ITEMS IN BRIEF.

From Wednesday's Daily. Mrs. Newman went to Portland this

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houghton went to Portland this afternoon. Messrs. Dave Hagerty and James

Sommers, of Cherry creek, are in the Miss Jetty Star, of Dufur, arrived home from a visit to the Portland Exposition last night. Mr. W. H. Mansfield, an old-time printer and newspaper man of Salem, has been in the city today. The first ice of the season formed here this morning, but there was only enough of it to say that it was ice.

The funeral of Captain George J. Ainsworth took place yesterday morning from the family residence in Port-

Congressman Hermann says an appropriation of $1,000,000 will be asked this winter for improving the Willa-The Elks of the Cascade Locks will yisit The Dalles, this week, probably Saturday night, coming up on the new The funeral of the late Mrs. M. Ella Huff took place from the residence of her father, Mr. H. S. Ward, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Annie L. Fulton and Charles W Diekman both of Sherman county, were in the city this morning, and made final proof on their timber-culture Mr. Stublings house on First stree is being overhauled, repainted and papered. It is the old Bonzy place, and is evidently to be occupied by acres of land, and is rich enough yet to give every family a 50-acre farm-though some of the land would be hard Mr. E. L. Fane left last night for his old home in Texas. He expects to be gone a year or two but likes Oregon and expects to return and reside here The weather for tomorrow, as ordered by the weather bureau, is "fair and warmer." The barometer indicates a continuation of the present fair weather for some time. The type is being set on the pamphlet on the resources of Wasco county, and 5,000 copies will be printed. The book will contain about thirty pages this office. of reading matter, and half as many devoted to illustrations. In New York they are having heavy freezing point, and up in Minnesota Middle Columbia. and Michigan snow is flying. The case of Ned Wicks against Wm. Wiley, being an action to recover damages for tresspassing of the lat- do it? Little Girl-Four nours. ter's sheep on the former's garden, Teacher-Wrong. It would only take which was tried Monday and taken under advisement by Justice Davis, plaintiff judgment for $25. The regular chrysanthemum show a the exposition will be held the last days of the fair, Nov. 4th and 5th. The show will be under the auspices of the floral section of the Oregon Horticultural Society, and will be, in our opinexcepting the Wasco County fruit ex-

Corbett announced yesterday that he turn over the championship to the and championship, Corbett changed

It is Heppner's turn to have a series If Black Prince made the time he is credited with he is a world-beater.

Now that there is a heavy run of "Something that makes your potatoes world, but it never gets divided. taste bad when you don't put any on."

here at all.

From Thursday's Daily. Mayor Menefee and wife went to Portland this afternoon. J. C. Burkes, an attorney of Moro was down from that city yesterday. Ed. Hill went to Portland this morning, and will remain there two or three

The excursion to Cascade Locks next Sunday will probably be the last

Judge Fulton and wife, of Sherman county, were in the city yesterday, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Biggs Margaret A. Baxter of Poplar, Grant county, and Mary E. Gilliam, of Wagner, the same county, made homestead filings today.

The chrysanthemum show at the Portland exposition will be held about Nov. 3 and 5, and will be well worth

Two final homestead proofs taken before commissioner Hendricks at Winlock, in Grant county, reached the land office here today. The body of poor Mollie Coe arrived at Hood River this morning, and was laid away to rest in the little cemetery near her childhood's home. The Cascade Elks will be he started here in the near future A large band of sheep was brought forfeited his bail—$5, and the other that gentleman and Mr. E. A. Smith. across the river this afternoon, coming was fined $10, which up to the hour of The party will then proceed to Hawfrom the pastures around Mt. Adams, and is on its way to winter quarters. The trial of Professor Adams for will not be enriched at his expense, beating an unruly boy was being held | Special Attorney DeWitt is located iderable editorial comment. The struck amiss by the professor was when he missed him.

Mr. Wheeler, of Hay Creek, is it county, Washington, where he has been looking after the estate of his brother, who was killed last summer. The work at the Locks is an interesting sight to anybody and especially to residents of The Dalles. The excursion Sunday will afford all an opportunity to see the work as the boat will remain there four hours.

S. H. DeWitt, special attorney for the government, who is engaged in taking testimony in Indian depredation claims, is registered at the Umatilla House, and will examine into such cases as may be brought before him.

Nearly every one of our exchanges have a case or two of burglary to report. We have had nothing of the kind here, but as there seems to be an epidemic of it, it is well enough to keep an eye out for the professionals. County court meets one week from

Monday, and the commissioners court the Wednesday following. If you have any bills against the county get them in before the last named day, or don't kick because they are not acted upon. Up in Idaho a United States judge, who had a little leisure, appointed another Northern Pacific railroad receiver yesterday. It was probably done to fill the vacancy caused by the side tracking of the one mentioned by us yesterday. Mr. Triplow, of Hood River, who has been traveling for the Jewett Nurseries, is in the city, on his way home from Idaho. He was fairly successful in taking orders for nursery stock and is impressed with the future greatness of Idaho as a fruit producer. One half the papers of the state are bound to marry Miss Strahan to the Oakland preacher, Rev. Edward Davis. Miss Strahan and the other half of the papers are vigorously denying the statement. We have concluded to pull out of the fight and from this on will remain neutral. Jack Dempsey is dying in Portland, and a few months at the most will see the end. His calling was not an a very honorable one but such as it was Dempsey honored it. He was as much of a gentleman as his calling would permit. We understand the marriage of the Duke of Marlborough or Buckingham or some other place to Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt is to be celebrated in New York city early next month. We can hardly give credence to the rumor, as no invitations have been received at

Captain Pegram, at one time superintendent of the water lines of the O. R. & N., while that line was under peaches and tomatoes. In Dakota the Pegram distinguished himself by taking all the O. R. &

Teacher-If one servant girl fould clean two rooms in two hours, how long would it take two servant girls to one hour. Little Girl-O, I didn't know you was talkin' about servant was decided today, the court giving girls that wasn't on speaking terms. The larger part of the Cascade reservation can be thrown open next spring if the proper effort is made to have it done. Several townships along the line of the Cascade wagon road have been surveyed this fall, and ion, the best exhibit at the fair, always their lands. This will be a very good burned and had there been any wind entering wedge. Major-General Miles, who believes had fought his last fight and would military use, says: "The wheel can be several times, and it was only by hard winner of the Maher-O'Donnell fight, not be used. You cannot swim a river other buildings were saved. The danbut when Fitzsimmons' manager said on a bicycle, but you can conceal it ger is not over yet, nor will it be unif Corbett was not on hand when time there for several days, fish it up and til the rains set in, as the least wind was called he would claim the money ride away, which you cannot do with a would cause a general conflagration.

She was cosily entrenched upon his shoulder and they were very, very of races now, the fall meeting begin- happy. "George," she whispered, and Mazamas and Mazameresses may posning there yesterday. According to ne bent his head to listen, "do you the dispatches in the Oregonian this know what I would do if your love for morning Black Prince ran a quarter me should cool?" "Would you die, in 21 seconds, but owing to foul riding dear?" he asked, passionately. "No, the race was ordered run over today. George, I would bring an action for breach of promise."

Every week we read of some vast estate in England, generally consistsalmon at Astoria, the papers of our ing of money deposited in the Bank of neighboring city are not protesting so England, going to be divided among a earlier days. We, noticed an entry loudly against the canning of fall sal- lot of American heirs. In the last Wednesday, made at the Colonel's remon. It was when Astoria was not twenty years there has been more getting any fish that the fall run was money of this kind reported in the no good. A small boy definedsalt to be bank aforesaid then there is in the

The weather for tomorrow is fair The salmon are adopting different and stationary. This item is getting tactics this year from that of other to be somewhat of a chestnut, but as the 22nd, had got around to his dinner years. Last Spring with a heavy run the weather is always in evidence, the just one day late. the middle river. This fall when As- truth and veracity, will not permit toris had no fish there was a good run him to alter, change or vary the aphere, and composed largely of Chin- pearance of the skies or the tempera ooks. Now Astoria is having a heavy ture of the air. If it wasn't here all after delivering about 80 head of catrun of Silversides and there are none the time, however, it would be differ-

From Friday's Daily. Mr. M. T. Nolan went to Portland

A slight breeze started up this after noon, the first for several days. With fair weather Sunday the excureverybody. went to Portland this morning to take | which last Saturday was 40 cents .in the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Graves, who have been attending the exposition at ast night.

Abraham L. Disbrow and wife ves Hood River for the sum of $200.

vards this afternoon. Mr. Butler Spokane is a triffe short on dogs ac-which places the number at 5,630. That is only one dog for every five inhabitants, or one to each voter.

The trial of Professor Adams, at

The chances are that the city treasury in Portland yesterday, and will proba- at the Umatilla House, and will probdence in the case, besides giving con- examination by him but it is probable they will not be taken up until spring. chances are the only blow that was When he gets through here Mr. De Witt will go to Pendleton. Bissinger & Co., of San Francisco have determined to establish a branch the city on his way home from Skagit house in The Dalles, and on Nov. 1 will open an office and warehouse in the building now occupied by Mr. B. Wolf. This house is one of the largest dealers in hides, pelts and furs on the Pacific coast, having branch establishments all over the Northwest, and their location in The Dalles is a valuable addition to the business interests

The band boys will be out tonight in force, and will give an open-air concert. Just where they will hold forth has not been decided upon, but it will be under one of the arc lights, and they can easily be found by the noise they make. Strangers are requested not to mistake them for the Salvation Army, for while all of them are good nusicians, none of them have had any experience as public exhorters or ex-

Judge Leatherman, of Kansas, to whom was referred the question as to whether Corbett and Fitzsimmons could fight at Hot Springs, decided the other day that there was nothing in oon as this decision was made known fighters nearly injured themselves in their wild scramble to have the fight topped. This was done by Corbett's by Fitzsimmons, would not consent. needed rest, and let the bruisers alone.

The County Must Pay.

Wednesday, says the Oregonian, Judge Shattuck decided a case of Jus tice Geisler against the county o Multnomah, involving the payment of certain fees, in favor of the plaintiff. The court held that in holding prisoner to answer to the grand jury, the justice should be allowed for making each order a fee of 35 cents. The county court refused to allow 40 cents, or 10 cents per folio, for filing and preparing each transcript for the county. Judge Shattuck ruled that this also must be paid. The case was argued before Judge Shattuck by George W. Hazen for the plaintiff and J. B. Thompson for the defendant. Justice Geisler will now prosecute a fees disallowed by the county court, amounting to about $1,000.

Henri Dunant's Old Age. Henri Dunant, the originator of the Red Cross movement, was found in misery recently in a little village in Canton of Appenzell, in Switzerland. me to founding the association which has relieved the distresses of thousands in all parts of the world. As soon as his situation became known, most of the Red Cross committees of Europe, including those of Brussels, Paris, Berlin, Vienna and Madrid, set to work to raise a fund to relieve him. It | Cavanaugh. is now likely that he will end his life in comfort. To prevent his being overlooked or forgotten a second time the committees are going to publish a memorial of his work.

Portland suburbs have been exposed to dangerous forest fires. Sevthe company will proceed to select eral thousand cords of wood were immense damage would have been done to buildings. At Pleasant Home the bicycle will ultimately come into the roof of the school house caught used in some places where a horse can- and persistent fighting that it and It is needless perhaps to add that the fires were not started by sheepmen, though Mr. Steele and some of his sibly lay it on to them. A Mine of Informatio

The register at the Umatilla House contains many things besides the names of guests, years ago, Colonel Sinnott made a practice of entering upon it, the happening of important events and now the old files are a veritquest, by an old townsman Mr. James Faris. For a number of years Mr. Faris has been invited to his birthday dinner at the Umatilla, and the entry was to the effect that the old gentleman who, was 86 years old on

The Best Market.

Napoleon B. Hastain and Wm. Keys returned from The Dalles Wednesday, tle there for the Union Meat Co., purchased from them and others in this the prices they obtained, having gained about $1.50 per head by taking the cattle to The Dalles. They sold by weight and the cows brought about sion to the Locks will be a treat to Ed. Putnam brought over $20. Napoleon says The Dalles is lively, with lots Mr. and Mrs. Dinsmore Parrish of wheat coming in, the price paid for Fossil Journal. A Fine Display. No better evidence of the prolific Portland, arrived on the Regulator soil and wonderfel climate of Wasco county can be found than the display of fruit and vegetables visible at the terday sold to Marion F. Loy block 6 grocery stores. At J. B. Crossen's ground in Pine Nut, a mining district in Winans addition to the town of this morning we noticed a fine display of peaches, seventy boxes of which H. D. Dunham, of Hay Creek, de-livered 116 head of beef at the stock Portland. Besides these there were was A. C. Pratt—a printer, politician, grapes, as fine as ever ripened beneath bought the cattle and shipped them to Italian skies, apples in innumerable varieties, crates of muskmelons, boxes of great red tomatoes, cucumbers and cording to the Chronicle of that city garden stuff in endless quantities, and in fact everything that midsummer and early fall furnishes elsewhere.

Dr. Henderson and Jos. R. King Portland charged with assault and took their departure Sunday morning battery in whipping a small boy in the for a ten days' hunt in the mountains urday night, sure. We are told a terday, the jury finding him not guilty. Eagle. The gentlemen will stop on Two victims of inebriety were be- the John Day at the ranch of Gus fore the recorder this morning. One | Smith where they will be joined by going to press he had not liquidated. kins Flat in quest of bear, thence into the mountains on the North Fork for deer. The gentlemen are well equipped for any kind of game and expect to bag some "big meat."

bly be completed today. The Oregonian devotes two columns to the evi-

THE WALLA WALLA STYLE.

changed in the Court Room. They had a law suit in Walla Walla the other day, and according to the Union it was a "hot number." Attorney Dovell, for the defense refused to introduce any testimony, relying upon that of the prosecution, and the argument was made. We print a small section of the same, from each side. The Union says:

"Turner addressed the jury in hi own behalf. He said he had expected to make his speech entirely upon the evidence which would be presented by Cavanaugh and was therefore unprepared. He consumed ten minutes, however, in heaping vituperations upon Attorney Dovell and his client, applying to the latter such epithets as 'liar," "thief." "scoundrel," "criminal," and "coward." Cavanaugh, he said was afraid to go upon the stand.

"I have always had the highest regard for Mr. Dovell," he said, "and hoped he might reach the highest ound in the ladder of his profession. but I am sorry to see him the boon companion of such a contemptible and cowardly criminal as P. J. Cavanaugh." He closed with a diatribe against lawyers in general saying that the laws of Arkansas to prevent it. As it was a well-known fact that they were dishonest and that their oaths would both the loud-mouthed long-distance not be taken upon the witness stand. Then the attorney got his innings and handled the bat as follows:

"I charge J. M. Turner with being a ackers proposing a postponement to self-confessed perjurer," cried-the elowhich Fitzsimmons' backers, backed quent young attorney, with a dramatic The result was that the fight was de- to which he swore positively in his exclared off. It is sincerely to be hoped amination. One was that his name that the big daily papers will now give | was J. M. Turner and the other was the long-suffering public a much- the one in which he confessed to having sworn to a lie in the justice court during his preliminary examination for embezzlement, in order to save himself from the penitentiary." In speaking of the motive which inspired Turner to induce Mrs. Rogers to bring the suit Mr. Dovell said: "For the ten minutes of persons gratification in which he was permitted to abuse Mr. Cavanaugh before you, he has cherished his hatred for over a year, has brought Mrs. Rogers into court, the witnesses and put the taxpayers to great expense. In that ten minutes he purged himself of all his vindictiveness and all his rotten spleen. I warrant you he feels better since he has vomited it up. If your verdict is against him it will have the effect of keeping him out of the courts, the county and the state. Of course suit which he has on file, to recover Mr. Turner as it would be to the courts and the community.' Mr. Dovell closed with the following his perjured soul." The instructions of the court were then read and the jury returned a ver-CONCERNING ISOLATED LANDS.

As we have received several letter of inquiry concerning the law allowing the purchase of isolated lands, we print the law, and also an extract from the instructions of the commissioner of the land office, to the officers of the local land offices:

"Sec. 2455. It shall be lawful for the Commissioner of the General Land Office to order into market and sell for not less than one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre any isolated or disconnected tract or parcel of the public domain less than one quarter section which, in his judgment, it would be proper to expose to sale after at least thirty days' notice by the land officers of the district in which such lands may be situated: Provided. That lands shall not become so isolated or disconected until the same have been subect to homestead entry for a period of has been entered, filed upon, or sold by shall be sold by any one person.' Approved February 26, 1895. The instructions to the local land officers are in part as follows:

"Hereafter when an application made to you by any one for the proper proceedings to be entered upon in order that any tract of land may be ordered into market at public sale by the it is covered with timber or contains stone or any mineral, whether it is agricultural in character, for what purpose the land would be chiefly valuasection. They were well pleased with dered into market. It must also be shown that the tract is unoccupied by this trampling upon the creed of the any one having color of title thereto. "It will be observed that no lands $17.50 and the two-year-old steers a as aforesaid until the same shall have trifle over $25. One cow belonging to been subject to homestead entry for a period of three years after the surrounding lands have been entered, filed upon, or sold by the govern-

A VERSATILE PRINTER.

Mining Deal. The dispatches the other day tioned the sale of a lot of placer in Douglas county, Nevada, about 30 miles south of Virginia City. One of telegraph operator, miner, lawyer, fiddler, deputy secretary of state and grand aggregation of odds and ends of information. We remember when Pratt first arrived in the little town of sons calling for these letters will Genoa, the county seat of Douglas please give the date on which they county, and issued the first copy of the | were advertised: Genoa Journal, a four-page five-column weekly, with its subscription price fixed at the modest sum of $4 per year. Pratt wrote the articles, stuck the type, did the press work, played poker | Hickey I of nights and won. In a short time, he began to practice law in the justice courts, running up against the leading attorney in the town (a gentleman named Virgin, who had been on the bench and who was really a fine law yer) and generally beating him with the assistance of the jury. Indeed, he came to be a regular wet blanket to Virgin, being in some unaccountable of law, business or anything else that came up. The elections coming on in way against him on every proposition

the fall Pratt bobbed up serenely for the nomination for prosecuting attorney, beating Virgin hands down and prancing through the election an easy winner. Shortly after this a big dance was given, and of course Judge Virgin was invited. He arrived after the dancing began, and as he entered the door the first object that fell athwart his vision was his old opponent, A. C. Pratt, drawing the bow on the firstfiddle. Virgin was not a profane man, according to the standard of the country, but when he saw Pratt he dropped a few remarks that he had not memo rized from Watt's hymns, and concluded them with "The d-d long-legged demurrer, he can fiddle too." THINK HE IS MISTAKEN. The Farmers Will Get Better Prices, and

A correspondent of the Moro Oberver over the signature of "Merchant" discusses the "Rattlesnake"

"Build that Rattlesnake road to The road proposition as follows:

Dalles and let Sherman county haul all her wheat there and spend all her money there. Patronize The Dalles nerchants and what will the Sherman ounty merchants do? Go out of business? And where will the county papers get their support from? And what is to be done with the warehouse property at Rufus, Biggs and Des. hutes? And the men employed at the warehouses? If the road is built and does the work it is intended for, it will be the worst blow the prosperity of Sherman county ever received. It gesture. "There were only two facts will drive her merchants out of busi ness; the editors will go hungry and the money invested in warehouses and at shipping points in the county will be virtually confiscated. It will increase the taxes on farm property therefore, and it will drive a large part of the population in the river towns away, killing the towns. But build the road by all means. The merchants in the county who always have the welfare of the farmers at heart, as it is virtually their own welfare, the men who have worked early and late to benefit the county, have no rights to > that settles it. NOTE AND COMMENT.

Thus Dishes Up Our Alvah.

consideration at the hands of the clique' who are doing the howling for this road. The Dalles wants the road and the Sherman county money, and

In view of the fact that Alvah W Patterson, managing editor of the that would not be as great a benefit to Heppner Gazette, "has been selected as the orator at the next session of the Knights of Pythias grand lodge," it is there does not seem to be any hope of fitting that the world at large should an immediate improvement. It is be apprised of that gentleman's accom- writing to fill space now, for the sumplishments, the true character of mer outing is over and we are just county are full of cases in which Tur- which has until now been hidden half-way between the period when ner has figured. They tell a story of under a bushel, as it were, the bushel down by the sounding sea or in the snow storms, while here in nearly the Union Pacific control, died at his home In his old age he was suffering in solisame latitude we are gathering in Massachusetts last week. Captain tude from poverty and illness after bing somebody, and if you, gentlemen its pages we quote: "Some one writ- two hearts beat as one and matches having devoted his fortune and his of the jury, do not set the seal of your ing lately of a very charming woman are made; and that other period along disapproval upon him he will go on ly- of society, said she had the head of in November when the divorce ing and cheating and robbing until one of Titian's saints and the soul of begins to grind. the black hinges of hell swing in upon one of Maupassant's sinners. Alvah Patterson, of Heppner, is neither a saint nor a sinner, but the individual, or collection of individuals that take EDY .- Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup dict for the garnishee defendant, P. J. his theological-student look, and quiet, has been used for over fifty years by almost gentle demeanor for the tabernacle of a lamb of innocence are decidedly distant from the exact facts in the premises. Patterson is a greathearted, honorable young man, with all that this implies. He is a wideawake business citizen, acute in the ways of the world, but generous, charitable and jolly withal. His nature is is uncalculable. Be sure and ask for more like that of a deep, strong stream | Mrs. Winslow's Soothing syrup, and than that of one man out of a thousand. He doesn't carry his heart on > does his good humor manifest itself in ebullitions of speech, gesticulation or laughter."

his sleeves for daws to peck at, nor Kaffir Corn. The acreage of Kaffir corn in Kansas this year is larger than ever before, The drought of 1894 taught the farmers that they must prepare for adverse seasons, and the fact that Kaffir corn will stand a dry season when Indian be planted with it. The results have stiff finger. been satisfactory. In some counties ject to homestead entry for a period of three years after the surrounding land yield of the Kaffir corn has run as high as sixty bushels to the acre, and thirty the government: Provided, that not or forty bushels to the acre is considmore than one hundred and sixty acres ered a very ordinary yield. As a bushel of this corn will go as far in fattening cattle and hogs as a bushel of the Indian corn, it can readily be seen that a great point has been gained in its successful production. It seems that the Jackson county populists, having failed in their efforts commissioner of the general land office to reform the county, are now going to under said section, the applicant will undertrke to reform their leaders. be required to furnish an affidavit The excitement among the populist made by himself and duly corroborated | brethren in the county over the action by two witnesses, setting forth the of their principal boss, County Clerk character of the land; stating whether Jacobs, in voting to reduce the railroad assessment from $10,000 to $4,500 per mile continues, and has resulted in the calling of a meeting of the county central committee by Chairman ble, and why he desires the same or- Frank Williams, to meet at Medford next Saturday, to take cognizance of party. It is expected that a mass meeting to denounce Mr. Jacobs' actare subject to be ordered into market ions will follow the meeting of the county central committee.

Truman Butler was married Wednes day at LeCompton, Kansas, and in a short time will arrive home with his bride. Some congratulatory dispatches were sent him yesterday by his young friends and associates here. We never could understand how or why our Dalles girls allowed Truman to be captured by an eastern girl, for they are generally wide awake, but nevertheless the TIMES-MOUNTAINEER extends its paternal blessing to the young couple, and wishes them all manner of pros-

The following is the list of letters remaining in The Dalles postoffice uncalled for October 25, 1895. Per-Brannan, A Beckford, Mr Batter, Dr Berry, Earl Cummings, C C Douglas, James Guiest, J D Conum, H T Davidson, Jack

Marsh, Frank Merrill, Wm Palmer, J M Samuel, J F Mann, Geo Merrill, Wm
Offien, C W Hickerd, Dave
Smithfinch, Mr

Merrill, Wm
Palmer, J M
Samuel, J F
Turner, Mrs J A J. A. CROSSEN P. M.

The Dalles, Portland & Astoria Navigation Co. have made a rate of $2 from The Dalles to Portland and return during the Portland Exposition, limited to ten days from date of sale.

W. C. ALLAWAY,
Gen. Agent

How use ottolene

he new shortening, like all other hings must be rightly used if you wish the best results. Never n any recipe, use more than wo-thirds as much Cottolene as you used to use of lard. Never put Cottolene in a hot pan. Put t in when cold and heat it with the pau. Be careful not to burn Cottolene. To test it, add a drop of water; if hot enough, it will bop. Cottolene, when rightly used, delights everyone. Ge the genuine, sold everywhere in tins, with trade-marks-"Cottolene" and steer's head in cottonplant wreath-on every tin. Made only by THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY, St. Louis Chicago, San Francisco, Portland, Oregon, New York, Boston.

SCHOREN-In this city on Oct. 24th, to the wife of Mathew Schoren, a daughter, EVERDING-OSBORN-At the residence of Mrs. Florence Bagley, in this city, October if Mr. Adolph Everding to Miss Ora Osborn.

MARRIED

The young man had been sick about seve weeks, having first been afflicted with cholera morbus, inflamation of the stomach and typhofever, culminating in brain fever, which was HUFF—At Blalock, Or., Monday, Oct. 21st, Mrs. M. Ella Huff, daughter of H. S. Ward, of this city, aged 36 years.

Pendleton and Eugene papers please copy. Between Extremes.

The amount of business done here these days is simply immense, but it does not make news items. There is a decided failure of crops as far as the newspaper material is concerned, and

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMmillions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twent y-five cents a bottle. Its value take no other kind.

Bertie Baldwin, who went to Mt. Angel about a month ago to attend school, has been, we understand, in the hospital twice since. When he went away he had a felon on one of his fingers, but it was thought to be about well. After getting to school it began to trouble him and it became necessary to have the finger cut open and the bone scraped. Bertie has considerable musical talent, and it is to be hoped corn will dry up caused many fields to the trouble will not leave him with a

To Stuff Politicians With. According to the California papers great quantities of prunes are being shipped to the Eastern markets. The overland shipments from San Jose last week amounted to 5,759,930 pounds of which 3,190,720 pounds were dried And all Points East and South prunes. This was the largest amount of dried prunes ever shipped from San Jose in one week, and was an average of 22 cars per day for the six working days of the week. Prunes are also moving from Portland and other sections of the Northwest. We now have reports from about fifteen carloads.

sible to treat such diseases successfully at a distance, without personal examination of the patient. Thus Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Bladder, Gravel, and other Diseases of the Urinary Organs, "Liver Complaint," Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Dropsy and many other maladies are successfully treated and cured without personal consultation with the physician.

Nervous Debility, whether resulting from over-study, worry, disappointment, or from exhausting drains upon the system caused by prenicious secret habits contracted in youth, through ignorance of their ruinous consequences, is successfully managed, through correspondence, the necessary medicines being sent by mail or express. Write for question blanks, or describe your medicines being sent by mail or express Write for question blanks, or describe you case, send sample of urine for analysis and enclose to cents for postage on treatise which contains reproduced photographs and full names and addresses of vast num

Dr. PIERCE'S PLEASANT

ONCE USED, ALWAYS IN FAVOR. NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. LAND OFFICE AT THE DALLES ORE.

1895, viz: WILLIAM G. OBRIST. Hd. E No. 3522, for the ne 1/4 sec. 9, tp 1 s, r 12 e, V M. He names the following witnesses to prove its continuous residence upon and cultivation OUR·SPECIAL·SALE Saturday, Oct. 26.

PANTS PANTS PANTS

Our Stock of MEN'S, BOYS' and YOUTHS' PANTS

Piled on Our Pants Counter,

50 Per Cent Discount

These goods are marked in plain figures and we

CUT THE PRICE RIGHT IN TWO Your Choice

One-Half of Marked Price See Our Show Windows

ALL GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES.

D. P. & A. N. Co.

Still Another Call.

Wood! Wood! Wood!

ARE YOU GOING EAST?

NORTHWESTERN

--- THE ---

OMAHA RAILWAY.

THIS IS THE

CREAT SHORT LINE

"ALWAYS ON TIME,"

Have given this road a national reputation classes of passengers carried on the vestibuled trainithout extra charge. Ship your freights, and travover this famous lide, All agents have tickets.

W. H. MEAD,
Gon. Agent.
Trav. F. & P., Agt.
248 Washington Street, Portland, Oregon,

The Dalles, Portland and Astoria

Navigation Co

THROUGH

Freight and Passenger Line

Through Daily trips (Sundays excepted) between the Dalles and Portland. Steamer Regulator leaves The Dalles at 8 a. m., connecting at the Cascade Locks with Steamer Dalles City. Steamer Dalles City leaves Portland (Oak street dock) at 7 . m., connecting with Steamer Regulator for The Dalles.

Freight Rates Greatly Reduced

any time, day or night. Shipments for way landings must be delivered before 5 p. m. Live stock shipments solicited. Call on or address,

W. C. ALLAWAY.

General Agent

THE DALLES - OREGON

HENRY L. KUCK,

Harness and Saddlery

Shipments for Portland received at

MINNEAPOLIS and DULUTH.

ST. PAUL.

CHICAGO,

CHICAGO, ST. PAUL,

THE

Jos. T. PETERS & Co.

PEASE & MAYS

Those owing the TIMES-MOUNTAIN-Excursion EER for advertisements, subscription. etc., to Sept. 1, 1895, can settle the same by calling on the undersigned at Wm. Michell's undertaking parlors, corner Third and Washington streets.

JOHN MICHELL.

The Dalles, Oct. 22, 1895.

Sheep Wanted. Cascade Locks I wish to buy seven or eight hundred young ewes. Will psy the cash for them. Call on or address, John Konig, Columbus, Wash.

VIA STEAMER REGULATOR Commencing Monday the 21st, Inst. Commencing Monday the 21st, Inst. the Regulator will leave at seven o'clock A. M. instead of eight o'clock.

Sunday, October 27

All county warrants registered prior to Jan. 14, 1892, will be paid if pre-sented at my office, corner Third and Washington streets, The Dalles, Ore. Interest ceases after Sept. 22, 1895. ORCHESTRA UNION

Round Trip 50e

Tickets can be procured at the principal business houses or from member of The Orchestra Union. Oak, fir and slab wood at minimum rates. Send us your order from the Full Brass Band in Attendance

THE GERMANIA

Fine Wines, Liquors and Cigars

STUBLING & WILLIAMS, PROPS.

All brands of Imported Liquors, Ale and Porter, and Genuine Key West Cigars. A Full Line of CALIFORNIA: WINES: AND: BRANDIES

Twelve-year-old Whiskey, strictly pure, for medicinal purposes. Malt Liquor. Columbia Brewery Beer on draught.

94 Second Street. THE DALLES, OR

RUPERT & CABEL Wholesal and retail manufacturers of and dealers in Harness, Saddles, Bridles, Collars, Tents, and Wagon Covers.

And All Articles kept in a First Class Herness Shop.

REPAIRING PROMPTLY DONE. Opposite Moody's Warehouse THE DALLES OREGON.

"The Regulator Line" B. A. HUNSAKER'S CASH GROCERY STORE

Is the place to buy Groceries, Confectionary, Fruit. Nuts, Wood and Willow Ware, Crockery, Cutlery, in fact a General Stockmen's Supply store.

Wesell for cash, which enables us to give

More Goods for a Dollar Than any store in The Dalles. New Goods arriving every day and sold at Bedrock Prices. Call and examine

Moses Old Stand

NEXT DOOR TO DIAMOND MILLS.

in crockery call at J. B. Crossen's. Tea Sets, - Dinner Sets, - Single Pieces Open Stock

BRILLIANT. If you want to see some pretty patterns

A fine lot of Lamps, French China, English Semi-Porcelain and Holiday Goods to arrive soon.

J. B. CROSSEN,