Children Cry

For FROEYER'S CASTORIA

Castoria is so well adapted to children that it is the best medicine for any ailment of childhood.

From personal knowledge I can say that Castoria is the best medicine for children.

Castoria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, and Feverishness.

Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Castoria contains no opiates or other narcotic property.

OF DALLES CITY, OR.

They Received a Large Entry.

PIKE BLUFF, Ark., Jan. 26.—The south bound Cotton Belt train was held up near here by two masked men at 7:05 P. M.

The robbers were riding on the blind bug, and as the train went through a deep cut, the engineer saw them crawl over the top of the engine.

He could realize that what was up, he was looking into the muzzle of a pair of 45 caliber revolvers.

The robbers commanded the train to stop and the engine was held up for some time.

The money taken from the express car was not ascertained.

After an interval of a few minutes the express car was released.

The passengers were not molested, nor was anyone hurt by the bandits.

Gold Reserve Diminished.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The secretary of the treasury has authorized for sale gold bars for export on the payment of a premium of 1/4 of 1 per cent over the cost of manufacture and transportation.

This morning $1,000,000 was taken on these terms. There was withdrawn $8,000,000 and $900,000 additional was engaged for export tomorrow.

making up to noon $3,700,000. This leaves the gold reserve $38,084,428, and the amount of gold on hand above the amount of outstanding gold certificates, $10,000,000.

The treasury department has received no deposit for certificate as secured to their redemption, but will continue to pay out gold bars as they are tendered.

It is deemed amply sufficient. There is enough gold in silver coin or bars to meet the demand on gold certificates. While the situation is regarded as very trying, there is no thought of anything so serious as to involve the credit of the government, which the secretary will fully maintain at all hazards.

Great Tie-Up Broken.

BROOKLYN, Jan. 25.—The street-car strike is nearly over. Today many strikers returning to work as lay-off men, and not through treaty made with their respective committees.

Trolley cars are running on nearly all lines, though not the full complement, but the great tie-up has been broken. The Ninth street line has been ordered home, and there is every likelihood that the street will be ordered back to New York tonight.

Several Eight-Highs Railroad Company announced that it would run cross-tie lines from Greenpoint to the Erie basin today, and large crowds waited for the cars.

The authorities sent a large detachment of regular and special policemen to keep the peace. The strikers were ordered not to shoot without cause.

What is supposed to be a dynamite cartridge was picked up this morning at the corner of Fish street and Fulton street, where a crowd of strikers gathered.

The cartridge was covered with a coating, and has a fuse at one end, and is about five inches long. Police Superintendent Campbell sent it to the navy yard, where an examination will be made.

The strikers say they are as determined as ever to hold out, and if no agreement is made before the troops are withdrawn there will be, in the opinion of many, a renewal of the trouble.

At Ridgewood station, when about 25 men arrived to work for the railroad company, the strikers surrounded them and succeeded in hauling them down Paines to street.

Foemen and militia were sent to work for the railroad company, and succeeded in hauling them down Paines to street.

He was a soldier for 43 years, held 18 commissions, from lieutenant to major-general, took part in 240 battles, and was wounded seven times, and was in the United States, had served in Egypt, Mexico and other countries. His Wife Disappeared.

LITTLE FALLS, Wash., Jan. 26.—Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock Mrs. John Gill disappeared from home. His husband was away, but returned about 5 o'clock and found his three little girls alone. She did not come home last night and today a search was made in the woods around the house were examined, but she was not found.

This afternoon Mr. Gill went to the barn to feed the stock and found her buried in the hay. She refused to talk. She is supposed to have been suffering from a fit of temporary insanity.

Thousands Are Affected.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 27.—The Ingersoll carpet-weavers who operate the looms in 65 mills in Kensington have decided to strike tomorrow unless their employers agree to pay higher wages. It is said that no less than 18,000 operatives will be affected. The executive committee of the Power Loom Protective Association met today and heard reports from the various mill owners. It was stated that none of the manufacturers would yield to the demand, which is for an advance of a quarter per yard on all grades of carpets. While only 1000 power-loom weavers make the demand, 14,000 other workmen are directly affected, and 4000 indirectly.

Drowned at Astoria.

ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 26.—Albert Hansen, the 8-year old son of a store keeper in this city, was drowned yesterday at 2 o'clock in the evening. He was playing in the water with a number of other boys, but had been coasting down a slip leading from Second street to the water, and had fallen in. His mother, who was with him, saw him slip, but was unable to reach him in time. The body was recovered after having been in the water for nearly an hour.

The Crasher's Victim.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—The cruiser Olympia was towed to Mare Island this morning, and formally delivered to the navy-yard. Coal, stores and ammunition were put aboard, ready for service in about an hour. The tug requires 280 men, exclusive of officers.

Retained on Quarters.

LA PORTE, Ind., Jan. 25.—Mrs. Geodeke formerly Miss Georgia Oels, known as "Indiana's Queen of Song," has just been released from prison at Brown, France, where she had been confined on charge of arson. Miss Oels was a student in the New York conservatory of music, when she became the wife of Captain Geodeke, a German officer. The couple went to Brown, where Geodeke went into business and prospered. His factory burned down one day during their absence, and they were arrested on the charge of arson. An appeal was sent to Mrs. Geodeke's friends in Indiana, and on their representations the state and government officials united in an effort to secure her release, and money was raised for her expenses. But few, if any, signatures were obtained. The Republicans of Douglas are satisfied with the action of their representatives.

Resisting from Rebels.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 26.—The four children of Andrew Cole, of Lawrence county, have been brought to Louisville suffering with rabies. The eldest, a boy of 15, was bitten by a dog in 1893. Recently he developed hydrophobia and bit his brother and two sisters. One of the boys died, but the others all bark and snap like dogs.

Statement of Lord Churchill.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—The interment of the body of Lord Churchill took place at Brompton Park, Woodstock, today. The queen, Prince of Wales and the emperor of Germany sent delegates. Memorial services in his honor were also held at Westminster Abbey.

Herman's Position.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Hermann said today his position in the senatorial contest is the same as it has been. He is not a candidate, yet if the contest reaches a point where there is a deadlock, he would esteem it a great honor to be elected.

The Crisis For Olliver.

A woman who was to Olliver after holding the clericalship writes to the Tacoma Ledger of her experience. She says it took her only 15 minutes to learn of the foolishness of her errand, and thereupon determined to learn the total number of those who, like herself, had sought Olliver in search of clericalship. The question is not a clericalship, but a position that will support her education, fathers of families to support, women deserted by their husbands, and a girl who was the sole support of her widowed mother and little sister. Then there were dozens of girls and women who were unable to do heavy work, as well as the cripples who could only do writing. Business men asked for positions that they might prevent starvation. From the straits, the open bottom-holding of the members, and the thousand and one men, one was almost led to believe that every citizen of the state was asking for legislative clericalship.

Important Decision.

In an important land decision lately rendered out of the supreme court of the state of Washington, the most elaborate brief ever filed in that state came before the court for consideration.
