

Times-Register. SATURDAY, JUNE 3, 1934. ANNOUNCEMENT. From January 10 to July 15...

ITEMS IN BRIEF. From Wednesday's news. The circuit court adjourned this morning until Friday.

The river has fallen. There may not be another rise this season. The mayor and city recorder are busy today signing the bonds.

Prof. Birdgold was a passenger on the Regulator to Hood River this morning. Hon. W. R. Ellis came down from Heppner last night, and spent the day in the city.

The police court has not been crowded with business during the past two or three days. All warrants issued prior to Feb. 1, 1934, will be paid as soon as the money is received for the bonds now being signed.

Joe Clyde, a rancher on the Hump-tucks river, Wash., is said to have a lion of the size of a horse. They will be held as heavy loads as any pair of horses.

Frost injured considerable fruit in Rebel and A. H. Linn, in the county. June 2 grain was damaged but slightly. This was the latest severe frost for many years.

The thirder day, and the street commissioner will lead his aid in riding the city of them. Property owners should be instructed in this matter, and aid the official in his mission.

The county institute for Waco will be held in this city for two weeks the first part of December. This will allow the teachers connected with the public schools to enjoy the summer vacation.

Don't forget the conundrum lunch social at premises of Geo. W. Miller, corner Eighth and Washington streets, evening at 7:30, given by the Y. P. S. C. of First Christian church. A good time is expected.

Rehearsals for the drama of Damon and Pythias are being held three times a week, and the characters assigned are well adapted to the occasion. The play, Mr. Rasmus, is a truly an artist, and the presentation of this popular play will be first-class in every regard.

We received a pleasant call this morning from Mr. L. J. Davis, editor of the Eastern Oregon Republican, who is in the city on a visit to his friends in the city, and his husband will leave in a few days for San Francisco, where they will spend a month.

Salem Post. Hon. Jeff Myers has just received a letter from Hon. John Ingalls, of Kansas, stating that a gentleman would be here during the meeting of the state fair and deliver an address. Mr. Ingalls has been visiting friends in the city, and his appearance will be a drawing card for the state fair.

Judge Shattuck, of Portland, has decided that, according to the Butler act of 1925, the fees paid to the clerk of the circuit court for filing complaints in civil cases cover all of the fees required to be paid in such cases, and that the sheriff is no longer entitled by law to collect fees for serving complaints. Neither can he collect mileage.

A new postoffice called Male has been established in Andrew Valley, Harney county, with James F. Malan postmaster. In casting about for a name the people of the district agreed, and Mr. Malan raises mules, and as the postoffice department is unable to short a name, it is decided that Male would about fit the case, and the name was adopted.

A dispatch from Eugene states that an old man, named Johnson, who has lately perished in the mountains, journeying from Eastern Oregon to the Willamette valley by the Cascade route. About ten days ago the men met the old man near the summit of the mountains, and nothing has been heard of him since.

Campbell, of Eugene, members of the Oregon Press Association, will go to Yreka Saturday to arrange for the annual meeting of the association, which is expected to take place in August.

In conversation with Mr. Joe Southwell and other sheep owners in this county we learn that the police court will be a great hush-hush to them, and worse in its effects than free wool. The limits take in some of the pasture in this county and if the law is enforced stockmen will have to drive their sheep long distances for summer range.

Speaking of the Sletiz re-creation the Toledo Leader remarks: "There are hundreds of acres of good land in Oregon in over all upon which are unallotted to the Indians. If anyone expects to go and get an improved farm that some Indian has been living on for 100 years, they will be sadly fooled. But if they want good land that will be a regular cash crop when improved, they can find it."

Charles Smelling has gone to his home at McMinnville. Delinquent taxes are being paid in at the rate of $200 daily. Rheumatism in the back, shoulders, hips, ankles or wrists is caused by accumulation of acid in the blood.

THE DALLES PORTAGE. The story of Damon and Pythias is older than the wonderful story told by the evangelists. The beautiful myth, tradition or history, in matters not with it is called, is of an event which antedates the Christian era by a period of time equal to that which intervenes between the discovery of America by Columbus and the present year.

SALMON RUN. Prospects of a Better Catch Within a Few Days. Reports received by Charles Lauer of this city indicate that during the next few days the salmon fishing industry will show marked improvement.
