SETTLED WITHOUT BLOWS. The Present Status of the Omaha Police

Muddle. CMAHA, Neb., Aug. 14.-The situa ion in the Omaha police muddle has not changed materially. Since an early hour the city hall has been counded by a large crowd, mostly nade to disperse them. The A. P. A. commission convened at 10 o'clock in the rooms reserved for their use by the city council. Their quarters were rowded by probably 200 sympathizers A letter was sent the old commission ever, stating the object. The old comnission agreed and the meeting is now in progress in the mayor's office. After an animated discussion, during which the old fire and police commis sion refused any compromise except on the basis of permitting the suprer court to pass on the situation, the P. A. commission consented, and was agreed that the old commission should continue to conduct the office of the city until a decision was rendered. This was considered a definite settlement.

Soldiers on the Isthmus.

PANAMA. Aug. 14.-General Casabianca. commander-in-chief of the armies of the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, arrived at Cartagena recently and is expected here August 15, with ensation has developed in the Durrant of Bricano. This will increase to 1000 men the force of regular soldiers on the isthmus. It is rumored that the general intends to establish temporary headquarters here. It is the first time in history that such a large force has Innovation entails monthly expenses amounting to $70,000 in silver currency. There is at present nothing known or apparently to justify this military display, and consequent expenditure.

A Famous Painter

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 15-Thomas Hovender, who was killed by a Pennsylvania railroad train near Norris town last evening, was one of the leading artists that America has pro-duced. His best-known painting. "Breaking Home Ties," has been engraved probably more than the work of any other American artist. and is a familiar object on the walls of chousands of homes in the United States. The painting was one of the most notable groups of American paintings at the world's fair. A more recent painting is "Bringing Home-the Bride," which was exhibited at the world's fair, and again in 1894, in the
