O. has rented the upper story of the old Grant building, corner of Front and Washington streets, and it is being refitted for an armory. Sheriff Driver returned on the afternoon train from Portland. He took Frank Klein down yesterday to the Multnomah county jail so as to separate him from his confederate. There's a force of men at work at the locks excavating above the upper bulkhead that was erected in 1880. The damage done by the recent flood has not been fully repaired. Rain has fallen in sufficient quantities in Klickitat county during the past few days to make the ground in proper condition for plowing, and farmers will be very busy with their fall work. Rev. E. Van Dierlin, who has had temporary charge of Trinity church, Portland, will hold services in St. Paul's Episcopal church at 11 o'clock, at 11 o'clock A. M. Evening service at 7:30. Mr. Emil Schmitt returned last evening from a short visit at the Cascade Locks. After examining the manner in which the work is being prosecuted he thinks the canal and locks may be finished within the next few years. There was only one "unfortunate, really important" under the recorder this night; but was duly solved. The morning edition of the Times-Mountaineer carried a list of 25 persons who were indicted for the murder of the late Senator Hill. Today before the county clerk, Edwin Hutton, a subject of the queen of Great Britain and empress of the Indies, declared his intention under oath of becoming an American citizen, and to that end forewore allegiance to that British potentate. The contest in Klickitat county has been three-cornered since the Democrats, Republicans and Populists, with a possible factional disintegration in the ranks of the Republicans. Out of the three candidates, one was elected Tuesday, and give her usual large Republican majority. Mining has been carried on in Greenhorn district, in Grant county for the past 30 years, during which time there has been a large output of gold. The present year, owing to the depression in machinery and the cheaper methods developed in the industry, operations on both ledge and placer claims have been unusually extensive as well as profitable. A test of gold-bearing is now in progress on the Corvallis ledge farm. It began about four weeks ago, and ends January 1, covering a period of 13 weeks. Eight feet divided into three sections, each being fed one lot on chopped wheat, and one on mixed chopped wheat, shorts and chopped oats. The experiment will be the subject of a bulletin. Mr. A. R. Graham, of Centerville, Wash. gave a pleasant call this morning. He has had two wagon accidents, the first on his way to the post two weeks ago, and managed to land at each load about 100 bushels. Crop has been unusually good in Klickitat county, but the price of wheat is so low that farmers realize very little remuneration for their labor. In proceeding work at the locks the contractors have found it necessary to have the track of the state portage road removed, and this will require a reconstruction of that road. The intention is to build the track on a higher level and construct a steep incline with hoisting engines at the top. The work must be done before Nov. 10, and will cost several thousands of dollars. River traffic continues to break that this outlet is justified. Here in the way Hallowe'en was celebrated in Eugene. The students of the state university last night duly celebrated Hallowe'en. This morning Professor Condon's gate was found suspended in the air at the top of the flag pole in front of the hall. While several gates were in trees, and a wagon containing fifteen or twenty

COMMON COUNCIL.

The regular monthly meeting of the common council was held last Saturday evening in the council chamber. Present, the mayor and a full board of councilmen, except G. C. Eitelman, who was absent. Minutes of previous meetings read and approved. The petition of Wm. Glasius and others, asking for sidewalk on south side of Ninth street, from Liberty to Pentland, was read and allowed. The remonstrance of John Robinson and others against the proposed improvement on Union street as asked for by Jesse Simonson and others was read and laid on the table. The summons in the case of W. Farrell against Dallas City and others was read and referred to the judiciary committee with power to act. The report of the finance committee regarding the reduction of theater license in favor of The Dulles Orchestra Union was read, and on motion it was ordered that license be reduced to $5 per night for one performance, and to $10 per week for continuous performances. It was ordered that an electric light be placed at the intersection of Fourteenth and Garrison streets. The regular monthly reports of the recorder, treasurer, marshal and street commissioner were read, accepted and placed on file. The claims were then read and all were ordered paid. On motion it was ordered that the Sisters be allowed to put a crosswalk from the Academy ward across the street to the Catholic church. It was ordered that a crosswalk be constructed between Fulton and Washington streets. There appearing no further business the council adjourned.

From Monday's Daily.

Gen. C. Jones is up from White Salmon, Mr. J. C. Fleischbach, of Portland, was in this city yesterday. Mr. Mat McGrover, the popular traveling man, is in the city. Mr. and Mrs. D. Porter, of Wasco, were in the city Saturday. Rev. E. Van Dierlin, returned to Portland from his recent visit to the city. Wm. Herrick, manager of the new cannery, came up on last night's train. The deer killed by Mr. J. S. Fish and party came up on the train last night. The report of the fire department for the week ending Oct. 29, shows that 12 members of the Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde Co. are stopping at the Umatilla. Mr. A. Thayer, formerly druggist with Blakely & H. B. of this city, gave us an agreeable call today. Mr. C. W. Rice, for the Columbia Packing Co. sold a haul of steers to a party in the sound farm that averaged in weight 1393 pounds. There was one vagrant found by the city recorder this morning. He was fined $5 for his misdemeanor. He will do work on the city streets. The residence property of Mrs. Mary L. Booth was sold this afternoon by sheriff's sale at the court house. It was known to Mrs. Booth by Mrs. J. S. Fisher, 2872 1/2. The case was foreclosed by mortgage by Dallas City. On the Mexican pension roll there are the names of 15,216 survivors and 7,282 widows, as given in reports to the comptroller of currency, show the aggregate amount of individual pension claims at $78,418,819.19. Loans and discounts have increased during that time over $161,000,000. The amount of specie in national banks October 2, 1934, was $275,250,634; legal tenders, $120,644,168. From Tuesday's Daily. Wasco Tribe, No. 16, I. O. E. M., will meet and adjourn this evening. The regular meeting will be tomorrow evening. The county jail is well filled with prisoners; but the coming term of the circuit court will change the occupancy of many of them. Mornings and evenings are cold and frosty, but the sun shines brightly during the day, and the air is very clear and invigorating. All the periodicals for November are on hand at E. P. Nolan's news depot. The Review of Reviews arrived this evening. The result of the election held in the different states, and will be posted on the bulletin board at Nolan's news depot. There were no arrests made last night, and consequently the city jail is dull forenoon as far as police business was concerned. Mr. John Oliver, who lived at the Dallas many years ago, and who it is well known to many old residents, is in the city looking over the scenes of his early childhood. County court convened for the November term yesterday. The principal business transacted has been in probate matters. Tomorrow the commissioners will meet, and roads and bills will receive attention. There is a large band of horses in the stockyards of E. E. Saltmarsh & Co. today which will be shipped east tomorrow. There is no more sale for horses now, but there are fine animals, and will answer the purpose for all kinds of heavy work. Joseph Woodford was made a full citizen by the county court today. He was formerly a subject of Great Britain, but is now thoroughly in harmony with American institutions, and may now consider himself an integral part of the great republic.

Shot For a Deer.

From L. M. Pierce, of this city, we learn that his son-in-law, A. W. Hawley, oldest son of Jesse Hawley, was perhaps fatally shot by a companion while hunting in the mountains west of Monroe, about noon Thursday. George Hoover and the wounded man were out hunting deer when the mistake was made, and Hoover shot his companion, mistaking him for a deer, the shot entering in the side above the hip and coming out through the back. The shooting occurred 12 miles from the home of the wounded man, and his companion is at last accounted for. It is feared that the injury is a serious one as at last occurred in the second week of the month. The shooting occurred 12 miles from the home of the wounded man, and his companion is at last accounted for. It is feared that the injury is a serious one as at last occurred in the second week of the month. The shooting occurred 12 miles from the home of the wounded man, and his companion is at last accounted for. It is feared that the injury is a serious one as at last occurred in the second week of the month.

Foster's Weather Predictions.

Prof. Foster says the next storm wave will reach the Pacific coast about November 6, across the western mountains. The great central valleys from the 5th chapter of the robbery recently committed in this city. If the ar of it had not been carefully laid in the office after the act was done, or the arrival upon which it had been beaten and the hammer that was used been placed, away and hidden, perhaps the perpetrators of this crime would have yet been unknown. But there is a history connected with this bar of iron which has been written and which will furnish interesting reading. It is generally supposed that Hawthorne in Portland and Rowe in Salem recognized this bar as the one used by the gang when operating at the Dalles, and so informed Sheriff Driver when he visited them; but such is not the fact. As soon as the robbery was committed the sheriff suspected the guilty parties, and soon afterwards in walking through the alley in the rear of Mr. Klein's residence picked up the piece of iron, which he afterwards found to be part of the broken or pressed seal of one of the specific seals. After the arrest of the guilty parties, and the search of the bar, the tools used in bending the bar. This satisfied him that the parties were who committed the robbery, and he was determined that the piece of iron should be used as the means by which the facts should be ascertained. He planned the trip to the Multnomah county jail and to the penitentiary, and made the suggestion to the detectives. They approved of it, and he made the visit. When he returned to the city, he described one much larger than the one used, and not only did not identify the piece of iron used in opening the treasure box but positively stated it was not the same as the forged former that in their possession. Rowe corroborated Hawthorne's statement. Driver knew if this became public he could never secure the arrest of the young men, so he kept the facts to himself. He returned to The Dalles, and told the detectives and the district attorney that the bar had been identified. The warrant of arrest was issued, and Klein, when confronted by the piece of iron and the statement that Hawthorne and Rowe identified it, was fearful that, actuated by a spirit of revenge, they would impute him in greater crimes than those of which he had been guilty. His own conscience, and the need of these two confederates awaiting arrest, led him to confess that he had no knowledge, preyed upon his mind Saturday night. Sunday morning he awakened refreshed, and when examined by Driver and Simmons, the bar of iron and the false statement of Hawthorne regarding it, was like Raquel's ghost that would not own at his bidding. He finally broke completely down, and confessed everything in detail. After the successful culmination of Mr. Driver's scheme, he told District Attorney Jayne, Mr. Gensch, and Messrs. Lord and Simmons the facts regarding the bar of iron, and the use he had made of his false statement. They were all astonished; but admitted that it was clever work, and the fact that could have been done under the circumstances. In referring out a crime to "justice" the means, and we do not believe that any one will blame Mr. Driver for imposing upon the credulity of detectives and the people, and not letting the true state of facts be known until he had accomplished his purpose.

It's Good Effect.

We have a few practical jokers in this city, who are constantly playing pranks on their associates, or any one else on whom they can succeed. For the past two or three weeks a sheep-head has been on a protracted spree in this city, and his employer has frequently sent him to him to come out to the farm and go to work. These antics were unavailing, and finally the "joker" made it known that he was going to actually cure him on his premises and send him to his sheep. Proceeding a pair of banditti they pretended an arrest of the shepherd, and was on the point of marching him to the county jail, when he broke and fled to his home, and said if they would give him his freedom he would immediately leave town for the ranch. He was released from custody, and did not stay upon the order of his going, but went at once. By this time he is happy with his flock, and no doubt feels an obligation to the "jokers" for removing him from temptation.

Good Things to Eat.

Beetles have other defenses than their curiass, such as nauseous or caustic liquids, which they expel on provocation, and, strange to say, Mr. Conroy has found that certain beetles actually exude their blood, charged with noxious products. So far he finds the practice confined to the chrysomelid, some of the timarctid, the chrysomelid, and the meloidae. The blood of the chrysomelid has a strong disagreeable odor like that of the whole insect. That of the timarctid is indolent, but has an acrid flavor, and in the case of the timarctid, the blood is so venomous. The blood of the meloidae contains much cantharidine. London Globe.

Free Water.

The free watering trough in the East End, which was erected by the city for the benefit of farmers and others, and the commission charged $5 a month to supply. As the council considered it a benefit to the public that body wisely refused to pay the amount, and the commission proceeded to shut off the water; but John Collins & Co., at the corner of whose store the trough is, paid the amount charged, and the water trough will remain to the public as heretofore. JAMES COLLINS & CO. Express.

Clubbing Rates.

The regular subscription price of the TIMES-MOUNTAINEER is $2, and the regular subscription price of the weekly Oregonian is $1.50. Anyone subscribing for the weekly Times-Mountaineer and paying one year in advance will receive the Oregonian for $2.50. All old subscribers paying their subscriptions one year in advance will be entitled to the same offer.

Boys and Girls Aid Society.

Boys and girls aid societies (girls) (1) for ordinary service at homes; (2) upon invitation, to work, attend school, and to be brought up somewhat as your own; and (3) children to be charged by the hour to the farm and go to work. These entities were unavailing, and finally the "joker" made it known that he was going to actually cure him on his premises and send him to his sheep. Proceeding a pair of banditti they pretended an arrest of the shepherd, and was on the point of marching him to the county jail, when he broke and fled to his home, and said if they would give him his freedom he would immediately leave town for the ranch. He was released from custody, and did not stay upon the order of his going, but went at once. By this time he is happy with his flock, and no doubt feels an obligation to the "jokers" for removing him from temptation.

Stock Inspectors.

The following is the list of stock inspectors for Wasco county: T. Cartwright, The Dalles; A. S. Roberts, Deschutes; W. R. Cantrell, Dover; E. R. Hinton, Bakerville; Zeb Taylor, Antelope; J. H. Sherar, Sherar's Bridge. For Sale. Bran and shorts for $8 per ton, purchaser to furnish sacks. Apply at Dufur Flouring Mills. E. DURUS.

Anything for breeding purposes.

"Well," said Kio, "you will sell it to Mr. Bonney, and perhaps make $20 or $30 for it." "All right," said Gabel, "I will try." So he hauled up Mr. Bonney, and described the buck as a fine imported Shropshire and just what was wanted to improve the wool of this region. After considerable "dickering" Bonney agreed to take the buck for $25, and Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer he would have given him $30 for the scrub sheep. Mr. Bonney, in reply, said that Gabel was satisfied to take an order on Rice for the amount, which was made out and accepted. The next day Gabel met Rice and told what a good bargain he had made, and said he held out a little while longer