> LONDON, Sept. 20 .- There was ad litional interest in the fruit sales at Covent Garden today, owing to the fact that there were two auction sale of California fruits, which arrived by the American line steamship New York. One consignment of 200 cases of pears was all sold by Garcia, Jacobs & Co., and the other of 3000 cases of pears, grapes and plums, were sold by White & Co.

Both auctioneers sold Bureau Clairgeau pears packed by the Hemme Orchard Company. On these Gracia, Jacobs & Co. realized 11s to 13s per case. White & Co., 11s to 12s 6d. The fruit was in much better condition than the last consignment sold here. Bartlette, Williams and Flemish Beauty pears sold from 8s to 12s per case and Buerra Hardy from 11s to 15s. Forty cases of Winter Nellis pears brought 5s against 6s to 10s for the same variety last year. Dealers here said it is yet too early in the season to ship this variety of pears.

Much attention was given the ex treme fullness of the cases, which please the buyers and enhanced the rices. It was also remarked that where leaves had been left upon the em, the fruit seemed more desira-

Today's fine weather insured perfect condition for the test of strength and skill. It was thought by many before the games began that the hammer-throwing, shot-putting and running high jumping were at the mercy of the American athletes. There was, however, a wide difference of opinion as to the outcome of the other events, namely the 100 and 120-yard races, the quarte mile, half-mile, one and three-mile runs, the 120-yard hurdle and the running broad jump. The men selected by both sides for each of these two events were so closely matched that it would have been difficult to have said which side had the better chance. Bradley, the English sprinter, has shown speed in the trials at Berkeley Oval that surprised everybody, and Wefers and Crum, the American sprinters, have been doing everything asked of them by Mike Murphy, the Traverse island traner. LONDON, Sept. 20.—A special dispatch from Shanghai states that the Chinese expect to retake possession of the Liao Tong peninsula about the middle of October.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Judge Dunne has issued a writ of habeas corpus for the release of Charles Hirsen, who is confined in the Dunning asylum. Hirsch was tried and committed to Dunning September 5, under the name of "Kirsch." He was tried on the petiton of George S. Olsen, who, the present petition says, has known him by his right name for several years. Just before his commitment the pe-
