the legislature, definitely refusing to obey the order of the governor-general to restore Roman Catholic parochial schools, was mailed to Lord Aberdeen last night. Premier Greenway said he feared that the Roman Catholics of Quebec and Ontario would now force the Dominion government to pass remedial legislation overiding the Manitoba national school act. "It will be an unfortunate position, declared the premier, "but we shall resist the re-establishment of Roman Catholic schools to the bitter end. fanitoba will never be coerced!" It was suggested that to resist the nigher authority would mean revoluion. To this the premier said:

"Those who talk of revolution talk nonsense. We shall find other constitutional means. If the Dominion government passes legislation disallowing our school act, we can alter its phraseology somewhat, so as to make it a new act, but with the same effect, and then call a special session of the legislature and have it re-enacted. We can re-enact as fast as the Domin ion government can disallow."

This idea of the premier's is a contingency that the supporters of Roman Catholic schools have never thought of, and is likely to cause consternation

The pope instituted the apostolic to checking this independence. Cardinal Gibbons came to voice the American disapproval of this step. Meantime the matter has been carefully studied. The result is Satolli will be made a cardinal. This, together with the special attention shown Cardinal Gibons must need tend to convince him that the presentation of the bishop's memorial would be both useless and inopportune, so it is hoped that he will carry it back to America. These incidents have caused man persons to think that the election of a foreign pope is not improbable, and the pope himself favors the idea.

"ON TO CUBA." eral Quesada's First Expedition Vig orously Moving South. NEW YORK, June 21 .- The World says General Quesada is moving vig-orously toward Cuba. His first exdition of 250 men, chiefly enlisted in Brooklyn, Jersey City, Coney Island and Perth Amboy, has gone in two companies for the south. The main body went by the Pennsylvania rail-road to Norfork, Va., and from there were ticketed to Tampa, Fla. These points will be the temporary basis of perations, until the recruits are conveyed to the place of final departure and embark for Cuba.

The purpose of General Quesada's recent mission in the south is now more fully revealed. Besides extending the Cuban system of raising troops through the gulf states, General ada made careful investigation of he reported violation of the neutrality laws. The result is several petitions lestined for the Unit ment, protesting againgt the whole-sale usurpation of American rights inside the three-mile shore limit.

The most formidable protest, it is said, has been sent to the state department, and embodies the facts concerning the alleged illegel boarding of vessles and yachts on the Florida FEARED INDIAN TROUBLES.

Cheyennes Conditionally Threaten to Put BRIDGEPORT, Blaine county, Okla., June 21.—The trouble at Arapahoe arising out of the shooting of Red Lodge by Deputy Sheriff Burch is still intense. Red Lodge is still alive, but cannot live, and the Indians are making threats to be carried out when he dies. On the day of the shooting the Indians were much excited and threatening, but were quieted by troop A, Third cavalry, Captain Mc-Kin, which is in camp near town. The Indians sent couriers to Fort Reno and to the Kiowa reservation. If the whites can identify Red Lodge as the man who assaulted Mrs. Hays they will hang him. John Hansel, an educated Cheyenne Indian, said: "I fear my people will rise against the white men. The whites have imposed upon them beyond endurance. I saw old them beyond endurance. I saw old Red Lodge at Watonga. He said if his son died the Indian warriors would go on the war path and wipe out the people of Arapahoe."

An effort is being made to take from a tribe of Indians called the Metlakahtlas, an island in Alaska, which in 1887 was ceded to them by the United States government. The land is in southeastern Alaska, and is known as Annette island. The natives have improved the land, erected public buildings, churches, saw mills and tilled the soil. A few months ago prospectors who were going up the prospectors who were going up the coast had occasion to land on the island for a few hours' rest, and one of them discovered a gold quartz ledge. The men immediately staked out claims and applied to the government for mineral patents. The Indians entered a protest, which was favorably considered by the department, and the miners have since taken an appeal, and if money and influence can over-rule the Indians, mining operation will be commenced.

lowing: "Last Tuesday forenoon Leo, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Rogers, was thrown from a horse near their home at Gray Butte and killed. Mr. Rogers was away from home, in Williamette valley, and Mrs. Rogers was alone with the children at the time of the unfortunate accident. A horse had jerked away from one of the smaller boys while he was leading it to water early Tuesday morning, and Leo mounted another horse and went on the range to bring it back. Not re-

As the time drew near for the publicity of the awards, it seemed as if everyone felt that the "Kimball" would be among the "best mentioned." This feeling seemed to pervade among all people who were interested in music, and the who were interested in music, and the observation that struck me most of all was, that it mattered little whether hey were friends of this instrument
