Victims of the Pendleton Fi ica -- Durrent Will be Tried With Twelve Jurors.

SEATTLE. Aug. 9.—A long-standing feud in Samisn, Skagit county, ended this morming in a savage battle. in which six men were injured, two of them perhaps fatally. The quarrel arose between Edward Baldwin, a saloon-keeper, who has recently started a ferry from Samish to Edison, and A Wheeler, who occasionally worked for J. W. White, owner of the ferry which has been running for several years.

White was at work on the beach below the bluff, on which his house is located, and Wheeler was on the front porch. Baldwin and his followers came up and began abusing Wheeler in a threatening manner, and Wheeler called White. Then Baldwin and his followers left. Wheeler and White when Baldwin, Ozro Perkins, L. Toop and A. Worden appeared and followed.

The approach to the warehouse is long and at the left is a stairway leading down to the appearance of the appearance o White started down this stairway to his sloop, and Wheeler continued toward the warehouse. Here he was overtaken by Baldwin, Perkins and Toop, and the fight began. It cannot be definitely

When the smoke cleared away Wheeler was injured and attempted to escape around the warehouse, but was overtaken, his pursuers beating him in a brutal manner. He made another attempt to es-cape, running aroung to the door of the warehouse, and falling as Whar-finger Dean appeared at the door. Meanwhile White had climed to the wharf and was going to Wheeler's rescue, when he was struck on the read with an iron bar by Worden and fell unconscious. Wheeler's pursuers were driven off by Wharfinger Dean, but repeatedly renewed their attacks with the intention of finishing the victim; also threatening the wharfinger unless he desisted from interfering. Wheeler was shot and kicked and beaten after falling, and it is due to Wharfingers

Dean's firmness that he is now alive.

the capital of the province of Sechuen, in western China, are that all but one in western China, are that all but one of the 100 or more missionaries of the various societies have been driven down the Yang-tse-Kiang. The trouble must have come suddenly. At Cheng Tu, belonging to our mission, were Mr. and Mrs. Granger and family, Mrs. Cormuck, Miss Hols and Miss Riley and a Scotchman named Vail, the only missionary now remaining in that region. At Yah Choo we had no people, but the American Baptists were represented there.

"At Choon King, on the Yang-tse-Kiang, in the same province, there are four missions—ours, the Methodist, the London missions, the French and the Scotch Bible Society. The place has about 500,000 inhabitants and has a British vice-consul. Our people there are Mr. and Mrs. Wills. I do not know what has be me of those

MASON CITY, Ia., Aug. 9.-Bishop Thorbourn the missionary bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church, was interviewed last night relative to the massacre of the Christians in China, and, knowing all about the conditions there, he pronounces the situation and, knowing all about the conditions there, he pronounces the situation very alarming. He is fearful that a general slaughter will soon follow. He looks for China to attempt to kill or famish all missionaries, but says that he does not believe that this can be done. Asked regarding his opinion as to what should be done, he said the European powers should at once put a European powers should at once put a strong armed force at the principal ports of China and the nation should be taken by the throat and made to behave. What is true of China, he ays, is true of Turkey.

PENDLETON, Or.. Aug. 9.—The mystery regarding the number of persons burned in the fire Wednesday night has been cleared by Night Clerk Wilson, of the Transfer house, discovering that he made a mistake in registering the guest. He wrote J. D. Taylor, instead of J. D. Tilton. Tilton is here, and Taylor is thus proven an imaginary man. This leaves four men to be accounted for, all four bodies having been recovered. At the express office was found today a telescope valise, sent from the Cas-cade Locks to l'endleton by George H. Clackings. It was examined, and i... Clackings. KILLED HIS FATHER.

NORTH YAKIMA, Aug. 12.-Charle McGonigle, a man 30 years old is in jail in this city; his father is a corpse, and Blacksmith Eaves is at the point of death; all the result of an aspersion of the character of Eaves' daughters by young McGonigle. The shooting occurred late last night, and the cor-

The facts are that Charles McGoni-gle had told the neighbors that, in his behalf, the Eaves girls were not virtu-ous, and had further ordered his adopted sister to have nothing to do with them. He had also caused to be printed in a local paper a story reflecting upon the character of the Eaves girls. Mr. Eaves. Sunday night, drove to the McGonigle ranch, distant some to the McGonigle ranch, distant some two miles, to have a retraction. He was accompanied by his wife and one of his daughters. Upon nearing the house he saw Charles McGonigle, and called him to the gate. He said he would stand by any remarks he had made. The Eaves family alighted from the wagon and entered the gate together. McGonigle ran. The Eaves people went to the house, knocked, and were invited in. The wife and daughter entered, Mr. Eaves remaining on the stoop, in front of the door Ing on the stoop, in front of the door.

He talked a moment or so: said he came to see Charles, and refused to enter, and stepped off the stoop. Old man McGonigle came round the corner of the house at this moment. Eaves approached him and put his hand on McGonigle's shoulder in a friendly way, and said he had come to see why Charles had circulated scandals about Charles had circulated scandals about his daughters. A rifle at the rear at this time cracked, and McGonigle fell and died in a few minutes, shot through the intestines. Eaves fled into the house and extinguished the light. Charles advanced to the house door, and, seeing Miss Eaves in a room

He then fired at her, but she stepped aside, and the bullet struck Eaves in the groin. Eaves fired a small revolver at Charles, but missed. The latand gave himself up, saying he had shot his father accidentally.

PENDLETON. Or.. Aug. 12.—Sensational developments were promised in the Transfer House fire case, and they have come. Hints have been given that the authorities suspected that murder and robbery were features of the tragedy. Today a charge of murder was laid at the door of two young men. Frank Whetstone and C. Moore, known as "Kid" Moore, were arrested the day following the fire, and held for the larceny of a chunk of melted gold from the debris of the hotel, obtained while raking the ashes. The state caused a continuance from day to day, until today, when the larceny charge was dismissed and the prisoners were immediately rearrested on a complaint charging them with robbing George H. The government of Brazil, in furtherance of the Trinidade episode, has asked the government of Uruguay for a copy of the bill of health of the warship Barracouta, which arrived in port from the Moutevideo islands last Jan uary. It is reported in Brazil that when the Barracouta reached heranchorage the health officer received documents signed by the doctor on board the warship, who had been named as health officer of the island of Trinidade by the captain of the Barracouta, who looked upon the island as British territory. No notice was taken by the authorities of Uruguay of the fact that Brazil claims Trinidade island as her own possession. The action of Uruguay is regarded by Brazil as savoring of subterfuge.

miles. A few years ago Mr. Hill left The Dalles with only $5 in his pocket and a cayuse on a prospecting tour. He had faith that in the interior there were yet undiscovered gold fields, and was determined to discover them. Arriving in Grant county he struck camp, and passed a few days looking over the country. Not being successful at first, he recollected the advice that an old Californian had given him, and that was to place a $20 gold piece in when the Barracouta reached her anchorage the health officer received documents signed by the doctor on board the warship, who had been named as health officer of the island of Trinidade by the captain of the sum and the tweet was a deposit of gold the camp, and passed a few days looking over the country. They secured about $10, and swore they would kill the driver if they did not get more next time. There were three passengers on board—Alisky and Towne, two well-known Portland men, and a lady, who offered her watch, which was refused by the robbers.

Sheriff Meddocks and Deputy Moody have gone to Mulino to investigate the robbery. The same stage and driver. Hank Mattoon, was held up about four weeks ago, and a passenger, Mr. Levy, of Portland, robbed, not far from the same locality.
