The Aged Mother of Mr. Parnell Found Wounded and Unconscious by the Roadside.

erant Found Guilty by the Corone Jury of the Murder of Miss Williams-the Evidence is Said to be Very Convincing.

WASHINGTON, April 19 .- Officials nd diplomats regard the answer of Lord Kimberly to Nicaragua, made yesterday, as bringing the British-Nicaraguan question to a critical state. It is considered certain that Great Britain will now proceed to collect the The British mode of action against

The British mode of action against Nicaragua, it is believed, will be by a pacific blockade of all Nicaraguan ports, thus crippling local commerce, but not interfering with the United States or other foreign commerce. The latest information received here shows that Great Britain can at once bring two formidable fleets for blockading purposes, one on the Pacific side, and the other on the Atlantic coast. Two fleets, 19 ships in all, are variously disposed, but all could be rendezvous for a demonstration off the coast.

MRS. PARNELL WOUNDED.

Found by the Roadside in an Une Condition. BORDENTOWN, N. J., April 19.-Mrs. Delia T. Parnetl, mother of the late Charles Stewart Parnell, who lives at Ironside, overlooking the Delaware river, near here, was found bleeding and unconscious late last night by Charles Casey, son of a farmer who has charge of the farm at Ironside. While descending the hill which morks the boundary of the property formerly occupied by Mr. Parnell's father, young Casey heard moans. Hurrying to the spot he found Mrs. Parnell lying beside the fence with her face covered with blood. By her side were two small pieces of fence paling, about three feet long, and a brick. Help was obtained and she was carried to the home of Farmer Casey.

Dr. W. H. Shipps, who was hastily summoned, made an examination, and found that besides several bruises about her face the woman had a lacerated wound on the right side of her Mrs Parnell is unconscious, and because of her advanced age her condition is regarded as critical. The authorities are unable to deter-

The authorities are convinced she was assaulted and robbed and have sent telegrams to all near-by cities and towns asking that a look out be kept for a man of medium height with a smooth face, wearing a light overcoat and a Derby hat, who was seen in the vicinity about the time the assault is believed to have been committed. Mrs. Parnell's house, on the hill about a mile from Bordentown, is known as "Ironsides." It is a big old two-story frame structure, and was built by her father many years ago. It is as dreary a place as one could imagine. The aged woman had no close acquaintances in Bordentown, and previous to 1890 had been living in destitution. In that year congress granted her a pension of $50 per month.

Waller's friend, E. Underwood Harvey, editor of the Madagascar News, asking him to insert it in that paper.

This enclosure, it is stated contained abominable calumnies regarding the conduct of the French soldiers in Madagascar, and denounced two of Waller's compatriots, honorable American merchants, who were going to Antananarvio as spies, in pay of the French. The trial of Waller lasted only 3½ hours. Waller appealed, but the sentence was confirmed.

According to the correspondent of Temps it was a son-in law of Waller, was handed ever to the American consul at Zanzibar.
