

ITEMS IN BRIEF.

From Wednesday's Daily. Mrs. D. M. French left today for San Francisco. C. J. Costworth, of Buffalo, N. Y., is in the city. Miss Maggie Newman, of Princeton, is in the city. James Taffe left by this afternoon's train for San Francisco. The rain falls on the just and unjust, and the Dalles is included in the list today. Frank Hawthorn arrived from Portland last night and will remain in the city a few days. Last night D. P. Ketchum shipped two carloads of mutton from the stockyards to Troutdale. J. B. Cartwright, manager of the B. S. & L. Co. at Hay Creek, was in the city today, on route to Portland. The grand jury found a true bill against Dr. Boehman of Hood River charging him with embezzlement. The two boys who were arrested Monday night for fighting a Chinaman were discharged last evening, after having had 24 hours punishment. The case of the State vs. Skibbe and Huguenin for assault and battery was dismissed by Justice Davis last night, the evidence being insufficient to sustain the charges. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McCachern, of Mitchell, arrived here last night from Portland, owing to the sickness of their little boy they will probably remain in the city a few days. Mahara's Minstrels, all colored artists, had a good week at the Gem Opera House, 7th-12th. They play a return date at the same house next season—Seattle, Wash., Herald. In the case of R. A. Power, of Mosier, who was placed under bonds about six months ago, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, with intent to kill, the grand jury returned not a true bill. T. A. Ward, accompanied by his wife and daughter, left this morning for Los Angeles, Calif. For some time past Mr. Ward has been suffering from lung troubles, and hopes a winter spent in the southern part of California will prove beneficial to his health. Two deeds were filed for record today. Albert Kellery to Jas. S. Brown, 21 acres in new sec. 1, T. 5, S. R. 12, E. 70, and Geo. W. Bunyon and wife to Mary Splinks, parcel of land in T. 1, N. R. 13, E. 60. The industrious bill poster will now have occupation for a few days. Along with the old telephone poles that have been removed from Seaside street have come a large number of advertising bills that will have to be replaced in order to make the city have its natural appearance. Yesterday morning the sheriff of Clatsop county arrested Messrs Egan, Bradford and Ziegler, at White Salmon, for cutting and moving the fence from the property of C. D. Moore. The sheriff took the warrant to them and they came up under arrest in charge of themselves last night, and went on to Goldendale this morning. From Thursday's Daily. Wm. Cantrell, of Dufur, is in the city. C. G. Roberts returned to Hood River today. One carload of hogs was shipped from the stockyards today. This has been an uninteresting day in court. Little has been done except to argue motions and adjournments. Today the Baptist Seminary is moving into the building formerly occupied by the TIMES-MOUNTAINEER. The case of the State vs. Dr. Boehman will probably come up for hearing in the circuit court next Monday. Fred Phelps, while working with the Ferris wood saw yesterday, got one of his hands in contact with the saw and had several fingers badly lacerated. The semi-annual statement of Baker county, just published, shows the total liabilities of that county to be $191,487.51, and the net liabilities, after deducting all resources, is $102,487.51. The Indians on the Umatilla reservation protest against the sale of liquor to their race, and the older men of the tribe complain asking the authorities at Washington to inaugurate measures to prevent the same. This action is indeed commendable. The rains this week have been of great benefit to the entire county. They have been pretty general throughout Eastern Oregon, and have been sufficient to put the ground in condition for plowing. Farmers everywhere are reported busy turning over the soil. Messrs. J. E. Woodcock, Geo. Miller and Joseph Kiser, of Wamic, were in the city today on business before the land office. These gentlemen say fall grain in the vicinity of Wamic is looking well, the rains of the past few days having helped its appearance wonderfully. Cattlemen in Grant county are finding and collecting their herds for the winter. Hay is scarce in that county this winter, and the Long Creek Eagle predicts that many a hoof will be turned heavenward before spring. Several stockmen will take their hands to outside sections, where feed is cheaper and more plentiful. Some will drive to Morrow and some to Umatilla county. From Friday's Daily. L. Rice, of Eight-Mile, is in the city. C. P. Balch, the Dufur druggist, is in the city. The weather bureau predicts fair weather today. Mr. A. J. Swift and wife, of Wamic, are in the city today. The stock yards shipped one carload of hogs to Troutdale today. James Donaldson and son, prominent farmers of Kingsley, are in the city. Remember the Trades' Carnival will be held in the Dalles on November 22 and 23. B. A. Hunsaker, the popular East End grocer, returned from Portland yesterday. The young people of Dufur have organized a dancing club and will give socials every Tuesday evening during the winter. This was the warmest day of the month, the mercury registering 70 degrees at noon. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnes arrived last night from Sprague and will locate permanently in this county. Messrs. J. A. Gullford, Charles Stoughton, John Nosen and R. Palmer, of Dufur, are in the city today. This morning the Registrar took 500 sacks of wheat and 20 head of horses from this place, and was to load a band of wild cattle at Sprague on the way down. Messrs. Thomas Bolton and William Hendricks, of Dufur, are reported to be quite sick. The former is afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism and the latter with liver troubles. Mr. A. H. Brayman arrived by the Princeton stage last evening from Hay Creek, where he had been looking after his land and stock interests. He left by the afternoon train for Portland. W. A. Mahara's genuine darkey troupe gave an entertainment on Saturday evening. The colored quartet assisted in the M. E. Choir on Sunday evening and sang with all the enthusiasm of their race—Mexico, Mo. Advocate. The east end does not present the lively appearance that it did a few weeks ago during the wheat hauling season. Then it was no uncommon occurrence to see from twenty to thirty teams unloading wheat at the warehouses. Now the receipts of wheat are limited to a few loads each day. Some fifty of the business houses of The Dalles have signified their intention to be represented at the Trades' carnival on the evening of the 22 and 23. An excellent program is being arranged for each evening, and this entertainment which is something novel for the Dalles, promises to be a success. The case of J. L. Story vs. Joseph Southworth was tried this forenoon before a jury composed of D. Creighton, Peter Moore, D. S. Kinsey, H. Mahara, Peter Ritchie, John End, G. W. Rice, Henry Frege, W. H. Jones, Joseph Easley, J. M. Filloon and J. R. Cunningham. N. H. Gates appearing for the plaintiff and Sinnott & Sinnott for the defendant. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $80. The Shakers have made a discovery which is destined to accomplish much good. Realizing that three-fourths of all our suffering arise from stomach troubles, that the country is literally filled with people who cannot eat and digest food, without subsequently suffering pain and distress, and that many are starving, wasting to mere skeletons, because their food does them no good, they have devoted much study and thought to the subject, and the result is this discovery, of their Digestive Cordial. A little book can be obtained from your druggist that will point out the way of relief at once. An investigation of the food we eat, and what it will result in much good. THE STATE INSURANCE COMPANY When It Was Organized and What It Has Been Doing. The State Insurance Company of Salem, which suspended operations yesterday, was the pioneer local insurance company of Oregon and was organized in 1833. Its chief promoter was Mr. Harvey W. Cottle, a former Iowa man, who had been engaged in the insurance business for a short time in The Dalles. Going to Salem, he enlisted in a fire insurance project the interest and capital of a number of prominent citizens, among them Major George Williams, Dr. L. L. Rowland, Superintendent of Public Instruction E. B. McElroy, and others, whose names gave the organization no little prestige throughout the state. Its capital stock at the beginning was only $50,000, of which, it is said, only a fraction was at first paid in. Mr. Cottle was made manager of the company, and conducted its affairs for a number of years, with great energy and no small measure of success. The policy of the company at first was to take few or no business risks, but to confine its operations wholly to residences, farm property, and isolated structures. In this way, of course, the chances of heavy loss by a destructive conflagration were greatly reduced. The plan was accorded a high degree of success, and it was afterward broadened into the assumption of selected business risks, and then into fire insurance generally. The company holds a great many risks all over the state, and what effect its failure will have upon the insured no one can tell. Insurance men of The Dalles inform us that the State was not carrying a great number of risks in the city, but throughout the county it was carrying a large amount of risks on farm property. Wants an Investigator. The general Dufur blacksmith, M. J. Anderson, who has been attending court during the week, is not a believer in ghosts or hobgoblins, but when he awoke at the Umatilla House this morning and found the his new 80 pants hanging from the night, changed into an old moth-eaten pair, superstitious ideas began flitting through his brain, and he was not certain whether he was in The Dalles or had suddenly been transported to some land where evil spirits dwell. After skimming around the house for a half hour he found the missing trousers done up in a neat package labeled "Found on the street this morning at 2 A. M." Mr. Anderson thinks seriously of having the grand jury investigate the ghost proposition, and ascertain whether it was he, the pants or the house that was haunted. Woodmen's Social. The regular monthly social of the Woodmen's lodge was held at Fraternity hall Tuesday evening. About 150 members and invited guests were present, and a most enjoyable evening is reported. The musical and literary programs were as follows: Solo, Mrs. E. Collins, duet Mrs. Bradberry and Mrs. Cassie, tableau "The Martyr at the Stake," represented by a man hammering a most refractory beef steak, recitation by Miss Morgan, solo by Miss Myrtle Mitchell, charade, the "New Barber Shop," by Messrs. Tom Stevens and C. L. Brown as chief actors, and by Mr. Henry Esping, recited by Mrs. Bradberry, and concluding with the tableau "The Bridal Scene," a large bride attached to a pole. After the literary exercises were concluded coffee and sandwiches were served, and the evening's social was concluded with dancing which lasted until midnight. Marvelous Results. From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the cure of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding a gripe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. THE GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION. Let Us All Observe Thanksgiving Day. Following is the Thanksgiving Day proclamation issued by Governor Lord Wednesday: "In acknowledgement of the manifold mercies vouchsafed by Almighty God to our state and people during the past year, and in accordance with the proclamation of the president of the United States, and in compliance with a time-honored custom, I, William P. Lord, governor of the state of Oregon, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, November 22, 1895, as Thanksgiving day. "Let us on that day abstain from our usual occupations, and in our homes and places of worship, offer praise and thanks to the giver of all good for many blessings conferred upon our people. Let us also devote to the enjoyment of hospitality, and the reunion of families, to the doing of charitable deeds and strengthening the bonds of friendship; to awakening sentiments of patriotism and respect for social order; to cultivating a high sense of duty and relieving the wants of the needy and distressed." Indian War Veterans. The Indian War Veterans will meet November 16th, at 1 P. M., at Walla Walla, Seattle, Spokane, Olympia, Wash., and at Portland, Hillsboro, McMinnville, Salem, Corvallis, Eugene, Roseburg, Ashland, Jacksonville and The Dalles, Oregon. These various camps will memorialize Congress and urge the passage of a bill granting pensions to the Indian war veterans who served in defense of the North Pacific coast from 1847 to 1856, inclusive. Forty and fifty years have passed since the stirring times incident to frontier life and Indian domination, when a constant watch had to be maintained by the Indian and the white man, the torch and tomahawk. Congress has never granted pensions to volunteer Indian or Oregon soldiers, and the Indian war veterans in the soldiers' pension bill also. The School Children. Probably no prettier sight has ever graced the eyes of the citizens of The Dalles than that of a body of school children as they marched from the High School buildings to the Army, where the flag presentation exercises were held. Some 700 students of all ages, from the little five-year-old preppers to the young men and women in the company of the High school, formed a grand procession and marched in perfect order to the Army, exhibiting such decorum as to convince all that they are indeed under excellent tutorage in discipline. Arriving at the Army in the afternoon, the children were given a special luncheon, and their issue was carried out in full, but owing to the early hour at which we go to press, further mention cannot be given until tomorrow. The First of Course. Much credit is due the Ladies Aid Society of The Dalles for the efforts they are putting forth to create an interest in literature and a more extended dissemination of knowledge of current events, by establishing a course of lectures for the winter, and securing the services of the best of the speakers in the state. The first of this course of lectures will be given next Tuesday evening, Nov. 19. On that date Hon. Thomas N. Strong will discuss the subject, "Municipal Reform." The reputation Mr. Strong has as an able lecturer, and the fact that he is a native of this county, are sufficient guarantees, that his lecture on this occasion will be full of interest and instructive to everyone. Increase in Taxable Property. Although 1895 has been considered a year of general depression and shrinkage of values, a check on the assessment roll on the assessment rolls of Wasco county for the years 1894 and 1895 show the opposite to have been the case in this county at least. In 1894 the total taxable property in Wasco county was $2,960,151, while this year the total is $3,329,289, an increase of $369,138. This increase, however, is largely due to there having been a greater amount of land assessed this year than ever before. Electric Bitters. Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid or exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the food of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and dangerous bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store. Don't be Backward. THE TIMES-MOUNTAINEER is desirous of securing an account of all events of interest both in the city and surrounding country, but it is impossible for a reporter to be present at all places at all times, hence many events are overlooked; therefore we would request that when you know of an important event, a social party, marriage, birth or death, or have a friend visiting you from abroad, you do us the kindness to call our attention to the fact. SHOEING HORSES. Official Directions as to How It Should Be Done. The United States Army regulations give the following directions for shoeing horses: "In preparing the horse's foot for the shoe do not touch with the knife the frog, sole or bars. In removing surplus growth of that part of the foot which is the seat of the shoe, use the cutting pincers and rasp, and not the knife. The shoeing knife may be used, if necessary, in using the top clip. Opening the heels or making a cut in the angle of the wall at the heel must not be allowed. The rasp may be used upon the part of the foot when necessary, and the same applies to the pegs. No cutting with the knife is permitted; the rasp alone is necessary. Flat-footed horses should be treated as the necessity of each case may require. In forging the shoe to fit the foot be careful that the shoe is fitted to and follows the circumference of the foot clear around to the heels, the heel of the shoe should not be extended back straight and outside of the walls at the heels of the horse's foot, as is frequently done. Care must be used that the shoe is not fitted too small, the outside surface of the wall being then rasped down to make the foot short to suit the shoe, as often happens. The hot shoe must not be applied to the horse's foot under any circumstances. Make the upper or foot surface of the shoe perfectly flat so as to give it a level bearing. A shoe with a concave ground surface should be used." CIRCUIT COURT. The following proceedings were had in the circuit court Wednesday: Z. F. Moody vs. W. D. Richards; answer to complaint filed. Anne Grant Frazer vs. Allen Grant; judgment for want of answer. State vs. Grant Frazer vs. Allen Grant; default. State vs. Julius Roehrnach; demurrer to indictment overruled, plea of not guilty entered. J. L. Story vs. Alex. Strachan; motion to dismiss overruled. A. M. Williams & Co. vs. Annie Urquhart and A. Urquhart; dismissed on motion of plaintiff. FLORENCE I. H. GLENN vs. J. D. GLENN; referred to D. Roberts to take and report on testimony. State vs. H. F. Jackson, a true bill, demurrer to indictment overruled, plea of not guilty entered. State vs. Walter Carlisle, dismissed on motion of district attorney. The proceedings in circuit court today were: Z. F. Moody vs. W. D. Richards; amended complaint filed. Florence I. H. Glenn vs. J. D. Glenn; decree of divorce and custody of minor child awarded plaintiff. Richard Palmer vs. Alex. Strachan; on trial. State vs. Morgan Taft and Lee Moorhouse; indictment, plea of not guilty. State vs. P. Mahfey, not a true bill. State vs. Bluford Douglass; plea of not guilty. State vs. Lee Moorhouse; plea of not guilty. State vs. H. F. Jackson; plea of not guilty. Letters Advertised. The following is the list of letters remaining in The Dalles postoffice uncalled for November 15, 1895. Persons calling for these letters will please give the date on which they were advertised: Holford, W. Berens, J. H. Kincaid, N. Klyner, Mrs. Sarah Lovell, Dave Lawson, Sohn, Loh, G. F. The enormous expenses they have incurred. Perhaps one of the most valuable summaries in the official statistics of labor is that which Carroll D. Wright has just published on the strikes of the last seven and a half years. The report shows that seventy per cent of all the strikes occurring during this period took place in the five states of Illinois, New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Ohio, which have about fifty per cent of the industries of the country and fifty six per cent of the capital invested in mechanical production. The number of men involved in these strikes is placed at 2,361,000, and the total loss from them reached $55,000,000 for the employees and $29,000,000 for the employers, exclusive of losses from lockouts, which aggregate about $18,000,000. If these enormous losses have done anything to teach both parties to such controversies the value of common sense and mutual forbearance the money is well invested. It is certainly time to learn that neither the strike nor the lockout is to be resorted to by sensible and fair-minded men as a method of ordinary business.—New York World. O. D. Taylor Heard From. Word has been received here that Rev. O. D. Taylor, proprietor of the Grand Dalles and other numerous schemes in this vicinity, has been held in bonds of $8000 at Saginaw, Mich., to answer to a charge of obtaining money under false pretences. The charge on which he is held rose out of certain transactions he had with parties in Michigan in connection with lands located in this vicinity. Our informant did not know at what date Mr. Taylor's case would be investigated for the Saginaw grand jury. After Cattle Thieves. Mrs. Bell Reed, of Sherman county, was in the city Tuesday in search of some feloniously-inclined individual, who had driven away from her premises eight head of cattle. She succeeded in tracking the cattle as far as Fifteen-mile, but at that point lost all trace of them. Mrs. Reed is a plucky, energetic woman, having ridden 40 miles on horseback yesterday, and it is almost a foregone conclusion that she will overhaul the party who swiped her cattle. Marvelous Results. From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I Remember these Directions for using Cottolene. For shortening never use more than two-thirds as much Cottolene as you would of lard. When frying with Cottolene always put it in a cold pan, heating it with the pan. Cottolene produces the best results when very hot, but as it reaches the cooking point much sooner than lard, care should be taken not to let it burn—when hot enough, it will delicately brown a bit of bread in half a minute. Follow these directions in using Cottolene and lard will never again be permitted in your kitchen or in your food. Genuine Cottolene is sold everywhere in tins with trade-marks. Cottolene is made only by THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY, St. Louis, Chicago, San Francisco, Portland, Oregon, New York. BORN. McNEIL—In this city, Nov. 12, to the wife of Robert McNeil, a son. DIED. BRADLEY—At Enderby, Nov. 13, 1895, Mrs. Bradley, aged about 38 years. Mrs. Bradley has been a resident of this county about 4 years and was highly respected by all who knew her. She leaves a husband and three children to mourn her sudden demise. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 11 o'clock from the Eight Mile school house. NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. Remember these Directions for using Cottolene. For shortening never use more than two-thirds as much Cottolene as you would of lard. When frying with Cottolene always put it in a cold pan, heating it with the pan. Cottolene produces the best results when very hot, but as it reaches the cooking point much sooner than lard, care should be taken not to let it burn—when hot enough, it will delicately brown a bit of bread in half a minute. Follow these directions in using Cottolene and lard will never again be permitted in your kitchen or in your food. Genuine Cottolene is sold everywhere in tins with trade-marks. Cottolene is made only by THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY, St. Louis, Chicago, San Francisco, Portland, Oregon, New York. BORN. McNEIL—In this city, Nov. 12, to the wife of Robert McNeil, a son. DIED. BRADLEY—At Enderby, Nov. 13, 1895, Mrs. Bradley, aged about 38 years. Mrs. Bradley has been a resident of this county about 4 years and was highly respected by all who knew her. She leaves a husband and three children to mourn her sudden demise. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 11 o'clock from the Eight Mile school house. NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.
