received a slight stab in the back. The affair occurred December 16, on which date the men, Fred Jensen, Ingatl Renachott, Charles Jahuson and Nels Johnson, obtained permission to go ashore. That night word was received that the men had got into a fight, and an investigation found the men in a badiv used up condition. The three first named were terribly injured, each baving five or six terrible wounds. Ranschott and fohnson died soon after being found. According to the story, the men fell in with some girls and were talking with them when a party of soldiers came along concurrently to strengthen her hands in and ordered them to clear out. Finally view of a probable armistice, he soldiers drew their daggers and fell ipon the sailors, who were unarmed, and

Captain Trask saw the American concul, and he notified the American minister at Rio. The Brazilian government officials are very friendly to Americans and took the matter up at once. It was understood that some of the soldiers had been found, but it could not be verified efore the schooner sailed.

Armenian Outrages.

LONDON, March 29-The Earl of K mberley, secretary of state for foreign af fairs, in receiving a deputation of the Armenian Association, expressed warm sympathy with the object of the associaion, and said the government was doing its best to make the inquiry into the outrages in Armenia as thorough and searching as possible. He added an independent report would be made by European representatives. The main object in view was to secure in future protection for the wives, property and lands of Armenian Christians. In this object, he was glad to say, Great Britain had the co operation of France and Russia, both of which coun tries were convinced of the necessity for to bring about the results desired without plus rei raising in an acute form the esstern ques- drawal. tion.
